Hood and Malcolm Also Win Campus Offices.

Reminiscent of the Democratic landslide of 1936 was the annual campus and class elections in which the Phi Phi Alpha fraternity slate of officers was swept into office by a large majority. The only offices not won by the Phis were the Treasurer and two Student Council members in the Junior class election.

The voting was run off smoothly and the results were announced early in the afternoon. There were two ties which will have to be voted upon again; Louis Schneider and Cassius Lea tied for the presidency of the Junior class and Atlee Gilbert and Dudley Tabor both received the same number of votes for the third Council position in the same class.

The results of the Campus Election:

Harvie Subs for Reagan; Flag Now Floats on High

The "Stars and Stripes" once more wave over the greensward and the orchids go to Chet Harvie, erstwhile freshman, for sneaking up the flag pole and putting up the new rope. Last week's Almanian ballyhooed the ascent of Hoyt Reagan to be made at four o'clock Thursday afternoon . . . a fairly strong breeze, however, changed Mr. Reagan's mind and he didn't reach the top.

The Home Guards of which Harvie is a member were to have a parade on Memorial Day and Chet thought it necessary to get the flag up so he climbed up the narrow pole, inserted the new rope and raised the American flag to a new level . . . Just another victory for the Freshman class . . . ANOTHER???

Students Climax Work at Recital Last Wednesday

The recital of the music students of Alma College given last Wednesday evening in the College Chapel presented an unusual display of talent and marked the climax of weeks of preparatory work. The performance gave many of these young people a chance to try themselves before an audience and called attention to many phases of their playing which in ordinary practice-lesson routine might be overlooked.

The artistic performance of Miss Julia Schaafsma as accompanist deserves special mention. Her playing showed feeling and immediate responsiveness, qualities highly desirable in such work.

A few of these young artists will go into serious study, others will perhaps consider their training merely as a hobby or pastime. Yet all are enriching their characters in that certain type of refinement which only true appreciation of the arts can give. We are anxious to encourage them in their pursuits and wish them continued success in their musical careers.

ACP Gives The Almanian 2nd Class Honor Rating

This year's Almanian, edited by Luther Evans during the first semester and Arthur Boynton the second, was given a second class honor rating in the weekly class by the All-American Newspaper Critical Service, which is one of the services of the Associated Collegiate Press Association of which the Almanian is a member.

The newspapers are classified into five groups: All-American, and first, second, third, and fourth class. Honor ratings include the first four groups mentioned. All publications receiving honor ratings will be awarded handsome diplomas.

Two experts criticize and rate every paper entered. Each man judges only his specialty. Professor E. H. Ford judges the entire write-content of each paper, and Professor K. E. Olson, scores make-up and typography. These two men are members of the Department of Journalism faculty at the University of Minnesota.

Last year the Almanian was given a third class rating. A number of the suggestions for improvement were made this year with the result that it moved up to second class. The Hillsdale Collegian was the only other paper in the state to receive an honor rating in the weekly class. They were also second class.

The Michigan Daily at Ann Arbor was given the rating of Pacemaker, which briefly is the summa cum laude of awards to newspapers. They were given this honor along with only three other papers out of a total of 258.

Kalamazoo Edges Out Hope to Win MIAA Track Title

Scot Thinclads End Season by Taking Third Place.

Kalamazoo won the M. I. A. A. track and field meet held at Kalamazoo Saturday, by the slim margin of four points. Hope who presented a strong team was ahead of the Hornets until the last event before the relay. The Hornets scored 47½ to win with Hope taking 43 for second place. Alma, Albion, Olivet, and Hillsdale finished in order.

The relay was one of the greatest races ever seen at a M. I. A. A. meet because the Hornets had to place better than third or Hope would beat them. Albion and Hope gave them a great battle but could not defeat Kalamazoo, who pulled a surprise victory over the Hope relay team, who were doped to win.

Lambooy was the high point winner of the meet by taking 14 points, two firsts in the hurdles and thirds in the shorter dashes. Martin of Hope was second with ten points by winning firsts in the 100 and 220 yard dashes. Schiefley, Alma star, took third by winning eight points. The Scots did not do as well as was expected of them. Dean was beaten in the 880 which was a surprise and Fuller was beaten in the discus by Newell who got off a very good throw in the trials Friday.

We have an aunt (sounds like the start to one of Gibb's classics) who is so stout that she has to get off train backwards. Last week she went live stations past her destination. Every time she tried to alight, some helpful porter, thinking she was trying to board, would give her a push. Moral: take "Turns" and get rid of it—or something.

