A DEBATE WITH M.A.C.

Arrangements are Practically Completed for a Dual Debate.

FIRST DEBATE APRIL 28

B. O. Withall of M. A. C. and A. H. Lindley Conferred Saturday—A Two Year Agreement.

Adelbert H. Lindley, representing the Alma College Debating League and Barton O. Withall, representing the M. A. C. Debating club had a conference here Saturday regarding the proposed M. A. C.-Alma debate which resulted in a final agreement for a duel debate between M.A.C. and Alma for two years. The agreement simply has to be ratified by the debating organizations of the two colleges to be put in force. In brief form the provisions of the agreement of general interest as taken from the constitution are as follows:

This organization shall be known as the M. A. C.-Alma Duel Debating League. The object of this organization shall be to encourage debating among the students of Alma and the Michigan Agricultural colleges.

Each college shall be represented by one team. Each team shall consist of three college students of undergraduate rank. In the year 1910-1911 Alma shall debate at M.A.C.; in the year 1911-12 M.A.C. shall debate at Alma.

The management of this debating league shall be vested in a board of control. The officers shall be two in number; viz., President and Secretary-Treasurer. In the year 1910-11 the president shall be named by Alma; the secretary-treasurer by M. A. C.; in 1911-12 the president by M.A.C., the secretary-treasurer by Alma. These two officers shall be the official representatives in all correspondence concerning the league. Meetings of the board of control shall be had at the call of the president.

The judges in each debate shall be three in number and no debate shall proceed unless three judges are present. These judges shall render their decision by a sealed ballot without consultation one with the other. The selection of judges shall be as follows: Two months before the date for debate the official representatives of each college shall mail to the representative of the other college the names of ten qualified persons. The representative receiving the list shall have fourteen days from the date of receipt in which to protest any name therein. If no protest is made the list will be deemed to stand. If protest is made the representative furnishing the list shall supply sufficient names to complete the original list of ten. All additions shall be subject to same protest and substitution as above. No more than two judges for any debate shall be selected from one list. No person shall be named as judge who shall at any time have had any connection with either college competing either as officer, teacher or student.

In the year 1910-11 M.A.C. shall propose the question for debate; in the year 1911-12 Alma shall exercise this power. The opposing team in each instance shall have the choice of sides. The question shall be proposed on or before the first of December.

The annual debate shall be held on the fourth Friday of April.

Each man participating in a debate shall be allowed a speech of ten minutes in length. Each side shall have one speech of seven minutes in length for rebuttal, the negative leading in rebuttal. The local team in each debate shall provide a time keeper. All further arrangements shall be provided for by the board of control.

The question for debate, as stated last week, is on government ownership and control of coal lands. The resolution reads, "Resolved: That the United States government should retain ownership and control of all coal deposits on land now owned or hereafter to be acquired." The question will be debated here on March 17 by two college teams the winning team to debate against M.A.C. at East Lansing on April 28. Robert Cook, one of the members of the negative college team has withdrawn and King, formerly alternate has taken his place.

DEFEATED BY MT. PLEASANT

We were handed a little surprise at Mt. Pleasant last Friday, when our basket ball team journeyed to that town. Yet not such a small package either—about this size, Mt. Pleasant 43 Alma 26. Everyone asks "What was the trouble?" It was right here; we were about 17 points short and Mt. Pleasant was long on a singular fellow by the name of Billings.

Now 17 points shy means that the Normals after their long losing streak, showed a complete reversal of form. For three quarters of the game our men were on even terms, but in the last few minutes a cloud bursted and Mt. Pleasant baskets dropped from everywhere.

That man Dickinson will rank high in the financial world if he can gather dollars as easily as he can baskets. Nine to his credit, and Ike Crawford, playing in guard position, got four more. Kefgen for Alma got seven, which was not so bad, had not his man conalled so many. Edgerton had to be replaced by Chapel on account of a previous injury to his back, while King took Von Thurn's place for a short time. But those terrible Normals kept right on shooting baskets.

The unique part of the whole comedy was this man Billings and his whistle. He called sixteen fouls on Alma at such surprising times, that Crawford, who seldom misses a foul, thought it a shame to take them, throwing only four.

To-morrow night Adrian will be here. It is the first inter-collegiate game for Alma. Adrian and Alma have played hard fast games for the last two years, with honors even.

