Tyler to End Long Teaching Career

Education Professor Resigns after 50 Years of Teaching

"I shall always be tremendously interested in Alma students. I have thoroughly enjoyed my work here and cannot recall a really depressing incident in my relations with the students," stated Professor Tyler, head of the Education Department at Alma College, when he announced last Sunday that he was going to resign this June, thus ending a teaching career of over fifty years, eight of which have been spent at Alma.

He explained that he had intended to retire for the last three years, but it is a hard job to suddenly stop something that has been your life's work, for sheer inertia keeps you going. He stated that his resignation was simply due to his ill-health that had taken away the pleasure of his work in late

PROF. LEON L. TYLER

Dr. Crooks Lauds Prof. Tyler's Work at Alma

Professor Leon L. Tyler, our first professor of education, brought to Alma College great wealth of wisdom and idealism. His was an idealism grown out of a difficult youthful experience with life and people. From early youth he has given himself passionately to good causes, to his own work and to his profession. He has exemplified the lofty ideals he held high (high enough for all to see) in classroom or on platform. He has moved and swayed many with his great gift of language and his convincing eloquence.

Alma College could not have been more fortunate in her first professor of education.

years, and added that all men of his age, who could afford to do so, should step aside and make room for the younger men.

Plans Tour of Country

He intends to just rest for some time, and then when he feels better to travel leisurely about the country with Mrs. Tyler, perhaps in one of the new house cars. After spending the winter in the south, Mr. and

'Father of Almanian' Writes about Early History of Athletics at Alma

A letter received last week from Frank W. McCabe, of Los Angeles, who more than anyone else is the "Father" of the Almanian, reveals many interesting facts about the early history of athletics at Alma College and undergraduate days of Col. Frank Knox.

It was Frank McCabe, who in the spring of 1897 urged the publication of an annual. His work resulted in the yearbook called "97" and the '98 Almanian. Later he was closely associated with the publishers when it became a monthly.

According to Mr. McCabe the first football team at Alma College was a makeshift affair, organized to play two games with Saginaw High School in the fall of 1894, and not the team pictured in the Almanian a few weeks ago.

Knox was captain of the '95 team and had charge of its playing as there was no regular coach. Two games were played resulting in a 24 to 0 victory over Shepardsville and a 12 to 8 defeat by Kalamazoo. Jack Crane was captain of the 1896 team, which was the one depicted in the Almanian, and was elected to that

Zeta Sigmas Win First Softball Game Tuesday

Scoring 11 runs in the first two innings to take an early lead, the zeta sigma fraternity defeated the Consumer's Power Co. team in a tree-hitting softball game, Tuesday, April 28, at Davis Field.

The game, the first of the season for the fraternity, was marked by errors, loose fielding, and many hits. Dawe and Miller were the hitting stars of the Zeta team, Miller having a perfect day with four out of four, a home run, a triple, and two singles.

Bush was the losing pitcher and Chet Currie, frosh, was the winning pitcher.

Currie, who has a good fast ball and a change of pace, will probably be the starting pitcher for the Zeta team, according to Gordon Mann, manager. Harold Stacy, another frosh, also has possibilities.

Opening today, a three game series will be held between the two campus fraternities. The final game will be played on Campus Day.

Other games scheduled include such downtown teams as the Varsity Shop and the refinery teams.

position the following fall. Mr. Woodruff, baseball and football star at the U. of Pennsylvania and the U. of Chicago was coach without pay. Prof. J. T. Ewing was the official referee and A. W. Beckner, Principal of the Commercial Department, was manager.

It was also brought out in the letter that Knox was only a substitute on the regular baseball team. Early in the '98 season, Mr. McCabe, who was manager, asked Knox to look after the preliminary work of the Reserves, for this was the first time that there were enough candidates to make two teams. Knox did this until he left to join the Grand Rapids militia for the Spanish American War.

One of the few times that Knox ever did play on the regular team, he substituted for Frank McCabe, who had been injured the day previous. The game was with Edmore in the spring of 1896.

Mr. McCabe wrote to correct some of the things in the story accompanying the picture of the '96 football team, which appeared in the issue of April 14. Interestingly enough the writer was in his college days correspondent for the Chicago Daily News of which Knox is now publisher.

Faculty Recital Enjoyed by Students, Townspeople

An appreciative audience gathered at the College chapel Wednesday evening of this week and greatly enjoyed the annual spring recital given by Miss Grace Roberts, professor of piano, and J. W. Ewer, professor of voice.

