BETA TAU SMOKER ENJOYED BY FROSH

First Year Men Reveled With Betas At Fraternity House

Rain without but good cheer within was the watchword at the Beta Tau House last Monday evening when the Beta Taus were hosts to thirty-five Freshmen at their annual smoker. In spite of the inclement weather conditions the guests arrived with undampened ardor and high hopes for a jolly good time. Nor was anyone disappointed on this score. For from the opening of the program, when "Win" Thomas led the company in a rousing "Howdy Do" song with appropriate, if not always complimentary, lines rendered by "Hebe," till the last guests tramped bravely forth to transfer the scenes of their activity to the dampened lawns of Wright Hall everyone lost themselves in hilarity and the fleeting hours of the evening sped past on winged feet.

After a few words of welcome by President Scheib, the vice-president "Win" Thomas, master of ceremonies for the evening, introduced first Professor Hamilton, considered the god-father of the organization, and then the three Honorary members of the society: Professors MacCurdy, Kaufman and Brokenshire. With this short formal program the guests adjourned to bridge, music, and a general good time which was assisted by the liberal partaking of smokes, candy and pop-corn. The society was particularly favored by the presence of Leonard Hubbard, the young but popular music maker who "sure can tickle the ivories."

After everyone had about decided that they had seen everything and eaten everything and heard everything that was to be seen, eaten, and heard they were calmly informed by the Refreshment Committee that they "hadn't seen anything yet" and they were then initiated into the delights of refreshing dishes of ice-cream and brimming glasses of cool "aged four years in the wood" gingerale. So it was a late hour indeed when the inveterate bridgers finally tore themselves from the tables and the last guest reluctantly departed. Everybody happy? We'll tell the world!

PARENTS' DAY ENJOYED BY ALL

Large Representation Of Parents Guests Of College Saturday

Last Saturday was formally designated as Parents' Day and as such it proved to be a most enjoyable occasion. Most of the "home folks" arrived in the morning and after looking over the campus a bit, congregated in Wright Hall to enjoy the banquet dinner which had been prepared in their honor. Formality was forgotten and the few minutes before the dinner hour were spent in meeting other fathers and mothers and the members of the faculty who were present.

Dinner was served in the college dining room and the hall was filled to capacity with students and guests. Adjourning to the Reception Room, the visitors listened to a brief address of welcome by President Crooks and a very short program. Miss Katherine Lehner sang two very delightful solos, after which Miss Louise Salmon, President of the Senate, welcomed the visitors on behalf of the student body. Mr. Homer Barlow closed the short entertainment by singing two bass solos.

After a short social hour, the gathering journeyed over to Davis Field and watched the Almanians humble the Baptists 18-0. Some of the parents departed for their several homes after the game and others remained to enjoy the remainder of the day.

The Board of Control is to be commended for instituting such an enjoyable day; for the expressions of pleasure from both parents and students testified to the success of Alma's first Parents' Day.

MASS MEETING WAS SPIRITED AFFAIR

Last Friday's mass meeting in the Chapel was a real success and seemed the more so when contrasted with the farce of a week ago. There was a large turnout of students and the faculty was excellently represented by Dean Mitchell.

The Band, which made such an excellent showing last year and which is just as good this year, played a number of lively marches which started the meeting off with a bang. Everybody yelled and the football men gave some excellent and inspiring talks.

Dean Mitchell gave a short speech, in which he reviewed the past relationship of Hillsdale and Alma, emphasizing the fact that Alma has nearly always won from the Baptists and that this is no time to change our "foreign policy." When a man has been on the Alma campus for over a quarter of a century, he should have accumulated more than an average amount of college spirit—and our Dean certainly has—everyone at the meeting enjoyed having him there.

The program closed with the singing of the "Alma Chant" and everyone left in much better spirits.

DR. SPENCER TALKS TO CHAPEL GROUP

College Trustee Gave An Excellent Address Last Tuesday Morning

Last Tuesday morning the chapel audience once more had the pleasure of listening to Reverend Williard K. Spencer of Ionia, a member of the Board of Trustees and one of the oldest pastors in the Synod of Michigan.