The summary of the Normal game:
 Mt. Pleasant (43) Alma (26)
 Hoolihan 1 f Fraker
 Dickinson r f Hooper
 Ettinger c Edgerton
 Chapel

Crawford 1 g von Thurn
 King
 McCarty r g Kefgen

Referee, Billings; baskets from field, Dickinson 9, Crawford 5, Hoolihan 2, Ettinger 4, Kefgen 7, von Thurn 1, Hooper 3, Fraker 1. Foul, McCarty 4 out of 16; Fraker 2 out of 4.

Miss Lydia Ressigue of Middleton was a ong the teachers present at the Gratiot County Teachers' Institute.

Miss Robinson has been enjoying a visit from her sister.

This is examination week. Second semester begins next Tuesday, a week from tomorrow.

Harry Aldrich of Owosso spent Sunday in Alma.

DR. BRUSKE TAKES TRIP

Visits Large Number of Upper Peninsula Towns.

FINDS VERY GOOD SUPPORT

Spends Part of a Week in Northern Part of the State—Visits Higbee, Withey and Knowles Families.

President Bruske has returned from a ten days trip through the upper peninsula in the interest of the college and reports a very pleasant and profitable time. The churches visited were Sault Ste. Marie, Manistique, Escanaba, Menominee, Marquette, Ishpeming, Calumet and Houghton. At every place he found loyal friends of Alma who were eager to be of service to the college. In many places he found former students of the college succeeding in their various callings and all intensely interested in the success of Alma. On Sunday, Jan. 15 he spoke in the church at the "Soo" and there received the pledge of an annual scholarship from the church. During the week he visited the other churches mentioned, closing his itinerary with an address in the church at Houghton on the following Sunday.

At Marquette Dr. Bruske was entertained in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Higbee, parents of Mrs. Frank Hurst and Theo. Higbee a present student of the college. At Ishpeming he also had a pleasant visit with Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, the former one of Alma's former foot ball stars. The fact is, Dr. Bruske visited so many new and old friends that the entire Almanian could be given to the story and then it would not be complete.

The churches of Marquette and Manistique followed the example of the "Soo" church and each pledged an annual scholarship. The church at Calumet began a movement which will probably result in an endowed scholarship in honor of Rev. Daniel Stalker, pastor of the church. In all other communities visited there were promises of generous financial aid in which the amounts were not specified. The coming year there will be several new students from the "Soo" and probably from the other localities.

The President is highly pleased with the spirit of loyalty to the college as he found it on this visit. Lake Forest and Carrol Colleges have sent their presidents and agents into that territory, but the U. P. remains loyal to her own Michigan college.

MUSIC SUNDAY EVE

Sunday evening after lunch the girls and fellows were invite to the reception room to enjoy some music. Selections from several noted composers with unpronounceable names were given by the Misses Miller, Miss Amsbury, Miss Bielby, Miss Broderick, Mr. Walker and Miss Roberts. The short program was most enjoyable.

THE PONY

Ladies and gentlemen, we have here one of the seven wonders of college life, the pony. This innocent looking animal will help you cross a thousand bridges of despair that you never come to. This gentle brute will carry you over a molehill of difficulty every once in a while. He will on rare occasions help you get a passing grade, which saves you from a disgraceful flunk, or a mark above ninety, which entitles you to a thirty-dollar scholarship. And all the kindly brute demands for his services is that you toss your honor and honesty to the winds. Hide your self-respect somewhere and the pony will be your friend. He is indeed a pleasing steed.

Step right up and take a good look at him. His press agent says that he has assisted a great many shaky students, and, as you know, these same students have later on made successes of life. Besides, "he is too much of a joke to be taken seriously by anybody, teachers included." But you know that the students who have used him have succeeded later in life in spite of him and his principles and not because of them. You know, too, that apparent success is not always real success. You know that the little, bluffing, contemptible shyster wearing a sixty dollar business suit on a ten-dollar-a-week practice has that same sneaky feeling that he had when he first resorted to the equine method of transportation. You know that joke or no joke, what you do today makes you what you are tomorrow. Today honeycombed with trickery and dishonesty makes you a man of those qualities tomorrow. You know that the pony is a deceiver and that in the end it will all be a horse on you.

You don't pay your Almanian subscription to be preached to? All right, We don't care whether the horse market slumps or not, to tell the truth. The paragraphs preceding are expository. Their aim is to expose the pony. Cheat, if that is your nature.

YOUR MOTHER?

