HALLOWE'EN PARTY

Given by the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A.,
A Success

FACULTY AND CLASSES PERFORM

All Losing Their Accustomed Dignity and Entering into the Fun

The Y. M. and Y. W. C. A.'s have never given a more successful party than the Hallowe'en party on last Friday evening. The bare old gym. was disguised and beautified beyond all recognition with autumn leaves, pumpkins and great shocks of corn. The refreshments were, as usual, appropriate; pop corn by the bushel, apples by the bushels, doughnuts, steaming hot coffee. College students know how to plan the eats that take.

The big feature, or features rather, were the stunts. Grave faculty, dignified seniors, and so on down through the list of epithets appropriate to juniors, sophomores, freshies and miscellaneous classified individuals marched forth in order and performed their stunts.

First the faculty, grave did we say? Not what you'd notice. At last they "rounded on" those students who for years have "taken off" the faculty in stunt-parties and on class day occasions. In a class conducted by Dr. Blaisdell we had opportunity to see ourselves as others see us. Ah me! who shall dare to say again, "I'm not prepared, my alarm clock failed me."

Then came "ye" dignified seniors. Seniors, yes, but dignified not at all. And we doubt if ever again the class of '13 will be able to claim that title after that silly ridiculous, side-splitting, Acht du Lieber Augustine dance and the Virginia Reel which it ushered in. You might have done so, seniors, had you worn your costumes right side to, but backwards—never more.

The juniors gave us their opinions of things through the medium of an immense graphophone-like contrivance. They seem to have developed a bump of humor while in Alma and, evidently, are living "on the sunny" side.

The sophs tried to rival Grady's famous minstrels, and surely would have succeeded had Yerex been one of their number. As it was they ran that famed chorus of college singers a close second.

When the freshies appears we held our breath. It was the first public appearance. They reproduced the first registration day of Alma college. No doubt that they did it well, whether true to history or not. They said they took none but good authority on the subject, and certainly they distinguished themselves.

The rest of the students, those enrolled as music, art, academy, etc., did their duty by presenting several clever charades, a rollicking Grand March and a Virginia Reel.

It was a lot of work getting costumes and working up stunts, but it certainly was worth while. It was loads of fun.

SACRED CONCERT.

The sacred concert Sunday evening at the Presbyterian church was highly appreciated by all the congregation. A hearty wish was expressed by all that sacred concerts would be given frequently. Mr. Veatch sang "The Earth is the Lord's," splendidly. His singing is always pleasing and highly instructive in interpretive and vocal art.

Miss McGraham sang "Still, Still with Thee," with her accustomed style and finish.

The work by the quartette, composed of Misses Smith and McGraham and Messrs. Woodruff and Veatch, has been giving great music the past few Sundays.

The choir's selections were examples of beautiful choral singing. "Unfold ye Portals" (Gounod) from the "Redemption," deserves especial notice for the fine shadings in tone color and the spirit put into this work. Mr. Veatch deserves great credit for the showing which the choir made Sunday evening.

Mr. Barton played an air from a Goldwark concerto, and Prof. Ewing and Mr. Barton rendered the Prelude from "The Deluge," by Saint Saens. Mr. Barton has lately come to the Alma School of Music as instructor in violin. Judging by his work Sunday evening he is an artist of high rank.

Prof. Ewing did especially fine work at the organ.

The sacred concert is but another instance of the high grade of work which the Alma School of Music is accomplishing this year.

FRESHMAN SPREAD.

Thursday, October 17, the Freshmen enjoyed a delightful afternoon in the Jungle. The day was beautiful and not even the sophomores tried to interfere with the picnic. A jolly time was spent around the bonfire roasting "wienies."

The Freshmen class is a live class and is looking forward to many more such occasions.

ALUMNI AGAIN.

Don't forget Grand Rapids, State Teachers' Association.

Alma Reunion and luncheon, Friday at 5:15 p. m., at Westminster Presbyterian church. Fifty cents, plus.

Every alumni, former student, and friend of Alma cordially invited.

Notify President Blaisdell, at Alma, that you'll be there. Do it NOW. Late notifications possible but undesirable. On Thursday at Lexington Hotel.

NEW VIOLIN INSTRUCTOR.

