ALMA WINS SECOND M. I. A. A. TILT OVER HOPE 21-6

MAROON AND CREAM WARRIORS DEFEAT BEST HOPE GRID TEAM IN YEARS

Borton, Gussin and Brown Star for Alma

The Maroon and Cream grid team made another important advance in their quest for a fourth M. I. A. A. Championship in 5 years, when they defeated Hope College Saturday, 21-6 at Holland. The game was played on a wet and slippery field and occasional snow squalls made playing conditions anything but good.

Borton, living up to the promise that he showed on last year's Frosh team, was the Alma offensive star. He repeatedly ripped through the Dutchman line for long gains and furnished the band of Alma followers with a big thrill when on the third play of the game he ripped off tackle for 50 yards and a touchdown. Gussin and Brown aided materially in both offense and defense. Gussin, although he did not carry the ball any great number of times, shone especially at running back punts and ran the team like the star that he is.

The line play of the Campbellmen was very noticeably improved over the Olivet game and the backfield was clicking like a championship organization. Gray and Potter played stellar games in the line.

Dalman was the only Hope man who gained with any consistency, while Wyngarden, Brunson and Beaver played good games in the forward wall.

Both teams used an aerial attack to good advantage despite the high wind and passes directly resulted in one touchdown for each team. Alma made 19 first downs to Hope's 8.

Hope made no serious threats on the Alma goal line except when an intercepted pass which was run back to the Presbyterian 25 yard line, led to their only score.

The Maroon and Cream team was deprived of at least one, and possibly two touchdowns, when over-anxious

JOKE EDITOR NEEDS SMART CRACKS

If the humor department of the "Maroon and Cream" is to be good as the rest of the book, the joke editor will have to have a good crop of jokes to edit. To that end the joke box in the hall of the Ad. Building has been emptied of two years accumulation of waste paper and is now ready to receive any bit of humor that is afloat about the Campus. It is hoped that contributions will be made continuously from now until publishing time, so that the jokes this year will not be a lot of old and dry stuff made up at the last minute.

ANTHOLOGY OF COLLEGE TO BE PUBLISHED SOON

Dig into the old notebooks and burn the midnight oil seeking the muses, you Alma poets, and maybe you will be one of the lucky ones who will have his verses brought before the eyes of the college students everywhere in the new Anthology of College Verse which is being published shortly.

New York, Oct. 10, (Special)—A new Anthology of American College Verse will be published in May, 1931, by Harper and Brothers, it has recently been announced by the publishers. The book will consist solely of poetry written by students attending college during the 1930-31 college year. It will be edited by Miss Jessie C. Rehder, Bandolph-Macon '29 and Columbia University '30.

All students, either undergraduate or graduate attending any college during the current year are invited to submit poems for inclusion in the Anthology. The verses will be selected for publication solely upon their literary merit. It was announced that if the venture is a success it is expected that it may become an annual affair.

FRESHMEN ENJOY NOVAL PARTY AT GYMNASIUM

Last Wednesday night the Student Marshal and the Vigilance Committee of the Student Council gave a party for some of the Freshmen. The evening was spent in playing games and little contests were held to determine the endurance of the Frosh as compared with the class last year.

The meeting in the Memorial Gym was called to order by the President of the Student Council, Al Dean, with about half the fellows in the college present.

A mock trial was held for the delight and entertainment of the new men. Various and sundry were the charges. After Carter passed sentence on the Frosh they were taken for one of those delightful rides so characteristic of the early part of the school year. All of the Frosh decided to walk back in order to enjoy the nice cool evening air and get a little exercise.

Some of them had a little difficulty finding their way home, some of them couldn't see the barb wire fences. It was hard to walk over the country roads, but it was enjoyable.

The Vigilance Committee also decided that since some of the Freshman fellows were by nature so backward that they did not get to be known on the Campus, the Committee should give them some free advertising. These Freshmen were given signs to wear so that they would be known to everyone.

Our Campus Has Fine Traditions To Uphold

While the Almanian is publishing a series of long-forgotten College traditions and customs, we might as well try to revive some of the better traditions that made the students of former days respect and revere the Campus. Too long-forgotten are these finer things that form the background of our Campus life.

