GIRLS OPEN HOUSE

All day Saturday, May 30, anyone in the vicinity of Wright Hall could see dust caps bobbing in and out of the doors and windows and hurrying to and fro, evidently in preparation for a great event. As the dark shadows began to gather on the campus an occasional group of boys could be seen mounting the castle steps and eagerly pressing forward to learn for the first time all the secrets of the "Veil of Mysteries." All were greeted in the reception room with pleasant nods and cheery smiles and soon after the clock in the tower struck eight, a parade was started through all the rooms. The marching line became smaller and smaller, however, until only two here and there could be seen in the corridors. When the luncheon bell sounded though, disorder reigned again until all had found retreat in the orchard. The orchard had been converted into an oriental garden with a stage in the center upon which a number of the girls recited by Prof. Veatch gave a queer drama from the life of a Japanese. It was very instructive and entertaining. Prof. Veatch having spent 200 years in that land of flowers is acquainted with the customs and the language and knows how to use his knowledge to entertain in a royal fashion.

After the play the committee served generous plates of ice cream and strawberries. At ten o'clock the gong struck and marked the end of the affair.

FRESH-SOPH PULL

"It is only a step from the sublime to the ridiculous." We just got our old stub pen wiped off after writing up the girls' open house and now we again dip it into our bottle of blue gravy to make public that dirty river affair that happened a week ago yesterday.

The Freshmen have lost every lower class contest of the year except the wallow that demands this burst of profa-wit.

Several hundred people gathered to see the event and tried the staying properties of the bridge. After about thirty seconds the first Sophomore hit the water and in another minute photographs had been recorded of the soaked wise ones on the opposite side of the river. This victory will tend to show the class of 1917 that perhaps they may amount to something in the future and we hope they come back next year in shape to educate the next addition to the college.

PHILOMATHEAN

Last Monday evening we held our last society meeting. The election of officers occupied first place after which an interesting program of impromptu work on current topics was given before visitors and one honorary member, Miss Haefliger. Because of our deep friendship and love for Miss Haefliger, we wished to give her something to take to her new home. A beautiful cut glass fern dish was our gift and with it we gave our best wishes for happiness.

President—Beulah Parr.
Vive President—Ruth Ellis.

RELAY VICTORY DECIDES MEET

The twenty-seventh annual field and track meet of the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association was held on Winter-Lan field, Albion, Michigan, on Friday and Saturday, June 5 and 6, 1914. Friday morning Olivet and Kalamazoo fought out the preliminary baseball game in which Olivet won 8-0. Friday afternoon the track preliminaries and the Alma-Albion ball game were pulled off. Saturday in the forenoon the track finals were pulled off and in the afternoon the pennant ball game between Albion and Olivet was played when Olivet was to a score of 5-1, and Albion coped the pennant for 1914. Alma's defeat did not lower her standings enough to cause her to lose first place in the cup race and so the Maroon and Cream manager carried the cup back to the Alma campus.

M. I. A. A. TRACK

Alma's hopes were high all during the 27th annual M. I. A. A. track meet last Friday and Saturday, but were blasted when Kalamazoo took first in the relay. Besides the relay the Alma team was in the lead and was second in the entire meet. With Kalamazoo, Hillsdale and Alma all within three points of each other, this meet was pronounced the best in the history of M. I. A. A. Fully 1,500 people were in attendance at the meet and final ball game on Saturday.

A. Walker, of Kalamazoo, was the individual star of the meet taking four of the six firsts for his team. He took first in the high jump and all three of the dashes.

The Maroon and Cream came away with only two firsts but still had 34 points making her second in the meet. Sidney Cook took first in the mile and Harry Schultz took first in the 220 hurdles. Harry Jackson who was expected to take the high jump failed to carry over in the meet but still held his record in the try-out for the medal. Ralph Chisholm, last year's star in the dashes, was unexpectedly outclassed by Walker but came across with two firsts and a second. Mark Spinney and Root, McAllister, both won "A's" for the first time in track for Alma. Spinney tied for first in pole vault and McAllister took third in the mile.

Hillsdale took first in the half mile and the shot put and netted 31½ points. Olivet scored 22 points and Albion only 18. Adrian did not enter a track team.

