Chapel Choir Plans New York Trip

Tentatively planned for the spring is a tour of the Western part of New York state by the Chapel Choir. This location has been decided upon due to the large field for prospective students. Michigan schools, with their lower tuition costs, offer a definite advantage to the students in the eastern states. Alma has at the present time several students from New York, although little publicity has been given the school in that area. It is believed that the choir, as the best advertising medium, can do a great deal in bringing an increasing number of students to Alma.

The trip, as planned, will consume a week and will start with its first concert at Niagara Falls. From there a planned itinerary which includes two high school assemblies and an evening concert every day has been worked out. Such cities as Rochester, Syracuse, Auburn, Binghamton, and Buffalo have been scheduled.

The trip is expected to start immediately following Easter. The program presented at this time is an interesting one, presenting both sedate and novelty numbers with a group of specially selected negro spirituals.

The choir feels that by presenting these concerts on tour, it is not only acquainting people with the college but is also helping in a small way to alleviate the problem of war hysteria by aiding in maintaining a high war-time morale.

All This and Teaching, Too

CINCINNATI, OHIO—(A C P)—Ordinarily the University of Cincinnati wouldn't make much of a to-do about a cadet named Horvay being promoted to first lieutenant in the ROTC.

But with Cadet Horvay it's different. First, he is Dr. Gabriel Horvay, instructor in engineering mathematics, the first faculty member in the Cincinnati unit's cadet ranks.

Second, he has never been a second lieutenant. He hasn't even been a sergeant or a corporal. He took the jump from cadet private, first class, to cadet first lieutenant in one hop.

And it was a short hop, at that. Enrolling only last year, Dr. Horvay, by doubling up on his ROTC courses, has gained in a little more than one year what the average cadet takes three or four years to attain. All this, and a full teaching load, too.

Phi Formal set for Valentine's Day

The first of the fraternity formals of the year is scheduled for next Saturday evening when the Phis and their dates will dance to the music of Harold Heinze and his orchestra in the beautiful and spacious ballroom of the Midland Country Club. Andy Home, president of the Phi Phi Alpha, announced that the decorations and theme of the dance would center around Valentine's day. He also stated that Phi pledges will be permitted to attend the dance.

In accordance with the request of the college authorities that expenses for social occasions of this sort be curtailed as much as possible, the Phis have decided not to have a formal dinner before the dance as has been the custom in past years.

The dance itself will last from 8:00 to 12:00. Wright Hall girls will have 1:30 permission, and this may possibly be extended if the roads are bad. A number of Phi alumni are expected to be present as well as representatives from Phi Alpha Pi of Olivet College, an affiliate of Phi Phi Alpha.

Chaperones for the occasion will be Dr. and Mrs. Seifert, Prof. and Mrs. Clack, Dr. and Mrs. Unstad, and Prof. and Mrs. Smith.

New Alma Fight Song

As the Scot cagers begin the last part of their season, the problem of student spirit has become even more acute. Each of these MIAA games is important and the students' support of this great team is necessary to keep up the morale of the team and student morale.

Some time ago, the Almanian reported a criticism made by a visiting coach of the lack of support given the Alma team. Since that time, the student body has responded by greater interest and support as the team has fought through its season to its present record of 13 straight games.

In the hope of adding to the student spirit, the Almanian offers this fight-song parody for the student body to sing to the words of the currently popular—"Buckle down, Winsocki"

BUCKLE DOWN, YOU SCOTTIES!

Buckle down, you Scotties, buckle down.
You can win, you Scotties, if you buckle down.
If you block their shot,
If you just get hot
You can win, you Scots,
So buckle down.
Make 'em yell, you Scotties, make 'em yell,
You can win, you Scotties, if you ring the bell,
If you don't give in, don't take it on the chin,
You are bound to win, if you will only buckle down.
If you fight, you'll never meet defeat,
If you fight, your luck will not retreat.

(Yell—"WE REPEAT")

Knuckle down, you Scotties, knuckle down.
You can win, you Scotties, if you buckle down.
If you mow them down, if you go to town
You can wear the CROWN
If you will only buckle down!