Way back when long skirts were in style and the height of devilishness was a little necking on a hayride party, the students then attending the College really respected the Campus, respected it so much that anything that lessened the esteem for it was taboo and the unlucky fellow or girl that broke the rules was subject to the direst punishment.

For instance, it was considered very bad form to smoke on the Campus. That rule continued for many years and many offenders were severely punished. An upperclassman saw a Frosh smoke a cigarette one day and told him to put it out. The Frosh just couldn't see it that way. The next night he was taken for one of those nice parties where the boys play the nicest games and when he came home he had learned something, that the Campus was to be respected.

STUDENT COUNCIL MET TUESDAY

The regular meeting of the Student Council was called to order by the President, Al Dean, Oct. 14, 1930. There was no roll call. The minutes were read and approved. McLellan, of the Flag Pole Committee, reported that they were unable to see Mr. Bahke because of illness. Discussion of Homecoming, Committee for the Parade appointed by the President: Klerekoper, Chairman; Miss Carter, Royer.

Moved by McLellan, supported by Carter, that the Student Council offer a ten dollar prize for the best float in the Home Coming Parade. Carried.

Bill presented by Royer for $1.05 from Burgress.

FROSH FROLIC WILL BE HELD SATURDAY

The Class of '34 announces its first party of the year on October 25, at 8 o'clock, in the Memorial Gymnasium. They expect to close the Parents' Day program with a "real" dance. Bill Boyd, chairman of the decoration committee, says, "everything is under control." Alright, Frosh do yo' stuff. This party will be an indicator of the co-operation and ability of the yearlings. We are sure that the Frosh are contemplating the biggest and best Frolic ever put on.

Philo Girls Hold Up-river Party

On a cool, crisp autumn evening, nothing is more fun than a picnic by the river. If you don't believe this, just ask the Philomathean girls, who had an up-river party Tuesday, Oct. 14th.

The hike to the river was thoroughly enjoyed by all, especially by those who rode the running boards of their car. At the end of the road we were confronted by a high wall and the little boy who solemnly assured us that we had to climb over and

PIONEER HALL CLUB GIVEN NEW NAME

"Phi Tau Omega" was the name adopted by the Pioneer Hall Club at the second meeting last Tuesday evening in the "Y" room. A short talk was given by Vincent De Angelo explaining the functions and purposes of the organization. The name was then proposed and after a short discussion a unanimous ballot was cast in its favor. A measure providing for the decoration of Pioneer Hall on Parents' Day and Homecoming Day demonstrated the true Freshman spirit. A committee, consisting of John Dewild, Hugh Hodges, John Menoch and Keith Dean, was appointed by the President to purchase and put up the decorations on those days. It was also decided upon at that time to construct a large A, to be put on the front of the building.

As the purpose of this organization is to form a means of social activity for the men of the dormitory, it was decided that the Club would meet once every two weeks on Monday evening. The meeting will consist of a short, snappy program, followed by a general get-together. One corner of the "Y" room is to be converted into a music studio where the men may go to play the piano and sing. Plans are

COLLEGE PARENTS DAY IS OCTOBER 25TH

1:00—Reception and Informal Program.
2:30—Football, Bahke Field, Hillsdale vs. Alma. (Admission $1.)

Owing to large crowds expected, it will be necessary to make reservations for meals in Wright Hall as soon as possible.

GUSSIN ELECTED CAPTAIN OF ALMA GRID TEAM

"Mney" Gussin, two-time Alma football star, and captain of the team with two years of varsity experience, was elected captain of the team by a popular vote of the squad last night, October 20. The vote was unanimous.

ALPHA THETA HAY RIDE PARTY IS ENJOYED IN SPITE OF COLD WEATHER

REHEARSALS SHOW MUCH PROGRESS SAYS DIRECTOR

"The play is coming fine," says "Dinty" Moore, director of the College Drama Club's second mystery play which will be presented at the Strand Theatre the Friday before Homecoming.

The Club will have new scenery for this novel thriller and the price has been cut to fifty cents so that there will be a greater crowd. "In the Next Room," is the name of the play and it is full of dramatic suspenses and thrills and even two murders.

Gene Tarrant has the leading role and under Moore's experienced instruction is rounding into shape nicely. Tarrant, although an old member of the Club, has never played a leading part before.

