State Vets For Subsistence Raise

The Planning Committee of the Michigan Student Veterans Association met in a regular meeting last Saturday afternoon at 1:00 in the lounge of Pioneer Hall, with Gordon Hanna (MSC) acting as chairman. Routine business was transacted, with the major part of discussions being confined to views on current legislation concerned with increased subsistence for student veterans.

The group elected representatives to be sent to Washington, D. C. on May 5, to appear before the Senate Veterans Affairs sub-committee on Rehabilitation and Education. This sub-committee is considering legislation to increase subsistence of the student veterans. The pending increase is $35 in all cases plus $5 for each dependent other than a wife.

Representatives from various colleges and universities throughout the state were in attendance. Ted Emery of Alma College was in charge of local arrangements for the conference.

In view of the recent action of President Truman in extending rent ceilings to December 31, 1947, the group decided to drop its proposed lobby program in regard to this measure.

The delegates from Central Michigan College of Education introduced a measure which asked for the setting up of subsidiaries of the War Assets Administration in six districts throughout the state, located at universities and colleges and managed by veterans on the various campuses. This would eliminate waste of time and expenditure of money by the student veterans who might wish to buy government surplus equipment in that they would not have to travel too far to a place of purchase, and at the same time they would save the money which is now taken by the middle man as profit. The adoption of the resolution by the Planning Committee means that it will be forwarded to the proper persons in Washington, D. C. for action.

"Operation Subsistence" is now gaining momentum throughout the United States, mostly through the efforts of the Michigan Student Veterans Association. This group has contacted veterans organizations in colleges and universities throughout the nation, acquainting them with the work already done on this problem and the work yet to be done.

Next meeting of the Planning Committee will be held at Michigan State Normal College, Ypsilanti, Michigan, on Saturday, May 17. At this time, the delegates who are to travel to Washington will make their reports.

Engagement Announced

Dean Irene C. Harwood

The engagement of Mrs. Irene Harwood, dean of women at Alma College, to William MacCurdy, son of Mrs. H. M. MacCurdy, 701 West Center street, and the late Mr. MacCurdy, is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Beuthin of Saginaw.

Mrs. Harwood was graduated from Alma College and for the past three and one-half years has served as dean of women. Mr. MacCurdy was graduated from Alma College with the class of 1932 and has a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Michigan. His father served as head of the biology department at Alma College for 30 years.

The wedding will take place in June.

VETS MUST APPLY FOR SUMMER SCHOOL NOW

Seeking to avoid interruption and delay in payment of subsistence checks to veterans continuing in summer school after the close of the regular semester in June, the Veterans Administration today asked the cooperation of Michigan student-veterans in a survey now under way.

VA officials in Detroit said every summer-school student-veteran must submit to his VA training officer Form 7-1908, setting forth the required information. These forms are available from training officers at every educational institution in Michigan where veterans are in training. Forms submitted after May 1 will result in delayed payment of subsistence checks to veterans in summer school, they predicted.

Student-veterans are entitled to two and one-half days of leave for each month they have been in training. If they desire to accept the accrued leave, for which subsistence payment will be made, the amount of leave will be deducted from their period of eligibility.

VA officials encourage student-veterans to submit the required information as soon as possible and to contact the training officers if they have any questions concerning the reporting procedure.

Hookey, Tryhuk Reign Over J-Hop

With Al Tryhuk and Joanne Hookey reigning as King and Queen, the annual J-Hop got under way Saturday evening with nothing to mar the entertainment. Over 100 couples danced to the music of Bill Faunces' band of Lansing from 9 until 12.

Decorations included pastel streamers extending downward from a false ceiling.

The final tally on the student vote for the King and Queen of the J-Hop was announced, and Miss Hookey and Mr. Tryhuk were then crowned by the committee in charge.

Nan Harden is president of the Junior class and other officers are Betty Ellis, secretary-treasurer Janet Cordes and Douglas Holland, student council representatives.