He gave a brief but very excellent address on the subject, "The Bulwarks of America." He stated that there are four great bulwarks of the American nation: Perseverance and loyalty to duty, gratitude to God Almighty, obedience to constitutional law, and obedience to and respect for the laws of God.

He said that it was not his remotest intention to make a political speech, and so, when his marks approached dangerously near to the borderline, he humorously turned to Dr. Crooks, and playing upon that famous phrase of Patrick Henry said, "If this be politics Mr. President, make the most of it!"

Under his first division, he recalled the patience and loyalty that made possible the founding of the nation by the pilgrims of 1620; and the construction of the Panama Canal after other nations had tried and failed. Secondly, he recalled the institution of the American Thanksgiving Day, when the devout and thankful pilgrim fathers convened on that first November festal day and worshiped their God. He then stressed the duty of the American citizen in obeying the laws of our government. Finally, he pointed out, in his very effective manner, that all these bulwarks were as nothing if mankind does not reverence and obey the Divine Laws.

The visits of Dr. Spencer are always pleasurable to the student body and the wish was expressed that he come soon again.

KAPPA IOTA SOCIETY GAVE PLEDGE DINNER

On Monday evening, October 22, the Kappa Iota Literary Society held their annual pledge banquet.

At one long table covers were laid for twenty-three dainty cards. In the center was a basket of Chrysanthemums and tall candles in the Society colors, purple and gold, lighted both ends of the table. Small silver vanity cases were given to the pledges as favors, between the courses. At seven o'clock the pledge were taken downtown to the Strand theatre by their big sisters. After the movie, the girls went over to Pats.

Upon returning the new girls were taken to the society room where they were finally pledged.

Outside guests for the evening were the patronesses, Mesdames Lobdell, Campbell and Ewer and Miss Elizabeth Burgess, an Alumna of 1928.

ALMA HOMECOMING NEXT SATURDAY

Day Of Enjoyment And Activity For The Alumni Planned By Council

Next Saturday is Homecoming! It is also the day of the Albion game! We will meet our friends on the campus and our foes on the gridiron! It will be a great day!

Homecoming Day will be replete with activity. The Alumni will hold their annual Wright Hall luncheon in the college dining room at noon. After lunch the students and alumni will have a real old get-together and talkfest in the dining room, after which they will adjourn to Davis field to witness the football classic of the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association.

The members of the Alumni will be guests of Dr. and Mrs. Crooks at the Presidents' home following the game, where they will enjoy "a bite to eat." In the evening the annual Homecoming Dance will be held in the Gymnasium.

The Student Council will have the campus all decked out for the gala occasion and the merchants downtown have promised to make the main thoroughfare attractive and colorful with maroon and cream and red, white and blue.

There will be a large parade of students and floats down Superior street immediately before the game. The procession will be headed by the largest band in the M. I. A. A., and the Frosh, "in full dress", will bring up the rear.

A large number of the Alumni have written that they are coming. It will be a big day!

BUTTER & EGG MAN AT STRAND FRIDAY

Drama Club's Three Act Comedy Promises A Big Laugh

Next Friday evening the Dramatic Club of the College will give its initial performance of the school year. The play selected, "The Butter and Egg Man" is an excellent comedy and sets the stage for a very entertaining evening.

The Drama Club, under the guidance of Director Horton has been working for some weeks getting the production ready for its first staging in Alma. There is some real talent in the several roles of the comedy and if you really care to rest your face muscles, as the glaring billboards suggest, go to the Strand with the rest of the folks next Friday evening at eight o'clock. It will be a fine way to begin the Homecoming festivities.

Reserved tickets are now on sale and it is advisable to get them early. A block of reserved seats will be reserved for homecomers.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES MET ON TUESDAY

The Board of Trustees of Alma College held their semi-annual meeting in the Administration building last Tuesday morning. One of their number, Reverend Williard K. Spencer of Ionia, spoke to the students and faculty during the Chapel period, after which the Trustees convened in the President's office for a short business meeting.

After the business session the members were entertained at a luncheon in Wright Hall tendered them by the Dean of Women.