(Fight Locomotive Yell)

Extension Courses To Be Offered

Although it has been definitely decided by the administration that Alma College will not hold a summer school, there have been other plans organized which will make it possible for some students to graduate in less than four years.

This summer the college will offer extension and reading courses in each department. Six hours will be the maximum number for all students. After completing their extension courses the students will most likely be called back to the campus before school opens so that they may be tested on each subject.

In addition to the above summer work, credit will be given to Alma students who have taken work during the summer in accredited schools.

By taking these extra hours of academic work a great number of students will be able to finish college in three and one half years.

Alma Speakers Guests of St. Louis Rotary Club

Kenneth Plaxton and Bruce Lindley were the guest speakers of the St. Louis Rotary Club last Thursday noon. The pros and cons of the labor topic were first debated and then thrown open to discussion. The topic was particularly timely for the business men who may soon be affected by present organizing effort of the C.I.O. in Alma.

Debate Contest At MSC Saturday

Professor Carney Smith has announced that the Michigan Debate Contest For Men will be held at Michigan State College on Saturday, February 14.

All Michigan colleges having debate squads have been sent invitations to the contest by Professor Smith, president of the Michigan Intercollegiate Speech League. The topic for debate will be: Resolved that the Federal Government should regulate by law all the labor unions of the United States. Alma speakers entered in the contest are: Dave Kinney, Bruce Lindley, Wayne Dorsett, Jack Gilchrist, Paul Hurrel, Wilbur McCrum, Kean Angelus, Bud Boylan, Victor Ayoub, Jim Brinkerhoff, Charles Parrott, Bob Lints, Kenneth Plaxton, Bruce Mellinger, Bob Bowman and Bill Galinet.

Patronesses Entertain K. I's at Tea Dance

The honorary members of the Kappa Iota sorority entertained the members and their dates at a Coke Bar Saturday afternoon from 3:30 to 5:30 in the chapel recreation room.

The theme was a patriotic one with red and blue carnations centering the table. During the afternoon dancing and cards were enjoyed.

Those included on the entertainment committee were Mrs. Gordon Macdonald, Mrs. Charles DuBois, Mrs. Jesse Ewer, Mrs. Herbert Wiltsee, Mrs. H. M. McClure, Mrs. Woodley, and Mrs. Lobdell.

Enrollment Drops Second Semester

Upon the opening of this second semester the office of the registrar reports that a total of 368 students are enrolled in all departments of the college. Although 14 new students registered for the second semester the total enrollment is 30 less than it was in the fall.

Because of present world conditions most colleges of Michigan have suffered a loss of 10 percent of their students against the enrollment of last fall.

State Defense Council to Show War Films

The State Defense Council of Michigan is showing at the Alma High School on Wednesday, Feb. 11, a series of films from war torn Britain. The showings will be given at 1:00 p. m., at 3:30 p. m., and at 8:00 p. m.

It is earnestly recommended that college students see these films at one of the above programs for the responsibility of citizens in this day is to be prepared for all contingencies of defense.

The subjects of the films are: London Fire Raid, Stop That Fire, War and Order, Home Defense, Coastal Defense, and A Wartime Factory.

WANTED

Student from Alma wanted to go on tour of South America this coming summer. Expenses paid. See Prof. Smith.

Religious Emphasis Week Set for March 8-11

Religious Emphasis Week, during which religion will be given the lime-light on the Alma campus, will be held on March 8, 9, 10, and 11.

In order to make it possible for men students to hold especially helpful bull-sessions on religion, four of the younger ministers in the state will live in the three fraternity houses and Pioneer Hall.

The daily chapel programs will be the center of the religious emphasis and the Chapel Choir will be present each of the four days.

34 Men Accept Fraternity Bids

Thirty-four first-year men accepted fraternity pledges last Thursday morning from the three college fraternities. The faculty ruling, whereby a 1.0 average must be earned for the first semester before being eligible to accept a pledge, kept the number down. Professor Howe was in charge of the pledging which was held after the chapel service.

