ALMA MUSIC IS ASSEMBLY FEATURE

Musical Organizations Spend A Strenuous Week-End at Furniture City.

Alma musical organizations spent the spot light of popularity during the past week end, when the two glee clubs and the band appeared before the several functions incidental to the convention of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church at Grand Rapids. Both glee clubs assisted in the Assembly programs on Saturday and Sunday, and the band rendered pep-inspiring concerts throughout the day, Saturday.

On Saturday the glee clubs presented only secular numbers, the men's organization appearing first at noon in the lobby of the Morton House. Following the dinner hour, they again entertained the guests of the hotel. Removing to the Masonic Temple at 7:30, they sang before the delegates of the convention, just preceding the main address of William Jennings Bryan.

The women's organization presented programs at the Hotel Pantlin and then at the A. building on Sunday. The women's organization presented programs at the Hotel Pantlin and then at the A. building on Sunday.

Diverse Issues Mark Presbyterian Assembly

The Presbyterian Assembly at Grand Rapids which opened last week has shown no signs of the rumble of battle which preceded the opening and which was heralded to be maintained throughout the session. This harmonious feature which has thus far been maintained adds much to the prospect of successful sessions. Most noteworthy of the events which have taken place has been the election of Dr. Clarence E.

MacCartney, of Philadelphia as moderator of the Church General Assembly.

Dr. MacCartney was elected in a very close race with Dr. C. R. Erdman of Princeton, winning by a vote of 107 to 106. Dr. MacCartney is an ultra-fundamentalist and his election finds the church unalterably committed to that side of the discussion which is agitating every Protestant church.

William Jennings Bryan, who lost the moderatorship last year by but a few votes presented the winner before the assembly as a candidate. Bryan, although from the faith, is a staunch fundamentalist, and has been very active in church circles for the past few years. He was later appointed as vice-moderator.

Much of the time to date has been spent in adopting certain resolutions, completing appointments and other detailed work. The reports of the several committees have been on the docket for some time. Chief among these reports is the one on Bills and overtures. With this committee goes all of the real work of the Assembly. This committee passes on all measures before they are presented to the Assembly. It is reported that there are over 80 of these measures to be presented. A large number of them are given over to the Fosdick case in which a certain element of the church wishes to see Harry Emerson Fosdick removed from the pulpit of his New York church. What will become of this remains to be seen.

Alma Thin-Clads Fall to Normal Tracksters

The Alma College tracksters suffered a severe defeat at the hands of the Mt. Pleasant Normal thin-clads in the second dual meet of the season, on Wednesday, May 21 at the Normal field by a total score of 88-43.

Much better form was shown in several events than over the performances at M. A. C. against the Aggie freshmen last week. Alma failed to gain a point in but one event, the half mile run. The Normals, however showed a superiority in the 100 yd. dash, the mile run, the low hurdles, and broad jump. Bouwman and Bentley were high scorers for Alma each contributing eight points to the total, with Catherman closely following with six and Williams with five.

Dr. McClure's last visit to Alma was at the time of the inauguration of Pres. E. M. Crooks as president of Alma in 1915. At that time he delivered a large address to the graduates which he gave here and his return to Alma as the commencement speaker is certainly to be well received.

The graduating class this year will consist of: Agnes R. Ardis, Evart; Harold Bailey, Flint; M. Mabel Bradford, Alma; Ruth F. Philadelphia Pastor in Chapel Address

Rev. Dr. Bronson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Philadelphia, spoke at the chapel assembly yesterday morning, May 26 on "Religious Service."

Rev. Bronson, who was formerly the pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Saginaw, and friend of the college stopped off at Alma after attending the General Assembly at Grand Rapids.

He spoke especially to the women of the college in an appeal for Christian service. Dr. Bronson appealed to the workings and problems of the young women who have not decided upon their life work.

He spoke of the demand for trained people throughout the world and with the key-word service, he explained not only the openings but the demand for people to give over their life to service.

