Y. M. AND Y. W. C. A. RECEPTION

VESPER SERVICE

As is the custom the first Sunday afternoon service of the year was a union vesper service held in the College Chapel. The attendance was the largest that has ever been seen at such a meeting in Alma.

The meeting was led by Mr. Haisdell who took for his subject "Ideals" and his text, the eighth verse of the fourth chapter of Philippians. Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are honorable, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

Also the eighth verse of the sixth chapter of Malachi. Among the illustrations used was an incident in tin I, IV of His. ark. While still a student in the most people, were awarded. Miss Norma Wright carried off the Freshman prize for old students, while Miss Conyne was the lucky one among the faculty members. The prizes were beautiful flowers grown in the Doctor's own garden.

Following the customary procedure, violated only once during the history of Alma College and that once last year, the Freshmen defeated the little hut vaunted hand of Sophomores who gathered about their flag, last Wednesday morning at three o'clock.

On the evening before the mighty clash, the brainy Sophs, aided by the wiles of woman, tricked the president of the verdant ones into paying a visit to a certain residence on West Superior street, where he was waylaid. Then hustled into a waiting where he was forced to spend the

"FRESHIES" WIN ANNUAL RUSH

A NEW COURSE

The Alma College Conservatory of Music has secured the services of Miss Marie Hiker, of Parkersburg, W. Va., to establish, and to take charge of an entirely new branch of work here. This department is to be for the special training of teachers of music and drawing. The course requires two years of preparation, after which period of study the student is qualified to teach.

The director of the Conservatory assures the editors that there is a big demand for teachers of this sort, and that positions can undoubtedly be secured for all who enter into this particular work. Heretofore, there should be a large number to enroll, and the new venture should prove exceedingly successful.

OPEN SEASON WITH VICTORY

Bay City Eastern high school's football eleven assisted in the initiation services of the 11th season at the College For Character Saturday afternoon and in their assisting were beaten by the score of 14 to 0. A well played game. An honest-to-goodness scrub team was sent in at the opening of hostilities and during the first quarter which measured their tenure of service as a bona fide team they held the visiting prep, school boys well in hand and at the call of time for the quarter the ball was resting in the shade of the visitors' goal.

Ludwig kicked off to the east goal, after a series of short gains, Bay City's offense was menacing the Alum goal. However, at this point a certain Freshman, lessup by name, caught a pass and threw a long pass to the east goal.

Miss Hiker comes to us peculiarly fitted for her work, having pursued studies in her chosen line of endeavor at the following schools:

1. Ohio Wesleyan University. 1 year.

2. Oberlin Conservatory of Music. 3 years.

3. Private Study in Paris. 1 year.

A STUDENT PUBLICATION

PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY THE ALMANIAN PUBLISHING CO.
ALMA, MICH.

T. Arnold Robinson, '16, Editor and Bus. Mgr.
Harry W. Staver, '17, Editor and Bus. Mgr.

Entered as Second Class Matter, Sept. 21, 1907
Act of 1879, Alma, Mich.

Just inside the main entrance to the "AD" building there is a box marked "Items." It is in a convenient spot. It is there to serve a purpose. It was installed, primarily, to be used. It is the "Almanian" contribution box. The "Almanian" is the College Weekly. It is published by the editors elected by the student subscribers—thus indirectly it is published by the whole student body. It is the student's paper.

This year the editors have seen fit to enlarge the publication to nearly twice its former size. We feel that an enlarged paper means a better paper, and we also feel certain that all agree with us. This increase, of necessity, requires an increase of material. As above mentioned, we want this year's "Almanian" to be what it truly is—a student's publication. Thus far it has not been so. True, a few who have been specially asked have contributed articles, but the great majority stand aside offering nothing of their talent in the way of contributions. Yet, let the news items fall a little below par, and a flood of criticism fills the air.

