Sales Campaign For The Annual Going Full Blast

Eighty-three Are Sold; 200
Sales is the Goal

The campaign which was started by the Maroon and Cream with its chapel program last week is to continue until Christmas vacation. Holmes Sullivan, business manager, announced Sunday. Eighty-three books were ordered in chapel last week and it is hoped that the quota of 200 will be sold before college closes for Christmas vacation. The books may be purchased for a cash price of $2 or $2.25 on an installment plan. 75c of the purchase price under the installment plan must be paid down and the balance before March 15.

In the meantime pictures are being taken. The junior class is having its pictures taken in two groups at the Stovall studios today. All group pictures are to be taken during the next two weeks at the Stovall studios. The Senior individual pictures may be taken anytime. More snap shots are needed and anyone who has snaps to turn in are asked to do so at once. Leo Washburn, Ken Ling or Holmes Sullivan will take them.

In the next two weeks it is hoped that group pictures will be taken of every organization on the campus, formal, informal or otherwise. The swipes, the janitors, pot wallopers, the Pioneer Hall men, Wright Hall women, societies, fraternities etc. will have their own space in the year-book.

The contract for all of the photography work has gone to the Stovall studios. Seniors who are interested in having their graduation pictures taken may make arrangements to use the pictures taken for the year-book for a reduced cost.

The results of the elections held last week for the outstanding students on the campus were as follows: most popular man—Fritz Malcolm; most popular girl—Betty Fraker; most versatile girl—Marjory Anderson; most versatile man—Al Fortino; best dressed girl—Hester Moon; student who has done most for school—Al Fortino; senior most likely to succeed—Al Fortino.

The sales campaign is to be conducted by personal contact from now on. Fritz Malcolm, sales manager, announces the following sales staff: Joe Bell, Parker Loft-house, Charlotte Temple, Betty Fraker, Dorothy Glass, Marguerite Witt, Mary Alice Damon, Ted Heth, Charles Skinner, Betty Roberts, Willis Gelston, "Gerry" Johnson, Fred Johnston, Ray Walker and Alma Ludwick.

Dr. Schreiber Speaks On German Music in America

Dr. Theodore Schreiber, German professor, was invited by the Gratiot County Junior Musical to lecture on German music on Tuesday, December 1. The professor restricted his paper to German music in the United States which he surveyed for the last hundred and fifty years. He traced the development of choral, church, symphonic, and operatic music in this country, the first three of which are identified with German pioneers in music for this country. It was of particular interest to learn that the oldest American male chorus, the Philadelphia Mannerchor, was founded on December 15th, 1835, and that another German singing society, the Philadelphia Liederkränz, will celebrate its one hundredth anniversary on April 24, 1938. It was this society which dared to include women, thus introducing the first American mixed chorus.

Vitek and Spendlove Are Married in Highland Park

College students and teachers were pleased to hear that Miss Margery Spendlove, '34 and Mr. Joe Vitek, '36, were married in the manse of the Highland Park Presbyterian church on Thanksgiving day. Rev. Gelston, formerly of Alma, performed the ceremony. Miss Spendlove has been teaching in Merrill, her home town, while Mr. Vitek, whose home is in Alma, has been employed in Detroit since his graduation last June.

The couple were attended by Miss Edith Davis and Mr. Louis Wiser, both former Alma students. They will live in Detroit after the close of the school year.

19 Varsity Men Receive Awards

Nineteen men are to be awarded varsity letters at the banquet tomorrow, Coach Macdonald announced at an Athletic Board of Control meeting last Tuesday. Nine of the letter winners are seniors. Seven are receiving their first football letters, five of whom are sophomores. The seniors winning their last awards are Leo Washburn, Al Fortino, Ben Ewer, Clyde Dawe, Fritz Malcolm, H. B. Johnson, Steve Keglovitz, Bob Mack and Gordon Mann. Stan Cater, Art Smith and John Gilbert are juniors receiving their second letters while Cash Lea and Floyd Boat are winning their first letter in their second year of competition. The sophomores gaining their first award are Bob Devaney, Angus MacGarvah, John Mathews, Jake Miller and Ken Otis.

Twenty freshmen were awarded numerals. Numerals will be awarded at the beginning of the next semester providing that the grades of those winning them are satisfactory. Those receiving numerals are: Webster Cutler, Sault Ste. Marie; Don Smith, Charlotte; Walter Mutchler, Alma; Tom Plowman, Perry; Bob Cole, Detroit; Norman Geyer, Saginaw; Bill Ginther, Traverse City; Myron Spencer, Scottsville; Everett Noe, Sturgis; Carlyle Strobel, Saginaw; Cliff Carter, Breckenridge; Morley Webb, Wheeler; Ray Walker, Alma; Bill Troyer, Sault Ste. Marie; Charles LeClaire, Ferris; Lee Van Voorhees, Marquette; Charles Dove, Jackson; Bob Hurley, Crosswell; Harold Teak, Oxford; Charles Climie, Alpena.