More records were broken at this meet than any time for several years. Field raised his running broad record for the third time to 22 feet and 5 inches. Rider raised the discus from 116 feet, 9 inches to 117 feet, 10 inches. Tarbell put the shot to 40 feet, 47 inches bettering the old record by over a foot. Preston with the first throw in the javelin set a new record at 156 feet, 10¾ inches, raising it by over 12 feet. A. Walker made the 100 yards dash in 9 4-5 seconds but on measuring the track it was found to be one foot short. Floyd Bartel, U. of M., officiated.

KALAMAZOO-OLIVET

The opening game in the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association baseball championship, resulted in an easy win for Olivet over Kalamazoo by a score of 8 to 0.

Loomis for Olivet threw airtight ball, giving Kalamazoo only three scattered singles and fanning 13. Conrad, Kalamazoo's overworked twirler, pitched a fair game and with better support would have held down the score.

Springer, for Olivet, was the star hitter with a single and a triple in four times up.

ALBION-ALMA

The Albion sluggers found McCloy for seven hits in the first two innings of Friday afternoon's game. It is not known whether Albion's sly system of signaling made any difference or not but the local fans never saw it like that before with "Baldy." The students all felt worse than the captain did when he was taken out but Johnston held them to four hits in the remaining innings. The Methodists got their eight runs in the first two innings and did not get another smell. Alma kept running in an occasional score or two but did not get more than six before the ninth closed. In the eighth Alma had two men on bases and Wood hit a triple and yet no runs were scored. The coach at third held a man there until a runner passed him then the said runner was caught out at the plate. The third out was an assist from second after the pitcher fumbled it.

 A STUDENT PUBLICATION

PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY THE ALMANIAN PUBLISHING CO.
 ALMA, MICH.

LEON D. GRAY, '14 Managing Editor
 T. ARNOLD ROBINSON, '18 Business Manager

Entered as Second Class Matter, Sept. 24, 1907
 Act of 1879, Alma, Mich.

In this, the last number of the Almanian for this school year and the last number under the present management, we wish to thank all who have contributed from time to time in making our sheet a success. We fully appreciate the work of the few who have thus helped us and we beg the same support from more of the students for next year's management. As we have said before and always will say, the Almanian will represent the true Alma spirit only when Alma students all take an active interest in the publication, not from the standpoint of the critic but from the standpoint of a partner in the firm.

DRAMATIC RECITAL

Competent critics pronounced the dramatic recital under the direction of Miss E. Henrietta Bjoin last week Tuesday, one of the best that has ever been held in the Alma College chapel. The recital consisted of two scenes from Shakespeare and a one act comedy. The first was the second scene in the first act of "A Midsummer Night's Dream" in which Misses Carol Gray and Alice Kennedy, as Peter Quince and Nick Bottom, did exceptionally fine work.

The second was the first scene of act five of "As You Like It." Miss Jane Stewart Green playing the part of Touchstone, the fool, did it in true Elizabethan style.

Miss Bonnie Fuller appeared as a Spanish dancing girl in a song and solo dance with castanets. Her performance was very artistic and was much enjoyed by all. Her enchose was the Irish Lilt.

The comedy was "Ici on Parle Francais" by J. T. Williams. William Searl, the young "Judge" from Ithaca, as Victor Dubois, played the part of the young Frenchman as a Frenchman should. Wilhelmine Ritter was the heart of aristocracy as Mrs. Spriggins.

Some of the sophomores and others came prepared to give the usual freshmen-x reception but the excellent program gave no opportunity for alarm clock work. It all went off like clock work. The whole affair was a credit to Miss Bjoin, whose interpretation of Shakespeare is not as that of a person who had studied it but as one who had written it.

A DIFFERENT PLAN

Professor West has been trying a little experiment with one of the classes in General Chemistry in the method of conducting the final examination. The different divisions of the subject are weighted after the manner of the Civil Service Examinations and consist of both oral and written exercises. The following will serve as an illustration:

History	05 weights
Theoretical	25 weights
Laboratory	25 weights
Elements, properties and uses, etc.	30 weights

Library reference work....	10 weights
Class reports	05 weights

100 weights
 In the library reference work, students were assigned different topics, these topics were printed on slips and the students allowed to make two drawings, the first calling for a report from some book in the library upon the topic, the report to contain at least 200 words and the second slip for a like report from some current magazine for a certain month and year. Neither the name of the book nor magazines being given but the time required to make the report being recorded and the object being to test the student's familiarity with the location of scientific books and magazines and his ability to make proper use of his time in the library.

MRS. EWING ENTERTAINS

Mrs. J. T. Ewing entertained at a six o'clock dinner on Thursday in honor of Miss Haefliger.