The members of the Board who attended the meeting were: W. O. Hughtart of Grand Rapids, Carl Bonbright of Flint, Dr. Spencer of Ionia, John W. S. Pierson of Stanton, Rev. Lewis S. Brooks of Detroit, Rev. Samuel H. Forrer of Detroit, M. W. Tanner of Saginaw, Mrs. William Balke of Alma, Rev. John Wirt of Kalamazoo, Mrs. N. J. Berston of Flint; and A. P. Cook and President Crooks of the College.

ALPHA THETA AND PLEDGES REVEL

A happy group of girls congregated in the Alpha Theta room on Tuesday evening, October the twenty-third, where the members entertained the pledges. At eight o'clock girls were seen in the corridors on their way to the upper story where they found happiness in either bridge or dancing as soon as they arrived. Hilarity reigned with every type of stage dancing, suitably accompanied by an orthophonic which instilled pep into all. After such strenuous amusement the girls welcomed the sight of tuna fish salad and sandwiches which were followed by ice cream and cake. Reluctantly did the girls leave, having enjoyed the evening's activities, but books and quiet hours must be given due consideration and too, there shall be many more social affairs before June in which we may all take part. As guests of the society, the Misses Biondi, Boyd, Cashmore and Witkop joined the group who offered much to make the evening a joyful one. At ten o'clock quiet again ruled and the first party of the new Alpha Theta group had been declared a great success.

BERLIN PASTOR SPEAKS IN CHAPEL

Dr. James E. Dickey, Honorary of Alma, Gave Fine Talk Wednesday

The Reverend Dr. James F. Dickey, for the past thirty-four years pastor of the American church in Berlin, Germany, gave a very excellent and inspiring talk during the chapel service last Thursday morning.

President Crooks introduced the speaker as one of the oldest living men upon whom Alma College has conferred an honorary degree. Reverend Dickey was given the degree of Doctor of Divinity by the College Faculty in 1891.

Dr. Dickey based his remarks on the admonition of the apostle Paul in his message to the Corinthians, in which he advises them to forget the things that are behind and strive everlastingly toward the worthwhile goal of all human endeavor which is, service to God. Dr. Dickey told his chapel listeners that this striving should be the sum total of human effort; that it is the one really worthwhile aim of mankind.

Reverend Dickey further admonished them to remember that the time has come when they must forget childish things. He said, "The man who graduates from Alma College should have culture." To obtain this important cultural background, the speaker reminded the students, they must read—read more than the actual classroom assignments. In conclusion, Dr. Dickey summarized his remarks by quoting from an old Scotch hymn which he learned when he was but a youth in "that bonnie land." "Have faith and ye'll win thru" was his final plea and it very simply and clearly expresses the thought of his entire discourse.

The enthusiasm, spirit and sincerity of the aged pastor made a very great impression upon his hearers and his address proved to be very inspirational.

FOOTBALL QUINTET DINE AT SHONGS

Five eminent college student members of Zeta Sigma Fraternity were honored at a dinner given by Mr. Kenneth Schong of Alma at his home last Thursday evening in appreciation of good fellowship tendered him by these gentlemen.

The table was exquisitely decorated with Daeges' Eage. The dinner was served in five courses, consisting of combination salad, chicken a-la-king, baked squash, sweet pickles, raspberry jam, three layered coconut cream cake, preserved peaches and demi-tasse.

The guests of honor were Mr. Chas. Mann Jr. of Bay City, Mr. Harold Logan of Niles, Mr. Walter Pezet, Mr. Hurant Arozian and Mr. Edgar Karp of Detroit.

BLUE AND WHITE OUTPLAYED 18-0

Campbellmen Make Three Touchdowns To Win In First Half

The Alma collegians continued their march Saturday toward a third M. I. A. A. title by defeating Hillsdale 18 to 0, scoring three touchdowns in the first half to obtain the victory over the Blue and White.

It was a crippled aggregation that faced the Dales, Lamb and Gussin being on the sidelines when the game started. This put Wagner and Mann at the halves, and the changing of Mann to the backfield necessitated the switching of Albaugh to the first string at end. Eddie Karp, with a much improved injury, was also back in harness, being forced back into the game because of the extreme shortage of backfield material, as a result of injuries from the Hope contest.

Few were the fans, who, under the conditions, expected to see more than a touchdown margin, or possibly two, and they were highly elated and are now visioning possible success against Albion this week.