Dr. Horst, '08, Trustee, Dies in Wichita Falls, Texas

Rev. George Philip Horst, a member of the General Council of the Presbyterian Church and of the Board of Trustees of Alma College from 1925 to 1928, was found dead in bed on Sunday, November 29, in his home in Wichita Falls, Texas. His death was due to a heart attack, doctors said.

Rev. Horst was a member of Zeta Sigma fraternity and graduated from Alma College in 1908. He received his M. A. degree from Princeton University and his D. D. from Washington College in 1915. He also attended Princeton Theological Seminary.

From 1914 to 1921 he was head of the Second Presbyterian Church in Portsmouth, Ohio, and continued for ten years as director of men's work in the same church. He served overseas as chaplain in the American Expeditionary Forces during the World War. At the time of his death he was pastor of the First Presbyterian church in Wichita Falls, Texas.

Funeral services were held in Wichita Falls the following Monday. The body was taken to Detroit on Friday, December 4 for services at his sisters' home. President Crooks attended the latter services.

Harry Kipke Is Banquet Speaker Here Wednesday

"Cuddy" Shaver Also on Program; Brokenshire Is Toastmaster

Harry Kipke, head coach at the University of Michigan, will be the principal speaker at the annual football banquet which is to be held in Wright Hall tomorrow at 6:00. Mr. Kipke will present a moving picture film of Michigan football and make comments on the picture.

Robert Sayles, student manager of athletics, announced last Tuesday that Prof. Brokenshire, long known as a sage, is to act as toastmaster. Dr. Crooks will extend the college's welcome to the returning alumni and friends. "Cuddy" Shaver, of the class of '23 and an all-MIAA end in his playing days, will speak for the alumni. Others who are scheduled to say a few words are Charlotte Temple who will tell the team what the girls think of the football boys, and Al Fortino and Steve Keglovitz, the two Alma men who made the MIAA team this year at center and guard respectively. Coach Macdonald will also be called upon to speak.

The Wright Hall service is preparing for 300 guests, Robert Sayles announced. Invitations have been sent to many alumni and friends of the college from all parts of the country. Many of the old-time, as well as recently graduated athletes, will return to pay homage to Coach Macdonald and his first team as mentor of his Alma Mater. Many of the footballers of Macdonald's playing days are expected back.

Nine seniors will be feted for the last time. These are Clyde Dawe, Gordon Mann, Steve Keglovitz, H. B. Johnson, Leo Washburn, Fritz Malcolm, Ben Ewer, Bob Mack and Al Fortino. All except H. B. Johnson have played for the past three years. Johnson played his sophomore year in 1930 and returned last year to play his last two years. During his last

Art Byers Plays For Zeta Formal

The Formal season will be inaugurated by the Zeta Sigma fraternity Saturday, December 12 at the Midland Country Club. Art Byers and his orchestra of Saginaw are to play for the dinner and dance.

In addition to the members and their guests, Dean and Mrs. Rorem, Prof. and Mrs. Ewer and Prof. Mitchell are to attend as chaperons. Many alumni are expected to meet the group in Midland.

The dinner will be served at 6 o'clock in the beautiful dining room of the Club. The menu, as announced by Mack Crooks, is to consist of clear consommé soup, assorted relish, beef tenderloin steak, shoe string potatoes, straight combination salad, ice cream, cake, coffee and milk. After the dinner the formal dancing will begin and continue until midnight when the greater part of the crowd will return to Alma.

Transportation has been arranged by Gordon Mann and the group will leave Alma Saturday afternoon to assemble at the Country Club shortly before 6 o'clock.

Clyde Dawe and Robert Sayles are the general chairmen for the party. Other committees are headed by: orchestra, Parker Loft-house; transportation, Gordon Mann; menu, Mack Crooks; chaperons, Fred Meyer.

Phi Christmas Party Scheduled for Dec. 17

The annual Phi Christmas party which each year sends the Alma students happily on to their Christmas vacations, is scheduled for Thursday, December 17, the day before vacation begins. It will again be held in the Booster Club Hall.

Charles Skinner, general chairman for the party, announces that definite plans will be made public next week. The orchestra has not definitely been chosen. At least seventy couples are expected with many tickets already purchased or reserved by alumni. The party is always followed by a stag Christmas party for the members and pledges at the fraternity house where gifts are exchanged.