Zeta Sigma fraternity received eight pledges; Delta Gamma Tau, 14; Phi Phi Alpha, 13. In comparison with last year's pledge group, the number of pledges were: Phi Phi Alpha, 17, Delta Gamma Tau, 11, and Zeta Sigma, six.

Zeta Sigma pledges are: Bob Henney, Bill Miller, Harold Rodgers, Bill Tubbs, Harry Morley, Sinclair Ingham, Don Humphries, and Art Geisenhaver.

Phi Phi Alpha pledges are: Jack Mundell, Bob Baker, Dick Reed, Jack Hensel, Gilbert Koch, Harold Hartt, Kenneth Swanson, Harold Mayhew, Grant Dean, Preston Nixon, Steve Nesbit, Rex Wood and John Joseph Tobin.

Alma Students May Aid Their School for the "Duration"

I—ELECTRIC POWER

Many students unthinkingly cost the school extra money by wasting electric power. Turn out ALL lights when leaving a room without any occupants. If this suggestion is strictly obeyed, a saving of $100.00 a month might be the result. The bill has been running over $500.00 per month. Let's see if we can cut it down.

II—FOOD

The college, with the aid of "Vic" has cooperated with us by not raising the board this semester. Now, with this in mind, let's reciprocate and take on our plates only what we can eat. If this suggestion is followed, the saving will be more than noticeable. For example, over two pounds of butter are wasted every meal, every day. If this waste were eliminated, the result would be the saving of over 1300 pounds of butter or $390.00 a year. Other foods can be cited in a similar manner.

Governor Names Macdonald to Defense Group

Gordon A. Macdonald, director of athletics at Alma College since 1936, this week received direct appointment from Governor Murray D. Van Wagoner to the Committee on Recreation and Physical Fitness for the Michigan Council of Defense.

One of 11 members of this group, Macdonald is the only man now associated with a college who was named. Heading the committee is Dr. Eugene B. Elliott, superintendent of the Michigan State Department of Public Instruction. In his letter of appointment to

COACH MACDONALD

Macdonald, Governor Van Wagoner stated that the work of the committee "will include the co-ordination of all recreation activities in Michigan pertaining to defense. You will also be asked to advise the Executive Office and the Michigan Council of Defense on a recreational program for Michigan, in connection with defense activities."

This appointment comes as a great honor to Macdonald and shows the favorable influence for Alma that his record in athletics at the college is creating throughout the state.

Prof. Smith Judges East Jordan Debate Meet

On January 30 Prof. Carney Smith judged a debate contest at East Jordan in which Alpena, East Jordan, Petoskey, Pellston, and Mesik were represented.

Prof. Smith will speak on Abraham Lincoln before the Ithaca Rotary Club tomorrow and will speak on the same subject in a meeting of the Alma Lions club on February 16.

III—WASTE PAPER

This one is addressed to the administration as well as to the students. Every month the college burns or throws away hundreds of pounds of waste paper. The suggestion for utilization is this:

(1) Request the janitors (10) of every building to deposit the paper coming from their building in a large container.

(2) Collect this paper into a central spot.

(3) Sort the paper into (a) magazines (which brings 75c per hundred weight)

(b) other paper (bringing 50c per hundred weight)

(4) Load the same on the college truck and sell to local junk man.

(5) Collect the money.

Remember, it takes less than a ton to be worth $10.00.

These are but three suggestions which have come to the fore. There are many more. When you think of them, won't you hand them to the editor of the Almanian?

Take a Dare . . . Read this Effort

The scene is Sunday night at eleven o'clock. The room is strewn with paper. Typewriters are clattering incessantly. The editor is tearing her hair—there MUST be a paper regardless of a two-day semester vacation. It is taken for granted that there will be an editorial whether anyone reads it or not. There's a thought—an editorial on "Does Anyone Ever Read an Editorial?" She types the head but the inspiration has vanished. By this time her hair is standing at right angles. Suddenly a dim ray of light seems to brighten the gray matter of her brain—When is a more logical time to make resolutions than at the beginning of a new semester? Of course, it is quite possible that nobody has used up the resolutions he made last year at this time. But here is one and if the shoe fits, put it on: "I WON'T wait until the end of the semester rolls around to do all my high-powered studying. And for the second resolution: editorials will Not be put off until the last minute on Sunday nights! And for the third resolution which is the most important—to resolve to keep the other two resolutions!