Charles Jones and Ralph Burroughs were in charge of publicity for the dance.

On Wednesday, April 21, Dr. Rice addressed a district Hi-Y conference held in Alma at Odd-fellow's Hall. In attendance were delegates from the Saginaw District including Saginaw, Bay City, Mt. Pleasant, Midland and Alma. The address was on "The Greatest Thing in Life."

BOB WOLFE EXCELLENT AS 'VALIANT'

Bob Wolfe turned in a brilliant performance as "The Valiant" in the one act play of that name presented locally Friday evening in the Chapel rec room. His interpretation of the condemned man who didn't wish to bring discredit on his family impressed the audience greatly.

Other plays presented and directed by Alma College students were "Red Carnations", and "Exclusive Models."

Cast in other parts in "The Valiant" were Harry Craig, Guile Graham, Dick Reid, Bill McMillan, and Betty Lobenstein. Cast of "Red Carnations" included Bob Evans, Max Wood, and Thora Harrison. "Exclusive Model" had in its cast Gene Macri, Dave Vance, Diane Cotton, Molly Metz, and Arlie Bennett.

All three one-act offerings were directed and produced by students of the Department of Drama and English. Student directors were Gene Westcott, Matt Ingram and Dick Minor.

Daughters of President Speak Roles in Joint Ceremony

The Alma College Chapel was the scene of a double wedding at 8:30 Sunday evening, April 28. The bride and groom were William Fredrick Pankratz, Detroit, and Miss Constance Smith Hamilton, Detroit. The bride and groom were Robert William Lehner, Lansing, and Miss Constance Smith Hamilton, Detroit. The bride and groom were Robert William Lehner, Lansing, and Miss Constance Smith Hamilton, Detroit.

Music was presented by Mrs. Mae Nelson Stewart, organist.

Pankratz-Hamilton
Miss Carolyn Elizabeth Hamilton chose a white satin gown, styled train with sweetheart neckline, pearl bead trim, and long sleeves. Her jewelry was a strand of pearls, and her fingertip-length veil fell from a floral headdress. She carried a bouquet of Johanna Hill roses.

Attending her were Mrs. Cecil Akroyd, Detroit, matron-of-honor, and Mrs. George McIntyre, Hazel Park, and Miss Kae Lucas, Washington, D. C., bridesmaids. Each wore a gown of light aqua and pale yellow mits. Each carried a bouquet of yellow roses to match the tiana of yellow roses in her hair. George McIntyre performed the duties of best man for Mr. Pankratz, who chose as ushers, Dr. Cecil Akroyd and Don Reid, Detroit.

Following a wedding trip to Uniontown, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. Pankratz will reside in Detroit. Mrs. Pankratz attended Alma

Joseph Schnitzler Chapel Speaker

Joseph Schnitzler, lawyer of Mt. Pleasant, Michigan will be the guest speaker in the Alma College Chapel Wednesday morning at 11:20. Shortened class schedule will be announced.

While still a boy, Joseph Schnitzler suffered a severe setback in his life due to the loss of one arm and both of his legs. Still undaunted, he carried on, determined to get ahead despite his handicap.

Getting through public school, he then set to work towards a college degree, earning the Bachelor of Science, a Bachelor of Laws, and finally, Master of Arts.

He is known throughout this section of the country as a popular orator, speaking from a wheel chair. His talk promises to be both interesting and informative.

Faculty Enjoys Picnic Supper

The Alma College Faculty took time out from the dull monotony of routine to enjoy a picnic supper at Lumberjack Park yesterday afternoon and early evening.

The supper was served at 5:30, after which two hours of recreation, including softball were enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen C. Stewart, committee chairmen for April, provided all the food and table service necessary. Each person brought his own wiener forks and sugar for his coffee, and the small charge for the food was taken up by the committee.

Outdoor clothing and slacks being the order of the day, quite a few "pigeons" were noticed.

