Gives Recital

MARJORIE ANN HINES

Marjorie Hines Displays Remarkable Ability in Piano Recital Sunday

By Cliff Bucholz

Marjorie Ann Hines, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hines of Pierce City, Missouri, and a junior music major, was presented in a piano recital by Alma College and Miss Grace D. Roberts, head of the music department, Sunday, May 16th, at four o'clock. She was assisted by Lois Fowler, soprano, and Betty Zoe Elliott, mezzo-soprano, who were accompanied by Ruthe Kreulen. Members of Sigma Philo, her sorority, acted as ushers.

Miss Hines displayed remarkable technical ability in her numbers.

Recitals to be Presented by Music Department

In chapel Thursday, the music department will present Betty Zoe Elliott, mezzo-soprano, and pianist Marjorie Hines in a recital.

A week from Thursday, at the last chapel of the year, Phyllis Babcock, pianist, Lois Fowler, soprano, and William Newton, baritone, will represent the music department.

Hold Up Campus Elections Because of Uncertainties

At present there are no plans laid for campus and student council elections this spring. There is uncertainty concerning the men who will be back to Alma after the end of the current semester, and definite arrangements have not yet been made regarding the beginning of the next semester.

There can be no student council election until after the classes vote on officers. This has not yet been done because of the same prevailing uncertainty, according to Don Gillard, student council president.

The rapid passages were particularly noticeable because of their clarity. Each individual melody, whether prominent or hidden, was emphasized by lovely tone quality.

Miss Hines was complete mistress of the piano at all times, and is to be commended on the remarkable manner with which her numbers were rendered.

The program was as follows:

Gavotte in B Minor, Bach; Sonata, Op. 31, No. 2, Beethoven—Miss Hines.

Se Tu M Ami, Pergalesi; Love, I Have Won You, Ronald—Miss Fowler.

Song Without Words, Op. 53, No. 4, Mendelssohn; Hark, Hark, the Lark, Schubert-Liszt; Malaguena, Lecuona—Miss Hines.

Habanera from "Carmen," Bizet; The Kerry Dance, Molloy—Miss Elliott.

Golliwogg's Cake-Walk, Debussy; Scotch Tone Poem, MacDowell; Concert Etude, MacDowell—Miss Hines.

Girls to Go on Overnight Hike Next Saturday

Saturday, May 22, at 8 o'clock, the girls will leave on the overnight hike under the guidance of Miss Smith. The route of the hike is ten miles north on the road to Mt. Pleasant. The girls will reach their destination in time to cook their supper out of doors. After supper and a few games of baseball, they will sleep in overnite cabins.

Sunday morning breakfast will be cooked outdoors and anyone going on the choir trip may start back home after breakfast. The others will return Sunday afternoon. If you are interested, sign up at once.

Kay Peshke, Queen of Scots, to Rule Over Campus Day Activities Tomorrow

Promise Traditional Coronation, Championship Softball Games, Picnic, and Queen's Ball

The 1943 Alma College Queen of Scots is brunette Kay Peshke, of Detroit, who was elected last Thursday by the student body and faculty of Alma college. Popular and vivacious Kay, who has been active in all types of extra-curricular activities, is a member of Kappa Iota and the A cappella choir. She combines the friendliness, beauty, charm and graciousness which have come to be associated with a truly queenlike personality.

As the Queen of Scots, Kay will reign over all Campus day festivities, following her coronation in the grove tomorrow afternoon at 2:30.

Attending Kay, who is the tenth senior to be accorded the highest

Alma co-ed honor, will be a court of four senior and four junior girls. The seniors are Norma Lincoln, Detroit; Mary Jo Furstenberg, Saginaw; Wilma Callahan, Midland; and Silena Luchini, Alma; and the juniors are Rama Kirkwood, Kalamazoo; Mary Anne Bowen, Clawson; Barbara Malcolm, Three Rivers; and Maryhelen Baltz, Alma. Queen Kay and Norma and Mary Jo were members of the court of Queen Marion Hass last spring.

The annual Campus day will be held tomorrow, and according to advance notices, it promises to be eventful and fun-packed from sunrise to far past sunset. Miss Jean Smith and Don Gillard are co-chairmen of the holiday festivities and have planned history-making events and a full day of entertainment.