Places were laid for nine. The table was charmingly decorated with yellow snap-dragons and candles, yellow and green being the color scheme.

Perhaps the most exciting moment was when the bride-elect, Miss Haefliger, cut the wedding cake and each guest hoped that the lucky piece might fall to her lot. Eight were doomed to disappointment.

Those having bills against the Athletic association present them at once to Oscar Amberson.

STUDENTS—Anyone wishing their Almanians for the year bound into book form may have same for 50c per set. Bring them in immediately after last issue. Will also have four complete books of the Almanian for the past year, nicely bound for sale at $1.25 per book.

ALBION-OLIVET

Albion, Mich., June 6.—(W.A.) the exception of a bad peg to first in the last inning, Weigeman would have handed Olivet a shutout in the final championship game. As it was Olivet was humbled by the score of 5 to 1, the veteran Weigeman having been at his mercy in his last college game. The Congregationalists were unable to solve him for but four bingles, none of which earned the run. Loomis and Loomis were hit hard when his men at runs.

Albion solved Loomis in the second when we played him by Blanchard and Luce. Blanchard. In the third they pulled the same stunt against Loomis, who was in bad shape due to hurting his arm against Kalamazoo on Friday. An error by Springer allowed Young to reach first, Luce and Blanchard coming to the rescue each with doubles that netted a pair of tallies. Again in the fifth well placed hits by Crosthwaite, Blanchard and Reed scored Young and Blanchard.

Olivet's lone tally came in the ninth with two out, French hit safe, an error by Prall allowed him to reach third and on an overthrow to first of a dropped third strike by Reed, French was allowed to score. French starred for the visitors, making three of their four hits. Luce and Blanchard were the stars for the Methodists, Luce getting two singles and a double out of three trips to the plate and Blanchard the same in four times up.

TENNIS FINALS

Lancaster and Knapp, who were on Alma's campus two weeks ago to spoil the chances of Cole and Higbee on the gold medal, easily took first from Hillsdale in two sets, 6-1 and 6-3. This won the gold medals for Olivet. Alma held Olivet two weeks ago to a three set match so thus the Alma men get the silver medals.

Ruth Cook took second for Alma, losing to Miss Wight, of Kalamazoo, 6-1 and 6-2. Alma girls lost the double match in three sets after needing at one time but one point to win the match and that point was a close decision. Ruth Cook won the silver medal in the singles.

SOPHOMORE KINDERGARTEN

Thursday evening at 6 p. m. the sophomore kindergarten girls were very pleasantly entertained at a buffet luncheon at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Blaisdell.

After the delightfully pleasant repast, the girls gathered into the parlors, and were entertained with some of Dr. Blaisdell's splendid Victrola records, after which interesting games in guessing and writing limericks were participated in.

Such pleasant affairs make the girls wish they were not leaving Alma College so soon.—B. W.

A week Monday the regular second semester election of officers for the Froebel Society took place and the following were elected:

President—Jane Stewart Green.
 Vice President—Gladys Kelley.
 Secretary—Frida Voltz.
 Treasurer—Ruth Browning.
 Pianist—Irene Warner.

After the election there were speeches by the retiring president, Bertha Williams, and the president-elect, after which the society together with Misses Ward and Robinson went down town for the treats.

MAJORITY TEACH

Most of the Seniors have work for next year, most of them teaching. Bertha Hubble and Emily Beach will teach in Holland high school; Ruth Cook teaches in the high school at Crosswell; Merle Seaver at Royal Oak in the high school; Carol Gray at Breckenridge in high school; Archie Maybee and Walter Vogt in the Charlevoix high school; Vern Rogers in the Hastings high school; Leon Gray in the Benzonia Academy at Beulah; and Roy Phillips in the Traverse City high school. Faith Welton will take graduate work at the University of Michigan. Milo Hogan will attend the Auburn Theological Seminary in New York. Theodore Higbee, Fred Johnson, Carroll Hyde, Celia Creaser and Alice Kennedy are as yet undecided.

MEMORIAL

Some months ago a movement was started among those members of the Froebel Society, who were in college during the years of Jane McKinney, to place a picture in the kindergarten room in memory of her.

The "Five Senses," by Jessie Wilcox Smith, was chosen as being a fitting expression of the child-like charm and beauty of spirit which was typified in Jane McKinney. It is a source of pleasure to everyone who sees it—and especially to those who remember.

Professor and Mrs. West entertained a party of students at a six o'clock dinner on Tuesday evening.