Lehner-Hamilton
Miss Constance Smith Hamilton chose a white satin gown, styled train with square neckline, metallic bead trim, and long sleeves. A Juliet cap held her fingertip-length veil in place. Her bouquet was of Johanna Hill roses.

Her attendants were Miss Gerri Howell, Detroit, maid-of-honor, and Mrs. Helen Dawson and Mrs. B. B. Chalker, both of Detroit, bridesmaids. Their gowns, flower girls' dresses, and headdresses matched the other bridal attendants.

Robert Refior, Lansing, served as best man, and Mr. Lehner chose as ushers, Dr. G. R. Worsfold, Grand Rapids, and Loren Meisel, Bay City.

Mr. and Mrs. Lehner will reside in Lansing, following a wedding trip to Hot Springs, Va.

The bride, who attended Alma College, was employed by the Signal Corps, and has been a private secretary.

Her husband, son of Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Lehner, Alma, attended Alma College for two years, and was graduated from Michigan State College.

Reception
Immediately following the weddings, a reception was held in the Chapel recreation room, where a light collation was served from tables centered with white snapdragons and smilax. Presiding at the service tables were Mrs. G. R. Worsfold, for Mrs. Lehner, and Mrs. Don Reid, for Mrs. Pankratz. They were assisted by Miss Margaret Foley, Mrs. Euarda M. Abernethy and Miss Helen MacCurdy.

SPRING ELECTIONS

Springtime at Alma College means many things, but one of the most important matters is, campus elections. It is the time of the year when we make our decisions as to which individuals will guide the campus spirit for the school year to come.

All classes will choose their officers, Almanian and Scotsman editor and business manager will be elected, as well as Student Council president.

The Queen of Scots, who with her court will reign over the Campus Day festivities will be chosen. A new award this year, the Jack Dempsey-Adam Hat Trophy will be presented to the senior voted as outstanding athlete of the year.

We say, think about this matter now. Analyze the candidates for all positions, test their characteristics with the job. Let's elect capable persons without regard to social organizations that they may be members of.

Most of all, let's all take the time to vote, so that those elected will be truly representative of all. Election time is not far off.

ZETA NEWS

With spring in the air everybody has come out of his hibernation to enjoy the weather. Of course we don't see much of Van Hardy since he shaves again—and Saint Ingham has it bad too.

We are patiently waiting for May and our Spring Formal to come. Bill Wendt reports that the plans have been completed for this big dance.

Frank Young is chairman of the committee on repairing the exterior of the house. We hope that when we return next fall no one will recognize the place.

PHI-LIP

It would seem that I missed my chance to welcome a charter member and past president of the Green Chair Club back into the fold, but then I have a sort of feeble excuse in the fact that Thunderbolt is a hard man to keep up with. One minute he is in and the next minute he is out again. You can't keep a good man down, can you, Thunderbolt?

Speaking of clubs, which we weren't, I was asked by certain influential students on the Campus to mention a new club that has appeared on the campus due to recent athletic activities at home and away. The name of this Club is The No Win, No Place, No Show Club and the president happens to be Rodney (Coon) Grover, vice president is Don Converse, secretary, Charles Guess, and the treasurer, Bob Pollock. Our most sincere compliments and best wishes to this new club.

Speaking of petty thievery around the campus, Davis is wondering who is stealing the oranges that he brings back from the chow hall. Has anybody got a suggestion for a good trap?

Mike Budge seems to be getting home earlier these days which is contrary to the usual effects of Spring. It might be just as well if he stayed out a little later, then maybe people wouldn't stack his bed so often. It wasn't me Mike, honest!

DELTA NEWS

Lots of sore men around the Delta house these days. Seems that softball isn't so soft. The boys (including yours truly), and finding knotted muscles they didn't even know they had.

The Delta house looked like old times the other day. Tiny Sempert was back. That discharge button looks good, Tiny, welcome back and we'll all be looking for you next fall.

Congratulations are in order for Dan Elston. We couldn't help but notice the ring on her visit here.