There, it is finished and as for YOU, you've read at least one editorial that wasn't written on a soap box.

I Went to the Animal Fair . . .

"And the birds and beasts were there. The big baboon (Frank Navarre) by the light of the moon was combing his auburn hair. The monkey he (Gilchrist) got drunk, and stepped on the elephant's trunk; Snuffy Smith sneezed and that was the last straw.

The little woodland friends as well as the tree-inhabitants in full plumage appeared amidst trumpet-fare. Imported novelties were the Russian wolf hound (Orluck), the French poodle (Galinet), the German police dog (Bruce Mellinger), and a Scotch tape (Tapir) in the person of Scotty Purves. The dog division was expanded further by the sleek daschund (Dave Kinney), and Cotter came out well in front in the Greyhound races. The air-dale (Callahan), the collie (Guile Graham), the St. Bernard (Ed Baklarz), the pug (Wilbur McCrum), the sheep dog (Bill Prescott), made a beautiful showing and served as the mascots of the day.

Such barkings, chirpings, screechings, cooing, mooing and trilling as has never been heard before or since the original fair! Out of the general twitterings could be distinguished the lark (Cliff Leestma), the Carrier pigeon, the Goodwin mourning dove, the flamingo (Norman Hass), as well as the raucous cries of the many kinds of scavenger birds and birds of prey too numerous to mention (mostly the male of the species). Sitting on a branch watching the goings-on unperturbed sat the wise old owl (Don Press).

Hovering on the outskirts also were the laughing hyena (Beauvais), the African flying squirrel, and the sea gull (a refugee from the navy). Through it all one could hear the cry "Bob White" disappearing in the distance, and we leave the animal fair, the gates of which are guarded by two authoritative crouched lions (you take your guess this time).

Dr. F. Alton Wade of Miami University was chief scientist of the recently returned Byrd Antarctic expedition.

THE WORLD IN REVIEW

By George H. DeHority

It is to be hoped that the setting up of an allied joint command with its principal headquarters in Washington will prove a decided benefit to the war cause. Its success or failure will, in the main, depend on whether or not there is thus provided the necessary joint cooperation and action by the British and American governments. The bitter lesson of World War I was in showing the allies that a joint command was necessary and the task of setting up such an organization manifested itself with many and serious problems. The problem of the absolute command and in the personnel of which country it should be placed was, and is again today, a vital one.

It is a poor time in history to insist on national supremacy, but the same cries have arisen from the blue smoke of the counsel chambers. Let us hope that this problem has been and will be ironed out by these technical experts and resolve ourselves to the problem of carrying out the desires of this body of men, not to the derogation of their actions. It is now the time for unity of action and mind—the time is now.

The recent developments in the Far East make the demands for united and concerted action the more acute. The counter-offensive must be speedily, but carefully and skillfully organized if the allies are to check the Japanese inroads at the vital and strategic points of naval and air bases.

Rigid censorship prevents accurate knowledge of what the allies are doing in this direction, but it is known that such concentrations of allied forces and equipment is being made. Where must remain purely conjectural. The position of Australia is such as to make it a possible point for the dispatching of fighting units to the various battle fronts where they may be needed. The future weeks will hold the solution of whether the allied forces can check the onslaught of the superior Japanese forces until sufficient reinforcements can support the allied cause. Let us concern ourselves with doing all possible to supply such reinforcements.

We are not removed from a part in this war. The appeal of the government for the purchase of defense bonds and stamps by its citizenry is not an idle one. Our purchases may seem small but when they are magnified on a nation-wide scale, they become an important cog in at nation's war-effort machine.

Alma Matter

Dere Mom,

Gez whiz, Mom, but this Alma is a wonderful place! It's the only place in the modern world that could exist without telephone, telegraph, or even carrier pigeons! (That is, unless you'd call the Wright Hall women carrier pigeons.)