Helen Logan will be the leading lady, playing opposite Tarrant. Miss Logan is an old member and leading roles are no new experience to her. The part calls for some very dramatic acting and Miss Logan has been acquitting herself admirably at rehearsals.

Burdorf Haeferd, Kermit Fischer, Don Blackstone and Janet Hill are new members of the Club who play in the production. Their work has been excellent. Moore says that he is rounding off the corners and that he will have the play in excellent shape by October 31. Moore made a name for himself with his excellent direction of "Polly With a Past" last year.

Laurance H. Hart Gives Chapel Talk

The College folks assembled in the Chapel last Friday had the pleasure of hearing one of the finest and most interesting speakers that ever talked from the College platform address them on "happiness and how to find it." Mr. Laurance H. Hart was the speaker's name, and the consensus of opinion was that Mr. Hart was one of the finest men with one of the most interesting messages that has ever come to Alma College.

The subject of Mr. Hart's talk was, "What is Happiness and How May I Achieve It?" "For twenty-five years I have sought happiness," he said, "and I will tell you some of the roads that I traveled in quest of it and where you will not find it." He said that as a child he had wished for everything and then one day he wished for happiness. Thinking that he could find it with money he asked several people with money if they were happy. It seems that money does not bring it. Fame does not bring it, for the President of the United States, though the most famous man in the world, does not have it. An easy life does not bring it, for we all soon tire of leisure. Some think they can find it if they can only keep up

GLEE CLUB ORGANIZE FOR NEW SEASON

The first meeting of the old Glee Club members was held Tuesday, Oct. 14th, at 7:30 P. M.

The purpose of the meeting was to elect new officers for the following year.

The following officers were unanimously elected:

Dean Peterson, President
Ann Meehan, Secretary-Treasurer
Dorothy Carter, Business Manager
Miss Eider, Asst. Business Mgr.

The name of the Club will be here the following Tuesday and old and new members will begin practice for the year. We are getting ready for a bigger and better year than ever before.

Picnic Dinner and Dance in Wright Hall Provide Fun

With a noisy excited rush, fifty girls gathered up their blankets, buttoned their collars up under their chins, pulled on their mittens and made a dive for two hayrides rigs which had drawn up in front of Wright Hall. The Alpha Theta Hay ride, of course!

At four o'clock Friday afternoon the two loaded wagons pulled away from the dormitory, carrying with them about fifty girls, well bundled up. A good-sized box of apples, six bags of kisses and the drivers, of course, though Claire took the place of one before the ride was over. Wouldn't she!

Contrary to other years, it did not rain but imagine our surprise when a snow storm descended upon us!

Since it was too cold to eat out in the woods, as was our original plan, we carried our food back to the hall and ate in the dining room around the fireplace.

As soon as we had eaten we hastened upstairs to change our clothes for the dance. At 8 o'clock a mob of masked figures gathered in the Alpha Theta room. Every one was in costume. "Raggedy Andy" was there, a few stately ladies from a medieval fairy tale, a Dutch girl, a sunbonnet baby, grandma, beautiful Spanish girls, gypsies and many others. The room was decorated in shades of yellow, red and brown, with autumn leaves, pumpkins and corn stalks to complete the picture.

The orchestra began to play, and the dancers were given numbered programs with their dances already exchanged. They hurried about to find their partners and the fun began.

During intermission the lights were turned out and we were entertained by a novelty dance—Helen Logan.

After that the crowd adjourned to

REV. BROMLEY TALKS IN CHAPEL ON FRIDAY

Wednesday's Chapel was a real treat for the student body which heard Dr. Henry W. Bromley of Kentucky. Dr. Bromley is in Alma under the auspices of the local churches conducting a series of revival meetings. His Chapel address was a pleasant surprise to the student body in that it was a departure from the usual type of speech given from the Chapel platform by the evangelistic speakers. Rather than play upon the emotions, the speaker made an appeal to the reason in urging the students to accept Christianity as something vitally important and absolutely essential to a full and happy life.

DEBATING SCHEDULE IS ANNOUNCED

With the inauguration of the two-man debating teams in the Michigan Debating League this year, Alma will enter the field with a very efficient squad. Four men with college debate experience will seek places on the team beside a host of others with excellent high school experience. The squad met for the first time on last Thursday afternoon with Professor Herman Spencer, Coach of Debate, and discussed plans for the coming season.