Alma was in bad trouble right at the outset of the game, as the result of a bad pass back from center, from the 40 yard line. Wagner raced back and recovered the ball on the Alma 8. An exchange of punts and Allinder plated one that rolled out on the Alma one yard line. Karp again punted out. Hood took the kick and returned 10 yards to the Alma 24. After a first down on the Alma 10 the Blue and White found the Alma defense too stiff to gain and on the fourth down Wager dropped back to the 17 yard line and attempted a dropkick, but failed to duplicate his feat of last year in scoring against Alma.

It was Alma's ball on her own 20. Wagner got 5 at the line and Erickson in two downs made it first down on the Alma 36. Hillsdale was off side and then Wagner recovered an Alma fumble, but it cost 6 yards. Karp passed to Albaugh and it was first down on the Hillsdale 46. Karp got 3 and Wagner added 1. Albaugh was offside. Wagner dropped back and heaved a 17 yard pass to Karp. He raced down the sideline to the goal 30 yards away. Wagner's attempted

FROSH FROLIC WAS ENJOYABLE PARTY

More Than Sixty Couples Attended Party At The Gymnasium

The first real party of the year was held in Memorial Gymnasium last Saturday night and was greatly enjoyed by a large number of students and faculty. The after effects of drubbing Hillsdale in the football game in the afternoon had a good influence on the general spirit and enthusiasm of the dancers and the party was acclaimed a real success.

About sixty couples convened under the verdant, but artificial ceiling and glided along till about eleven thirty o'clock when the strains of Al Loehr's music-making band ceased. There was a very representative group present from the faculty and they too entered into the merriment—some of them even attempted (or succeeded) to trip the "fantastic (not noticeably light) toe" with the younger set.

A number of the parents who were the guests of the day attended the party and it seemed natural to see the smiling face of Miss Landwehr in the "faculty row" once again. Miss Landwehr is teaching German at Hillsdale College.

The formal semblance of the party faded when a rush of "stags" forced the door and demanded a "robber's." The Freshmen entertained royally and the campus, enjoying the party, extends its thanks.

HOMEcoming DAY

Homecoming Day has an ideal environment this year—Friday Night, "The Butter and Egg Man;" Saturday, The Albion-Alma football game, and in the evening the Homecoming Dance sponsored by the Board of Control. There is every reason to believe that the Day will be a most enjoyable success.

Alma College is not ours, alone—it is also the Alma Mater of hundreds of the Alumni. In fact, if the maxim which says that finders are keepers be true—Alma is more theirs than ours.

These old students who will be coming back next Saturday have some wonderful memories of the old campus—time has a tendency to make things seem ideal rather real. We must not, then, disillusion these returning Alumni; we must do everything in our power to make them realize that we welcome them home again, and that our welcome is nothing if it is not sincere. We must make them proud to tell the world that Alma is their Alma Mater!

BEAT ALBION!

Beat Albion! That is the phrase that has echoed across Alma's campus for a good many years. Albion is our traditional rival, and the Methodists have always proved themselves worthy opponents. There will be a lot of Alumni "back home" primarily because they can watch an Albion-Alma Football game, and if they could witness the Maroon and Cream gridders beat just one team in the Association, they would want that team to be Albion.

Last year the Campbellmen journeyed down to the Methodist stronghold and defeated the Purple and Gold 6-0. This year the "dope" favors Albion, but in the modern game of football "dope" means very little—the "dope" bucket has been kicked over too often. It is not easy to forget that Albion turned back Michigan State 2-0, and it is not easy to forget that the Methodists did this in spite of the fact that Kipke's men gained five times as much yardage.

It is up to Alma to beat the Daughertymen and upset the "dope" once more. So, once again—Beat Albion!

PARENTS' DAY

The institution of Parents' Day, as a day on which we make our fathers and mothers the guests of honor on our campus, is a fine thing. This was very evident to all those who attended the banquet at Wright Hall Saturday noon. It enabled the Dads and Mothers to meet each other and to meet the members of the college faculty—in fact, it realized one of the greatest aims of any college—the establishment of closer relationship between school and home.

This was Alma's first Parents' Day, but it should not be the last. Every year the students of the college should set aside an occasion of this kind on which they can show their appreciation, and especially honor those to whom all honor is due—their parents.