Do you care if I get a new haircut? They sure do sell some cute ones up here. Pud Taylor has a brush cut, Ollie Elliott has the German kind, and Bob Wagner has half a crew cut. Which kind do you think would fit my peculiar style of beauty?

We've been having company this last week. It seemed sorta good to see Georgie Tuck and Jimmie Emms again. Evidently the place has some strange attraction for them.

Dorothy Culham must be sort of a night-blooming flower. She delivers a speech on "Kissing" in speech class and has no less than four offers for dates. She must have spent a long time in research getting material to write it.

I wonder who the genius is that thinks up all the nicknames. Who christened Frank Navarre "Spanky," Jeanne Maxson "Winky," Warren Hagenbuch "Bugaboo," Harold Mazzei "Available," Harold Hartt "Handsome" and so on ad nauseum?

There are a lot of old students back again this second semester. It seems natural to have Bruce Kane, Art Duwe, Betsey Mayville, and Al Kirk around again. But then, it will be odd without Barb Pettijohn, Pat Forbes, John Hicks, Bob Brown, Jean Wilson, Monty Montieth, or Mary Tomes.

I made a horrible mistake the other day. I don't know whether I can ever live it down or not. I spelled Dave Miller's name without the middle W. The W stands for Wendell. I don't see how I could have missed with a celebrity like that. Just ask him what he got on the psych vocabulary test. I wonder if he knows what "esoteric" means.

Did you know that Alma has athletes who have brains as well as brawn? The basketball team, and especially Tinker, deserves real credit.

Well, Mom, it's getting awfully late. In fact, it's nine-thirty, half an hour past my bed time. I'll write you again next year some time, or if they ever set the clocks ahead again.

Your loving son,
Eustace P. Tillebaum.

New College Catalogue To Be Issued Next Month

Printing of the new college catalogue will be completed about the middle of February and it will be available to students some time later in the month.

Since most college catalogues issued recently have not included the listing of students, the new Alma College catalogue will not have such a section. Several new pictures will appear in the new edition.

BOOK NOTES

In "The Timeless Land" by Eleanor Dark a story is told of the early years of a colony at Sydney, Australia. It depicts the reactions of the natives to the whites.

Roderick Haig-Brown in his book "Return to the River" tells a fascinating story of the complete life cycle of a salmon, called Spring. A "fish story" men will like.

"Founding Fathers" by Kenneth Umbreit consists of biographical studies of men who shaped our tradition. Entertaining and well-written.

"Reading with Children" by Anne Eaton is an excellent reference book for teachers of the primary grades. It teaches one how to choose and share books with children.

Sorority News

Officers elected by Pi Sigma Nu last week are as follows: president, Dona Peterson; vice-president, Virginia Feighner; secretary, Doris Koppin; treasurer, Lois Hawkins; Almanian reporter, Veda Crewe.

Marjorie Ann Hines and Gloria Albanana were pledged at the meeting on Monday, Jan. 9.

Alpha Theta officers for the coming semester are: president, Vera Pitcher; vice-president, Marian Hass; recording secretary, Betty Fee; corresponding secretary, Maryhelen Connolly; treasurer, Donna Jean Francis; first critic, Marian Hass; second critic, Ann Wacker; parliamentarian, Mary Catherine Bell; sentinel, Mary Ann Bowen.

Jean Huff, sophomore from Detroit, was pledged to Alpha Theta at the last meeting.

Scots Rack Up Wins Over Kalamazoo, Tri-State, Hillsdale For 13 Straight

Kalamazoo

Putting on a second half spurt, the Scots leaped another obstacle in defense of their MIAA title to defeat Kalamazoo College's cagers, 41 to 21, last Tuesday night before an overflow crowd in the Hornets' gymnasium.

With the Hornets playing a slow, deliberate game in an attempt to stop the Scots fast break attack, the major part of the game was uninteresting from the spectator standpoint.

