ALMA LOSES IN FIRST ASS'N GAME

Brilliant Pitching Duel Between McDonald and Lau Goes to Latter.

Michigan State Normal conquered the Alma College baseball team here Friday in the opening contest of the season by a 1 to 0 score, the lone run being a gift from the Alma team. The battle, a brilliant pitching duel between Lau of Ypsi and MacDonald of Alma demonstrates clearly that Alma has a team that will be able to make a warm fight for the third straight baseball championship, and it can be set down in the books right now that Alma will be one of the finalists at Albion, June 6 and 7, if the team shows the continued improvement that the fans have a right to expect of it.

Luck, the baseball kind, broke with the Teachers at every stage of the contest. Getting only 6 hits off Lau, Alma opened five different innings by putting them on the sacks, but could not muster the punch that was needed to drive the runs around. In another inning with one away Wright doubled, and then was caught off the second sack. In the fourth inning only a double play could save the visitors from having the plate crossed, MacDonald smashing one with two on that apparently had a ticket for at least a two base knock. But there were too many noshoes in the right fielder's pocket. Carty, who was on second had rounded third and was headed for home, when Shean pulled a sensational one-handed catch. It was an easy matter for him to double on Carty.

Not until the third inning did either team look dangerous. In this inning with one gone, Lau was safe at first on Wright's error. He went to second on a passed ball and on a fielder's choice MacDonald attempted to cut down Lau at third, but an overthrow of the sack let him count the only run of the game without the aid of a single hit, a run that was a pure gift from start to finish. In Alma's half of the third Rathsburg opened with a smashing drive to left, was sacrificed to second by Beverly, where he expired when Wright flied to third and Wagner grounded out.

In the fourth with one gone, Ockerman singled to left and took second on a passed ball. Cooly drove one to Weltholder, who doubled Ockerman, unassisted. Carty opened for Alma, getting a life on Ockerman's error. He went to second on Weltholder's short single to left. Shaver struckout. MacDonald slammed one into right field on which he was robbed of what seemed like a sure hit, and Carty was doubled. Ypsi died easily in the fifth, although a single was injected into the proceedings. Tredway opened for Alma with a double that went out.

Rev. Merrill Addresses Y. M. C. A.

The Y. M. C. A. meeting last Thursday evening was favored by a talk by Rev. Merrill on "At What Age Is a Man Satisfied?" Those present learned that a man is never satisfied, and that it is that instinct of want for better things that makes him develop. Due to the rain the feed in the jungle was postponed, and will be held on the eve of the coming Thursday.

The coming meeting will have for its feature, a talk by Rev. Horton, on "When Shall I Look out for No. 1?" The No. 1, refers to self, or self-sacrifice. No college man should miss this treat.

WRIGHT HALL

The Misses Edith Hughes, Irene Anguish, and Marjorie McLearn were guests at Wright Hall over the week end.

Miss Louise Watress was the guest of Miss Bertha Woodhurst and Miss Geraldine Freeman was the guest of Miss Erma Burgess during the week end.

French Professor Speaks in Chapel

Monsieur R. A. Talemou, Professor of French Literature and Letters at the University of Michigan spoke at chapel services Thursday morning, April 24. Prof. Talemou was scheduled to speak on the subject, "Contemporary France" but due to the complexity of the subject and the limited time, he substituted a very interesting account of some of the high spots in his interesting work as international interpreter.

M. Talemou has had an illustrious career as an interpreter. After giving up his work in America and serving his country during the war period, he acted as one of the official interpreters during the Versailles Peace Conference at Paris after the signing of the armistice. Upon completing his work there he returned to the University of Michigan, resuming his work there. Again last year during the International Arms Conference at Washington, he was again called to act as interpreter.

In his speech, he painted very vivid pictures of the strange duties of an interpreter. Not only the humorous anecdotes of the work did he recount, but also the serious and inside capacities of such a position, especially one of an international nature.

Speeches of such interest and instruction as was that of M. Talemou are a real treat and are much appreciated by the student body.

Spring Party Is Gay Affair

On Friday evening the gymnasium was the scene of the Sophomores Springtime Ball, which proved to be one of the most successful dance parties of the year.