Students—and Alumni,—also, you can make this, and every successive year, a banner year. You can make our College "Almanian" just the paper you want it to be. How can you do this? Take just a few moments of your spare time—write us an interesting, short story—send us a few spicy jokes—keep your eyes and ears open for campus happenings—send everything—and anything in the way of publishable material. What will this mean? It will mean that the editors will have an abundance of material from which to choose the best. Thus you will get the cream of copy—you will get a paper that will be "newsy"—it will be your own paper because you had a share in its making.

We feel that students who have fully realized that a splendid work is their duty. Hence we have taken responsibility—at the very beginning of the term—to set all clear. We may have a capricious minute publication if you do not co-operate—Are YOU your share?

It has been many years we have had a good old "Scrub-Barbarian" game; not that we haven't wanted one but because there has not been material enough for a good "Barbarian" team. This fall things are different. There are enough fellows in school this year to enable the getting together of a presentable "Barb" team, and the Staff believes that the old fray should once more be placed on the list of fall events. Perhaps this year if we have a game between these "historic rivals," a small admission fee could be charged and the money be turned over to the Y. W. or Y. M. C. A., or possibly to the Oratorical or Athletic Fund. Talk it up.

The fellows in Pioneer Hall and from down town seem to forget that they are only supposed to take one Almanian when the latter are left in the Y. M. C. A. room. This week over one hundred Almanians were taken that should have been mailed to Alumni. We have just enough Almanians printed each week to supply our mailing list and you can readily see that when a hundred of them are taken some of the Alumni must be content to go without. This isn't fair to yourself or to the Alumni. If you want extra Almanians ask someone on the staff and you will get them.

The staff wishes to apologize for the late date at which the "Almanian" was mailed. It was due, in explanation, to a delay in the printing, and a mix-up in the mailing list. We sincerely trust that no such inconvenience will occur in the future.

Olivet vs. Alma—Homecoming—November 14th. Don't forget the date, for we want you back for the big game.

LOCAL ITEMS

Bertha Williams and Bope Butler, of Bad Axe, returned to school last week.

Chapel seats were assigned Tuesday and they didn't charge for them.

W. L. Ireland, of Grand Ledge, a former Alma student, is helping Coach Bleamaster round the football team in shape for the Notre Dame game. Mr. Ireland just returned from the Wolverine training camp at Ann Arbor, and brought along some good plays and formations for the Maroon and Cream.

Henry R. Pattengill, of Lansing, spoke in chapel for a few minutes Wednesday morning. "Pat" told us considerable we never knew about the geography and history of Michigan, and kept things going every minute with his irrepressible wit. Mr. Pattengill is the Bull Moose candidate for Governor in this state.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. Notestine gave a reception at her home in compliment to the lady members of the faculty of Alma College. The advisory board, the lady teachers and about ten Alma lady patrons of the College were present and entertainment was furnished from four to six o'clock. Refreshments of sherbet and cake were served. The purpose of the occasion was to introduce the new teachers and for all to get acquainted. Among those present from the city were Mrs. Francis King, the Misses Swigart, Mrs. Ezra Smith, the Misses King, and Miss Sharp.

Ward Hodge spent a very pleasant evening in Mt. Pleasant the night before the rush.

George Doyle, of Marlette, will act in the capacity of trainer for the football team for the remainder of the year.

Art Siminton received a bag of apples from home Saturday. Everybody up to room 13 and have one.

Miss Cotey, of Mt. Pleasant, spent the week-end at Wright Hall with her sister, Erma.

Rex Van Duzen spent the week-end at Pioneer Hall.

"Eph" Johnson visited on the campus over Sunday.

We are indebted to Sidney Cook, Addison Wilson, Homer Dunham and Albert Esch for articles appearing in this issue.

Those who pay their subscriptions during the year were: E. Stafford, Robert Craig, Beatrice Friedman, Ed. Johnson and J. S. Nelson.

Sandy, October 10, was on the campus with the Mt. Pleasant High School football team.

The new building being put up on the campus by the Administration.

Post Zavel spent the week end in Saginaw.

Hazel Crosby of Merrill visited at Wright Hall over Saturday.

Little "Van" nearly lost his girl at the opening reception.