Although the coronation, the main event, will not take place until 2:30, the day will not be dead until that time. A rousing softball game will start off the exercises when the Phis and the Deltas clash for the men's softball cup at 9:30. The girls will add a little life to the morning when they follow the fraternity game with their own interpretation of a softball game. The Alpha Thetas and Independents will meet for their battle at 11.

There will be a campus broadcast of Prof. Grace Roberts' organ recital at noon, followed by the picnic luncheon in the grove.

Annual Speech Banquet Is Thursday Night

The annual speech banquet will be given Thursday evening in the Wright hall rec room at 6 p. m. Awards will be presented to those who have been outstanding in speech work throughout the year.

Faculty guests will be Prof. and Mrs. Roy W. Hamilton, Prof. and Mrs. Herman Spencer, and Prof. and Mrs. Wesley Rowland. Prof. Rowland is the advisor of the group.

Commission Ex-Students Schuster and Pettyjohn

Alfred Schuster of Flint was graduated recently from the Naval Air Training center in Corpus Christi, Texas. He was commissioned an ensign in the United States Naval Reserve.

Austin Pettyjohn, Kalamazoo, was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the Marine Corps Reserve last week, following completion of the flight training course at the Naval Air Training Center, Pensacola, Florida. Lieutenant Pettyjohn, who has been designated a Naval Aviator, has been sent to Cecil Field, Jacksonville, Florida, where he will remain for two months before reporting to San Diego, California for duty.

Representatives of Navy Legal Department Arrive

Acting President Hamilton attended a meeting of the Bureau of Navy Personnel, which has control of the college Navy training program, at Columbia University in New York City last Friday and Saturday. Heads of all the colleges and universities and future commandants met to discuss all possible problems connected with the program.

It was stated that the commanding officers assigned to Alma will be on the campus by June 1. Yesterday two representatives of the Navy Legal dept. from Washington, D. C. and Great Lakes, Ill., arrived to settle the terms of the contract, and probably by the time the Almanian is off the press, the complete detailed plans will have been announced by the administration.

Zetas Have Two Guests; Hear From Soldiers

The Zetas had two guests in the house last week. The first of them was Lt. George Orluck, who is now a flying photographer in the army. He told the fellows of his adventures over South America, and how he photographed Jap positions at Kiska in the Aleutians.

The second visitor was Milton Smith '33 who is doing investigation work for the government.

Letters have been received from John Burns, Hank Osterhout, Francis Cogsdale, Neil MacNeil, Bob Dengler, and other Zetas in the service. Hank, Bill Towne, Ollie Elliott, and John Burns are in a tent together in St. Petersburg, Florida.

Congratulations are in order for Warren Heitman and Bud Leslie who earned varsity awards in the track meet at Albion. The reverse is due to Chuck Kegel for the results in the state inter contest. For further information on the latter, see Prof. Rowland.

Surprise! It Has Daisies This Year

The freshmen girls began yesterday morning to work in their gym classes on the daisy chain for Campus day.

Last Tuesday night they met in the Rec room to cut out the paper daisies (yes, they're really having daisies this year). Jean Humphries had to cut her daisies out on the ping pong table, while Lydia and Mac were lucky enough to grab a card table. Special mention should be given to the seven girls who went down and cleaned the Rec room the next morning—such a mess—and they really did a good job.

Friday afternoon, a gang of them in the college truck headed for the woolly woods some eleven miles from here. They say they don't think their hair has been the same since, with all the blowing and bouncing around they received riding in the truck.

After spending about an hour wrestling with the pine trees and other things carousing around in the woods, they started back riding on top of the pine branches which was the most fun of all. Some of them had clutched in their hands a few scrawny violets as reminders of their trip into the wilds of Isabella county.

We're Sorry It's Over

This is our sixth issue of the Almanian, and the last one of the year for the regular staff. Your editor hates to see Volume 36 come to an end—it has been so much fun.

We were scared silly the first issue we took over, and sent out an SOS to Sud to come over and see if we had enough copy. We haven't quite gotten over being scared—every Tuesday afternoon we sit in our room and count the minutes until Lennie and her freshmen will have put the papers out and folks will be reading them. Then we wait with our fingers crossed and expect the worst to happen. When we've gotten up nerve to sneak over to the Ad building to get our copy, we don't dare look at it—we're afraid to see the errors that didn't get corrected.