Alma Places Two On MIAA Team

Two members of the right side of Alma's powerful line, Al Fortino and Steve Keglovitz, were chosen to the official All-MIAA football eleven announced in the state newspapers during the Thanksgiving holidays.

Keglovitz was honored at right guard and Fortino at center, but Al backed up the right side on defense in the six-man line formation. H. B. Johnson was chosen at right end on the second team and Stan Cater, right tackle, was accorded honorable mention.

On this all-conference team selected by Coaches Barnard of Kalamazoo, Hinga of Hope, Sprankle of Albion, Harwood of Hillsdale, Oliphant of Olivet, and Macdonald, the champion Kalamazoo Hornets, Hope and Hillsdale placed three each and Alma two.

Kalamazoo was represented at tackle by Ron Clark, at quarterback by Cliff Hunt, and at the fullback position by George Finlay. Hope placed the only repeater, Fred Jappinga, at halfback, Howard Schaubel at end, and Eckdel Buys at tackle.

Emil Polich of Hillsdale came back this fall after suffering a broken neck during last season's campaign to gain all-conference end berth. Sol Wolfe, the most outstanding lineman in the association, was placed at guard, and Al Rizzardi rounded out the all-star backfield to complete Hillsdale's representation.

Howard Schaubel of Hope transferred this fall from Grand Rapids, J. C. and immediately became one of the most outstanding ends. Schaubel is tall and rangy and proved adept in pass receiving. He was also a consistent ground-gainer on end around plays. He is a junior.

Ron Clark of Kalamazoo was a bulwark in the Hornets' strong line. Tipping the scales close to 225 pounds Clark was a deadly tackler. Clark is a senior and last year gained second team honors.

Sol Wolfe of Hillsdale was the most outstanding lineman of the year. Wolfe played guard on offense and tackle on defense and was a menace to every conference team. Wolfe is a junior but playing his first year in association competition.

Al Fortino of Alma performed yeoman duties in the center of the Scots' stellar line to gain all-conference honors at the pivot post. Fortino called the team's signals and never needed relief from center duties. Fortino is a senior.

Steve Keglovitz of Alma flashed brilliantly all season to gain the vote at right guard. Keglovitz consistently broke through the opposing lines to spill backs for losses and break up plays. Keg is a senior.

Eckdel Buys of Hope is another of the Dutchmen's long line of hefty tackles. Buys was hard to move and consequently it was difficult to run plays through his side of the line. He is a senior.

Cagers Defeat Muskegon J.C.'s To Open Season

23-16 Victory Shows Team
Has Possibilities

The Alma Scots' basketball quintet started off on the right foot in the first encounter of their winter campaign as they downed Muskegon Junior College 23-16 last Friday night in the Memorial Gymnasium. The battle was the first of three preliminary frays the local courtmen face before they enter actual conference combat.

A pair of sophomore hopefuls, Johnny Mathews and Ken Otis, paced the Scots in their curtain raising victory. Otis emerged with top scoring honors as he dropped in three field goals and two free throws to total eight points. Long John pressed Ken closely as he likewise connected three times from the floor and once from the foul line.

Mathews and Otis with Dawe, Smith and Ewer comprised Coach Macdonald's starting lineup. Dawe excelled on defense and Smith played a scrappy game despite the fact that he had just gotten up from the sick-bed. Ewer showed offensive strength as he garnered five points.

The lead see-sawed back and forth throughout the first half as both teams employed an under the basket game. Alma opened the scoring as Ewer took a pass from Otis and dropped in a dog shot. The Jaysees knotted the count as Bohn sunk a close in shot.

Otis countered with a dog shot but the Jaysees jumped into the lead as Kamperman and Dyer looped in baskets. The Scots moved back into the lead as Otis scored from the foul line and Mathews tipped one in from under the hoop.

Bohn dropped in a gift toss and then Mathews pushed in an out of bounds throw-in by Ewer. Macdonald sent in the second stringers and the Jaysees connected for

Coach Loses Father Thanksgiving Day

Mr. Gordon Macdonald Sr. of Bay City, father of Coach Macdonald, died at his home Thanksgiving day. Coach Macdonald was called from the local high school football banquet November 24 to his father's bedside. He returned to Alma the morning of the 25th but went back with his family the same day to be beside his father at the end.

Mr. Macdonald, who was 66 years old, had been ill for nine days with a kidney infection which developed to a critical stage while he was on a deer hunting trip in northern Michigan. He was rushed back to Bay City for skilled hospital care but he failed to recover. Mrs. Macdonald, Coach Gordon Macdonald, and Stanley, another son from Detroit, were at the bedside when the end came.

Funeral rites were held on the following Saturday afternoon in Bay City.