ATHLETIC ASS'N MEETING

The Annual Athletic Association meeting was called to order Monday noon by chairman McCloy. Sidney Cook was appointed secretary.

Mr. Oscar Anderson, who managed all the Athletic teams in such a fine manner last year, was again chosen to manage the college teams for another year. The choice of Mr. Anderson was a wise one, and one that the students will not regret. "Jake" surely is deserving of the honor bestowed upon him.

The meeting was left open to discussion as to whether Alma should have a representative basket ball team this year or not. Remarks were made by Coach Bleamaster and Sidney Cook in favor of the indoor sport. The general sentiment of the student body seems to be for basket ball.

Following are the results of the election: Student manager, Oscar Anderson '16. Athletic Association officers: President, Arthur Simenton '15, Vice President, Steve Nesbit, '16, M. I. A. A. Student Director, Bryson McCloy, '15, Faculty Director, Prof. James E. Mitchell. Members of the Board of Control of Athletics are: Prof. James E. Mitchell, Dr. Geo. B. Randels, Oscar Anderson '16, Arthur Simenton '15, Bryson McCloy '15 and Steve Nesbit '16.

Wood trickled through the guard and tackle for the third touchdown.

Alma had advanced the ball fifty yards and Wood had put his scowl in place preparatory to another touchdown when half time was called with the score 18 to 0.

After the kickoff at the opening of the second half, Steggall, Spinney and Wood made fifty-five yards in five downs, the second named going over into football heaven for the touchdown. The quarterback was mainly responsible for the next touchdown as he made several long gains and finally crossed the line, cap in hand, ready to bonjour to the scorekeeper.

Two beautiful forward passes featured the next five minutes' play which was required to bring about another touchdown. From the fifty the goal line in a circuitous canter, which involved the disappointing of five would-be tacklers. Hyde received a long forward pass for a twenty yard gain and Fitch skipped past the opposing end for twenty more. Spinney ran thirty yards for the last touchdown, following a route that would make a futurist's conception look like a rank fake. Fitch kicked goal as he did after the previous six-strand score, bringing the final count to 44 to 0.

The team played well together and though up against one of the best high school elevens in the state, they showed a fine brand of football. French and Chapel, as tackles, and Austin at guard were the backbone of the defense.

Choral Union Meets.

The initial meeting of the Alma Choral Union was held in the College chapel Tuesday evening, Sept. 22nd. A splendid attendance for the first meeting was evident, those attending numbering perhaps thirty, or thirty-five. For the benefit of those unfamiliar with the work of the Union, it might be said that the work consists in rehearsing dramas, oratorios, operas, and other musical numbers which in due time will be presented to the public. This year it is the aim of Prof. Veatch, Director of the Union, and Director of the Alma College Conservatory of Music, to give the "Messiah" some time during the holiday season. A little later in the spring, the May Festival will be held on which occasion the Choral Union will play an important part in the rendering of many interesting numbers.

Prospects for the new year look very promising. There are several places still to be filled, and those desiring to receive a splendid training in chorus work may do so by speaking to Prof. Veatch regarding the matter. The invitation extends not only to students of the College, but to residents of Alma as well. This year ought to be the best year yet. Everybody boosting will make a "best year" possible.

Verdant Ones Win Rush.

the first rush. The Sophs were parted and driven from the pole. From two to four Freshmen piled on each struggling Soph and held them. Kicking wildly at the Freshmen climbing the pole, but vainly, McCauly endeavored to stem the tide. His feet were grasped, and he, too, went to the ground to be held by a couple eager, aye, anxious Freshmen.

The flag was then rapidly cut away from its moorings and two minutes and forty seconds after the signal had been given, the Freshmen were winners—winners of the most one-sided battle in the history of the College.

Phi Phi Alpha.

The first regular meeting of the Phi Phi Alpha was called to order by President Esselstyn, followed by prayer, roll call and minutes of last meeting.

The literary program consisted of an impromptu debate:

Resolved, That it is not just for a patentee to hold a monopoly on the products used with the patent."