These well known faculty members head the music department of Alma College and their excellent and generous contribution to public affairs throughout the year make them general favorites in this city and surrounding communities.

In the Wednesday evening recital Miss Roberts and Mr. Ewer each gave two groups of delightful numbers, Miss Mae Nelson accompanying the latter at the piano. Miss Roberts received lovely flowers from friends, and both were given enthusiastic and delighted applause following their selections. The appearance of Miss Roberts and Mr. Ewer in the spring concert is always anticipated with keen pleasure by local friends and appropriately heralds commencement activities on the college campus.

Their numbers were as follows:

Choir Gives Concert at Marlette Church Sunday

The small A Capello Choir, consisting of sixteen persons, gave a concert last Sunday at the evening service of the First Presbyterian Church in Marlette, of which the Rev. A. E. Cameron is pastor. Included in the audience was a group of about twenty-five high school seniors, who were personally invited by Mrs. Cameron.

The purpose was to acquaint this high school group with Alma College and Alma's students. Before the concert there was a social hour, during which time the two groups of students mingled together, entertained each other, and enjoyed a luncheon.

The concert which was given at seven-thirty o'clock included three groups of songs by the choir, a baritone solo by Elwin Carter, and a violin solo by William Pressor.

Also on the program was a talk on Alma College, which was given by Prof. Roy W. Hamilton.

Molly Parrish is Elected Women's League President

Miss Molly Parrish, a member of the junior class from Sandusky, was elected last week to succeed Miss Jane Allen as President of the Women's League.

Other officers of this organization who were elected at the same time are Miss Opal Hines, who takes the place of Wilma Wright as vice-president, and Miss Mary Alice Damon, who will take over the duties of secretary, made vacant when Miss Hines was named to the vice-presidency.

These new officers will begin their duties immediately and serve until April of next year. The elections were held in Wright Hall. The other girls' organization whose officers will be changed in the near future is the Young Women's Christian Association, now headed by Gretchen Wilson.

Campus Day Program Will Have Many New Features

Miss Ward Is Chairman of Library Section of M.S.C.

Elected at Golden Anniversary of Michigan Schoolmasters

Miss A. P. Ward, Alma College Librarian, was elected State Chairman of the Library Section of the Michigan Schoolmasters' Club at one golden anniversary meeting of the Michigan Schoolmasters, which was held in Ann Arbor, April 30, May 1 and 2.

Both Miss Ward and Mrs. Helen Deitz Boutin were in Ann Arbor from Thursday until Saturday morning attending the general sessions and especially the school library conferences.

Several thousand persons were in attendance for the numerous lectures and conference sections. Besides talks by numerous Michigan educators, the group also heard Dr. Frank Aydelotte, President of Swarthmore College speak at the annual Honors Convocation on May.

Meetings of the school library conference were held in the University High School Library. May 1 was set aside for the annual Visitors' Day at the University Library and for the Alumni Day of the Department of Library Science.

Dr. W. T. Lemen Will Give Commencement Address

Plans for the forty-ninth annual Commencement Exercises were started last week with the announcement by President Crooks that Dr. William T. Lemen, minister of the First Presbyterian Church in Ann Arbor will give the Commencement address on Saturday, June 13th.

Dr. Lemen has just recently taken over the pastorate at Ann Arbor. Previously he served in a Presbyterian Church in Iowa City where the State university is located.

As usual the Friday before Commencement will be Alumni Day with the Alumni dinner and Alumni Association meeting, but this year the day will be of special significance for the class of 1911, for at this time they will celebrate their twenty-fifth reunion.

A more detailed program will be announced later in the month, but the arrangements will be about the same as in past years. On Sunday, June 7, the Farewell Communion and Baccalaureate Address will be at the Presbyterian Church.

Thursday will be Senior Class Day, while Friday will be taken up with activities of the Alumni, Trustees, and Faculty and the President's reception. Saturday will be Commencement Day with the exercises at ten o'clock in the morning and a luncheon.

Council's Approval Needed

Queen to Award Outstanding Students, Winning Teams, Catcher of Greased-Pig.

Many new features have been included in the plans for the annual Campus Day celebration scheduled to take place on Wednesday, May 13th, so that there will be something in which all of the students can participate, according to an announcement by Ben Ewer, general chairman for the affair.

The special committee of faculty and students ended their work last week when they decided upon a program of events, which will last from morning until midnight, and submitted it to the Student Council, which will vote on the matter tonight.

