v /<

Wnhly Umanian

'>1 m.lSMED Wl IM V BV IML. j v, AMAN IM kL'SHINTI CO, VI.V . : WICH.

`{Mroi. Hl AM . HV »C M > XIAM ∏AZKi.I'KAS. tt ≪ ..v «wiisco) H, ●» AM «'<>'»'r..K lUte IldnijJim. 1.11 8>>> M «'• H 1'.STR'»l.

:{bn wiprioN:

< oii it11 Via1 - ()nk Doi.iam</pre> SiN(il 1 COI'll klM. (.IMS I'HHIFIV1*1 ilMJiK-4>tOlllp4fllC'l 1*> *ili| n» wi*r. o* n« \« , 'ir»»»

J-ni«' "tcf second U"<* Matter Sept. -I. i-jor Ait of linn Midi.

A lv< rtisinn ' ites on Application

A I S' A H > • • | < i > I* H K S M

\ r\|(|\|) A MORA!

It o hapi id that one balmy afternoon or t b» antiful Indian summer, tl.m wollege students were spied st I'ing leisurely down the leafy strt tol a quaint college town. Ihe\ a iIked in silence. Bach was 'wsy with his own thoughts am lobserved only those things wliic i 'eemed especially attractive ta him. Ihe leaves rustleil aboi.t their feet as they walked and it nee at their countenances sh- w - lat each w as lost in medit iti(i. As thes passed into the bus1 t-.vn the noise and commotion eemed to awaken them from their i \erie. • slight smile played ain 1 the lips of one as he femarked, I sny fellows that > peculiar no v s'nt it? Walking all this distant * »nd nai v > word be twten us lus{ tor Inn now, what Were we \ .iking about? I'll tell j{ you '1 "Agreed," said one. "S --as v\ all of us," added the oihei. "V tM then, " continued the first, "I ar v riling an oration and tell to thi iing about it. I saw niyselt wi h f*college contest, then the stall - 'was i'ist taking the tram tor i e inter state when we arrived h re." "tiooil, mi iKeit. '•N tw \o .'s. m\ 111end." Mom the f,rst spe. a-f. *'M< 'well il I must till," vI. ! he other hesitatingly, 1 tittered u ith m iiui cript. \ io-s tile top % the desk was a row ≪t ten vok • ns all bound alike and pacli In irtng the inscription ot a learned c • rk, with my name plain $N .! < \cdot' \gg , u$ the bottom." "And you n ber three, a penny toi \ouis.' N.imnti three replied with a mgh and a sh glance at tin la t speaker. "I was liist v. Midi • ig how much boilei plate w-.i.ld used in the next Van intan.ha ba."

t in thrust the color mounted hot m lie lace of the one, as he replita with time sarcasm. "H"!

ti-x t*vrn so. Allow me to inform you. kind sir. that the 'amount ot boiler plate to be used in the next Almanian' will vary indirectly as to the quantity of material which you, as a student, you as a class reporter, you is one as responsible for the success or failure of the paper as I. see lit to contribute." p *V X AMI'-'W :,1, « • ATIII Irll. ll.lTOX hos't find it hard to tumble, gentle

A WEEK OE PRAYER.

Next week will be observed as the week of prayer in all colleges, Clot!iin(| mitl Furnishinfls lor the work of the M. C. A. in all of its departments over all the world. Half hour prayer meetings will be hekl every morning begin ing at six thirty; rhis week of prayer has been observed tor years among the colleges and has result- Art ed in great things lor the V. M. C. A. Iurn out and make them popular.

AN APPEAL

You folks who are not on the staff, flunk this is joke, may-hap fo make "this paper" fit for press, But really it's no snap; Of course you 're always very quick fo buy our publication. But as for writing things your-You have no inclination. Now wake up Ereshmen. ditto Sophs, We need yom help you know. Ni juniors, you, and Seniors tuo, Are really very slow. Your contribution needn't he \ masterly creation;

lust let us know you're >till alive

RY A SACK OF POPCORN

Matte by

"BILLY" MILLTR Next to Ellison's.

Have You

TriGCl

any ol th.it delicious

College Styles COLD HAM

FOR

College Men

M8, liman's M. "at Market?

AT MESSINGER'S

Al 11 M

HORN'S Studio Wright bouse Barber Shop

New Managenent l-.veiything up-to-1 ite FRED ROGERS. Prop'r.

WHI N Y()t WANT TO C.IYH A SI'RHAI) CAI.L AT

buedler's GROCERY

BORROWED JINGLES.

CAMPUS NOTES.

Well now mahy we didn't "whoop it up" some while the "sini'erV were j>nnr. I yuess we "showed 'em."

Vhss /adit- Warkliam made i ll\ in^ visit to the , impus la>t Wed-nesday, arrivinj» on the six thirty Wednesday eveniiu: and lia\ nj; on the ten live Thursday morninu.

LOSES TO NOfiftLS,

Continued from list lutge.

more, then Alma lost the ball on a tumble, mi. Pleasant made 12 vards on a line back then Alma was penalized tor offside play. Mt. Pleasant rushed the ball over fui touchdown by McCarty but Stickles failed to kick goal. Alma k cks off to Mt. Pleasant who were downed almost in their tracks on a swell tackle by Cook. Alma got the ball on a fumble. Campbell