The Scots jumped off to an early lead but a scoring spurt led by Freshman Phil Jakeway drew Kalamazoo within four points by half time when Alma led, 15 to 11. In the second half, the Mac-men turned on the heat to demonstrate their superiority and put the game away. Both sides were off on shots throughout the game.

High point man was Jack Howe with 13 while Gerald Gilman, whom Kalamazoo has been labeling as an all-MIAA possibility, was held to two points.

Tri-State

A foul shot by Rex Holmes with 15 seconds to play gave the Scots a 44-43 victory over Tri-State last Thursday night at Angola, Ind., and gave the Mac-men the distinction of being the first team to defeat the Hoosiers on their home court this season.

The lead changed hands 11 times during the game and, after 39 minutes and 40 seconds of the game had passed, the teams were tied up at 43 all. Here Alma committed a foul and Tri-State had a chance to go into the lead but missed the shot. With the ball back in play immediately, Holmes was fouled and coolly stepped to the foul line to swish his shot for the winning point of the game... and his only score of the evening.

Behind at the Half

Alma started things off on a basket by Keith Carey but the Hoosiers came back with Tillema and Mahnensmith carrying the mail and held a one-point lead at the half, 21 to 20.

Opening the second half, Jack Howe sank one to put Alma in the lead but Tri-State put on a spurge to run the count to 31-22. The Scots then shot the works to take a 32-31 advantage with Bob Kirby figuring as the main gun. Mahnensmith whipped in three and Schoon one to make it 37-32 for Tri-State, Jack Howe added one and then Yontz sank one to make it 39-33. Carey and the two Howes put on a spurt to make it 41-39, Alma's favor. Tri-State tied the count at 41 all and Mahnensmith hit a short one to take the lead, 43-41. Jack Howe tied the count at 43-43 on a long shot from the center of the floor and then came the foul-shooting contest, with Holmes as the man of the seconds.

Carey Is High

High scorer was Carey with 15 points, followed closely by Mahnensmith with 14. At Alma the Tri-State guard made 25 points as he got hot on long shots.