It has been worth waiting some six or seven weeks for a violin instructor since Alma has been fortunate enough to secure the services of Mr. Alvin L. Barton, of Chicago. Mr. Barton has been trained under Lewis of Chicago, teacher of Maud Powell, one of the great violinists of the world. He has also been trained in Berlin under Emanuel Wirth, also under Remy in the National Conservatory at Paris.

He was for some time leader of the first violins in Cornell University Symphony orchestra, where he also played viola. Alma surely is fortunate to secure the services of a young man so full of enthusiasm and love for his work, combined with the broad experience and training that he has had.

It is the desire of the School of Music to organize two orchestras. An intermediate orchestra for the benefit of amateur players and a regular orchestra to accompany the Choral club. It is hoped that the work of Mr. Barton and the plans of the department will meet with a hearty response from the student body.

STRAW VOTE AGAIN.

At the suggestion of Pres. Blaisdell, a straw vote was taken at chapel exercises Thursday morning with the following results:

Votes among the men, for president—Wilson, 39; Roosevelt, 27. Taft, 3; Debs, 2. For governor—Ferris, 49; Musselman, 18; Watkins, 3. For woman suffrage, 47; against woman suffrage, 25.

Votes among the women, for president—Wilson, 56; Roosevelt, 14; Taft, 5; Debs, 1. For governor—Ferris, 40; Musselman, 23; Watkins, 4. For woman suffrage, 59; against woman suffrage, 17.

Combined vote, for president—Wilson, 95; Roosevelt, 41; Taft, 8; Debs, 3. For governor—Ferris, 89; Musselman, 41; Watkins, 7. For woman suffrage, 106; against woman suffrage, 42.

This is about a representative vote of the college, and shows Wilson and Ferris with big leads over all opponents. Roosevelt runs far ahead of Watkins, his progressive mate, while Taft trails his running mate. Wilson and Ferris run about even, Ferris having a slight lead among the men, while Wilson is favored by the women. Woman suffrage has a sweeping majority.

Miss Elizabeth Crossen of McBain and one of last year's kindergarten class visited her friends in Alma Saturday and Sunday.

COMING TO ALMA

Five Fine Musical Concerts by Leading Artists

PROVISIONAL CONTRACTS MADE

Co-operation of Students and Faculty Needed
To Make It Success

If the citizens of Alma and the students and faculty of the college will co-operate as they have been so splendidly doing in the past, a course of five concerts by musical stars of the first magnitude will be presented in the college chapel this season. This will be a great feast for music lovers and a means of education and uplift to the entire community. It will also help to place Alma and Alma college on the map musically speaking.

Provisional contracts have been made with a number of eminent artists. If a sufficient number of season tickets are sold within the time allotted for the advance ticket sale the movement will materialize. If not, the project must needs be abandoned for want of public support. The list of artists follows:

1. Esther May Plumb, the distinguished American contralto. Frequently likened to Schumann Heink by eminent critics.

2 (a). Marcus Kellerman, formerly leading baritone of the Berlin Royal Opera. Internationally conceded to be one of the greatest living baritones.

(b). William Alexis Parson, Russian pianist. Mr. Parson accompanies Mr. Kellerman and offers solo numbers.

3. William Richard Waghorne, composer and organist. Formerly of St. Mary's cathedral, Edinburgh, Scotland. Mr. Waghorne's organ compositions have appeared from time to time in the Etude.

4. Alice Genevieve Smith, harpist. Miss Smith will appear in Grecian costume giving her famous "Story of the Harp."

5 (a). Earl R. Drake, violin virtuoso and director of the Drake School of Music, Auditorium Building, Chicago. Mr. Drake was a pupil of the great Joachim and served as his assistant for three years.

(b) Blanche Blood, accompanist and soloist on the viola.

The entire course of five numbers will be presented for the small fee of $1.00 per season ticket to Choral Club members and $1.50 to the general public. Later announcements will be made concerning dates of the advance ticket sale.

"On Wednesday evening at 8:00 o'clock in the College Chapel a concert will be given by the faculty of the School of Music. A small fee of 10 cents will be charged for incidental expense. Choral Club members will be admitted free."

Mrs. E. W. Brown visited her daughter Susie at Wright Hall over Sunday. Miss Marguerite Mahoney spent the week end at her home in St. Charles.

WHAT ABOUT IT, REPORTERS?

