A GREAT SUCCESS

Prof. Veatch Deserves Great Credit as Director--Solos by Miss McGreaham and Mr. Fannell Especially Good

Never before has the Alma college preciative and enthusiastic audience

 than last Tuesday evening when the first of this year's series of concerts was presented. Judging form the enthusiastic applause a more popular program could not have been given. Practically ever number was encored and a second rendition of many numbers was necessary.The greater part of the program included the most popular selections from the operas "Faust,", "Carmen," "Il Trovatore," "Lucia" and Lohengrin."
The program opened with a brilliant rendition of the "Waltz" from "Faust" Then came the "Miserere." In this the solo parts were sung by Mr. F. A. Fannell and Miss Bonnie Fuiler who were well supported by the ladies' chorus. Another pleasing number was the trio "Hast Thou Wandered" from "The Rose Maden" which was well given by Miss Fuller, Miss McGreaham and Prof. Veatch. The popular tenor solo "Far From the Summer Blossoms" form "Rose Maiden" was sung by Mr. Fannell.
Next came the "Sextette" the most popular selection in the opera "Lucia." This was perhaps the most dramatic number of the entire program and was given in splendid style. In "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice" from "Samson and Delilah" Miss McGreaham sang with considerable tonal ability and sympathetic interpretation.
The charming "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" came next. In this selection was splendid opportunity for shading, and was well given except the last few measures in which the chorus varied slightly from the pitch. This was followed by a stirring rendition of the "March of the Toreadores" from "Carmen" which was sung with great spirit and dash. The male chcrus was especially well sung.
The Program closed with the "Soldiers Chorus" from "Faust." It is hard to imagine a more stirring rendition. The audience refused to leave until the number was repeated.
The piano accompaniments were played in a highly satisfactory manner by Miss Amsbury.
The success of the evening was due in greatest measure to Prof. Reese F. Veatch who so ably conducted. The qualities of an enthusiastic, astistic and successful conductor are all his.
Plans are well under way for a music

Business Manager

SWEATERS FOR SENIORS

In last week's issue of the Almanian it was stated that sweaters were to be given to all those whose activities in college athletics end this year provided that the finance of the association permit. It was a question in the minds of many if the finances of the assciation would permit but last week the needless worry ended when J. W. Robinson told business manager, Anderson, that he would furnish the money for the sweatters. Mr. Robinson has often proven by his generosity that " $a$ friend in need is a friend indeed."
The association wish thru the Alma nian to express their thanks to Mr . Robinsen-for this manifestation of his loyal support to the college.

ALPHA THETA

The Alpha Theta society is closing its first term of work this week with the election of officers to be held Monday. This has been a very successful term and the work with the twelve new Daughters of Minerva" has been very Italian art, and the closing regular meeting of the year had the special feature of being open to the honorary members, Miss Haefliger, 'Miss Cornwall and Miss Bjoin. The society was treated to candy by the senior class.

PHILO FAIR

Last Saturday, Dec. 6, was held the nnual Philo Fair. The centers of atraction were the fish pond which was cleverly thought up and the candy counter with its different kinds of sweets. The fancy work tables showed much work and the dainty articles attracted the eyes of all. Another pleasing feature was the hot cocoa and hermits served in comfortable chairs around the grate fire. The sale lasted until $5: 30$ in the afternoon and about $$ 40$ was cleared.

GOOD SPIRIT

It was pleasing to note the good spirit by each class, These games are just as interesting as if played with teams from away. Get out students and show your enthusiasm. A
"OLE" ANDERSON CAPTAIN
The " A " track men met recently and Rapids captain of the 1914 team of Elk years of athletic service which comprised some mighty efficient work in the weight events for the track team and some even better labor for the football team earned for the 1913 edition of the Hercules' fraternity one of the highest athletic honors at the the of the student years "Ole" body. For the past four years "Ole" has invariable occupied a box seat at every championship entertainment which Alma has had and the students expect that this nimble leviathan will furnish an impressionistic perivs mance during the Intercollegiate field and track meet at Albion next June,
There is considerable significance at tached to the election of "Ole". Upon his work in the weight events at the state athletic carnival next spring will depend Alma's standing to a very great extent. He has undevoloped opportunities which should make him the best weight man that Michigan Itercollegiate has or ever will have, and if he assumes his proper place in track affairs he will make for himself and Alma a lasting reputation. It is the confident expectation of all Alma students that the new captain will suspend some irreproachable records during his last appearance before an athletic crowd.

PARTY AT RINK

Last Tuesday afternoon, at the roller rink, a very enjoyable time was had by those, who at stated times are to be found at Hogan's or Hyde's tables in Wright Hall dining room.
Each person invited another. So far no suits for damage to the rink floor have been instigated. Ask Oscar for further information. All adjourned to Gray's at six o'clock for a bontiful supper. Everyone agrees that Hogan is surely original in his idea for a good time.

FOOT BALL BANQUET

The second annual football banquet will be held at Wright Hall, Tuesday evening, December 16, beginning at $5: 30 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{m}$. Last year this proved to be he grandest affairs of the year let very student turn out and greet the team. Many town's people are expected to be there.

ORATORICAL CONTEST

Held in College Chapel Friday

 Eve., December 12 by the Freshmen Ladies
LARGE AUDIENCE

Miss Lois May Received First Place One of the Best Contests Ever Held in Chapel

The Freshmen Wonen's orrtorical contest held in the college chapel Friday evening, Dec. 12, was well attended by the faculty and students.
The evening's program was begun by Miss Bonnie Fuller, with a vocal solo. Miss Fuller as usual was gladly received by the audience,
The first oration of the evening was by Miss Adelaide Ballou the subject being "International peace." Miss Ballou had an excelledt oration. She plainly brought out the horrors of war and the great need of international peace. Her closing appeal was very direct and effective and her oration was well presented.
Next came the oration "Social and Industrial Conditions of the American Working girl," by Miss Zulu Walters. Though her voice was not very strong it was pleasing and clear. Her subject was well handled, and the needs and conditions of the American working girl was brought before the minds of the people in a far different light than had ever before been Following Miss Walters came Miss Berniece Ireland who spoke on the subject "Protection of Women in Industry." Miss Ireland brought out the facts that woman has always been a big factor in industry and undoubtedly will continue to be; that they have been laboring under unjust conditions; and that there is a great need of reform in the protection of women. Her platform appearance was very pleasing, and her final appeal was exceedingly strong, greatly moving her hearers, In the minds of many she was a close second to Miss May.
The last oration was by Miss Lois May who had well chosen the subject "America for Americans." Miss May had perfect control of herself on the platform. Her manner of delivery was very forceful and plainly showed her efficient training. He oration touched upon the immigration to America and the religions, social and industrial conditions indroduced here as a result. She brought out the dangers of the amalgamation of races. She closed with an appeal for the regulation of immigration in order that only a better class of fereigners might be admitted to our country.
Her delivery and perfect handling of the subject won for her a unamious decision of the judges for first place.
This was Miss May's first appearance in college oratory. Much is expected of her in the future, It might be added that all of the contestants did so