The decision of the judges was unanimous for the affirmative.

Following the debate was a short business meeting.

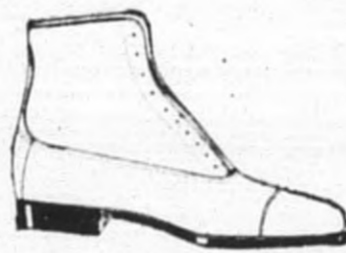

Adjournment.

“WHO'S WHO AND WHY”

WILLIAM WINTON

Mr. William Winton, of Montclair, New Jersey, is another Alumnus of the College to be given the honor of serving on the Board of Trustees of his Alma Mater. Mr. Winton entered Alma, from Ithaca high school in the fall of 1900, and while in school took the Philosophical Course, graduating in 1904 with the Ph. B. degree. In school Winton was a leader in every branch of student activities, being a member of Zeta Sigma, Y. M. C. A., Student Volunteer B and Freshmen Oratorical Society. He was at one time Vice President of the Y. M. C. A., Business Manager of the Almanian in 1904; a delegate to the Lakeside Summer Conference; and also a delegate to the Student Volunteer Convention. Winton was married July 14th, 1910, to Miss Florence G. Baldwin. Mr. and Mrs. Winton have one child, William Brewster Winton.

After leaving Alma Mr. Winton became interested in the insurance business and made that his life work. His rise in the business world has been one steady climb. He became Superintendent of Agencies of the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co., and was then promoted to General Agent for Michigan, and now is Assistant Superintendent of Agencies for the United States.

During the past year Mr. Winton has given lectures to students of the University of Pennsylvania and the University of Nebraska on the subject of "Life Insurance as a Profession." Mr. Winton has certainly made a wonderful record for himself and for his College.

W. R. Ure, ex '94, is an Osteopathic Physician in Charleston, West Virginia. His address is 814 Quasier St. Amos Beckner, ex '95, is Cost Accountant for the Rockford Silver Plate Company at Rockford, Illinois.

Joe Magidsohn, ex '09, is a Civil Engineer in Chicago. His address is 3806 Greshaw St. Joe was a star half-back on our football team and third baseman on the base ball team while in school. After leaving here he went to Michigan where he starred on the football team, being selected as half-back on Walter Camp's All American team in 1909.

Mr. Leon Kolvoord, '13, has opened a real estate office in Allegan.

William Karkeet, a student in Alma in 1905, is running for State Senator from Detroit.

Freddie Meyers, ex '14, who has been pitching for Muskegon in the Michigan State League, was sold to Kansas City team of the American Association.

Lester Sharp, '08, will be an instructor in botany and zoology at Cornell University this year. Mr. Sharp taught in the University of Chicago last year.

Miss Emma Swigart, '09, is studying in the University of Michigan this year.

Bernice Walker, '13, has accepted a position to teach in the Carson City schools this year. Miss Maud Hooper, '13, is also teaching in the high school in the same city.

"Sandy" Duncanson, '10, is teaching in the Mt. Pleasant high school, and has charge of the athletic teams.

"Eph" Johnson, '14, was on the campus Saturday and had charge of the Beta Sigma initiations.

DeWitt Marks ex' 14, is teaching in Fenton again this year.

Ed. Brehm 'ex 14, is business manager of the Cadillac Evening News.

Ralph Yonker, former Almanian editor, has resigned his position as sporting editor of the Detroit Times and will move to Caro, where he has purchased a paper. Mr. Yonkers will be succeeded on the Times by Harold Wilcox, another former editor of the Almanian and at present a member of the Free Press staff. It will be news to many of our readers to know that the last three sporting editors of the Times have been Alma College men, as Yonkers was preceded by Paul H. Bruske, who at the present time is advertising manager of the Studebaker Co.

Roy Campbell '10, is again coaching the athletic teams at Knox College this year, Roy took Carrithers place at Knox the latter going to the University of Illinois as assistant coach.