We've been amazed at the compliments the Almanian has gotten—they've meant so very much to us. If we have been giving you a paper you enjoy, it's because there is such a splendid staff working with the editor. It's because of Lydia, Betsy, Bob and all the others that we've been able to do it.

These weeks have meant running down to the Record office before 7:50's, going to Monday classes unprepared, spending Monday afternoons at the print shop, getting so covered with ink that one could read the Almanian off our face and arms, and giving up all hopes of sleeping much on Sunday nights.

But that isn't all. They have meant the excitement of seeing the type go together to make a page, and the breathless moment before the first proof is taken. Above all, we have had the joy of doing that which we would rather do than anything else. They have been wonderful weeks.

Hoppy Howe Writes the News From Mississippi

What a place—there are a million people here, all different, and all strangers. I've completely given up looking for anyone I might know.

The advertisements sure were lying about this place—it isn't good. I have never seen so much dust before in my life. I don't mean the food or equipment, but the ground. Everywhere from three to five inches of fine sand and the dust covers everything and it seems to get into everything. Today we had to do exercises for an hour and we had to strip to the waist and lie down in that dirt. If someone had shoveled a few shovelfuls of ground on me I would have believed I was dead. After we were through (never) the Joe that was leading the exercises apologized for overlooking us the first day—then he says we are wanted over at another barracks to carry a little pile of stuff (tons and tons) over to another building. I can see that if he persists in his attitude I shall have to soundly thrash him.

Our drill sergeant, Sgt. Pike (he's no piker) is a "Rebel" from North Carolina and a tough cookie. He chews tobacco like mad, but if we even look to either side while marching, much less chewing gum, he makes us stick up one hand and march that way. Incidentally, we march eight hours a day with full packs, and I used to gripe when I had to walk over to the library. I can now see the errors of my ways!

Well, write if you can, and please have them send me the ALMANIAN.

As ever,

Delt Bob Ruehl Writes About Army and Florida

Well, here it is a nice warm Sunday evening in sunny Florida, and I must say it is not much like the last Sunday I spent in Alma. Ah me, those were the days. Sleeping till noon, eating a good Wright hall dinner, playing hearts all afternoon, and then a date with a pretty Wright hall girl.

All that is behind me now, and I now spend my evenings in a drafty tent with 5 "boys" from Hamtramck (one of them just told a snappy joke—no one laughed.)

Perhaps I should tell you a brief history of my army career,—make great reading.

Anyhow, I landed in Custer on Wednesday, March 31st. In due time, I was shot in the arm, issued a uniform, and drafted for K.P.

Tuesday afternoon we left for points south, going through Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, Georgia, and Florida. It was a 57 hour train ride, and on the way we saw mountains, streams, people, etc. Great trip, and we were only delayed about 9 hours in Georgia because of a train wreck. We arrived near St. Petersburg about 12:00 Thursday night and after a 4 hour delay, went to bed.

Holy smokes what a camp! Until 12 weeks ago it was a jungle and today it isn't much better. I always thought Florida was wet, but we live in the midst of a desert. It's rather windy, and the sand blows in your eyes, ears, nose, mouth, food, and bed. We sleep in tents, on army cots,—no pillows or sheets. We have no electric lights or candles—when it gets dark, you go to bed. We eat in the open, and if you don't eat fast, the flies beat you to it. The showers are all in the open, and if by chance a fair damsel from the Post Exchange should wander by, oh me! All in all, as you may gather, it is rather a dump.

It's so dirty, we wear fatigue clothes all the time. If you walk from yours to the next tent your legs are all black.

They awaken us in the morning at 5:00 A. M. thusly: "get the h—l out of bed you lazy—". After a refreshing slumber you spring from your no-spring cot, and land on a very gritty sand floor. Groping for your clothes you bark your head on the tent pole, and muttering various profanities, you climb into your very wet fatigues. Maybe it doesn't rain much here, but they have the heaviest dew I have ever seen, and at 5 A. M. everything is soaking wet. However when the sun comes up, you steam awhile, and then dry out, only to get all wet from perspiration.