The decorations throughout carried the idea of spring. Countless branches of vari-colored flowers formed a low ceiling over the dance floor, and an added touch of spring was afforded by the long lines of Japanese lanterns. A white picket fence bowered with flowers, marked off the orchestra, in which Ken Wolfe and his musicians held sway. There were many out-of-town guests and old students here to attend the affair and everyone was in the best of spirits.

The chaperones were President and Mrs. H. M. Crooks, Dr. and Mrs. Nostein, Coach and Mrs. Campbell, Jean Lanier, and Prof. and Mrs. Ewer.

Tracksters Hold Try-Outs Sat. Morning

The scheduled track meet between the Collegians and Breckenridge for last Saturday morning could not be held due to failure of the High school squad to appear at the slated time. However, a try-out was held among the Alma aspirants in several events.

Since Prof. Ewer has taken charge of the tracksters, much promising material has been brought to light. Several surprises occurred Saturday morning with the result that some of the older men will be forced to a keener competition than ever before. It is possible that some dual meet will be arranged for the near future so that followers of the team will have an opportunity to see the thin-clads in action.

ZETA SIGMA

The regular meeting of Zeta Sigma was called to order by the new President, Burroughs Rathsburg, Monday evening, April 21. After a short business meeting a paper on the "Accomplishments of the 67th Congress" was delivered by Woodburn Lamb. Impromptu were responded to by K. Tarrant and Walter Burton.

After adjournment, the society proceeded to enjoy the regular officers treat at the New European Cafe.

TENNIS NOTES

With the courts rapidly being rounded into shape, the Alma Tennis squads are opening up with their spring practices. Several old stars including Vliet and James are on hand to form a nucleus for a winning team. Contracts have already been signed for a dual meet with Mt. Pleasant. The Alma team will journey to Mt. Pleasant, Tuesday, May 6, while the Normalites will appear here Wednesday, May 28.

COLLEGE CLUB IS FORMED BY GIRLS

New Club is Organized Among Women. C. Kingan is President.

For a long time there has been a vague feeling among some of the Wright Hall girls that they have some how missed something of what college life should mean to every loyal student. Little discussion groups were formed and presently led on by patriotism to their college and the enthusiasm of starting something entirely new, the girls decided that measures should be taken to help bring about an ideal situation. The result of careful planning was the College Club. Mildred Forbes, Ruth Allan, Winifred Harrod, Wilda Martin, Florence Lindsey, Irene Oberst and Constance Kingan became the charter members of this new organization.

On Monday evening, April 14, 1924, the club was brought into existence. Officers for the year were elected: President, Constance Kingan; Vice-President, Ruth Allan; Secretary, Mildred Forbes; Treasurer, Irene Oberst; Corresponding Secretary, Wilda Martin; and Critic, Winifred Harrod.

Miss Lanier and Miss Ritter were made honorary members and Miss Dorothy Ann DuBois kindly accepted the office of mascot. Mrs. Francis E. West is the patroness. Green and white were chosen as the colors. A constitution was drawn up and approved by the members and the club was under way.

The purpose of this Club is service to Alma College by creating a spirit of cordiality among all women students, by carrying out a definite program of study and by developing a broader social atmosphere. The Club is no way a rival of any society. Every college woman is eligible for membership and is gladly welcomed.

The Club hopes to work out several improvements needed in the social life of Alma by bringing outside speakers and visitors to the campus and creating such a spirit of friendship and good fellowship among the students that it will soon become an indispensable part of the college life.

On Monday evening, April 21, the first initiation of new members into the Club took place. The event was a success both from the standpoint of artistry and membership. The following girls joined at that time: Mary Price, Mary Parr, Clio Hoffmeyer, Eleanor English, Ella Webber, Marjorie Kunze, Inez Thornton, Marie Hamilton, Ecco Buck, Catherine Butcher, and June Lewis.

With such a purpose, with such a spirit, with such members, and the help of friends, the College Club has come to Alma's campus with a desire to win. "Excuse Our Dust."

State Y. W. Holds Conclave at Ypsi

The opening session of the Y. W. C. A. State Cabinet Council on Friday evening, April 4, was conducted by Dean Voight of Ohio. The topic for discussion was the organization of the Y. W. C. A. especially with reference to the student department.