Send us Alumni News. Let us know what you are doing.

Those to pay their subscriptions the past week are: Byron Chapel, Aurora, Ill., William Born, Detroit, and Paul Omans, Hillsdale.

Byron Chapel, '09, is teaching in the high school at Aurora Illinois.

Geo. Brilmyre, '13, is teaching in the Biology Department of the Catholic University of America at Washington, D. C. Mr. Brilmyre will draw cartoons for the Almanian from time to time.

Annabelle Chisholm, aged 33, years, beloved wife of Fred H. Jones, of Roosevelt, Arizona, and former student of Alma College met a tragic death in Roosevelt dam on Labor day. The stream was dragged for two days, the body being found on Wednesday of that week. She was buried from the home of her uncle, Capt. A. J. McKay, of Detroit. The funeral was private.

Those who were associated with Mrs. Jones during her college days will remember her as a wonderfully brilliant student—lovable and kindly in nature.

Because of her connection with the College, and the years which she spent here we feel a peculiar interest in her death. That a life so young—in the very prime of vigor—should be so suddenly taken causes a deep sense of sadness. To those who are bereaved, and saddened because of the loss of their loved one, the editors, on behalf of the College extend their deepest sympathy.

ALMANIAC

Listen, my children, and you shall hear
Of the Beta Sigma and the Freshmen dear:
On the 26th of the month in the year '14
Was the date set for the Freshmen green
To celebrate the one big thing of the year.
One said in their meeting and no doubt 'twas right,
"Boys, we're up against it for Saturday night;
Our brothers, the Seniors, on consideration
Have decided to give us our 'initiation.'"
And truly enough about 10 o'clock
Several Freshmen, in fact fourteen from the flock,
Were put through the course, perhaps by degrees,
But mostly, I think, 'twas by degrees.

Inspired by the God of Hearts,
They turned their throats to vocal arts
And urged by staves applied with vim,
They sang all the way from the "Y" to the "Gym";
A screw upon the floor they rolled
Until they were all far from bold.
They next were led to the Museum,
Where in the night you could plainly see 'em,
As each with manhood's fond embrace
Upon the Royal Book did place
A kiss, and some a second time
Upon this sumptuous feast did dine;
And privately, I might say here,
That after such connections dear,
No wonder they exerted power
To steal away for a quiet hour.
Now our brothers upon a pole were sent
Upon a mission quite intent;
They cooed to the moon and then to the stars
And won for Jupiter a divorce from Mars;
The next event then to pursue
Was for each one with much ado
To tender forth upon his knees
His love, his hope, his life, all these,
To simply win a hand or two;
But Cupid's darts were dull last night—
His arrows entered not in the white,
And ne'er before in all the land
Did a Wright Hall girl refuse a hand,
And when the blushing acts were o'er
And water came from the third floor
The Freshmen to Pioneer did go
To sit and tell, each a tale of woe,
With flowering eloquence some did swell
And told their stories right down—well,
To end this night of revelry,
The Freshmen showed true courtesy;
They fed their superiors a goodly lunch,
Then departed as friends more true and staunch.

A. V. W.

"Dick" to "Bill."

Alma, Mich., Sept. 27, 1914.

Dear "Bill":—
Well "Bill" I have been mighty busy since I last wrote you. The other morning we had a flag pole rush with the Sophomores and we won altho they were lots bigger than us, and too they had a lot of our men tied up so we couldn't use them and that wasn't fair, but we won just the same. Me and two or three other fellers kept about half of them busy while some little squirt went up the flag pole and pulled the flag down. You just ought to see the challenge bills we put up last Saturday night to challenge the sophs to the rush. Gosh but they were good and they had a lot of funny stuff in it about them Sophs, and I'll send you one.