Here are quite a few boys from Alma, including J. Hicks, O. Elliot, Roy Hamady, Bill Hawkins, Bill Towne, Wayne Swett, Mike Budge, Harold Hartt, etc. Some boys from Albion and Kazoo, too.

As you will see by the letter head, I am a member of the U. S. Army Air Corps. How I got in, or what I'm going to do, remain to be seen. Some of us will be pilots, navigators, mechanics, machine gunners, etc. We have been taking tests for a couple of days to determine our jobs. I thought I was through school but there is a good chance that I will be sent to a technical school to learn mechanics, radio, etc. Boy, you sure don't have any choice, they ask you what you want to do, and then put you where they want to anyhow.

All in all though, I really don't mind army life. I'm not complaining above, just telling you what it's like. After our thirty days here, will be shipped to school or another permanent camp, so I guess I'll last.

Bob Ruehl

POOR ME

I study hard and get all "A's", I don't go out for days and days, I haven't any time for sports, I don't think girls look nice in shorts.

I go to bed each night at nine, I never let my lips touch wine, I haven't any time for shows, I know as much as Einstein knows, I hate this silly thing called "swing."

I never smoke or anything, I'm glad I never learned to dance, I don't approve of flashy pants, I cringe when I see strapless gowns,

I disapprove of noisy towns, I bet I'd be fun at a party!
Alma Scotman '39.

The University of Wisconsin naval training school graduated almost 1,500 radio operators during the last eight months of 1942.

Two weeks after Goucher college launched a "buy a jeep" drive, its war bond purchase quota was reached.

CAMPUS COMMENT

To the Boys in the Service:

This little note is to correct a misunderstanding that has prevailed since the end of March. You fellows asked us girls to write to you when you were called, and we agreed to, but somehow very little writing has been done. If you were here in our shoes, you'd realize that it isn't quite discreet for us to just go ahead and write to you first. You'd think we were overbearing! Besides, we don't know where half of you are!!! So if you desire feminine correspondence just drop us a line or three and include your address. We'll "respond and correspond"!!!
A few Wright Hall Scots.

HOW ABOUT IT?

To the Treasurers of all Classes:
Since there seems to be such a terrific problem presenting itself as to what to do with the money that's left over, may I offer a little suggestion? How about pooling all these resources and giving one bang-up spring formal to take the place of the ones we used to have last year? In fact, Thursday night before commencement wouldn't be a bad night.

Thetas Enjoy Week-end as Houseparty Guests

The Alpha Thetas were week-end guests at the Lowry cottage on Eight Point lake, 17 miles from Clare. Eighteen Thetas went along, and had a super time, from all reports.

The work was managed well. Huff and Monty made out a schedule of all the girls, and assigned them to different tasks. When it came to cooking, Willie and Cat took charge of the more difficult dishes, but the others did a lot of experimenting.

Of course, the Thetas didn't spend quite all their time eating. A few brave souls went swimming, but most of them merely waded about ankle-deep. Others played baseball, hiked, and collected zoology and botany specimens.

When it rained, there were mad card games going on inside the cottage. Saturday night, the girls all gathered around the fireplace and sang and chatted far into the morning, in spite of the thundering and lightning outside.

queen of Scots. She will be attended by her court and the freshmen women with their daisy chain.

Following the coronation, there will be the freshmen-sophomore tug-of-war across the Pine river at 4 p. m. The sophs, in no mood to take the ducking they did last year, will give the freshmen fellows a taste of the icy water.

After the Wright hall dinner, there will be an all-campus sing on the steps of Dunning chapel. At 8:30 will begin the Queen's ball, the last of the day's festivities.

The coronation ceremony is being planned by Ann Clack, Marjorie Kuehn, Helen Milham, Carol Patterson, Dorothy Strauss, and Patt Williams.

Beverly Smith and Don Gillard are in charge of the sports activities. The music program is being arranged by Prof. Roberts, Prof. Eugene Grove, Betty Elliott, and Harry Morley. Host and hostesses for the day are Marjorie Kuehn, Barbara Malcolm, Virginia Feighner, and Harry Morley. Janice Rorem made the cover design for the programs.