Saturday morning devotions began at nine o'clock followed by open discussions which lasted throughout the afternoon. The meetings proved very interesting being led by Miss Gwynn and Dean Voight. Nearly all of the Michigan Colleges were represented, making the meetings very entertaining, as each college had its different view-point.

Saturday evening, a banquet provided a fitting climax for the days work. About one hundred girls gathered in Starkweather Hall to enjoy the splendid hospitality of the Ypsilanti organization.

Sunday morning the entire Council attended the Methodist church. The session was closed Sunday afternoon with a simple and beautiful re-consecration service in the auditorium of Starkweather Hall.

Albion and Olivet Here This Week-End

The Alma College baseball team is facing two real battles in the Michigan Intercollegiate this week, meeting Albion College on Thursday afternoon and Olivet on Saturday.

The Albion game and the Olivet contest both promise to be thrillers for the local fans, and both will be battles in which Alma must show the best kind of baseball if she is to stow them away. Both teams are strong.

Albion was beaten by the Michigan State Normal team by the same margin that the Teachers defeated Alma, but the Teachers were forced into 10 frames to win from Albion in that game by a 5 to 4 score.

How strong Olivet is can be shown from the fact that the Crimson has a clean record for the season. Johnson's men have knicked both Kalamazoo and Albion colleges, winning from Albion on Saturday 3 to 2, getting only three hits but showing baseball sense enough to put over the victory. Olivet looks like a real contender for the title and will be a team to be feared and respected.

The Alma fans are certain of two good contests in the games this week, and should give the team plenty of support. It is expected that MacDonald will be sent into the box to deliver against Albion and that Beauchamp and Catherman will work against the Olivet team.

Dramatic Club to Give Play This Year

The Dramatic League, the newest organization to be formed on the campus, has announced that it will present a play before the end of the present semester. Several are now being considered by the directors, but the selection will not be made for several days. It is to be a play of full length and will be presented at the Strand Theater if satisfactory arrangements can be made. The first attempt of the League will be anticipated with considerable interest and the members hope to present something of real merit. The officers have suggested that possibly a costume play of a much earlier period will be undertaken and state that there are several such plays now being considered.

The announcements will also be of interest to those not at present belonging to the League for there will be opportunity for those with ability to assist and as a result they may gain invitations to join.

Bouwman Checks Saginaw Semi-Pros

On Saturday the Alma sport followers had an opportunity to see Bouwman in action against the Saginaw semi-pro outfit, which Alma won by a score of 10-2. The lanky boy formerly of Kalamazoo had an easy time with the sand-lotters, winning easily behind the strong attack of the Alma batters. The big boy showed at an advantage throughout the game, holding the up-staters well in hand at all times.

Alma had a big inning in the second when some twelve batters faced the Saginaw pitcher to run up a summary of eight runs and nine hits. Because the game did not start until late, it went only seven innings, which was however sufficient to establish the superiority of the Almaites and give the squad an extra practice before the M. I. A. A. season gets fully under way.

PHILOMATHEAN

The usual weekly meeting of the Philomathean Literary Society of April 21 was conducted by the Sophomores. Roll call was answered by an impromptu quotation after which a motion was made and seconded to proceed with the program.

The entertainment of the evening consisted of a vocal solo by Esther Oldt, accompanied by Helen McDougal, a piano solo by Miss McDougal and a play, "The Triumph of Instinct" by the Sophomore girls. The meeting was then adjourned and refreshments were served.

DR. BOBER DIES SAT. MORNING

College Mourns Death of Late Faculty Member, After Long Illness.

The many friends of Prof. H. Lothar Bober, and especially those of the college, who knew him about the campus, were deeply sorrowful to learn of his death Saturday, April 26, about ten o'clock in the morning. The end came after a serious illness which took him from his work with the college at the close of last semester.

Dr. Bober was born in Germany, November 19, 1857. He spent part of his earlier life as an officer in the German army, but later left that country to teach in America. He came to Alma College from a Canadian university about September, 1915, and taught French, German and Spanish. In Canada he had been given the honorary degree of Doctor of Civil Laws, and was held in high esteem; and his kindly and jovial manner soon won for him here the deep admiration of all the students. He loved America, and was a great admirer of American institutions.