GI HALL

Although talent apparently does not grow on trees, we of GI Hall are more than blessed with our share. Take for instance Barracks No. 2. Here we have the backbone of Alma's baseball team—Jack Temple, George Vinson, and John Swanson. Representing the track team are Tom Taylor and Stan Hester who are an even bet to place first at Hialeah, and Leon Fisk promises trouble next autumn for opponents on the grid-iron.

Our talent isn't confined to the field of athletics. Should Alma ever enter a pinochle tournament, we would recommend the following line-up. At 1st chair, Gordon Nowak; 2nd, Shorty Miller; 3rd, John Thurston; 4th, Cass Dreyfus; and first substitute would be our "Cyclist" Jim Hammond. It would be a walk-way for these card sharps.

Every group has its "Brain." In this case it happens to be Duke Smith—former piccolo player.

We've all had the pleasure of listening to the dinner music at the dining hall. So, to whoever is responsible for it—thanks a million. Not only is it pleasant to listen to, but it aids digestion—So I've been told.

MISCELLANEOUS: Mess Hall take note—Bruce Gibson plans to raise radishes soon.

Robert Smith was out with the chicken pox last week—just how old are you, Bob?

Faces and Places . . .

R. Jay Smith

So we come to another miscellaneous page of odds and ends in the little "red book." We find at the head of the list, the beautiful spring weather. It is really superfluous to use up valuable space on this subject simply because it holds such personal connotations. To some of us the springtime causes uneasy restlessness due to some unfulfilled desire. To others, it whispers nostalgic hints of a summer at home. It may bring subtler recollections of other springtimes in other places with other loved ones. It may mean nothing more than approaching exams or tennis, golf, long walks, swimming or new spring clothes. To the seniors it means—the last days in Alma College. To all of us it means the turning of a new page, starting fresh and a-new.

The new snack-bar has met with such an overwhelming success that we can't imagine why, through all these years, it hasn't been set up before. It should be planned immediately for next year, to have a separate room set aside exclusively for this purpose. Menus should be made out and posted daily on all of the bulletin boards. If such a simple request as this can gather folks together in a friendly, morale building atmosphere, then no time or ends should be wasted in doing the job completely. Special thanks should be given Women's Senate President Marian Morgan for her efforts in pushing the deal through. Also recognition should be given to Butch Whiting and Jean Butler and all others who are at present contributing to its success. The snack-bar is open from 8:30 to 11 o'clock in the morning and from 9:00 until 10 o'clock in the evening.

We are quite sure that this column expresses the feeling of the entire student body when we say, "We hate to see you leave as President, Mr. Hamilton. We are so glad that you will be coming back as Professor of English literature. We feel as though your friendliness and complete lack of aloofness has symbolized the real spirit of Alma College. The many years of teaching prior to your presidency brought refreshing insight and inspiration to hundreds of English students. Your trips abroad and personal encounters in England injected life and authenticity into your English Literature classes. Taking over the presidency during the war years was no easy job. As we see it, your clear-sighted discernment and sagaciousness brought Alma through the war an even better college than it was before. You have our respect not only as the President but as a man who can get up and discuss frankly and objectively, the conditions which confront the administration as well as we the students. More than being President of Alma, we think of you as being the composer of the most beautiful college chant in the world. During their recent trip, the choir was giving a concert in Jackson, Michigan. There were a considerable number of alumni present, and it was with no small amount of effort that they held their tears back as they heard their "Alma Mater" being sung. As long as this college remains the "Alma Mater" will stand as its most beautiful and cherished symbol."

Speaking of the choir, it should be recognized that by reaching directly into the high schools, churches and smaller communities of the state, the choir acts as a bigger drawing card than any organization on the campus, including the athletics department. The choir has long been a tradition on the campus—and a good one. Professor Grove has succeeded in making this a nearly musically flawless organization. We have two objections, however. The first is considering the amount of time spent in practicing and rehearsals, especially before concerts, we believe that two concert hours per semester would not be too much to ask. The second is, we on the campus don't hear enough of the choir. We never tire of listening even if it's the same number over and over—so, please choir, more music, more often.