Alma Place Second in MIAA Track Meet

Howe, Butler, and Nisbet Are First in Four Events as Albion Wins Honors

From the contesting teams who met at Albion for the MIAA outdoor track meet last Friday, second place in the event was won by Alma college. Albion, Alma, Kalamazoo, Hillsdale and Hope colleges were represented. Preliminaries were run off at noon and finals in the evening at which time special races were run by the Army Air Crew Detachment stationed at Albion college.

The most outstanding individual contestant on the field was Bruce Stevens, captain of Albion's track squad who took first in the 100-yard dash (time 10.2), first in the 220-yard dash (time, 23.1), first in the 22-yard low hurdles (time, 26.9) and ran anchor man on the winning relay team. Albion's victory was due to the numerous all-round contestants on hand.

Alma took four firsts in the finals. Jack Howe, pole vault, (ten feet 4 inches); Bruce Butler, javelin; Nisbet, mile run (4 minutes 51.5 seconds); and two-mile run, (10 min. 3.5 seconds). Record run of the two mile is 10 minutes.

Steve Nisbet met no competition in his running. It is believed by Coach Macdonald that Steve could break the MIAA record if he had plenty of competition at hand. A natural distance runner, boasting stride and endurance and a good "kick" in his race, he keeps well ahead of all opposition.

Surprise of the day was when Jack Howe, who was just traveling with the team to attend a conference, took pole in hand for the first time since his high school track days to come through the event with first place.

The most interesting race was run by freshman thinclad Kenneth Adler who battled out for third position in the two-mile run. He followed two Kalamazoo men around until about 220 yards from the finish . . . and then, with a burst of speed, he left them in his dust to finish third in the race.

Pole Vault—First, Howe (A); second, Good (A); third, Nestor (Alb); fourth, tied Heanveld and Gerring (K) (height, 10 feet, 4 inches)

High Jump—First, Miller (Alb); second, Gerring (K); third, Kohler (A); fourth, tied Rydholm and Nestor (Alb) (height, 5 feet, 10 3/4 inches).

Javelin — first, Butler (A); second, Reed, (K); third, Kempf (Alb); fourth, Thompson (Alb) (distance, 153 feet, 6 inches)

Shot Put—First, Kempf (Alb); second, Slanford (Alb); third, Good (A); fourth, Shuter (Alb) (distance, 37 feet, 2 3/4 inches)

1-Mile Run—first, Nisbet (A); second, Woodsen (K); third, Ranreal ((Alb); fourth, Kuhn (Alb) (time, 4 minutes, 51.5 seconds)

440-yard dash—first, Wilson (Alb); second, Mundell (A); third, Kohler, (A); fourth, Henthorn (K) (time, 51.6)

Alma Girls Win Over Kalamazoo, 15 to 10

The eleven girls who trooped into Wright hall late Saturday night certainly had happy smiles on their faces. The reason: They had just returned from Kalamazoo College where they trimmed the coeds of that school in a game of softball to the score of 15 to 10. Even a steady rain did not prevent them from playing the game. When asked whether they would prefer playing outdoors or in the gym, the hardy, outdoor girls of Alma chose the field.

The first three innings were very close, Alma keeping a slight lead. The fourth and fifth innings were in favor of Kazoo who gathered ten runs. This gave the Alma girls a chance to show their stuff. With the score 10 to 8 in favor of Kalamazoo, Alma collected 7 runs with two men out when the game was called.

Before the game the girls had lunch in Welles Hall as guests of the Kazoo girls. Immediately after this, eight of the girls took a swift ride over to Western to see some of the girls there. There was some doubt as to whether it was the girls they wanted to see or the cadets who are stationed there. Three o'clock found the team watching a tennis match between Grand Rapids Junior College and Kalamazoo. Noiselessly, they left the gym and headed back to the girls' dorm where tea was served. During tea, Alma was challenged in a ping pong match, and star player Marge Wunderlich was sent forth against Jean Chamberlein, champion of Kalamazoo. Marge took two games 21 to 18 and 21 to 19, making the day perfect for AC.

Sport-alities

Jack

John Andrew Mundell, born June 28, 1923, comes from Chicago. Reserved and rather quiet, he credits all his charm of attracting "women" to Royal Oak, that little place we have all grown to know so well.

Jack was a varsity tennis man for a year at Royal Oak high for which term he received his letter. An active member of the Hi-Y Club there, he devoted his sport time to tennis, track, baseball, basketball, and swimming as well.