It seems that some of our class and society reporters do not realize that the copy needs to be handed in before the paper goes to press. In spite of urgent requests by the editor, still copy is held back until Monday or Tuesday and then reporters are astonished if their doings are not published right on the dot. If your class and society functions are not published as you would like them or on time, just stir up your reporter from his long nap.

Now reporters, bear these facts in mind. Our copy goes to Saginaw Friday afternoon to be set up, and, if you want to be sure of having your little article published, do not put it off until after the paper is out but hand it to the staff by FRIDAY NOON. We want to impress this fact on your minds so we say again,
GET YOUR COPY IN BY FRI-DAY NOON.

COLLEGE SPIRIT.

In spite of the fact that the Albion team did not have a 'ghost of a show' against our boys, the fans showed the right kind of spirit and cheered them every second. Now, we have a winning team, and have nothing to hold back any enthusiasm that may want to show itself, let every student begin right now to root for the football men. We have the men, we have the captain and we have the coach to give us the M.
I. A. A. championship. All we want now is the college spirit and backing.
It is due time that mass meetings were being held in preparation for the big game with Olivet November 8th. Olivet had two star ends added to her team last week and with the old fight that "Toot" Hall and his warriors always show, Alma will have a hard opponent. This game will decide the championship, and will in no way be a walkaway for the Presbyterians. TALK, CHEER, SING and ROOT for the boys and

for the M. I. A. A. CHAMPION-SHIP.

Y. M. C. A. BIBLE CLASS.

The Y. M. C. A. Bible classes have started on a course of study which will continue until Christmas time.
The classes meet every morning for a reading of the lesson and meet once a week for a thorough discussion of the week's work. This plan was tried by some of the classes last year and found to be much more satisfactory than leaving the student to do his own daily study and only meet once a week for the discussion.

As it is, the classes meet at six-thirty a.m. It is believed that this course of study will at least create a desire in the minds of students for daily Bible study. The attendance will be announced soon. The following men are class leaders and each has a manager or assistant, whose duty it is to see that every member of the class is present at every meeting.
A. C. Edgerton, F. S. Johnson, W.
L. Frost, A. R. Maybee, C. R. Hyde,
L. Von Thurn, and C. A. Montieth.

FROEBELS ANNUAL DANCE.

It was with delightful anticipation that the girls of Wright Hall met at the gymnasium last Saturday evening to attend the Froebel dance. The gymnasium was beautifully decorated with fall leaves and pennants, with many cozy corners here and there.

Everyone enjoyed the moonlight
waltzes and the orchestra cheerfully responded to the encores. It was with regret that the party broke up late in the evening, the guests showing their appreciation by giving their society yells. Once more the Froebel girls have shown their ability to entertain successfully.

THE THUMB CLUB.

With over twenty students as members a Thumb club has been organized in Alma college. This organization includes the students from Huron, Tuscola and Sanilac counties.
Its purpose is somewhat of a social nature, but as well as this its members are to keep the officers of the club informed with regard to any young people of their acquaintance who may be made interested in Alma.
There will be a committee to correspond with such prospectives and give them any encouragement that may be necessary. The Thumb counties are well represented now and it is the purpose of this organization to have a much larger delegation from this territory. The following officers were elected:

President—A. C. Edgerton, Cass
City.

Vice-President—C. B. Butler, Bad Axe.

Secretary—Anna McNabb, Elkton.
Treasurer—B. A. McCloy, Fair-grove.

Reporter—Margaret Duncanson.
Committees have also been appointed to provide for the social functions
and draw up a constitution.

POOR JOHNNIE.

Soaked "Freshie" is Aided by Police.

During the annual "rush" of the freshmen and sophomores of the Detroit College of Medicine, held Tuesday afternoon on Belle Isle, John Caldwell, a freshman, of Marlette, Mich., was thrown into one of the canals by his boisterous companions.
Swimming to the other side of the stream, he emerged from the water and shivered on the bank, while his friends laughed at his plight. A police patrol took him to the Belle Isle police station, where his clothing was dried.—Detroit Journal.

ALMA DEFEATS THE NORMALS

The Alma College football team administered the most crushing defeat in the history of the institution last Friday at Mt. Pleasant when Coach He'mer's Central Normaniites were snowed under by the score of 106 to 0 in a football game which more nearly resembled a cross country victory but hardly anticipated such weak opposition. Or rather scarcely believed that his men were so far superior to the Normal team which has defeated some of the best high school elevens in the state by large scores.