Mr. Macdonald retired from active business three years ago. Previous to that time he had been superintendent of the Mackinaw-Jackson division of the Michigan Central Railroad. The family is a substantial and respected part of Bay City's community life and Mr. Macdonald's death brings regret to many friends and acquaintances there.

Why Not Do It Up Right?

If the girls are going to put on a party for the boys they ought to do it right. Not to do it right is to leave the "nasty old boys" to infer any number of things. Except for the fact that the girl is willing to buy the ticket it is hard to differentiate between a girl-bid and a boy-bid party. The boy still goes after the girl, waits for her from two minutes to an hour, drives her to the dance, takes her out at intermission, pays for the treats, drives back to the dance and after the dance back to the Hall or the girl's home. He then thanks his friend for a lovely evening.

The girls ought to play their role thoroughly and completely when they put on a party. Let us suppose, for the sake of giving the girls a chance to do this right, that the fraternity houses are equipped with "buzzer" systems. Now the girl can go to the fraternity house and "buzz" her date. The man can come to the "Well" and say very coquettishly: "Who's buzzing?" The girl twists her neck for about five minutes, talking with the boy, expressing mild disgust because the "soandso" has only his pajamas and bathrobe on and then ask: "How long before you'll be ready?" And the boy answers: "Just a minute." After which he disappears to shave, bathe and dress. Upon coming down stairs he should ask: "Did I keep you waiting long?" And the girl's reply should be: "Not at all."

If the boy wants to take his pipe and tobacco along all he need do is to take it down stairs and stuff it in the girl's pockets. If he has a few other gadgets he would like to take along such as keys, gloves, combs, hairoil or an extra handkerchief in case he has a cold, all he has to do is to hand them to the girl. Outside a car should be waiting as it always is in front of Wright Hall.

At the dance the boy registers a little "squawk" about the dance exchanges. During intermission the girl treats. The boy orders whatever he wants, (but not too much because most girls have been decent about that when they have been treated). After the brief lunch or drink it is time for a cigarette. If the girl doesn't have the right brand she insists on buying a pack of the right brand. "No," says the boy. "But yes," answers the girl and she goes to the tobacco counter.

After the dance the girl drives the boy home: he thanks her, says he had a fine time. She escorts him to the door, gives him all the belongings which she has carted around all evening and then: "good night."

Now, don't you think that would be a lot of fun?

Wanted: A Social Calendar

Through the fault of nobody in particular there have been a few conflicts on the social calendar recently. Although these are not terribly disturbing it merely recalls the many other occasions in which the two or three groups of students have applied for the same date on which to hold an affair. The greater part of this problem could be eliminated if only some authority took the time to bring a few heads together.

There are some parties (the formals, the J-Hop, the Frosh Frolic, Soph Shuffle, etc.) which are almost a 100 to 1 bet to be staged. There seems to be no reason why these cannot be given a definite and permanent date on the calendar. These permanent dates could form the skeleton of the year's calendar and the events to be arranged in the course of the year could be fitted to these.

For many years in the past bad feeling has been created by the fact that one society was able to obtain a certain date over another group. This could be greatly reduced if not eliminated by permanently fixing the dates of the most important parties to give the social calendar a skeleton.

The problem, of course, is not in making out the calendar but in finding someone who will stop "passing the buck" long enough to get the thing done.

Pangborn Is Elected New Zeta Sigma Prexy

Weyant Pangborn, Belding senior, was elected president of Zeta Sigma fraternity in the elections held Monday, November 30. Gordon Mann of Alma is the new vice president and Russell Staudacher of Saginaw the new secretary. H. B. Johnson, retiring president, was chosen as first critic and Steve Keglovitz, Croswell senior, second critic. Other positions were filled as follows: corresponding secretary, Jack Seig, Alma; social secretary, Bill Bainbridge, Alma; keeper of the archives, John Fraker, Saginaw; sergeant at arms, Harold Stacey, Oxford.

Minutes of Student Council

The Student Council will not replace lost articles. This decision was made by the Council last Thursday night when the student representatives passed a motion to help replace a coat lost by a student at a recent party. Signs are to be posted in the gym for all dances to the effect that the Student Council is not responsible for goods lost or stolen.

Mr. Fortino reported that the committee appointed to consider the matter of loaning funds to the Drama Club recommends a loan next semester.

The suggestion that the Council finance the trip of several students to the Albion conference December 4, 5 and 6 was voted down.

The motion was carried that the Council cooperate with the College in meeting the expenses of the forth-coming football banquet.

The meeting was adjourned at eight o'clock.

Bill Phillips, better known as "Phips" sort of leans over on Margaret Arnold's desk in the French class the morning after . . .

The latest budding romance on the campus is that of Bruce Wilson plus Marg Kennedy. And from the looks of things it is off to a swell start . . .