STUDENT CHAPEL

The success or failure of the innovation of the Student Chapel depends entirely upon the reaction of the student group. It is an excellent opportunity for the discussion of campus problems before both students and faculty. The programs may take the form of open forum discussions or debates on vital college issues. Then too, the half hour may be given over to musical or dramatic programs by student talent. The Student Council has appointed a permanent committee on chapel programs and if every student will respond when called upon to serve his turn, the student chapel service must inevitably become a profitable half hour.

Don't forget to vote November 6th. It is your duty.

WILL DURANT
TALKS TO TEACHER

Dr. Will Durant, philosopher, lecturer and author, gave one of his excellent addresses at the annual meeting of the Michigan Educational Association in Saginaw last week. The speaker is a national figure in the field of philosophy and is the author of "The History of Philosophy" and "Transition," two widely read and very interesting and instructive books.

Dr. Durant was listed on the program for the address "Is Democracy A Success," but he said that it was his intention to give his hearers twice as much for their money and so he also spoke on the subject, "Is Progress Real."

The author's answer to his first query was, "No;" and to the second interrogation he also replied, "No." He said that democracy could never be a success until the American populace was educated and capable of putting high-minded men into office, instead of political hand-shakers. He emphasized the fact, in regard to his second question, that progress is not real but that people of today are laboring under the illusion that change is progress. Progress is only real when there is actual change in the in the souls and minds of men for the better—a greater appreciation for the finer things of life.

Durant closed his address by giving the audience his ten steps in the history of mankind. In their order they are: Speech, conquest of animals, discovery of light and fire, passage from hunting to agriculture, social organization, development of morality, invention of tools, coming of science, writing, education.

A number of the members of the student body and faculty of the college attended the session.

CORRIDOR CARESSING

There is quite a lot of rushing
And a bit of foolish musing;
I suppose there should be fussing—
Some, I'd say.
Understand, I'm not objecting
To the love dreams you're erecting;
I just think you need correcting
In one way.

I hope that my suggestion
Won't be met with cold rejection.
Now this corridor congestion
Is my theme.
I don't see why all this stalling;
All this pushing people; falling;
It just hasn't any calling
It does seem.

So you folks that do you're wooing,
And your social interviewing;
That last date with her reviewing;
This would do—
Find your gallery caressing,
Your sweet words of love expressing;
Realize that it is depressing—
I'd thank you.

STUDENT FORUM

It has come to the editor's attention that there were some statements made in this column last week which offended certain people in the college. It has been the editorial intention to publish nothing which smacks of personal prejudice or enmity. The article in question is an expression of one student's opinion, and it should be considered as such. However no contradictory article has been placed in the Almanian Box and there has been no noticeable student sentiment opposed to the attitude taken by the contributor.

It is the belief of the editor that the writer of the article entitled "Discrimination" did not prepare the contribution as a criticism of any individual or individuals. No one knows who wrote the article except the person who signed the initials, "T. E." The composition was neatly typewritten and placed in the Almanian Box with no other marks of identification that the initials above stated. The author of the contribution undoubtedly, criticizing an old practice may or may not be justified, instead of criticizing any person or persons. Indirectly it does have a personal element; but is there any criticism which doesn't?

An article has been received this past week which is even more vehement in its condemnation of the practice but because of its radical statement of the case and its offensive attitude, failed to pass the editorial scrutiny. If the other article did savor of the personal the editor wishes to apologize—not for its contents (he didn't write it) but for his carelessness in allowing it to go to press. Possibly some student whose ideas are at variance with "T. E." will defend the other side.

PHILOMATHEAN GIRLS HOLD ANNUAL PLEDGE DINNER

The Philomathean Literary Society held its pledge dinner and pledge service October 29 at Wright Hall. The patronesses: Mrs. Bahlke, Mrs. Rands, Mrs. Kaufman and Mrs. Crooks, and the honorary member, Miss Foley, and Miss Steward were escorted into the dining room by the Junior and Senior members. The pledges followed, being escorted by their big sisters. The little sisters were dressed in white and the big sisters in dark.