Fordney to Appear Here Thursday

Through the channels of the Republican Club, Representative Fordney, the "Grand old man of Michigan" has been secured to give a talk in Chapel Thursday morning. Fordney was formerly chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, the most powerful committee in the House, and he was also the father of the Fordney-McCumber Tariff Bill. He will speak on "The History of Tariff and the Republican party, and will no doubt have a message of interest to all. This is the first of a series of lectures which have been arranged by the Republican Club. Chapel will be held at 11 o'clock.

Engineers say that oil is cheaper than new machinery, but does it apply to political machinery.

MEET HILLSDALE HERE

On May 30, Memorial Day, the Alma College baseball team will meet Hillsdale on the Alma diamond in one of the final Michigan Intercollegiate games of the year, the one other M. I. A. A. game left for the local field being with Kalamazoo College on June 2.

The Hillsdale team has been playing some good ball and nearly caused the defeat of the Maroon and Cream at Hillsdale, Alma's ability to make hits count in that game being the one thing that saved the game for the locals, as every hit made brought in one or more runs.

Hillsdale is anxious to hand the two-time Champs the razzberry and it is certain that the struggle Friday will see the Blue and White battling to the limit to defeat the Campbellites.

Coach Campbell will be well set with hurfers for this game as Beauchamp, MacDonald and Catherman will do the heavy mound work in the season struggle.

Senior Play Is Rapidly Taking Form

Robert Wyatt	Stanley Vliet
Harold Hudson	Hugh Tarrant
Pauline Strick	Norma Messer
Glady Fryxell

"A Pair of Sixes" the play which will be presented by the Senior class on June 17, is a farce comedy which promises to be a knockout and feature of the year's program. The play which is annually scheduled as part of the commencement week program will be given at the Strand Theater, on Tuesday night before Commencement.

The action of the play is centered around the disapproved and not harmonious partnership of Nettie and John (Robert Wyatt and Lowell Hudson) pill manufacturers. One was the creator of the pill ingredients and the other the inventor of the pill covering with both making the meritorious quality of the pill. Circumstances are brought to a reckoning when their salesman, Tony Toler (S. A. Shoemaker) lands a large sale through the head of a certain merchandising house, Mr. Applegate (James Rose.) The partners lose the sale however by their arguing and their lawyer is called to effect a dissolving of the partnership. No agreement is reached so they play a game of poker to decide the issue with the loser, incidentally, being the others servant for a period of one year.

Intense situations accompanied by an abundance of fast action characterizes the play so you cannot afford to miss it. This will be the last opportunity to see the seniors in campus roles, and with Wyatt, Hudson, and Miss Fryxell in the cast, a pleasing entertainment is assured.

ALMA LOSES TO WOOSTER 2-1

Buckeyes Take Advantage of Errors and Win Feature Before Ministers.

Before a crowd of some hundreds of Presbyterian ministers from every section of the United States and a handful of other fans, the Alma College baseball team went down to an unmerited defeat before the crack Wooster University team of Wooster, Ohio, at Grand Rapids, Sunday by a score of 2 to 1, both of the Buckeye runs being the results of wobbles by Almaties. Bert Bouwman, having wonderful baseball, should easily have had a 1 to 0 victory.

Although the crowd was small the event was a big one. Dr. Clarence MacCartney, the new general moderator of the Presbyterian Church pitched the first ball, and the famous William Jennings Bryan, of the famous 19 to 1, and the more famous granite pier, who is always willing and always in a receptive attitude, now with moderator of the Presbyterian Church, caught the pill, and the pill, he was lauded. He did not duck, evidently being fearful of the delivery of the moderator.

Near first base there was a small lake, and over near third was located another, the result of several days of heavy rain. The paths were heavy, but on the whole the field was in good shape, the weather considered.

As E. W. Dickerson said in the Sunday Herald, "The score of the game should have been 1 to 0 in favor of Alma. Both runs scored by the Ohioans were gifts, pure and simple. Bert Bouwman, who is so tall and slender that he appears to be walking on stilts, pitched wonderful ball for Alma. He breezed fifteen men altogether and did not issue a single free transportation. Not one of the five credited to the Wooster players was a real hit. Three were grounders that shifted through the infield. Two were flies that should have been caught."