The question for debate this year is: "Resolved, That the Several States Shall Enact Legislation Providing for Compulsory Unemployment Insurance, to which the Employer Shall Contribute." Clarence Moore, Kenneth Olin, Barker Brown and Amos Riddock are the four men who have had college experience. Donald Blackstone has had high school experience but not with Alma teams.

At last Thursday's meeting the schedule of debates was announced. It is as follows:

February 6, Battle Creek, negative.
meets Alma, affirmative, at Alma

PARENTS' DAY

Next Saturday is Parents' Day, one of the biggest days in the College year. It therefore becomes the duty of the students to do everything possible to make this day a success. Our parents will be here, looking over our College, the College we respect and love. They will be our guests and students should consider them as such, even more than that. Some of our parents will not come. Those students who will not have parents here ought to be just as nice to the other fellow's parents as he would be to his own. Realize that they are vitally interested though unfamiliar with the College and its inner workings and that things which are commonplaces to us are wonderfully interesting to them. Do not let them go away feeling that they did not get to know the College as well as they might have. This is our College and we are all proud of it. Let's let everyone know that we are proud of it. Let's show that real "stick-together" college spirit that has characterized us in the past and make this Parents' Day one of the finest and most enjoyable day our parents have ever had.

OUR NEW CAPTAIN

Congratulations, Mr. Gussin! The Editor speaks in behalf of the student body when he congratulates "Moey", (as we know him), on his recent election to the Captaincy of the Alma College Football Team.

"Moey" has been a steady and consistent quarter for two years besides being distinguished in every other branch of College athletics. We wish him a successful season in every way and may he continue his good work on the football field and help to bring us another M. I. A. banner.

Congratulations, "Moey"! Good luck!

FROSH TEAM OPENS SEASON WITH HOPE COLLEGE

The Frosh football team will open their home season Friday when they engage the Hope College Freshmen on Davis Field next Friday afternoon.

Coach Pezet has been drilling a small squad for the past two weeks after their game with Traverse City and reports a great deal of progress during that time. In an informal practice scrimmage last week against Alma High School, the yearlings came out on the long end of a 6-0 score.

Last year Hope Frosh defeated Alma at Holland. They are not reported to be as strong as last year, but a close game can be expected.

WE HEARTILY AGREE

Editor—I cannot help wondering just what a person can be thinking about when he starts criticizing an editor for the articles he publishes in a paper. Very evidently he is endeavoring to write or rather publish an assortment of articles in order to interest his assortment of readers. One may subscribe to a periodical that deals with any subject he may be interested in, which is the proper thing to do rather than try to make all publications conform to his particular view and disappoint the other nine readers—supposing there are only 10. You know, I don't believe some people would be satisfied if it were possible for them to have everything they wanted. They'd crab because there was nothing to crab about. Let's take the Pathfinder as is. If there is anything we don't like, just think whatta kick some other fellow is getting out of it and his money is just as good as mine.—C. E. Britton, Peoria, Ariz., in The Pathfinder.

Some things we blame
 On eccentricities,
 Some, on artistic strains,
 But when a girl of ordinary esteem

Lets slip her wily tongue,
 No other reason can we hit
 Than silly, unsought-for wit.

PATRONIZE OUR ADVERTISERS

Every year it is the same old story. The Almanian advertisers claim that the College does not support them as it should. Students are prone to think that they should buy the things that they need during the year in their home towns. Perhaps they feel that their home town merchants need the business more. That is not so.

Alma merchants not only need the business as badly but they also deserve it more. If it were not for the local merchants who are College-minded, it is doubtful whether this College could exist. Granting even that the College could still be here, yet it would not be the College as we know it. If it were not for them, there would be no Almanian, no theater programs for the College plays no programs for athletic games, no Maroon and Cream, no anything. This is just the part that the merchants do for the College through their advertising and does not take into account their support of our games and plays, etc., which amounts to about as much again.

The merchants of Alma have recently ordered pennants, College pennants, to display in front of their stores on special days of the College year. They are doing this because they are College-minded—because they want to see Alma College rank among the first of the schools in the M.I.A.A. in every way.