Bitter, bitter is the sorrow of the mother, who, giving her very life for her children, sees them wasting themselves in frivolity and selfishness. There are many young men and women who do not break the canons of society, who are regarded by the world as reputable persons, yet who are sinning in the many trivial things. They are so shallow, so frivolous, so selfish that they are incapable of high ideals, of lofty sentiment, or true devoted love. To them we cannot apply the black words we do to the wayward; but to them we may attribute some mother's deepest anguish.

The thought is that of Rev. H. L. Crain; our words do not do justice to it. A whole sermon is there. "Think on these things."

THE RIGHT IDEA

Miss Roberts, if it was she, struck the right idea whenever she took the notion of giving a short musical program in Wright hall Sunday evening after lunch. Here's hoping Sunday evenings in the future may be made as pleasant as last evening.

GEO. D. ALDEN LECTURES

Geo. D. Alden of "Maine, New-Hampshire and Vermont" lectured at the Realty Opera house Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Lecture Course association, this being the second number on the course. Judge Alden's lecture was on the "Needs of the Hour." His theme was personal honesty in commercial, political, domestic, and religious affairs. He showed how every one of us, "back in Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont," is as rascally, as much a grafter in little petty ways, as the big fellows of Wall street are in their bigger transactions. He treated the subject of business, politics and domestic life somewhat briefly and then showed how the soundness of all our ideas along these three lines depended almost exclusively upon our religious ideas. The primary need of the hour, in Judge Alden's estimation, is a truer practiced religion based upon the teachings of Jesus Christ as set forth in the Scriptures. Although the clever lecturer tried to disclaim any ability at oratory, his power as an orator was very evident. His whole lecture was brilliant with sparkling wit and it was not wit for its own sake or for its humor alone but with it was wisdom.

The next number of the lecture course is a lecture by Judge Ben Lindsey of Denver, Colorado, who is so famous for his juvenile court. This occurs February 22.

MISSION CLASSES

Two mission classes have been organized among the girls of Wright hall. Rev. H. L. Crain will conduct the advanced class which meets every Thursday, from five to six. Miss Weis will have charge of another class which will meet Sunday afternoons.

EUTERPE NOTES

The society is now the proud possessor of a fine new society table. All we want now is a room of our own to put it in.

The following program was rendered Monday evening, Jan. 22, '11:

Life of Hector Berlioz—Louise Peterson.

Biographical Notes and Reminiscences—Iva Amsbury.

Paper on Musical Current events—Margare. Bielby.

Following the program a very exciting spelling contest was held. The words used being names of well known musicians.

Dear Spider; Your editor is a hypocrite. How did he know that I was taking magazines from the library? He took some himself. Besides there is no time to read in the library. Why don't they keep the thing open nights? They won't have to waste much on lights.

ALUMNI NOTES

Elbridge Anderson who played left half back on two Alma teams, one of them the championship team of 1903, is now Head Master of Murfreesboro, N. C. Mr. Anderson has two men associated with him in the school which has an enrollment of more than ninety boys.

Fred Conklin, a freshman with the class of '07, is instructor in chemistry at Cornell University.

While Dr. Bruske was in Marquette he received a pleasant call from Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Withey. Mr. Withey is manager of a collection agency and is doing a thriving business. Mr. and Mrs. Withey are the parents of a bright eyed young son.

Rev. and Mrs. F. P. Knowles of Houghton who were at one time students of the college were visited by Dr. Bruske during his upper peninsula trip. They are proprietors of a happy home in which there are three fine children. Mr. Knowles is pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Houghton and is doing excellent work in his flourishing parish.

At a recent meeting in the Millard Ave. Presbyterian church of Chicago, Rev. A. J. Van Page '07, received sixty new members into his church.

At the last communion service of the Woodward Ave. church in Detroit, Rev. S. L. Divine received seventy new members, among whom were Paul H. Bruske '98 and Mrs. Bruske '00.

Miss Kate Taylor '08 is spending the winter in Venice, California. She will return to her home in Charlotte, Mich., in the spring.

L. W. Mills Jr., a student from '95 to '97, is proprietor of the Mason store of the Mills Dry Goods company.

Fred Fullerton '96, who is Michigan Superintendent of Agents for the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance company was in Lansing Friday while the basket ball team was waiting in the city on the way to M. A. C. One of the boys saw Fred's 250 pounds passing up the street and a general yell was sent up for the former professor to join the group. Of course at a time like this the old alumnus must always tell of things that happened during his day, and what Mr. Fullerton had to say of foot ball in its embryonic stages at Alma was interesting in the extreme. Fred said that one of the "stunts" they used to pull off on defense was for him to kneel in center's position while Jack Crane '99 who played quarter, would place one foot upon the middle of his back and then take a flying leap at the opposing quarter back just as he was receiving the ball. Fred use to play center and to look at him—six feet four and 250 pounds—excites in one only the feelings of deepest sympathy for the poor fellow who occupied the same position on the other team.