Hillsdale

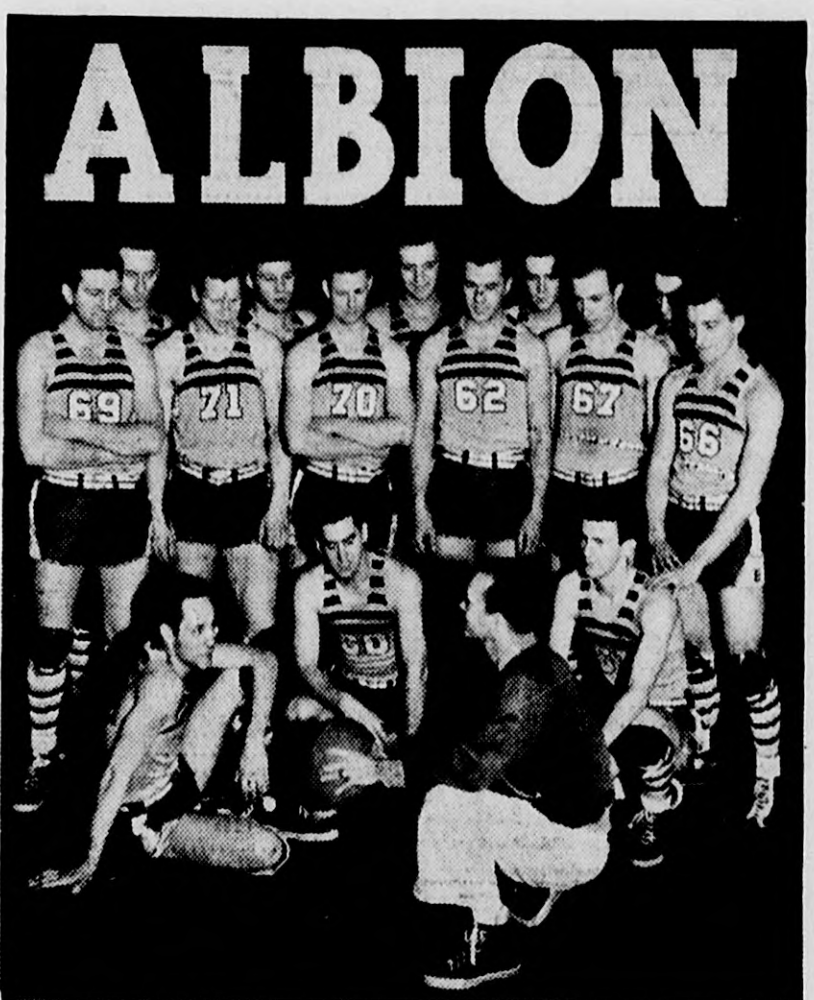

Grabbing a lead which they never relinquished, the Mac-men downed Hillsdale, 46 to 19, there last Friday night for their sixth MIAA win and their 13th straight victory this season.

The Dales were unable to score until after six minutes of the game had passed when they counted on a foul toss. Although both teams were wild on shots, the Scots held the advantage and a 21-10 lead at half time.

Keeping Hillsdale in the scoring column was John Magiera, center, who tallied 12 points to tie with Keith Carey for high point honors of the game. This keeps both men up with the MIAA leading scorers, along with Jack Howe and Bob Kirby who each collected eight against the Dales.

A mixed badminton class has been organized at 9:40 a. m. on Tuesday and Thursday. Perhaps this will solve the problem of girls who have been unable to fill the gym requirement due to a conflict in schedules.

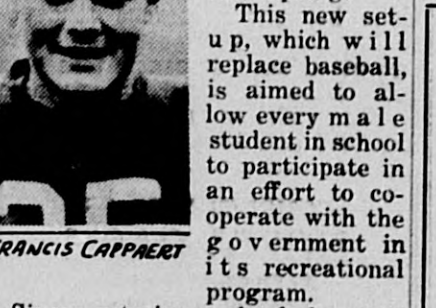

Social dancing classes will be resumed each second and fourth Thursday evening of the month. The first class will be held next Thursday, Feb. 12. If you can't dance, come at 7:15; if you want to learn the tango and rhumba, come at 8:15. It is hoped that a large group will turn out, so that a dancing club can be formed with the classes as a nucleus.

Coach Macdonald is teaching a girls' first aid class at 7:50 on Tuesday and Thursday. Nine sophomores and six freshmen have enrolled.

The shipment of Red Cross materials has not arrived yet. Watch the WAA bulletin boards to learn when the knitting and sewing can begin.

CAPPAERT NAMED JUDGE ADVOCATE

"Cap" Cappaert, senior from Clare and idol of the younger generation around Alma, has been named by Coach Gordon A. Macdonald as judge advocate for the intensified intramural softball program to be inaugurated this spring.

FRANCIS CAPPAERT

This new set-up, which will replace baseball, is aimed to allow every male student in school to participate in an effort to cooperate with the government in its recreational program.

Since entering school here in the fall of 1938, Cappaert has been one of the campus' outstanding personalities. He has been noted as king of the Clizbe Tower penthouse which most recently has been assuming a horsey atmosphere in keeping with the gang's nickname of Clizbe Colts.

In the athletic line, Cappaert has been varsity fullback on the football team for three years, and equipment manager four years. In the latter department he has proved an indispensable aid to Coach Macdonald although some of the boys will tell you that he is forgetful at times.

All in all, Cap has done a great deal to make the name of Alma College known in a friendly way throughout the state.

Scots to Play Olivet, Albion

Playing their fourth game in a row away from home, the Scots will meet Olivet tonight on the Comet's floor. Friday they will return home to meet the invading Albion Britons in an MIAA tilt.

Collegiate World

Harvard wasn't so much different a century ago, to judge from the diary of Jacob Rhett Mott of the class of 1832, who "slept over prayers, disliked the food, and rejoiced unduly when his professors "missed" lectures.

Scot Guard

Fitting into the Scot starting lineup at guard in great style this year is Ed Penner (above), senior from East Lansing. A transfer student, this is his second year with the varsity.
