New Staff Named to Edit Almanian

Walker and Staudacher Are Associate Editors

Starting with this issue of the paper a new staff will take over that a larger number might attend ine duties of assisting Arthur Boynton in publishing the Almanian during the second semester.

r'our members of Luther Evans' stan, Joy Ulney, Ward Campbell, Claude Knight, and Herbert Peters, will continue in the same positions that they held during the mrst semester, while both George for at the first meeting three of Walker and Russell Staudacher, the M. I. A. A. Colleges were not reporters under Evans, have been represented. named Associate Editors.

Fewer Reporters Named

The number of special reporters for the new staff will be much less than last semester. The present staff will consist of only seven such reporters instead of eighteen.

Jane Rice will handle the news of the Kappa Iota Sorority, Vir-ginia Anderson, Philomathean news, and Herbert Peters that of the Phi Phi Alpha Fraternity. Ted 25 were adopted by the committee Heth will be the reporter for all musical functions, while Claude Knight, Louis Crampton, and David Smith will work on general news and features.

MIAA Editors to Meet At Albion February 14 Oratorical Contest

A second meeting of the Michi-gan Intercollegiate Association of College Editors will be held in Albion on Friday, February 14, 1936, according to a recent announce-ment by William Uraneck, Olivet Echo Editor.

The plans were made at the first meeting of this group in hopes since the transportation problem would be made easier by the fact that a debate tournament is to be held at Albion that same day.

It will be a round-table discussion of problems facing the various editors such as was held at Olivet but a more complete one,

Blame Indifference, in Turn, on Fraternities and Sororities

Editors of MIAA college news-Holmes Sullivan will do their best papers meeting at Olivet late in January to discuss ways and means of improving their papers placed the blame for most of the troubles of the small-college editor at the door of the indifferent student. The editors present agreed that the indifference found among students toward the college news-paper made it impossible for the and sorority, which control major campus interests.

Frank Sparks, editor of the Grand Rapids Herald, was a guest of the college for the day, speaking to the group of editors. He discredited the value of schools of journalism, claiming that the man who really wanted to get somewhere in newspaper work usually did so.

Sparks told colorful stories of his early journalistic experiences, from the time he peddled papers on the street corner, at the time he took a five-dollar-a-week job after graduation from college, to

Phi Phi Alpha Buys Hooper Residence

A dream of long standing became a reality last week-end when rni Pni Alpha Fraternity at Alma college moved into its newly purchased home on Philadelphia avenue. The most recent revival of long-laid plans to put the fraternity in its own house, finally ended successfully with the purchase of the r'red W. Hooper home, immediately west of Wright Hall, and adjoining the college property where Professor H. W. Spencer now lives. All papers were signed just before the end of last semester, and everything was made ready for members to move from the old location on West Superior street between semesters.

Study rooms have been provided for twenty men, and fifteen moved in last Saturday, with more expected. Sleeping accommodations for fifty men will be available on the third floor, making it possible for the fraternity to take care of even more of its alumni than formerly.

The Hooper house was finally selected from three possibilities, the Robinson house on Center street, just south of President Crooks' home, and the old Phi house 121 West Superior street. The Hooper house was chosen because of its location, its convenient layout, and its sturdy construction, even though it was not the cheapest offer received.

Revive Plans Homecoming

Plans for buying a house were revived at the Homecoming banquet of the fraternity last Novem-ber for the first time since the depression put an end to plans for buying the old Ammi W. Wright, now the R. B. Smith Memorial Hospital, on North State street.

Committees were immediately formed in different locations throughout the state, the Hooper house approved, the bargain made,

Clohset Is also a February Graduate

February Graduate In stating in the last issue that John Darbee, Clawson's teacher-of-mathematics-to-be, was Alma's lone graduate of February, 1936, the Almanian made a mistake. Clarence Clohset, Bay City, was also graduated at this time. But the record of the February class of 100% of its members get-ting jobs still holds, for Clohset expects to work the rest of this year in the field of sociology. When s September rolls around again he s will enter medical school, no open-ings being available in such insti-tutions in the middle of the year, making it impossible for him to s start on his medical work immedi-ately after graduation from here. Almanian Starts Contest for the "Geenyusses" Among Its Readers

A clean slate . . . a fresh start The history that is now being written will cover the fifty years of Alma's existence, taking the reader through the administrations of President Hunting, President Bruske, President Blaisdell, and bringing it up to date under the contest may come and go.... you can eat breakfast foods until you're blue in the face in order to get how tons get box tops ... you can make 14,345 words out of horsefeather and you "can draw me and win an art scholarship" but you will nev-er have participated in a contest that offers you as much in the way of financial resimuch of the way of financial reimbursement for so little an expenditure of thought as in our little brain child. Here we are at beginning. I have had so many themes returned

The rules:

1. Any student of Alma College may enter. (Professors are ex-cluded from the contest for the simple reason that they would cop too many prizes.) 2. The themes must be typewritten, 100 words or less in length and signed by the author.