Miss Lois Fraker '09, one of Alma's most loyal supporters journeyed to M. A. C. January 21 to see the game with the farmers.

Several of Alma's former students, who are teaching in the schools of Gratiot county, attended the institute in the college chapel last week. Among them were Olive Smith, Harriet Farrell and Winnifred Trapp of Alma school; Lela Duff of St. Louis; Clark Hull of Sickles; Gladys Nelson and Edna Watson of thaca

PHILOMATHEAN

The following officers were elected by the Philomathean literary society Monday evening for the second semester:

 Vice President—Clara Hanel.

SCIENCE CLUB

At the meeting of the Science Club Saturday evening a very interesting paper was read by Mr. Claude Saterlee, the subject being "Electrons and the Electron Theory." A brief history of the subject was given showing how scientists have finally arrived at the present theory. The next meeting will be held in the Physical laboratory Feb. 9. Prof. Notestein will give a talk on the Ophida of the United States.

MEN'S SOCIETIES ADJOURN

Monday evening both of the men's societies adjourned after a short business meeting to the Methodist church where they heard Dr. A. E. Winship, who was lecturing in the city for the Gratiot County Teachers Association, deliver his address on "Rescuing Rascals."

FROM JOHN MAYOR

Dear Yonker: I certainly want to congratulate you on your work this year. The paper has been the best this year since the first year when we ran a five column paper. I was recently elected to the Comedy Club. We are soon to produce Winston Churchill's "Title-mart". It is a very clever little satire on American society. I may not take a part as I am very busy. Exams are only three weeks away, and then too I am working pretty faithfully on a spiel. It would be pretty nice to have an Almanian on the football team, one on the baseball team and one as varsity orator. But that last is well nigh impossible, as we have an abundance of good men this year.

Hope you had a very nice vacation. May the new year bring you prosperity and happiness. Best wishes to the Almanian and all the staff.

IMAGINARY MENAGERIES—

List! Hist! The press agent speaks: "Aside from the swipes' table, none in the dining room claims a more interesting assortment of animals than that of the 'second boss of the damnatory.' Mullenbach's Imaginary Menagerie is the most complete collection in confinement. The mess list is as follows in chronological order of their escape. McAllister, Water Carrier for the Baby Elephant; Miss Gilray, Baby Elephant; Miss McKilney, Parrot; Miss Mullenbach, Clown; Mr. Satterlee, Chantier; Miss Seaver, Manager; Miss Ball, Monkey. McAllister is ready for a more dignified position; but there is no new job ready for reddy. On account of this practice, he will be ready to carry water for the bats when baseball season opens. His non-de-pen is Elizabeth, not Lizzie. Great consternation there was in headquarters t'other day. The Baby Elephant wanted to sneeze but had left her trunk upstairs with the key locked in it. But the man hater, Miss Seaver, had the trunk brought down and unlocked it with the monkey. The chantier discoursed learnedly to himself on the efficacy of the fourth dimension and super-space while the parrot flirted with the water carrier. All this time the clown was amusing herself by berating the beefsteak roundly with a knife and kfork.

THREE FAREWELLS

The Froebel girls gave their last functions and the Philomathean society one last week. Last Monday evening the Froebel society had one last dance in the dining room. The program was given in honor of their president, Miss Lena Ward, who was suddenly called to her home in Laurium on account of illness in the family. During the dance Miss Robinson presented the girls with an "Alma Spoon" from the society. Between courses finger plays were given and enjoyed by not only the Froebels but by all the other tables.

Thursday afternoon, the Froebels gave a dance for the girls of the college in honor of Miss Jane McKinney, who will leave soon for her home in Tuscola, Illinois. Nearly every girl in the hall and many down town girls were present at this most enjoyable affair. At least there were only a very few girls in the dining room in time for dinner Thursday evening.

Friday evening the Philomathean society gave a dinner in the Philomathean room in honor of Miss Leonor Candelario, who will leave shortly for her home in Santa Fe, New Mexico.