Wooster counted its first run in the second inning, in spite of the fact that Bouwman whiffed three from the plate in this session, after doing a like trick in the first. A scratch hit let Gabriel get to first and on a passed ball he took second. MacDonald misjudged a high fly and it fell to the ground and went for a hit, Gabriel, appearing much like his namesake, to the Woosterites as he cashed the run.

In the fourth Bouwman again struck out three men, but in spite of this Wooster scored the winning run in this inning. Gabriel smacked one on the ground at Hunter, who juggled it and it went for two sacks. Langell and Kate struck out. Irish scratched a hit through third and Gabriel again played the angel stunt for the Ohioans, the run being the winning marker.

Carly opened the sixth inning for Alma with a triple and a moment later he scored on an infield out, giving (Continued on page four)

Presbyterian Synod to Meet at Alma

The Presbyterian Synod of Michigan will meet in Alma this year, for the second consecutive time, the session this year to be held from June 27-30.

The return of the Synod to Alma this year is evidence of the fact that the Presbyterian ministers of the state last year found Alma a satisfactory place to hold their sessions and one that is centrally located. It was through the courtesy of the college which turned over its buildings for the purpose that the Synod was brought to Alma last year.

There is a strong possibility that the Synod may decide to continue meeting in Alma for years to come. The program for the sessions of the Synod this year is not yet completed and it will probably be about three weeks before it is announced.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Bates of Grand Rapids, on May 21, a daughter, Patricia Lou. Mr. Bates will be remembered as a student at Alma 1919-22, Mrs. Bates (Henrietta Parker) at Alma 1921-22.

Act of 1879, Alma, Mich.

FUNDAMENTALISM

1. The Bible IS the Word of God.
2. Jesus Christ is THE Son of God in a sense in which NO other is.
3. The birth of Jesus was SUPER-NATURAL.
4. The Death of Jesus was EXPIATORY.
5. Man is the product of SPECIAL CREATION.
6. Man is a SINNER, fallen from the original righteousness, and, apart from God's redeeming grace, is hopelessly lost.
7. Man is justified by FAITH in the atoning blood of Christ. Result: Supernatural regeneration from ABOVE.

MODERNISM

1. The Bible CONTAINS the Word of God.
2. Jesus Christ is A SON of God in a sense that ALL men are.
3. The Birth of Jesus was NATURAL.
4. The death of Jesus was EXEMPLARY.
5. Man is the product of EVOLUTION.
6. Man is the unfortunate VICTIM of environment but through self culture can make good.
7. Man is justified by WORKS in following Christ's example. Results: Natural, development from WITHIN.

Herewith are presented in brief, the contrasting view-points of the so called Fundamentalists and Modernists in their present church controversy. This controversy has grown to an alarming size recently, and is serving to arouse an interest which bids to divide the old time substantial creeds unless some decision can be reached.

Although heralded to be the major issue of the present Assembly of the Presbyterian Church at Grand Rapids, it has been side-tracked somewhat and has not been in evidence in any of the programs, a very redeeming feature and which it is hoped, will not be brought up.

The close decision of Dr. MacCartney over Dr. Erdman for the moderatorship of the church was looked upon as a victory for the fundamentalists but investigation finds no modernistic viewpoints in the policy of the defeated candidate although his supporters may have been from that camp.

The ultra-fundamentalist group which supported Dr. MacCartney and of which he is a leader, secured the desired results when he was elected to office. To him was given the power of appointing the chief officials of the church machine for the coming year. Following out his policy, ultrafundamentalists are found at the head of practically every department following his appointments to date.

Bryan, as vice-moderator, forms a powerful link in the fundamentalist stronghold, a fact which is joyfully accepted by all of those who are adherents to the old beliefs of the Presbyterian Church.

The Fosdick affair, the leading rebel movement, which is holding its own for the spotlight as the leading issue of the Assembly appears to be doomed. The new moderator will be remembered as the leader last year in a movement to oust Fosdick as pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of New York City for alleged heresies.