The simple table decorations consisted of lighted tapers in black and gold, and a black basket of pellow baby Chrysanthemums. The favors, which were silver bud vases containing a single Ophelia rose, bud at the place of each pledge, completed the decorations. At the guests' places were corsages of baby Chrysanthemums and Ophelia rose buds.

After the three course dinner, the pledges retired to their respective rooms where they awaited the summons of their big sisters. They were then conducted blind folded to the darkened society room, where they took solemn pledges before the guests and the members of the society. At the close of the service each pledge was presented with a black and gold pin. M. D.

MISS BANTA ENTERTAINS

Miss Josephine Banta, professor of the classics, was hostess to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hansen and their three children at dinner in Wright Hall last Monday evening.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

The regular meeting of the Student Council was called to order by the President on Tuesday evening, October 23rd. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The President called on Mr. Pezet, the chairman of the Homecoming parade, for a report of the plans thus far. A suggestion was made that the freshmen—men and women—march "en masse" in the parade.

A motion was made by Kaiser that a committee be appointed to look after all details outside of the parade, such as asking houses, stores, etc. to decorate with Maroon and Cream colors. It was seconded by Taylor and carried. A committee of Miller, Beuthin and Frost was appointed.

Arozian moved that the Student Council have two posters made announcing Homecoming and the game, to be placed in the two most conspicuous places in town. It was supported and carried.

Some old business was brought to the attention of the Council; that of class standing. According to the registrar the status of a senior is ninety hours. Mann moved and Pezet seconded that we abide by the decision of the registrar. After a brief discussion the motion was carried.

Professor Hamilton reported that the faculty was willing to allow chapel service to be in the hands of a member of the student body one day a week, to be given over to an open forum, perhaps, or to any other form that would be approved by the faculty. Kaiser moved and Beuthin seconded that the Student Council accept the opportunity offered by the faculty to have each Monday given over to student leadership. It was carried.

Alpha Theta Sorority submitted a petition for the date of November 27 on which to hold an informal dance in Wright Hall. It was moved by Beuthin that this petition be granted. It was seconded and passed.

A discussion followed concerning ways and means of making the Student Council a truly representative body. Mann moved and Taylor seconded that a committee be appointed to consider this.

Adjournment.
Respectfully submitted,
Lewise Salmon, Secretary.

INTER-FRATERNITY COUNCIL MEETING

(Phi Phi Alpha — Beta Tau Epsilon)
The meeting of the Inter-fraternity Council held in Room 11, on October 18, 1928; was called to order by the president, Charles Goodnow, at 12:40 P. M.

The date for pledging was discussed and the Council decided to follow the constitution in this matter. Thus the date for pledging freshmen will be the second Wednesday in November which is the 14th of the month.

There followed a discussion as to whether or not the president of Zeta Sigma should be notified and it was decided that since Zeta Sigma had acted independently in regard to the smoker that it was not necessary to inform them of the date set for pledging.

Goodnow appointed Thomas to represent Beta Tau in the distribution of the bids.

The meeting adjourned at 1:00 P. M.

Respectfully submitted,
W. Thomas,
Secretary.

In a meeting of the Inter-fraternity Council on October 4th, 1928, the weeks of October 15 and 22 were chosen for the smokers. Phi Phi Alpha drew the week of the 15th and Beta Tau Epsilon the week of the 22nd.

Pledging dates were discussed but it was decided not to set a date until the next meeting.

Respectfully submitted,
W. Thomas,
Secretary.

FOOTBALL NOTES

Coach Parker, of Albion, was an interested spectator at Saturdays' game.

Hood, Hillsdale's colored star, was the outstanding man for the Baptists—he twisted and pivoted his way through the Alma line time after time, and proved to be the only consistent ground gainer in the Hillsdale back-field.

The "ref" missed one when two Hillsdale linemen knocked Eddie Karpp off of his feet after he had made a nice punt to the downstater's 30 yard line.

"Kayo" Thompson, who went out for football for the first time this year, proved to be a shifty "ball-toter" and made some nice gains through the opposing line.

Captain Karpp's eye had improved enough so that he played the entire game—although it is doubtful whether he can continue in the Alma line-up.

Alma did all of it's defensive work in the first half and then in the second half dropped back to a defensive game and straight football tactics.