It therefore becomes the duty of the students to support those merchants of the town who help them. They ought to feel the obligation keenly and not only talk about it but do something that will show them that they are with them. It is the policy of the Almanian to secure advertising from all of those town merchants who are most keenly interested. The men who advertise in the Almanian deserve your trade and it is the duty of every student of Alma College to give every bit of business possible to them. They make many pleasures possible for us. Let us show them that we appreciate it and give them our co-operation.

FRESHMEN, NOTICE!

The attitude of the Freshman Class, especially that of the Men, since the beginning of the college year, is not very commendable. The following laws or rules have been college traditions for years. linemen were guilty of holding, with a possible score in sight.

First Half

Hope kicked off to Alma and the ball was returned by Gussin to the Presbyterian 45 yard line which netted five yards. Borton went through his own right tackle for 50 yards and the first touchdown. Brown's try for goal was unsuccessful, but the extra point was allowed when Hope was off-side. In the closing minutes of the first quarter Alma started another march down the field, with Borton carrying the brunt of the attack, which culminated with a lateral pass to Brown for 10 yards and a touchdown. Brown's try for goal was unsuccessful, but the extra point was allowed when Hope was off-side.

Second Half

Alma started the second half with a march down the field, which culminated with a lateral pass to Brown for 10 yards and a touchdown. Brown's try for goal was unsuccessful, but the extra point was allowed when Hope was off-side. In the closing minutes of the first quarter Alma started another march down the field, with Borton carrying the brunt of the attack, which culminated with a lateral pass to Brown for 10 yards and a touchdown. Brown's try for goal was unsuccessful, but the extra point was allowed when Hope was off-side.

With the wind at their back the Campbellmen opened up with a march down the field but were kept from a touchdown when Leadbetter was caught for holding. Hope took the ball on their own 20 yard line when a long pass by Borton was intercepted and went into the end zone. Hope was unable to gain consistently and Alma took the ball again at midline. When a Hope punt went wrong to Maroon and Cream the team started another goalward jaunt, only to be stopped when one of Brown's passes was intercepted by Dalman, who went all the way to the Alma 25 yard line before he was pulled down by Brown. A pass, several line bucks and another pass, Dalman to Tyse, gave the Dutchmen their only points. Norlin's try for point was wide.

Gussin opened up the Alma pass attack in the final minutes of play and several passes, coupled with Baldwin's fine playing, put the ball on the 3 yard line, from where Brown dove over for Alma's third score. Hope was again off-side in the try for point. The game ended shortly after this score. The final score was: Alma 21 Hope 6.

CAMPUSOLOGY

McEvers says that he is going to get his gym credit for swiping.

Seidel is stepping right out with the boys. He has at last crashed the Wright Hall League and it looks like it is for good this time. Isn't that lovely?

Moore to Tarrant on play practice—"I want you to be effervescent." The Colonel went home for the week-end to see that girl who writes him such nice letters. Nice letters?

Mike runs a Secretarial School for the edification of the upperclass boys in the Academy of Pagan Arts.

From the Wright Hall League and the Campuses: The Wright Hall League and the Campuses are the only organizations that are not affiliated with the University of Michigan.

Let us honor the man who leads the Wright Hall League, because he is always blowing his own horn.

In the same vein, let us call Little Lord Fauntleroy Heerschap, Moses, for every time he opens his mouth the Bull Rushes.

WRIGHT HALL NOTES

Alice is back at school, to stay!!! Welcome home! We don't blame you for staying in Chicago for an extra month. We think Frank's nice, too! Cookie and Nancy's dreams at last came true.

Speaking of Nancy, the decision has been made, we guess, and Nancy and Smitty are back in circulation again. Chuck and Freedom have been reaping the benefits of that "shattered" romance.

Well, inasmuch as the "couple" subject has been started—

Ellen and Irene went home for the week-end.

Jean and Fern were gone for the week-end.

Micky went home for the week-end.

Mary went home for the week-end.

Frank was here for the week-end.

And we're waiting to hear George and John back and Tim and John.

It certainly would great to see them.

Let us hope the Wright Hall League and the Campuses are the only organizations that are not affiliated with the University of Michigan.

Any one guess the wedding romance is a real full-blown one now?

Alpha Theta Hay Ride Party

the two little rooms adjoining where they drank cider and had their fortunes told. Can you picture a dark, spooky little room with a fire in one corner, and an old gypsy woman stirring fortunes about in a kettle on the fire?