A kiss is a peculiar proposition—of no use to one, yet bliss to two. The small boy gets it for nothing, the young fellow has to lie for it, and the old man has to buy it. It's the baby's right, the lover's privilege, and the hypocrite's mask. To a young girl it means Faith. To a married woman it brings Hope. With an old maid it is Charity.

At last we have found the poem to dedicate to MacGregor: A dillar, a dollar, a two-point-five scholar. What makes you wake so soon? You used to rise at eight o'clock, But now you sleep 'til noon.

Nonsense, nothing but nonsense, but then other people print it: My lover him has went away My lover his has went to stay Him can't come to I Me can't go to he It can never was Don't it awful Oh well—Spring has come, the grass is riz I wonder where the flowers is.

And now just a bit of nonsense—It always has been a puzzle to me What sailors sow when they plow the sea. Does coffee go with the roll of a drum? What was it that made the window blind? Whose picture is put in a frame of mind? When a storm is brewing, what does it brew? Does the foot of a mountain wear a shoe? Can a drink be got from a tap on the floor? Does the edge of the water cut the shore? And say—"I" admit this is quite absurd, When you drop a remark, do you break your word? Now what, ye wiseacres, is the use Of going through college and taking degrees When we're posed by such plain little problems as these?

Here's one that we dedicate to the Wright Hall girl: As soon as day begins to dawn The meadow-lark starts singing. As soon as evening comes, a star— The angels' lamp—starts swinging. As soon as I am in the tub The telephone starts ringing. The Alma Soots prepare for a golf match— Eddie (Me) Goggin—My lad, are you to be my caddie? Caddie—Yes, sir. Eddie—And how are you at finding lost balls? Caddie—Very, good, sir. Eddie—Well, look around and find one, so we can start the game.

College students are people who spend their days hearing arid facts and aired opinions. The Junior Collegian never fails us with a bit of verse, and this time it is— Some girls are blondes and some brunettes, Some are beautiful and wise. Some, they say, are clever, too— But I guess they go with other guys.

And now to the person who thinks spring is just another season of the year that is a little warmer than winter— Those who never date at all Find spring no different than the fall. Their thoughts are not on birds and bees, They're busy making A's and

Spring Concert by Choir Is June 12

College Singers to Be Busy All Commencement Week.

The A Cappella Choir will give its annual Spring Concert Friday evening, June 12 at 8:30 p. m., in First Presbyterian Church. This is a change in the date as announced in previous bulletins. Miss Grace D. Roberts, organist, and Miss Kathleen P. Pesek, harpist, will assist as soloists. No admission will be charged, but rather a silver offering will be taken.

The program has been arranged as nearly as possible to suit the taste of everyone and has been given intensive work in preparation. It will include several sacred numbers by the great masters as well as novelty songs which have been great favorites with every audience.

In its recent concerts at Detroit the choir and its group of soloists was received with much enthusiasm and was given very favorable press notices. With the experience gained in its several recent appearances the choir should give a memorable performance in Alma at its Spring Concert this year.

The appearance of the choir in the Spring Concert together with its part in the Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises will bring to close a very busy season. One of the biggest projects was the purchase of the maroon robes for which so many alumni and friends contributed. Another significant event was the national recognition given to the organization by its admission into the National Federation of Music Clubs.

More programs have been given this year by the choir than ever before. On sixteen occasions throughout the state the concerts of the A Cappella Choir and its auxiliary group, the Chapel Choir, have drawn public attention to Alma College and its activities.

Trackmen Swamp Central State in Return Meet

Alma College defeated Mt. Pleasant in a dual meet at Mt. Pleasant Tuesday afternoon. The Scots collected 96½ points to Central's 54 making it a very one sided meet. The Scots scored sprints in the quarter mile, pole vault and the mile run. Central won the discus, the shot and the javelin, for their only first places.

Scheitly was the high point man of the meet scoring first places in the 100 yard dash and both hurdles. Dean, Ling, Dawe, and Brenneman were also outstanding for the Alma thinclads. Brenneman scored 10 points by taking first in the mile, third in the half and third in the pole vault. Gilbert took two first places, in the high jump and the broad jump, making ten points. The Scots made no outstanding times in the meet but they were not pushed in any of the events that they won.

The Freshmen met the Central Frosh at the same time the varsity were competing. The freshmen won the second time as they won in the first meeting. Miller was high point man for the Alma Frosh, collecting 22½ points, taking first in the shot, broad jump, and javelin, second in the pole vault and third in the 100 yard dash. Taber, dash man from Grand Rapids J. C., won the hundred and 220 yard dashes, running very fine races, taking the hundred in 10:02 which is good time in this conference. The Frosh did very well in the dashes and field events but were weak in the distance runs. Love, Central Frosh, took four first places in the mile, half mile, 440 yard dash and the two mile. Gordon Netzorg of Alma won both hurdles which gave him ten points.