The night before the fight the Sophs caught some of our fellers but they didn't get me because I was in my room sick and even if I hadn't been sick they couldn't of have caught me because I would have knocked them down just as I do in football. Say we played Bay City yesterday and that there coach never let me play at all, but I guess it was because he was saving me for Notre Dame when they will need all of us best players. The other night some of them there Seniors come to my room and said they was a telegram for me from you, and when I went to the door to get it they threw a pail of water on me, but it didn't get me wet because I had on my old clothes, and I kinda ducked too because I knew all the time what they was going to do and I just went to the door to have some fun with them. That same night they went to the room just over me and I know they just scared that poor fellow to death, because he hollered "help Fresh in room 14," but I didn't go to help him for I don't ever help fellers that get seared easy like that. I just staid in my room and just laughed at him.

Say "Bill" I am going to tell you something now that you never want to tell anybody I told you because I am not supposed to tell. One of them there Seniors come to me and wanted me to join a secret fraternity they have here on the quiet (and now don't you ever tell anybody I told you this) and I told him I would because he said they was only a few got in each year and that I was one of the lucky ones. Beta Sigma was the name of it, and they had what they called tap night (they call it that because they tap you several times with a barrel stave) and that was last night when I joined. The first thing they made me go up and register and deposit fifty cents and then we was blind folded and then they read the constitution to us, and then we marched to the royal forum where I was presented to the royal biscuit. I'll tell you all about that biscuit when I get home. Next they made me eat the royal sandwich and I didn't like it very well because it had soap in it. They took us to the gymnasium and made us get down on the floor and push some screws along the floor with our noses, and I beat. We had to sing some songs and then they give us some chop suey, but I didn't like that because it made me think too much of the farm. We had to kiss the royal book to show them that we wanted to be true to the ideals of Beta Sigma. Then they had us climb up that flag rush pole while everybody used them barrel staves, and then we swam in the grass and I beat them all again. Now we marched one by one over to Wright Hall, and when we got to the road, you know that biscuit I was going to tell you about, well we had to bury it here, that is all of us that hadn't eaten them up. When we was in front of Wright Hall they made us sing, bark at the moon and propose to some one of them there girls what lives there, and then when we was singing "Get

Out and Get Under" and "How Dry I Am" somebody threw water on us and we got all wet. Next we went to Pioneer Hall and had to tell stories and I don't think they know a good story when they hear one for when I got through they yelled rotten. It was a hard night, but I don't care cause now I am a Beta Sigma. Well "Bill" I guess this is all for this time,

"DICK."

The Prodigal's Return.

Old times have again returned to Wright Hall. After the absolute extinction of the swipes from the College life last year, it was feared that only the lingering memory and the few preserved specimens at Hood Museum would be left to cheer us up when some suple freshmen, eager to help, upset the gravy in our laps. But such an industrious, well-behaved and orderly body was not to be so easily eliminated from active service. Thru the intervention of the powers that be and the Co-op Board, the badly abused swipes have been again duly ordained and reinstated, much to the satisfaction of all those dining at the College hall. The boys, all of whom have seen service there before, are only on parole, however, good behavior being absolutely required to retain a position on the octette. It is understood that no initiation services are to be held during meal hours, that dishes are to be piled only three deep on their table instead of six as heretofore, and that all musical attempts shall be postponed until after meals. In view of the fact that there are two additional generations of students since the fall of the swipes in 1913, a few suggestions and helpful hints are offered to all boarders there:

1. Everyone is expected to change cereals each morning.
2. Never take the same drink.
3. Never arrive on time. Keep the swipes busy.
4. Please do not hurry while eating. Swipes never get hungry.
5. Always empty dishes as near center of table as possible.

A strict observance of these few suggestions would greatly assist in the successful serving of meals. Those to whom this service has been entrusted are O. Anderson, Austin, Cole, Goodrich, McCloy, McFarlane, Nisbet and Peacock.

Zeta Sigma.

The first annual meeting of Zeta Sigma was called to order by Pres. McCloy, followed by prayer by Addison Wilson, and roll call.

The meeting was more in the nature of a business meeting, and Goodrich was elected Treasurer to fill the vacancy left by William Green. A committee was appointed to meet with Dr. Blaisdell and another committee from Phi Phi Alpha to consider the proposition of a new literary society.