It was an ideal day for a gridiron game and even though the score was so uneven the scrap and pep of the wearers of the Maroon and Cream was great enough to keep the crowd interested. Alma relied almost wholly on end runs, for the forward pass was, on the whole, a dismal failure.

The Normals won the toss and chose to defend the north goal with the wind at their backs. Anderson kicked to the thirty yard line and the ball was returned ten yards. The Normals elected to kick on the first play and "Ox" broke through the line and blocked the embryo spiral with his outstretched hand and immediately scooped up the gyrating pigskin and complacently trotted thirty yards for the first touchdown. Alma had consumed just three minutes in tallying the initial six points and that touchdown was not lone-some for a long time. Harry Schultz goaled with a pretty boot. Score, 7 to 0. Ole again kicked off and before attempting to advance the ball at all Mt. Pleasant punted to Vogt who returned it for twenty-five yards. H. Schultz carried it thirty-five yards further, on the next play, for touchdown number two. Again he goaled. Score 14 to 0.

The habit continued with "Olie" as the instigator and Harry Schultz as the agent. Nervousness seized the Normal half-back when he was catching the kickoff and he obligingly dropped the ball and Edgerton picked it up and crossed the line, but was called back for some penalty. Harry Schultz picked up the next fumble and eluding the whole opposition scored touchdown number three from the thirty yard line. He also kicked goal. Score, 21 to 0. For the next one there was more or less red tape connected with the proceeding, but this was dispensed with after a very few plays. Anderson kicked to the Normals who advanced the ball ten yard's and fumbled. Wood recovered it and ran ten yards before he was downed. A forward pass failed, but Captain Johnson went through the line for one half of the required distance. W. Schultz added twenty more, Wood ten and Harry Schultz twenty plus for touchdown number four. And he subsequently goaled. Score, 28 to 0.

On the first play after the kick-off "Bill" plunged through the tackle vacancy for eight yards and received a badly damaged nose. Henning was mustered into service. Harry carried the ball twenty yards on the next play and Wood responded with a ten yard offering for touchdown number five. A happy thrill went through the Normal rooting band when Harry failed to goal. Score, 34 to 0 Henning carried the ball thirty yards from the kick-off but the quarter was soon called with the ball on Alma's forty yard line. Hyde shot a forward pass to Goodrich who sprinted sixty yards for another touchdown. For the next seven points were required three plays; Henning and Harry Schultz contributed thirty yards apiece and Goodrich received a forward fling from Stub Vogt for the intervening distance to the goal. Harry ran the next kick-off back for forty yards and Ole received a forward pass from Vogt for ten yards. Goodrich caught the following one and ran thirty and Harry scored the touchdown after running twenty yards. He also kicked both goals. Score, 53 to 0. Bill accommodatingly went in for his little brother and tore off two runs for a total of seventy yards. Before he scored that touchdown three forward passes were tried with negative results. Wood also added thirty yards by a beautiful run through a broken field. Score, 59 to 0.

Mt. Pleasant kicked off to Wood, who sped along for thirty yards and on the next play added twenty more. The Normals recovered a stray forward pass and immediately got rid of the ball by the punt route. Wood ran it back twenty and Bill crossed the goal with touchdown number ten. The Normals kicked and Wood made thirty, Henning ten, Harry Schultz thirty and Goodrich made the touchdown with a ten yard lope. Harry goaled. Vogt went twenty yards in running back the kickoff and Henning donated thirty more, Vogt ten more and Wood traveled twenty for touchdown number thirteen. Score, 79 to 0. It happened to be Edgerton's turn to make a touchdown this time, so that, with a certain satisfying promptness, he made good in two trials, aided by a ten-yard contribution from Wood, the first was for thirty and the second for forty yards. Score, 86 to 0. At this point in the game, Cheney was substituted for Graham and Von Thurn for Goodrich. From the kick-off Vogt tore off twenty yards and with a degree of consistency did it again, bringing the ball to their last chalk mark. After three ineffectual efforts Will Schultz scored and Harry kicked goal. Score, 99 to 0.

With a few interruptions, Harry Schultz made touchdown number sixteen after two long sprints and chalked up the last one of the game.

From on to the end of the game the Normals played hard and held Alma to smaller gains, for the marathon activities of the first three quarters were having their effect.

Every fellow played a good game with Harry Schultz as the bright star. His open field work was nothing short of marvellous.