Dr. Bober was a member of a distinguished German family, having a brother who was a general in the German army in the late war, was wounded severely several times, and who died quite recently. The two sons of Dr. Bober fought in France with the American forces. His daughter, Angela, was educated in Canada where she won high honors in her academic work, and she has since been highly praised for her work in the field of medicine.

Services for Dr. Bober were conducted entirely in German, Sunday morning, Rev. Dr. C. D. Brokenshire officiating with burial in the Riverside cemetery, Alma.

Memorial services for Dr. Bober will probably be held in the college chapel Friday morning.

Harold Bailey is Elected Track Capt.

At a meeting of the letter men of the track squad last week Harold Bailey was elected captain of the track team for 1924. Bailey, the star pole vaulter of the squad has been consistent as a track and field performer for the past three years. Last year he obtained a tie for first in the M. I. A. A. meet at Albion in the pole jumping event. This year his performances have been up to par and bid fair to be improved before the finals which will be held during the last of May.

PROF. IN AN ACCIDENT

Prof. Hamilton took part in the scene of an accident Sunday morning during a little ride with some visitors. Driving west of town he turned around at the golf course driveway while a Ford rapidly approaching from the east, and fearing a collision, took to the ditch and overturned. Contrary to reports, there was no meeting of cars and all responsibility is relieved of the professor because there was ample room for the Ford to pass. Luckily, there were no severe injuries sustained. One man has his hand lacerated while one of the women obtained a broken collar-bone.

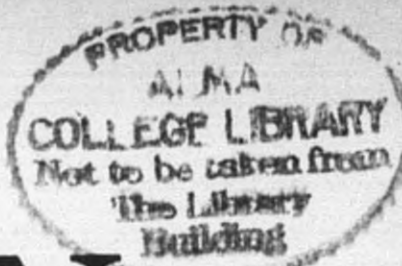

M. I. A. A. STANDINGS

Olivet's 3-2 victory over Albion Saturday kept their percentage 1-000 along with Ypsilanti Normal. A game which was replete with errors made the Olivet victory possible. Kazoo played Hillsdale on the same day but reports of the game have not been forthcoming. The standings of the clubs to date follow:

	Won	Lost	Pct.
Ypsilanti	3	0	1.000
Olivet	2	0	1.000
Albion	1	2	.333
Alma	0	1	.000
Hillsdale	0	1	.000
Kalamazoo	0	2	.000

Entered as second class matter, Sept. 24, 1907,
Act of 1879, Alma, Mich.

IS IT WORTH IT?

Alma to date has won three consecutive championships. Have they been a good business proposition? Have they been worth the price paid? Has something had to give way and be pushed aside to make these added glories possible? These are the questions which have come up before the college authorities as a matter for speculation and seem to be now finding their way into student discussions. Both in all-college meetings and in class-room assemblies, speakers and instructors are announcing the laxity in studies which, they report, have had a gradual development since the beginning of the year. This fact, which we must deplore, has been in part due to the added enthusiasm aroused during the championship races, according to the deductions of these authorities.

Such an implication seems to have an iron-clad basis when the past year is thoroughly reviewed. The grand finale of the 1923 baseball season saw the team return home with both of the association banners. With the opening of the present year, the student body, fresh from the glory of the recent hard-fought victory, returned to start out enthusiastically after another. After closely following the gridiron squad through eight gruelling contests, Alma closed probably the greatest football season in her history. Upon the return from the holiday vacation, another successful conquest was launched. Alma was again carried through a season of glory as the basket ball team closed as spectacular campaign as has ever been conducted in the M. I. A. A. Are they worth it? Again the question arises.

In this year of sports, constantly replete with sensations, it was not the individual teams who were carrying the entire burden. Every member of the student body had his interest—all were at the mass meetings; everyone was present at the home games to say nothing of those who accompanied the team on its trips; every Alma student was closely following the successes of the different squads and acquiring his share of the enthusiasm which naturally accompanies such spot-light events.

However, these particular activities are not the ones to be condemned because they are necessary to the season's campaign and moreover, they have been established for many years and have become a tradition. Put, these activities, accompanied by spectacular seasons such as have been under gone, offer a field of added activities. They offer a field of comment and demonstration which would otherwise be absent. These in turn add an incentive of relaxation from the common order of events and schedule of which studies certainly go to make a part.