Program Adopted

The program adopted by the committee and now waiting the approval of the Council is as follows:

- 9:30 Ball game—Zeta and Phi
- 11:30 Coronation of the Queen of Scots
- 12:30 Lunch in the Grove
- 1:30 Girls' Ball Game
- 3:00 Greased Pig Chase (Football field)
- 4:30 Tug-o-war
- 8:00 Dance

Following the dance there will be a torch-light parade from the gym to the flag pole where the Alma Mater will be sung.

Awards to Leading Students

The new features that have been included in the plans of the committee are as follows: In addition to the Queen and her court and outstanding students, those who have done meritorious service at the college, are to be chosen and awards will be presented to the Coronation of the Queen.

The Phi-Zeta softball game is to be made an annual classic and the winning team is to be awarded a jug with the name of the fraternity and the year painted on it. This jug will be kept by the winners for a year, and next year the softball game will again decide who is the rightful possessor.

Queen's Duties

The girls on the winning team will be given ribbons, and the person catching the pig is to receive as his reward the money made from the sale of the pig.

Senior Award and A-Pin Winners Approved by ABC

The Athletic Board of Control at their regular meeting last week voted on those eligible for senior awards at the end of the basketball season and submitted this list to the Student Council. This does not include the track season, which may make a few additions to the present group.

These awards are given only to seniors who are going to graduate this June. The requirements for the distinction is the winning of one of these must be in the same year.

Noted on those eligible for A-Pins. These are given to athletes who have won their award in a major sport.

Lists were turned over to the Student Council, for they give awards on recommendation of the Athletic Board of Control.

At the same meeting the Board of Control made previously by Ed Goble, who is in charge of the golf team this spring. The team will represent Alma, but it will be financed by the players due to a lack of funds.

"Club 37" Is Attended by 65 Couples Last Saturday

Novel Decoration Motif and Red
Drennan Make Fine Party

Sixty-five couples of merry revelers attended the 11th annual J-Hop last Saturday night in the Memorial Gymnasium, which had been converted into the very swanky "Club 37" for the occasion.

Red Drennan and his band and very attractive dance programs were the features of the party.

From the minute one entered the spacious interior of the "Club 37" where indirect lighting effectively emphasized the silver and blue color scheme there was the feeling that the Junior class had done well with their brief venture into the night club field. Fraser Malcolm, general chairman, pleased with the attendance, announced the class now has a slight entry on the black column of the ledger.

The job of changing the gym into a night club fell to Holmes Sullivan and his committee. When the job was finished a low blue ceiling with blue sidewalls trimmed in a narrow silver stripe gave the Club the intimacy that is necessary for the biggest dance of the college year. Indirect lights upon the walls cast a faint glow upon the dance floor while two blue floodlights played upon the hanging ceiling, reflecting the movements of the dancers. The orchestra was seated on a raised platform at one end of the room while the other end was a huge lounge for those who cared to sit out.

Said by many to have been the best band to ever play at a J-Hop was Red Drennan and his ten piece orchestra from East Lansing. Featured with the band was pretty Betty Jane Wolfe who sang several numbers, outstanding among which was her low down interpretation of that popular song, "Basin Street Blues." Credit for securing this famous band and singer is due to Benton Ewer and the music committee.

Chaperons for the affair were: President and Mrs. H. M. Crooks, Dean James E. Mitchell, Dean Florence M. Steward, Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Kaufmann and Professor and Mrs. L. L. Tyler.

Those serving on committees besides chairman Malcolm, Ewer and Sullivan were: Mackenzie Crooks, Alfred Fortino, Opal Hines, Helen Jordan, Stephen Keglovitz and Marshall North.

Prof. Tyler to End Long Teaching Career in June

Mrs. Tyler will reside near their sons in southwestern Michigan.

He ended his resignation story with a very optimistic outlook, both for Alma College and the students. His main regret was his failure to better cultivate acquaintances with all the students, and the pleasure of his work came through the accomplishments of his students.

When Prof. Tyler came to Alma in 1928, he brought to this institution's Education Department, a wider acquaintance with Michigan school men and a greater knowledge of school law and development than was possessed by any other professor of Education in the state.

Came from Muskegon Heights
Mr. Tyler came to Alma from Muskegon Heights, where he was superintendent for eight years, developing that school system into one of the finest in the state. Previous to this work he was for 14 months in France during the World War and helped to solve some of the after-war problems of social adjustment and education of 28,000 troops, while they were waiting to be sent home.