Whether the new movement will remain in the ascendancy remains merely a speculation as far as the Presbyterians are concerned. Little will be heard from its ranks during the coming year and it is hoped that no further controversy will ensue as it is more and more incurring the condemnation of the church leaders.

Drop Two Games During Past Week

The Base ball squad continued in hard luck when they dropped two more games last week, losing the second tilt with Albion at Albion on Monday, May 19 by a score of 9-3, and the Mt. Pleasant tilt which was the season's feature for the Normals was handed to them to the tune of 5-3.

Errors seemed to be the direct cause for both defeats. Poor support behind Beauchamp was directly accountable for the early lead piled up by the Albionites. Albion counted all of her runs in three innings, getting two in third, 3 in the fourth and four in the sixth. Albion garnered but seven hits off of Beauchamp and Catherman but accepted nine runs to have a safe margin at the end.

The Alma hitters took five hits off of Perkins, one of which was a homer by Welthoelder, a beautiful hit which was about the redeeming feature of the game, as far as Alma was concerned.

Poor support behind Bouwman again caused defeat when the team journeyed to Mt. Pleasant, Wednesday. The game was much of a duel between the two-speed ball artists, Bouwman and Miller.

In the opening inning Shaver slammed the ball for the longest hit ever seen on the Normal field. Two were on at the time. His feature hit and Bouwman's fine hurling were the high spots of the game.

HIGH SCHOOL TRACK MEET

Davis Field was the scene of the annual field and track meet of the Gratiot County Athletic Association, on Friday, May 23, until the judges decided to call it off on account of rain in the middle of the afternoon.

Rain and threatening weather kept the attendance down but the loyal supporters from all parts of the county who were present made up a fair sized crowd who were on hand to see their favorites perform. Only a part of the events were completed and the remainder was postponed until this afternoon. Among the high school contestants were several of such ability who show unusual promise of being heard from in later years. In spite of the inclement weather, records were lowered in a number of the events.

Hillsdale College will hold a summer session from June 27—August 2. Special courses in Botany, Zoology, Music and Sociology will be among those offered at that time.

Campusology

On Wednesday evening, at 6 P. M., May 21, was an informal dinner in the dining room of Wright Hall. Tables were laid for about one hundred and ten persons. The tables were delightfully decorated with knives and forks, plates, salt and pepper shakers, sugar bowls, and about eight people at a table. The room was decorated with about a dozen swipes including the head swipe. The dinner was held in honor of the examinations which will soon be here. A short talk was given followed by a general discussion of the weather and other things. The menu was as follows:

- Water
- Salt Pepper Sugar
- Chop Suey A La Hash
- Soaked Rice
- Bread A Little Butter
- Cream—Mostly Milk
- Stewed Beans Combination Salad
- More Bread and Water
- Spoons
- Wright Hall Ice Cream Sprinkled with Bakers Cocoa
- Coffee Milk

The dinner was followed by a heavy meal at the Tiffin, Paris and European.

PHILOMATHEAN

The Philomathean Literary Society was called to order Monday night by the president. Roll call was responded to by an interesting fact about travel in Switzerland. After the business meeting, the program was opened by Jennie Gilbert who read an excellent paper on "Switzerland" as the Playground of Europe. Rhea Joy Stinson gave a pianologue, "The Song of Life" in a very pleasing manner. Nina Church ably presented a report upon points of interest to the traveller in Switzerland. The meeting was adjourned.

COLLEGE GIRLS ESCAPE

Tuesday afternoon near the Pere Marquette crossing on E. Superior streets, automobiles driven by Miss Marion Grover, popular freshman co-ed and Mrs. Sherman of Sumner, collided, the Grover car turning over twice, and the occupants, Miss Grover and Miss Katherine Joiner, another freshman from Alma narrowly escaping serious injuries.

Three wheels were knocked from the Grover car while it was otherwise badly damaged, as a result of the collision. The other car did not receive as serious damages.

Miss Grover and Miss Joiner received only a few bruises from the accident and are counting themselves highly fortunate that the injuries were not worse. The other party received only a bad shaking up.

THE COLLEGE CLUB

Already we feel the gloom of the steadily approaching commencement.