When the music started again there were some circle, two-step and novelty dances with Kewpie and Claire tearing around the floor, practicing their new steps. At eleven thirty, the hostesses gathered around the fire, and sang the Alpha Theta song and gave a yell which was answered by the Philos, Kappas and the new girls. With that the party broke up, and what a party!

with the Joneses, but it is not found that way. Book knowledge will not bring it, for Mr. Hart has known the most learned men and they are not happy with that alone. So all of these things are byways and they will not lead us to true happiness.

The secret of the situation, said Mr. Hart, is found in the principle set forth by the famous Dr. Coue and his phrase, "Day by day, in every way, I'm getting better and better." Dr. Coue claimed that would cure anything in the world. He promised too much, said Mr. Hart. It will not cure everything but it will help us to find happiness. If we are able to say to ourselves every day that we are growing better and better, that we are learning something new each day and that we are a little better than we were yesterday, then we will be happy, says Mr. Hart. Growth is the keynote of our happiness.

Continuing the idea further, he says that there are a few interesting properties of happiness. It must be taken now and it must be taken here. We must round out our lives so that we know about all things rather than merely about a bare few. Then we will be happy.

Mr. Hart's talk occasioned some interesting comment among the student body. Speakers like him will have a place in the Chapel and the interested attention of the student body whenever they come.

now under way to use the other corner as a reading room. Further development of some present ideas is expected whereby the men may use their spare time in some profitable recreation. The chairman responsible for the program of the next meeting is Alvin Mark (the young man with personality plus.) It is expected that Freshman talent will be found at these meetings.

The old adage, "Green things grow," was again proven. This meeting showed a progressive step in the organization of the "Green things," and it is hoped that they will set a precedent by having the strongest and most willing group of Freshmen that ever appeared on Alma's Campus.

Our Campus Has Fine Traditions to Uphold

How fine it would be if we were to revive that custom. It is rather disgusting to see our loyal students violating this old rule. Of course, it is being done through ignorance for that old custom passed away before any of those now in College thought of coming here, but other Campuses still have it and we ought to revive it.

It ought to be made a punishable offense for any student to violate this rule. Many of us have been called before the President and "bawled out" for it but it is too hard for the President to handle all such matters. It vitally concerns the student marshal and his work. His office was meant to take care of all student violators of rules and not only for Freshmen. The above may be taken to mean all things that tend to make the Campus disrespected. Try to revive some of these old and fine traditions and see how much more we will like the College and its Campus.

walk through the pasture, " 'cause the fence runs right into the river." This walk was succeeded by a second fence, which Peg yelled "to climb under."

It was really a sight to see our girls work to bring in wood for a fire. Char, contributed at least two trees, and Pesut wasn't far behind.

Of course, the main attraction of this expedition was the food—and oh! how good it tasted, 'way out there in the wilds, around a blazing campfire—escaloped potatoes, ham sandwiches, hot dogs, pickles, cookies, and a whole gallon of real, homemade, maplenut icecream, fresh from the home of Doris Amsbury. It was so good that we all went back for more—and still more. Our little President ate four cups of icecream, and the rest of us had at least three cups—all except Pesut, who had two (but we know the reason for that: her helpings were bigger than ours, so there!) And a dignified Senior ate four ham sandwiches. All in all, Mary Lou almost lost her reputation of being the biggest eater in Wright Hall—almost, but not quite, because she ate at least half a pickle more than anyone else.

Even after such a feed, Jean had enough pep left to demonstrate her famous riding act on top the highest fence, and in the enthusiasm thus aroused, Gay got stepped on. However, the damage was slight and everyone reached Wright Hall, tired but not subdued.

HOMECOMING DAY

Homecoming is just about the biggest day in the College year. At that time the old students and Alumni get together and talk over old times. This is the only day in the College year that many of our graduates come back to visit the College. For this reason it should be made a day of exceptional activity.

Homecoming has been fixed by the College Office as November 1. In the afternoon Alma gridders will meet Albion, on the new football field. The night before the Drama Club presents its first play of the year. A varied program including a big parade and a Student Council dance is being planned. Students are requested to write their parents and invite them to come and assist the College in making this a memorable Homecoming.