With the winter months closing to show a deterioration in class-room work rather than a progression which they ordinarily show, the cause as presented above surely deserves a consideration. The question as it presents itself offers a wide field of speculation. That we come to college primarily for that mental development, wears itself out as a matter for discussion. We surely all grant that, we are here for it and it is our intention to get as much as we can, rather than to be carried along an unnatural pathway of biased interests into which it is so easy to fall.

On the other hand, the college has gained a greater state-wide reputation; she has shown what is possible from a school of smaller size in competition with much larger opponents; she is providing a name for her athletes through burning press reports; and lastly makes an Alma Mater upon which the rest of the students can look back upon with pride, but is the face-value worth the price?

ALPHA THETA

The Alpha Theta Literary Society held its regular meeting Monday night, April 21. Roll Call was answered to by a quotation from either Bret Hart or Oliver Wendell Holmes, after which Ernestine DesJardins read a paper on "Genial Humorists, Bret Hart and Oliver Wendell Holmes." Beatrice Cottle then sang "Sylvia" by Oley Speaks. A story, "The Gift By Rupert" by Bret Hart was read by Ann Lyons, thus concluding the evening's program.

HOPS OF THE HORSEHIDE

By P. D. Gesner

Alma College—Won 3; lost 1; percentage, .750.

We lost to Ypsi this week in the first M. I. A. A. tilt. It will be remembered that we lost to Albion in the first conference game last year by a score of 7 to 10. There is still a long season ahead. If the boys tighten up, we'll get the championship rag again this year.

The wind Friday raised havoc with the ball. Of the 67 men that faced the pitchers of both teams, 24 went out on flies or fouls.

Welthoelder played a brilliant game Friday, and a double play by him was the feature of Alma's fielding.

In the third inning of the Ypsi game, Mac Donald was displaying his usual calmness, when suddenly he quickly returned a fast one over the plate. The ball was thrown so quickly that the batter had no time to get ready, and merely stuck out his bat. As a result, there resulted an easy put-out, Mac Donald to Wright.

Shaver had a big day at the bat in the Ypsi game, getting two clean singles, or one-third of Alma's total hits.

It might be said here that every man made a home run last Monday, according to dope from Orchard Lake. The last car got into Alma at 10:30 p. m., and the occupants were singing, "It ain't gonna rain no mo." A Wright Hall fan at the game Friday remarked that Harry Wagner was one of the boys who played "bat."

Lau of Ypsi allowed six hits, and Mac Donald only gave five.

Tredway and Wright each smacked out two-baggers in the Ypsi game. Clint's clout sailed through the fence of center field, and was the longest sock of the day.

Mac Donald gave Ypsi no extra-base hits.

We cannot vouch for the authenticity of the results of Saturday's Slaughter, for Cy the shirtsleeve twirler of the Tigers wouldn't give the scorers any rest. He persistently laid the ball in the groove, and the Alma clouters continually laid it up by the tennis courts.

In the first inning, Cy got wild, and hit Welthoelder. We imagine that it was the "Carl Mays bean ball," but it gave Dutch a safe trip to first.

SECOND INNING—Kruise flied to Welthoelder, who threw him out at first. Nindorf fanned. No runs, no hits, no errors.

SECOND INNING, Alma—Mac Donald knocked out a long two-base hit, and then stole third. Wright hit a long single, scoring Mac Donald, but he was caught off the bag when he tried to steal second. H. Catherman burned out a double, but was caught at second when he attempted too many bags. Beverly crashed out a single. Bouwman clouted a double, scoring Beverly. Hunter gained life on an error, and reached first safely. Carty steeped a ball into the fence for a triple, scoring Bouwman and Hunter. Welthoelder reached first on an error, Shaver socked a clean single, scoring Carty and Welthoelder. Mac Donald growing angry at the minor hits, repeated Carty's stunt, and blazed another triple over the right fielder's head, scoring Shaver. Wright stood at the plate, and rested up, while Cy threw four balls. Catherman reached first on an error, and Mac Donald and Wright scored. Beverly again knocked out a pretty single, but growing overanxious, was caught when he tried to steal second. 8 hits, 9 runs and 3 errors.

Mac Donald and Carty took the long hits of the day with triples.

Mac Donald and Beverly each got two hits in the 2d inning.

Eight runs were scored in the 2nd inning after two men were out.