In a business meeting Monday night "Willy" Ritter announced that she was going to leave us soon for Detroit and What not? We are not despairing though, because, although (in the future) the whole college misses (Mrs.) her, we are confident that she will always consider herself as "Willy" of the College Club.

We want to say just three things more:

1. As sure as the apple blossoms come out before June 18, we are going to have "An Apple Blossom Fete."
2. We are proud to say that Mrs. Crooks is now an honorary member.
3. We have a check book.

ALPHA THETA

The Alpha Theta Literary Society met as usual Monday night, May 19. Roll call was answered to by something of interest about George Ade. A paper on "The Life of George Ade" was read by Dorothy Bradley, followed by a piano solo by Elizabeth Williams. Katherine Jenkins read "Seeing Things at Night" by Eugene Field. A short story by George Ade was read by Augusta Sturtridge, thus concluding the program.

English Language Puzzles.

The English language is still a puzzle to many Japanese wireless operators. As an illustration, an American operator on an Alaskan steamer heard a Japanese operator working and asked for his position and who he was. The reply came back that he was Takj somebody and that he was working in the radio room. Another American operator inquired regarding the report of a great typhoon in mid-ocean, and the Japanese replied that it was an ill wind that blowed no one any greater favor. Another questioner asked whether the Chinese had instituted a boycott on certain American-made goods. The Japanese operator answered that so far as he knew there had been no boys captured by the Chinese for some time.—Radio News.

BAWL GAMES

Alma 3, Albion 9.
Alma 3, Mt. Pleasant 5.
Kalamazoo (Rain.)
Alma 1, Wooster 2.

Bowman certainly made an impression on the Presbyterian clergy of the U. S. if anyone did. He struck out fifteen men in the Wooster game, and struck out every man on the Wooster team at least once. He also struck out the lead-off man three times.

Before the game started, William Jennings Bryan came out upon the field. He was highly cheered by all in th-stands and bleachers. He was dressed in his usual grey cape and soft crusher hat, but soon removed them and donned the chest protector, mask, and mitt of Catcher (arty.
Then looking about for a cap, he spied Gil Davis, so he immediately acquired the Royal Oak boy's cap. Thus drowsed he approached tin* plate to catch the first ball of the game, which Moderator Macartney was about to throw. At the last moment the Grape Juice Advocate decided that it would be best to catch the little sphere in the natural way, so he abandoned the paraphernalia which adorned him, and caught the first ball of the game in his bare hands.

During the whole of the Bryan catching act, the movie cameras and Graphlexes clicked along merrily exposing yard after yard of film.

The press box below the stands kept a continual stream of reports flowing into the newspapers. Two telephones, a telegraph key, and three typewriters recorded the game play by play.

Early in the game Trodway made a spectacular catch. A high fly came a had angle, but Clint kept full speed ahead and caged the would-be hit. There were two on bases at the 'mi', and both men had crossed the plate, but as there were already two out, the runs did not count. "A snitch in time saved two."

At the Banquet at the Masonic Temple Bryan said that many times he had been hailed as the next President, but never the "ex" President.

Bryan also said that a small boy stopped him on the street and said,
"Mr. Bryan, are you going to be elected President this time?" "Pm not running," Bryan replied. "Aw Gwan," the kid answered, "My dad
-ays that you always run."

She was pretty as a picture, so he framed her.

The pictures of William Jennings
Bryan, commissioner of the General Assembly, H. M. Crooks, president of Alma College, and Dr. Wishart, president of Wooster College appeared on the front page of the Grand Rapids paper Sunday morning.

The remaining games before Field
Day are Olivet, May 27, Hillsdale, May 30 and Kalamazoo, May 31. The Hillsdale and Kalamazoo games are to be played at home.

Motto: Iaft's win a game this week so we will have something to talk about.

WOOSTER GAME

the Maroon and Cream its only run of the fray.

In two other innings Alma filled the sacks with two men away, hut on neither occasion could the hits to tie up the struggle be pulled from the offerings of Stern, captain and hurler of the Wooster team.
