Corporal Hicks, late of the United States Cavalry, was sitting in the parlor on the sofa. SHE was there too, but she wasn't sitting on the sofa. But never mind that. "Tell me," she breathed, "what was the greatest battle you were in?" Now Bill was honest but he hated to say that the biggest scrap he had experienced was in the Last Chance Billiard Hall, so he said, "Ah, g'wan." "Argonne," she breathed, "My hero," as she fell on his neck. Announcements will be made later.

In Wright Hall
He—What were we talking about.
She—I don't know, who went out the door last?

"Don't sigh," Kemp cried,
For we will wed
As soon as I graduate."
"But oh my, oh my!" was her reply,
"That's so indefinite."

At the table the other day some one remarked that "In Sweden the sun stays up all night," only to be met with the reply that there are lots of sons in Alma that do the same thing.

Here We Are
S—een rambling aimlessly about
E—xpects to be entertained by everyone
N—ever works; always bluffs.
I—nnoculated with his own importance
O—rders lunch beyond his means.
R—eceives high marks (E's and F's).
C—upids arrows float about freely (in his mind)
L—aughs at everything but a genuine joke.
A—rrives in time to be too late.
S—peaks by means of the Webster dictionary
S—orry when it is too late (as usual). —Holcad.

The chauffeur was speeding along at a great rate. And he and she were nestled cozily in the back seat. After a long silence he said:
"Are you quite comfortable dear?"
"Yes, love."
"The cushions are soft and cozy?"
"Yes, darling."
"You don't feel any jolts?"
"No, sweetest one."
"And there is no draught on your back?"
"No, my ownest own."
"Then change seats with me."

The world is old, yet likes to laugh,
New jokes are hard to find;
This present editorial staff
Can't tickle every mind.
So if you meet some ancient joke
Decked out in modern guise,
Don't frown and call the thing a fake
Just laugh—don't be so wise.

He told me I was the first girl he ever loved."
"When was it?"
"Monday night."
"Then he lied to me on Tuesday."

Dean Pollock, in the hall of Wright
—Don't make so much noise coming down stairs.

Gladys—Well, you just see how quiet you can be when you fall down stairs.

Uncle Charley (at the Wright House)—How's the chicken to-day."
Waitress—Fine, how's yourself?

Zinn (in poetry)—Our book says Tennyson was a bum poet.
Prof. Hamilton—Where did you find that?
Zinn pulls out his book and points to the chapter heading: "Tennyson's Rank As a Poet."

Visitor on the campus—What kind of a fellow is that big heavy set young man in the Freshman class that they call McFaddyn?

Beattie: He's one of those fellows that always grabs a stool when there is a piano to be moved.

PHILOMATHEAN
The regular meeting of Philomathean was held Monday, May 2. Roll call was answered by the name of a favorite American poem with the author and a quotation. The impromptu, "My Favorite American Poet, and why I like him" was given by Ulilla Belfrey. Pauline Strick read from the poems of Miller, Honey and Sill. The next number was an impromptu debate with Louise Hainline, Helen Carpenter and Grace Beshgetoor on the affirmative and Avis Lane, Margaret Poole and Helen Scott on the negative. Adjournment.

Legionnaires to Meet Collegians

On Wednesday of next week the undefeated baseball team representing the George W. Myers Post No.
132, American Legion, will meet the Alma Collegians in a benefit game for the college athletic association.

"Buddy" Ryan, who is managing the Legionnaire baseball team is pounding together a strong aggregation that will make the collegians go the limit to win, and it will be a real ball game from start to finish.

Some of the former college players, who are members of the Legion will be in the lineup. It is expected that "Bullet" Fitch, "Scoop" Rogers,
"Eddie" Johnston, "Bottles" Depew, and Art and Geo. Simenton will be in fighting togs. Coach Steele, who formerly hurled the pill for Washington & Jefferson College will probably do the hurling, although Depew or Johnston may be selected by Manager Ryan.

Coach Steele will send the strongest college lineup possible against Ryan's Legionnaires, with the probabilities that "Hawkshaw" French will do the twirling for the Maroon and Cream.

The game is a return benefit for the benefit football game that the collegians gave the Legionnaires on Armistice day, and has been scheduled as a result of a suggestion by Ryan.

The game will be staged on Republic field at 4:00 p. m. Wednesday according to present plans.

STUDENT COUNCIL MEETING

Meeting of the Student Council was held April 25, 1921. The members present were Prof. Hamilton, Esther Friedrichs, Allan Follette,
Robert Wyatt, Mildred Cash, Russell
Wilson, Roger Zinn, and LeVansler.
After the roll call, the minutes of last meeting were read. With one correction they were approved.

Motion made and seconded that the report brought to the council by the investigation committee be carried to the faculty for their approval.
Carried.

Motion made and seconded that "toddling" be prohibited at all lances in Alma College. Carried.

Motion made and seconded that
Mr. Hamilton, by request of Mr.
French, chairman of Campus Day activities, carry a request to the faculty, to set aside April 28, 1921, for Campus Day. Carried.

Motion made and seconded that
Mr. Wilson's report on the investigation of the Almanian support, be accepted. Carried.

Adjournment.

L. LeVansler, Sec.

From a recent survey of fifty-two girls in the University of Missouri, it was found that the girls averaged $62.10 a month for expenses. The amounts ran from $65.00 to $135.00 a month. Only eight spent more than $75.00 and four more than $100.
The report does not say whether this amount covers board, room, clothes, books and the thousand and one things which are considered essential to university life.

A pencil is often hard pushed to tell the truth. So is an editor.