During his teaching career, which started when he was only a boy, he taught at Bath, East Saginaw High, Fairmount Academy, Indiana, and Earlham College. His first real superintendency was at Three Rivers and after four years here he went to Traverse City where he was superintendent until the war started.

Attends Many Colleges
Prof. Tyler matriculated at what was then the Michigan Agriculture College, East Lansing. Since then he has attended the University Law School, Earlham College, Harvard, Chicago, and Columbia.

It was while teaching at Grand Ledge that he met and married Mrs. Tyler. The Tylers have two sons, Jerry and Bob, and they plan to spend the rest of their years near them.

And the next one we dedicate to those unsung heroes that are found at every party. I wish I were a kangaroo despite his funny stances; I'd have a place to put the junk My gal brings to the dances.

Clippings

Everything that's "wit" to print—that's us. From here and there we gather up the following bits of so-called verse and supposed humor. From the Los Angeles Junior College we offer you: On a mule behind, two feet we find, And two we find before; We stand behind, before we find What the two behind be for.

One college paper has made the following suggestions for theme songs:

"A Little Bit Independent," for the new Philippine republic.

"I'm Living in a Great Big Way," for Kate Smith.

And the following drama for examinations: Before, "I wish I were Aladdin"; during the exam, "Where Am I?"; after, "Out in the Cold Again."

Frosh: Ginger Ale.

Waiter: Pale.

Frosh: No, thanks, a glass will do.

Dust as I thought. This is rather punny, though. Napoleon left Moscow when the Czar said, "I don't like to Russia, but you really Moscow."

We mustn't forget the science student's epitaph:

Little Johnny has left this realm,
On earth he'll roam no more.
For what he thought was H2O
Was H2SO4.

The average man is like a match—if he gets lit up, he loses his head.

Did you ever wonder why—
If the plural of mouse is mice,
And the plural of louse is lice,
Why that of house is not hice?
And the plural of foot being feet,
Why should not that of boot be beet?
Then if ox being plural is oxen,
Should not the plural of boxes be boxen?

Notably absent from the Hop—Don Phillips and Pauline . . . Mac Magregor and Bertine . . . Ed Carpenter and anybody.

We shall not include those we missed, but among the old-timers that we bumped into at the J-Hop there was — Aileen Waters, not with her Kapac boy-friend but with John Colbeck. Of course Hubbard and the Biology lab instructor were there. Dale Dawson, made his contribution to the Junior's milk fund. Mary Liz Merrill sprung something new on us. Didn't quite get the name. Imports were plentiful with the junior prexy and the Hop chairman setting the pace.

Sunday we had the pleasure of meeting John, Clare, and Judith Volk.

We are wondering if Phyllis got her ring from Bob, and if Bill changed his mind at the last minute or not.

With the J-Hop over the males will have nothing to do but sit and wonder if that $3.50 investment will result in a "bid to a sorority formal" dividend.

They say Eddie is all right.—Izzie

Model League Will Convene on Friday

Michigan State College to Be Hosts This Year.

The annual meeting of the Model Assembly of the League of Nations convenes this Friday, May 8th, in the Senate Chamber of the State Capitol in Lansing, at eleven o'clock in the morning. The conference will hold discussions and meetings until Saturday at noon.

This event has become an important part of the annual programs of Michigan International Relations Clubs, and is duplicated in similar meetings throughout the country, all of which are sponsored largely by the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace.

26 Colleges to Attend

The conference will be attended by delegates from twenty-six colleges and universities of Michigan. The program consists of general meetings featuring special guest speakers, and separate committee discussion groups in which the delegates review important topics in world affairs.

This year Michigan State College is the host for the Assembly. The first plenary session will be held in the Senate Chamber of the State Capitol. The Friday luncheon following the first plenary session will be held in the Union building in East Lansing, and all activities will be held on the Michigan State College campus for the remainder of the session.

Hayden to Speak

The speaker for the banquet on Friday night will be Professor Ralston Hayden of the University of Michigan, recently vice-governor of the midwest. He will speak on "International Relations in the Far East."

The Saturday luncheon program will be devoted to reports, and to a discussion of the Mid-West Conference on International Relations. This program is in charge of Dr. Mary L. Hinsdale of Grand Rapids Junior College.

The three committees this year will discuss the topics of Sanctions, Redistribution of the Natural Resources of the World among the various nations as a means to eliminate the possibility of war, and Mandates. The latter committee will also discuss the Italo-Ethiopian question. There will also be a special meeting of the Mandates Commission.