When asked why he happened to pick Alma as his college he replied that the decision had to be made at the time his father ran his life; but now Jack is quite the man and, happy to say, he runs his own.

Jack has been very serious about going out for track here at college and Coach Mac refers to him as a "good hard worker." His biggest and happiest moment was when last year's squad won the MIAA meet. At that time Jack "didn't qualify for the 110, didn't qualify for the 220, but finally qualified for the relay." Jack won his heat in the indoor meet this year at State and placed second in his race at the MIAA outdoor meet at Albion.

Jack has filled many a job of responsibility in his days: he was lifeguard, bookkeeper, and purchasing agent at Clear Lake camp; co-editor of the freshman edition of the Almanian last year; is now house manager of Phi Phi Alpha Manor; is treasurer of the Student council; representative of the sophomore class in the council; and is an able hand of our kitchen crew . . . a job he loves because he can gorge so on food. Lucky he for being on the good side of Ruth Miller!

When asked if there was anything that dissatisfied him on our campus he hesitated, then said . . . "it wouldn't be fit to print."

Jack added that Alma could easily have had first place in the outdoor meet this year if they had only had a little more experience in running races in competition with other schools.

Mary Anne

Mary Anne Bowen, a Clawson, Michigan gal, spent the first seven winters of her life in Tampa, Florida. She was graduated from Clawson high as valedictorian of her class.

Her days were quite busy with the National Honor Society, Forensic Club, Girl Reserves, and as editor-in-chief of her school paper. She loved sports and got a letter for cheerleading.

Mary Anne is now an English and Math major; but to date is undecided as to whether or not she'll teach. . . "guess it really is up to Prof. Clack," she says. Here at college she is treasurer of Alpha Theta sorority, member of the debate squad, and has been twice social chairman of W.A.A. activities. For three years, she has been a member of Wright Hall Senate.

She has spent her last few summers always doing something . . . the scenes have been set in a swimming pool, a grocery store, and at the Pioneer Engineering Co.

Give Mary Anne a good dance and a good dancing partner and she'd be entertained for life. She'd give anything to play the piano and be able to sing up to par. . . so here's a chance for anyone who feels like trading. She's specially proud of Alma's records in sports, musical achievements, and forensics—also her "big sailor" brother. Mary Anne bubbled over with excitement when she heard she was elected as a member of this year's queen's court.

Mary Anne is the new vice-president of W.A.A. and lyric writer of the new W.A.A. song.

Tuesday—Scoring all of their runs in the second inning on three walks and a triple by Bob Bowman, the Deltas defeated the hard-pressing Zetas 3-2. Both Tait of the Zetas and Wares of the Deltas allowed five hits.

Wednesday — Behind the four hit pitching of Max Murray, the Phis duplicated their feat of May 5, beating Pioneer 9-2. This defeat eliminates Pioneer from the playoff Campus day.

Thursday—In one of the most thrilling games of the season the Deltas nosed out the Phis in a ten inning game, 8-7. A double by Paul Guider sent Jerry Katz racing home from first base with the winning run with no one out in the tenth.

Standings:

Deltas	5	0	1.000
Phis	2	2	.500
Pioneer	1	3	.250
Zetas	0	4	.000

Search Through Old Almanians Proves That Times Do Change

Five years isn't so long—but quite a few things have changed around here since then . . . For instance, back in April '38, the sophs were bragging about the Japanese decorations at their Shuffle (like to see 'em try it now) . . . The Almanian business manager must have had a poetic and not too grammatic soul—the Dairy ad went like this:

"A friendly soda bar
Where students bring their dates
And play the nuckleodian thar."
And this was the State's claim:
"Sink or swim at the State
On an extraordinary date.
Just have faith in us,
Then there will be no fuss."

Apple Polishing
In April '39, the Scots got new softball uniforms . . . the Zetas gave an "Apple Polishing Party for the faculty (hmmmm, not a bad idea) . . . Mr. Ellis came as business manager of the college . . . "Wuthering Heights" was at the Strand.

Then suddenly, it was April '40—the month of the first annual Delt Mass Date night . . . of horseback riding lessons for $1 per . . . and the time when the Drama club was advertising its production of "The Late Christopher Bean"—it had FIVE men in it and when Dr. Unstad went on record as saying that the ideal student should have a superior brain capacity (wonder just how many ideal students he's found since then)? . . .