Saturday the Scots go to compete in the M. I. A. A. meet at Kalamazoo and are a favorite to win. Alma is hoping that Albion and Hillsdale can cut the Hornets out of points which will give Alma a chance to win.

$4,000 of Radium Explodes at Princeton Laboratory

Princeton, N. J.—Two Princeton professors were burned, and $4,000 worth of radium was scattered in minute particles throughout a laboratory here when a test tube mysteriously exploded.

Determined efforts to recover the invisible particles from the walls, floors, and ceiling of the laboratory are being made, and the two experimentors, members of the Princeton Physics department, will undergo extensive tests in order to determine the possibility of their having contracted the incurable radium poisoning.

Reason for the explosion of the radium, which was mixed with five grams of beryllium, is unknown.

What One Student Knows of Practical Affairs Anyway

Business men can talk all they wish about college education not helping young men along in the practical affairs of life, but here's a contradiction.

A young collegian at the U. of California bought a very expensive make of automobile and in four months he had paid out a big bill in repair expenses. He did this:

On the side of the beautiful car he painted the words: "This is the last 'blank' car I will ever buy. In four months it cost me $300 in repairs." Then he proceeded to drive slowly through the business district, and particularly in front of the "blank" agency.

It was only a matter of hours before the agency bought the car back from him and took over all the repair bills. Rugged individualism.

Students Write College History as NYA Project

The History of Alma College, the writing of which has been one of the projects under the N. Y. A. for the past two years, will be completed and ready for publication early next fall. This history will be used in connection with the semi-centennial of Alma College, which will be observed next year.

The work was started last fall by two students, Emery Kendall and Arthur Boynton, and after assembling information from the Alma Record, early student publications, the Maroon and Cream, the Almanian, a History of Alma College by Pres. Bruske, letters from alumni, and countless other sources, an Introduction and two chapters, The Beginnings and the Administration of Pres. Hunting was written.

It was planned last year to divide the book after the first chapter, which deals with the origin, into chapters corresponding to the terms of the four presidents, Hunting, Bruske, Blaisdell and Crooks. Each chapter is subdivided into a character sketch of the president, buildings, curriculum, student life, finances and generalizations.

This year the work has been carried on by Arthur Boynton, who has completed the chapters on President Bruske and Blaisdell and is up to the school year of 1922-23 in the term of President Crooks. No arrangements have been made yet for the publication of this history, but parts of it will probably be written up each week in the Almanian. It will be the first complete history ever written on Alma College.

Coach Campbell's Mother Passes Away Last Friday

Death, with its peaceful slumber and release from pain, came to one of Alma's silvery haired women last Friday when Madame James M. Campbell, mother of Coach Roy R. Campbell of Alma College, passed away at his home on West Superior Street. The 82 year old lady had been in failing health for some time past and in recent weeks her increasingly serious condition indicated that the end could not be far off. A sister, Mrs. Sarah Campbell of St. Ignace, Michigan, came lately to assist Mrs. Roy Campbell in caring for her, and the widely-loved woman went quietly to sleep at 3:30 a. m. Friday morning.

The body rested at Moody's Funeral Home until Monday morning at 9:30 o'clock when an impressive funeral service was held there with Rev. Albert J. Anthony of the Presbyterian Church in charge. Immediately afterward the body was taken to Detroit where interment was made beside the husband at Evergreen Cemetery. Rev. Willis L. Gelston, D. D., of Highland Park, a former Alma pastor and close friend of the Campbells, conducted the committal service at the grave.

Albert Calkins, '33, Weds Miss McGowan, on May 16

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McGowan of Lansing announce the marriage of their daughter Verna A. to Albert E. Calkins of Akron, Ohio. The wedding took place Saturday noon, May 16, at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. Harold Reese of Williamston, performing the ceremony. They were attended by Miss Nina Hitchcock, cousin of the bride, and Wm. C. McGowan, jr., the bride's brother.

Out of town guests were the groom's mother, Mrs. M. B. Calkins of Detroit; and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Calkins and daughter Ann of Pontiac.

At the close of the ceremony a three course dinner was served by three cousins of the bride: Mrs. Bernard Barrett, and Norma and Helen Hitchcock. Mr. and Mrs. Calkins left on a short wedding trip to Sebawaing and other points north, after which they will travel by plane to Akron, where they will reside.

Miss McGowan formerly lived in Alma and will be remembered by friends here. Mr. Calkins graduated from Alma College with the class of 1933 and now has a responsible position in Akron.