Alma to Represent Italy

The local club will play an important part in all of the committees, for they have been named to represent Italy. This assignment gives them the chairmanship of the Mandates Commission and five minute speeches in the other committees. Bolivia and New Zealand are the other two countries that they will represent.

The complete delegation has not as yet been completed. The only ones that have been named so far are George Walker for the Mandates Committee, Jack Clark on the Natural Resources Committee, and Claude Knight, local president, will speak in the Sanctions Committee. These speeches are to be five minutes in length. Others will be named early this week.

Out of the Ferris Weekly comes this poetic and highly elusive grammatical achievement: My love has flew, Him did me dirt, Me did not know Him was a flirt To they in love, Let I forbid Lest they be doed like I been did.

Track Team to Meet Hope Thinclads This Saturday

Results at Albion Give Scots an Edge Over the Dutchmen

The Alma College track team will have a real test of their strength next Saturday when they meet Hope's thinclads, who won the quadrangular meet at Albion a few weeks ago and are heavy favorites for the MIAA title, in a dual meet on Davis field.

Though the Dutchmen have one of the strongest teams in the conference the meet should be a close one, for both teams are weak where the other is strong. Hope will rely on Martin and Roberts, two outstanding dash men, who will be expected to take first and second in the 100 and 220, and Tellman and Douma who will be hard to beat in the 440.

Tellman is also one of the leading broadjumpers and Robbert is not far behind. However, Alma should be able to pick up some places in these events, and Dean, Cresswell, Schiefley, and Dawe should take the distance runs and hurdles. If the Scots come through as expected, they are almost assured of five out of the eight running events.

The fate of the Alma team in the field events will rest with Riley Block, who should win the pole vault and place in the high jump, and Mel Fuller. According to his performance in the quadrangular meet at Albion, Mel will take first in the javelin and discus throw, and take second to Jack Buys of Hope in the shot put. First places in the field events will probably be evenly divided.

Thus a lot will depend on the second and third places. As it stands Alma is favored to take eight firsts out of the fourteen possible, but Hope is favored to take second place as well as first in the other six events.

There is little question as to how the relay will go after they defeated Kazoo's relay team, which has not been outclassed in MIAA competition for five years, at Albion. If the Campbellites plan to win next Saturday they will have to do so before the relay.

Campbell Gets Hotel Job; Ben Ewer to Edit Sports

The Almanian lost one of the best sport editors ever to write for the college weekly when Ward "Bud" Campbell of the class of 1935 received a job at the Hotel Daugherty in Clare last week. His place will be taken by Benton Ewer.

Ward started writing sports for the Alma Record while attending Alma High School. When he came to the college in the fall of '31, he did some writing for Harry Means Crooks, Jr., who was editor at that time. The following year he became regular sports editor for John Hurst and has edited that part of the paper up to last week. Ben Ewer, who is taking over the work with the next issue of the Almanian, has assisted Bud in this work for the past two years.

Bud Campbell will take the place of Tommy Croton, ex-'36, at the Hotel Daugherty. Croton has taken a job with the Roosevelt Oil Company.

Grand Rapids J.C. Defeats Scots in Meet Wednesday

Grand Rapids Junior College surprised the Alma College Scots, as they took nine first places and tied for another to win the triangular meet on Davis Field yesterday with a total of 73 points. The Scots came second with 32 points, and the Frosh brought up with 21.

To the spectators, the defeat had its gloom and its bit of sunshine. Harold Dean who had run the 440 in 53.3 seconds earlier in the week, entered the 440, the second running event. After trailing a good share of the way, he attempted to pass Luce the Jaycee's star on the final curve, but was forced into accepting second, when something snapped in his hip. The extent of the injury is not known at this time, but it kept him out of any more events for the day.

Jake Miller was the wee bit of sunshine that broke through the defeat. Although Jake competed with the freshmen, he scored 17 points to lead the individual scoring. Next year, as a junior, he will be eligible to compete on the varsity. Jake took first in the broad jump with a leap of 22 feet 1/2 inch; first in the javelin with a throw of 155 feet 4 inches, tied for first in the pole vault, clearing 11 feet 2 inches with Hultman of Jaycee; and taking second in the shot put. Not too bad for one afternoon's work. He also competed in the high jump and the discus, but could not break into the scoring.

MIAA Field Day to Be at Kalamazoo on May 29-30

The Annual M. I. A. A. Field Day will be held on Upjohn field at Kalamazoo May 29th and 30th again this year. Only a few changes in the plans and program of last year's meet have been made by the committee in charge of the field day.