The CPA
A year later, the new chapel was being built . . . the "Cider Press Association" released weekly dope on the fraternity softball teams, direct from the spring training camps—Midway between St. Louis and Alma, Crystal Lake, and Bass Lake . . . the great news about the leagues was "Softball Sluggers Swat Flies in Manzullo's Kitchen."

Remember a year ago this month? The Philos were adopting Yanks . . . the frosh fellows "shined up and camouflaged" Pioneer hall for their open house . . . thieves ransacked the Phi and Delt houses . . . and tennis and golf workouts were in full swing . . . but that was B.G.R. (Before Gas Rationing) . . .

AMERICAN HEROES

BY LEFF

With the bomber pilot killed, the co-pilot seriously injured, both left motors shot away, left wing on fire and a swarm of Jap Zeros all around Col. L. G. Saunders took over his bomber's controls above Bougainville, escaped the Zeros and saved his seven remaining crew members' lives by a crash landing on the water at 95 miles an hour. Navy craft rescued them.

Delts Use Porch for Studying (?) Nowadays

At last, the pleasant porch of the Delt Monastery can be used for studying purposes and you know what; yes, spring was here a couple of days ago.

If Campus day furnishes as good a softball game as the Delts had with the Phis last Thursday night, that portion of the day's events will be a success. Three extra innings were played, during which the score was tied two different times.

Jim Brinkerhoff and Bill Lemon sent word that they're both enjoying life in the Field Artillery very much, even though it's a rather hard life. Jim says they have to work hard to build themselves up physically but since they're becoming "hard as nails," they don't mind. Another one of the Delt brothers in the service, Art Sercombe, is going to Indiana Central college and as usual, he "would like to know how things are back in good old Alma."

Hasn't this been the quietest week-end we've had yet? . . . Why you could walk for nearly a half a block without saying "Hi" once . . . Friday, the Thetas left to spend the week-end at Willie Callahan's cottage . . . From all reports they had a chilly, but perfectly elegant time . . . Then Friday night the track team also left for the meet at Albion . . . Nice going, fellows . . . Guess Jake Howe caused some surprise with his impromptu performance.

Saturday morning the girl's baseball team went to play Kazoo . . . Thru pouring rain they battled five innings . . . By a 7 run rally in the last half of the fifth they managed to take the game by a good margin of 15-10 . . . Much credit goes to the terrific pitching of Marge Wunderlich . . . for details see your local sporting page . . . Guess there was some doubt as to whether the girls were going to get to Kazoo and back . . . Rama has only lived there a few years, but she nearly managed to get lost . . . Yunker has lived in that part of the country a good many years, too, but in spite of her excellent guides, Miss Smith was plenty amazed when they didn't end up where they were heading . . . Anyway we're glad you guys got home before curfew Sat. night, and we're glad Wunderlich beat the Kazoo champ at ping-pong . . .

The biggest event on the home-front was Marcie Hines' piano recital Sunday afternoon . . . following which a reception was held at the home of her sister, Mrs. Reid Brazell . . . Congratulations, Marcie, for a very excellent performance . . .

Did you know the enterprising Miss Strauss went out and got herself a job at the dairy this week? . . . You should have seen the enormous sundaes she was dishing out to the gang when they dropped in . . . that was until Mr. Sholy tipped her off that he was in business for a profit . . .

Both Teddy and Mary Anne had girl friends up for the week-end . . . Bill Bennett helped entertain Mary Anne's friend, but don't worry, Sharpe was in Detroit . . . Jeanne Anderson's younger sister came up too (don't these kids grow up fast now-a-days) Jeanne gave a rousing good spread for her about 10:00 Sunday night, we hear . . . The Sigma Phis also did a little spreading Sunday evening . . . in honor of Ginnie Feighner's birthday and Marcie's success . . .

We noticed Chuck (Hiawatha) Kegel fitting around with a bow and arrow aiming at poor little robins, who merely sat and gave him very disdainful looks . . . Fowler and Ross discovered a bird had fallen down the eaves trough drain beside the chapel . . . so Ross flashed back to the dorm for a can opener . . . The latest report has it that the humane