The team missed Gussin and Lamb and it is hoped that their injured legs will round into shape so that they can appear against Albion.

Albion is favored to win Saturday but Alma will give them a great battle.

Jim Albaugh proved a good pass "snarer" in his initial appearance.

CAMPUSOLOGY

Pierce Boutin, coach at Crosswell High School, and Don Graham, managers of the A. B. Graham & Company drug store, motored over to see Alma trim Hillsdale. Needless to say Trudy enjoyed the week-end immensely—entertaining Pierce and her father.

Red Clark, '27, left his professorial duties at Flint High School last Saturday and came back to enjoy another football game and a little fellowship.

Russ Newmann, '28, was here for the same purpose.

"Red" Holdship, '28, is getting to be our star boarder.

"Bob" Wyatt, '24, with all his usual enthusiasm was back once again, this week end.

"Bill" Owen played second piano while Pierce fluted this week-end.

"Chief" delighted the Frosh party revelers with a few "new fangled" steps! He certainly took advantage of that robber dance.

"Blaker" after years of absence, returned to the scenes of his Freshmen Days.

WRIGHT HALL NOTES

Miss Mary Shroyer, ex '28, who was attending the teacher's convention in Saginaw on Monday, drove over to Alma that evening and spent the night with some of her friends.

Everyone had a good time at the party Saturday night, but we do hope they put some wax on the floor for the Homecoming dance. Otherwise, the A. A. might just as well cut down on expenses and hold the dance in the street.

The girl in 310 is happy again.

Big excitement in the Hall last Thursday night—Liz had a fire drill. Fritz insisted that everyone didn't have to go down.

The Indiana Shuffle has been causing quite a stir in some parts of the dormitory.

We have a real, live, honest-to-goodness heroine in our midst. Who is she? That's for you to find out.

pass for the extra point was blocked. Hillsdale kicked off and Karpp returned the ball 15 yards to the Alma 46. Wagner got a yard and then on a triple pass which ended with Wagner heaving to Albaugh Alma got 19 yards and first down on the Hillsdale 35. Wagner and Erickson, with an 8 yard pass Karpp to Albaugh and-wiched between their smashing, gave Alma a first down on the Hillsdale 12 as the quarter ended.

Chuck Mann was chucked to earth after a 7 yard drive through the line. Wagner made 2½ and Erickson got a foot. On the next smash Erickson made it first down a yard from the goal. Gussin got 2 feet, but Karpp lost a foot. On the third trip Erickson carried it and smashed over. An attempted place kick for the extra point failed.

Following the kickoff to Hillsdale several exchanges of punts took place and finally Erickson went into the air and picked out a Hillsdale pass on the 50 yard line. Gussin chased around right end for 26 yards and first down on the Hillsdale 24. Wagner got 4 at left tackle. Then he went through tackle and sidestepped and squirmed his way for 13 yards for first down on the 7 yard line. Gussin failed to gain. On a lateral pass he lost two yards. Alma was holding and the ball went to the 20 yard line. Karpp passed to Angell for 17 yards and first down on the 3 yard line. Gussin shot a pass to Albaugh behind the goal for a touchdown. The try for extra point by placekick failed. It was Alma 18 and Hillsdale 0.

From then on throughout the balance of the game Alma eased off and confined herself almost entirely to straight football with a few simple forward passes injected for variety.

Karpp, Wagner, Mann, Erickson and Albaugh were offensive stars, while Pezet, Angell, Arozian and Thompson also featured. Hood, Allinder, and Wager were the Hillsdale stars.

LIBRARY NOTES
From the Annual report for the library ending August 31, 1928, the following items may be of general interest.

The library attendance was 13,825. Number of books taken out 4,536. Number of Reserved books used in library 1,972. Total number of volumes in the library 38,057. Total number of volumes now catalogued 29,182. Number of persons registered during the year, as users of the library was 212. Showing that the entire student body does not use the library, or else that they have not all registered as users.

The stacks which were to have been ready for use by November first, are just now being installed. It is earnestly hoped that the steel work will all be done by Thanksgiving Day, so that the moving may be done in part at least during the two days holiday period.

No suggestions have been received for Bonbright purchases, as yet. The Library Committee will be glad to consider any suggestions at their next meeting. A. P. W.