The Victors' Ceremony, in which the Queens from the various colleges take part, will be the same as in 1935 except that each queen will present awards to winners from her college.

The places, awards, order of events, officials, and programs will be the same as last year. In the case of awards the local committee and Mr. Ernst will make the final selections.

Coach Hinga has been selected to replace Prof. Raymond, who is on leave from Hope College, as golf manager. It was also decided by the committee to give each participant in the golf tournament two golf balls and to give tennis balls to each set of competitors in the tennis tournament at the end of the 13th game in the first and second rounds and at the end of the 9th game in subsequent rounds.

Freshman competition in track events will be decided upon by the coaches.

The committee on the Field Day consisted of Coach Harwood, Coach Barnard, Coach Erwin, Prof. Stowe, Mr. DeGay Ernst, and Prof. Hance.

Win 42-Year Fight for Dance Not Wanted

Baldwin, Kan.—Students at Baker University here finally won a 42-year fight to permit school dances, banned since the university was founded.

But the inaugural dance had to be called off. Because of lack of interest, advance sales didn't justify hiring an orchestra.

The students at Alma won their fight for college dances in 1921, and now they pay $3.50 for a dance. How could anyone who wanted to dance that bad be denied.

Here's One to Try on Dean Mitchell

When Fred Lemmer, student at the University of Minnesota meets his English professor, Mr. Weaver, they both blush slightly.

Over a period of many weeks, Mr. Lemmer has broken all records for arriving late to Mr. Weaver's class. His alibis have varied: "My alarm clock is broken" or "There was a traffic jam" or "My car busted down."

Finally Mr. Weaver snarled, "Next time you'll tell me your house burned down."

Last week Mr. Lemmer was late again. During the night his house had burned down.

Alumni News

Though a bit late it is none the less news. When Vincent D'Angelo (generally known about the campus as "Mike") returned the questionnaire that has been sent out to all alumni by the college office, it was learned that he has been married since the 29th of November.

He married Miss Diana Glass of San Francisco, and the ceremony took place in New York City. D'Angelo is a member of the class of '33.

A baby boy, Donald Renton was born to Mr. and Mrs. Worsfold of Grand Rapids on April 27, 1936. Mrs. Worsfold (Katherine Lehner) graduated from Alma College with the class of 1929.

Another alumni couple, Thelma Tarrant Brodebeck, who graduated in 1932 and Jerry Brodebeck, ex-33, were the proud parents of a baby girl, Sandra Jean, who was born on March 22, 1936.

William Goggin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goggin of Alma, who graduated from Alma College with the class of '33, was a guest of honor at the annual University of Michigan Honors Convocation held Friday, May 1, in Hill Auditorium. Mr. Goggin received a university scholarship in the graduate school.

Gordon E. Purdy, Alma ex '37, was given his freshman numerals for wrestling at Michigan State College, East Lansing, according to an announcement from R. H. Young, director of athletics. Gordon, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Purdy of Alma, is a junior in agriculture.

The engagement of Miss Mary Kay Burt, member of the 1930 class, was announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Burt, of Saginaw, last week. She will be married to Charles W. Kreuger on June 20th. Miss Burt is teacher of social sciences and dramatics at Webber school.

Campus Day Program Will Have Many New Features

The Queen will rule as well as reign this year. She will preside at a special table with her court during the luncheon: throw the ball in to start the girls' game; give the signal to start and stop the tug-o-war; lead the grand march at the dance; and during intermission she will present the jug to the winning frat team, recognize the winner of the pig chase.

All these plans will be up before the Student Council for approval tonight. The dance will be given by the Council. In addition they will arrange for the election of the Queen and her court and also the manner in which the ten outstanding students are to be chosen, if the latter is approved.

Further details are to be worked out by the various subcommittees which were appointed last week.

Vest-pocket cruisers—vest-pocket torpedo boats—and now vest-pocket submarines. All we need now is the money to buy a vest pocket.

What's going on here

...what's happening in these 40 houses

—the curing and ageing of leaf tobacco, that's what's going on.

Thousands of hogsheads of mild ripe tobacco are under these roofs... just lying here ageing and sweetening and mellowing for Chesterfield cigarettes.

Like Rip Van Winkle, they sleep—the tobaccos getting mellow and milder for the cigarette that Satisfies.

... a 1000 pound hogshead of leaf tobacco