Mac Donald scored two runs in the second inning.

and Beverly all reached first safely twice in the second inning.

The manager of the Tigers came over at the end of the second inning, and asked to have the game shortened to seven innings. His excuse was that he wished to get back to Saginaw before Sunday. Coach Campbell realizing that the team does not play on Sunday, decided to shorten the game to prevent this predicament.

Bowman struck out eleven men in the seven innings.

Due to the fact that Hunter, Welthoelder and Beverly had a dinner date, Campbell excused them after the big inning, and Rathsburg, Wagner, and Huntley filled their places.

Professor Ewer umpired.

Maisley acted as interpreter.

LIBRARY NOTES

Mr. John Simeon Cleavinger, librarian of Saginaw, Michigan, will speak at chapel and to the library methods class on subjects of general interest, Tuesday, May 6.

During the first part of the week there will be an exhibit of willow-ware in the library display case. The story of the willow plate has been placed at the desk and may be used in the reading room.

CLIPPED

Hope College Seniors will present the play "The Aviator." This play, a difficult one to produce, has been attempted by the Hopites under the direction of a special coach from Grand Rapids.

A cup is the prize striven for in Albion Interfrat Track meet to be held this week. The inter-frat contest is an annual affair which not only increases rivalry between fraternities but bids to bring out athletic possibilities which would otherwise remain dormant. The cup, if won three years in succession becomes a permanent possession.

President Burton of the University of Michigan is reputed to have been given a raise in salary from $18,000 to $24,000 per year. This raise has been accorded the president in view of the increasing official entertainment which comes as part of his duties.

It is reported that two M. A. C. professors have discovered a new and effective remedy in the treatment of rickets by the use of hydroquinine. This compound which has incidentally been used as a developer in photography for many years in a very palatable remedy and bids fair to become a regular treatment.

Wooster College will have a mock Republican Convention in which the regular formalities of the National affair will be used. A general election of chairman, campaign speeches, elections managers, etc. will be instituted to make the convention as realistic as possible.

Hillsdale is anxiously awaiting May 1, which is their customary May day celebration, which the men label sock day. On this date anything is permissible, solid color, clocks, stripes—horizontal, vertical or drunk, checks, mismatching, anything at all that answers the one and only requirement—powerful jazz expressed in color.

Albion has at last selected a coach to succeed John H. Miller who recently resigned. He is R. W. Betchtel present director of athletics at Baldwin-Wallace College, Berea, Ohio. Betchtel, a four sport man, is a graduate of Wittenburg College, Springfield, Ohio. He will have to assist him, W. Clark Dean, ex-Albion graduate and George Smith, Captain of last year's Albion grid squad.

ALMA LOSES FIRST ASSOCIATION GAME

side of the playing field. Rathsburg struckout. Beverly grounded out to second and Lau saved himself from trouble by slipping three passes to Wright.

Williams hit by a pitched ball, was the only man to get on for the Teachers in the sixth. Alma went out one, two, three in this inning.

In the seventh Cooley opened for the Teachers with a single, but was cut down at second on Patterson's fielder's choice. Hinkley flied to Shaver and Lau grounded out. Shaver opened the seventh with a single. MacDonald fouled out to first. Treadway flied to right and Rathsburg was out on a fly to short.

With one gone in the eighth, Phalor singled for the Teachers. Shean struckout. Williams walked. On Ockerman's blow Williams was cut down at second for the third out. With one away for Alma, Wright doubled, but was caught asleep off second. Wagner flied out.

In the ninth Cooley struckout. Patterson singled, but was caught stealing second. Hinkley flied out. Alma waged a desperate fight to score in the ninth to knot up the count and make it a new battle, but luck broke wrong. Carty was safe on Patterson's error. Welthoelder lifted a high fly to Lau. Shaver singled and Carty went to second. MacDonald fouled out, and when Williams caught Treadway's foul behind the plate, the game was over.

MacDonald had a clear edge on Lau in the hurling, allowing five hits to six that were taken from Lau, two of which were extra base knocks. MacDonald walked three men, but in places where no damage was done. He gave every indication of being back in form, regardless of the shoulder hurt in football last fall. Lau must be given credit for pitching a fine game, however. The Ypsi boy worked in fine shape throughout the contest.