4. Correct English will not be

4. Correct English will not be considered and syntactical redun-dances are strictly taboo. 5. The judges will be as dumb as the participants and their de-eision will be undisputed.

6. The winner will be an-nounced in the Almanian.

. Open To All

This is a contest in which everyone has a chance. It is open to wits, half-wits and, Yes, Meyer, even lamebrains can enter. The prize is one that almost anyone can afford to win and in case Mr. Reed is the winner he can go to the cinema twice.

Now that exams are over why now that exams are over why not take up your pencil and write us a theme, then type it and wait and see if you have won. The first theme topic is, ON GOING BAREFOOT.

better papers than the Almanian give numerous columns to a similar self-government.

So we end. Let it not be thought that we stand only for the Alma Mater and to give a lady our seat, but we will discuss things from our viewpoint and will work for better feeling and co-operation in the place of editorials which are too often critical and more or less falsely assume to be general student opinions. At any rate this column will fill up as much space as any editorial, and we hope it will not stir up half as much trouble. And now farewell, my little chickadees.

Phis Hire Reid for Formal at Midland Country Club

The new semester will be less than a week old when the Phi Phi Alpha Fraternity holds its annual Lincoln Dinner Dance at the Midland Country Club, Saturday, Feb-ruary 8. Addison Reid's orchestra, from Bay City will play.

The Phi Phi Alpha Lincoln Day celebration is one of the oldest traditions of that society, begin-ning in the school year of 1901-02, the year that the society was or-ganized. Originally a stag banquet for members and alumni was given at this time, but this has been changed in recent years to a formal dinner dance.

Scots Lose Game to Briton Cagers

Santini Leads Scoring With 22 Points for Albion

Paul Santini led the Britons against the Scots last Friday at Albion to a runaway, 47-21. It was the fourth victory for the Britons and tied them with the undefeated Olivet five.

Santini's 22 points paced the trying to attain it. Britons throughout the game as he cashed in on 2 baskets before the Scots touched the ball. He scored 7 baskets in the first half, and added three more and 2 free throws in the second half. Leigh Prettyman followed him with 12 points, while Riley Block's 12 points was high for the Scots.

The Scots were completely lost in the first half. They fumbled passes, they missed dog shots, they were repeatedly caught for "traveling", and other misdemean-traveling". Sortini concerned for the boys intra-mural bas-team of Bob Devaney leading the rest with two victories and no de-"traveling", and other misdemean-ors. Meanwhile, Santini opened up with a spectacular one man performance of basket-shooting. Eddie King and Russ Kroeze were completely out of it as far as Santini was concerned.

tournament held here at the end by Fraser Malcolm and Bob Sayles. will again be represented with 12 of the month. Classes C and D

Advance reports indicate that Class D will be especially hotly contested, as several good teams plan to meet in the finals. Merrill High with last year's veteran team supplemented by Pete Cicinelli's supplemented by Pete Clement's brother looms as one of the favor-ites with a highly successful sea-son. Merrill Sacred Heart is not given much of a chance with a small unseasoned team.

Riverdale on the west retained enough of its veterans to be in-cluded in the finals. Coach Bob Nunn has three big men and two small, fast guards to go places.

Edmore has been knocking off all teams in either Class C or D, and reports indicate that Perrinton, the defending champs, will have a battle on its hands. Carson City and Stanton might show themselves as dark horses.

In the past ten years, many good teams have shown themselves and this year should be no exception. For the past few years, Class B has been eliminated from the District tourneys, so only Class C and Class D have been held here at the college gym.

Several students now in school participated in the district tournament here before coming to college. Ken Ling played with Hemlock on a championship team. Pete Cicinnelli starred with Merrill

And here is a picture of the modern auction warehouse of today where the same type of leaf tobacco is sold on the open market to the highest bidder.

There is no substitute for mild, ripe tobacco to make a good cigarette-and there never will be ... and that is the kind we buy for Chesterfield Cigarettes.

> In the tobacco buying season Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company buyers will be found at 75 markets where the Bright type of tobacco is sold, and 46 markets where Burley and other types of tobacco are sold.

All these tobacco men are trained in the tobacco business, and are schooled in the Liggett & Myers tradition that only mild, ripe tobacco is good enough for Chesterfield Cigarettes.