That seems to wind up that page in the little "red book," now we can tear it up, throw it to the winds, and may next week come forth with some new and interesting topics.

Orchids to the juniors for their very successful "J-Hop. Those in the know tell me that many unfamiliar faces were to be seen. Did notice Chuck Jones and his girl, Florence, Ginny Will's Doug, Temp's sister and friend with their dates (Al and Steve), Thora Harrison and Jo MacDonald with their boys from home, and Andy Good had his girl here, too. Then there was Dugie and George, Ginny Bryan and Thunderbolt, Gloria Anderson and Ralph, Marilyn Mason and Jim, ad infinitum.

Seems there's a certain Almanian Editor who attended the Hamilton wedding the other night and upon meeting one of the brides at the reception carolled gayly, "Oh, I'm so happy!"

It's happened again!! It's my opinion that those engagement rings are really getting around—someone's finger, that is. The latest to join the club is Pat Pilson. "Ain't love grand?"—just ask Pat and Dick, they can tell you. Best wishes to you both.

By the way, you have seen Roscoe? Didja hear about the roses Gene

SPRING FEVER

Wandering about the campus Saturday afternoon, the first I've been around in some time, I could not help but notice a lot of couples which I hadn't ever seen together before.

The cyclists group included Matt Ingham and Jean Minard, Dick Scheanwald and Barbara Wissinger, Jo Bowen and Barbara the Almanian bike.

Many of them spent most of the day in the sack.

The Vets were having a conference in the lounge at Pioneer, and the Jambos were busily engaged in decorating the gym.

Carl Macklin had most of his men working about the chapel, setting up things for the Saturday night wedding.

The Phis were out practicing, tossing the old softball about.

The Delts and Zetas did a little outside work about their respective houses, raking and pruning, and doing general cleaning up.

Sunday afternoon found many out walking, and that new trio, Guillermo Gomez, Bob McMahon and Ted Emery really got around. They walked all afternoon, hitting all roads leading in and out of Alma, and yet, they managed to be at the State Restaurant every hour on the hour for a cup of java. Gomez could make but one comment, "I'm so tired."

World War II veterans desiring to obtain guaranty of loans under the G. I. Bill should first consult the leading agencies from which they expect to borrow the money, loan guaranty officials at the Ohio-Michigan-Kentucky Branch Office of the Veterans Administration in Columbus (O.) said today.

In most instances eligible leaders will have available the necessary information and proper application forms to cover the type of loan desired, VA officials said. If such information is not available, the veteran should consult the nearest representative of VA.

In applying for a loan, a veteran should present the leader with his original honorable discharge or other original separation papers evidencing the nature of his discharge and the duration of his active military or naval service.

Any veteran who served in the armed forces between September 16, 1940, and the end of the war, and who was released from service under conditions other than dishonorable after at least 90 days' service (or who was discharged for service-connected disability following a lesser period of service) is eligible for a guaranteed loan.

The VA guarantees the lending agency against loss up to 50 per cent of the loan, with a maximum guaranty for any veteran of $4,000 on real estate or $2,000 on non-real estate loans. Farm loans are repayable over periods up to 40 years; other real estate loans, up to 25 years, and non-real estate loans, up to 10 years.

VA consistently has cautioned veterans against hasty use of their loan guaranty privilege in the current high-priced real estate market, reminding them that their loan guaranty benefits are available for ten years after the official end of the war, which has not yet been declared.

The Veterans Administration last week asked the cooperation of the 201,044 student veterans in Ohio, Michigan and Kentucky in a survey to determine their educational training intentions after June 1. The total includes 99,800 in Ohio, 75,865 in Michigan and 25,379 in Kentucky. Carl Merritt of the Mt. Pleasant VA office was at Alma college last Friday to explain this to the student veterans.

VA seeks specifically to learn if veterans plan to attend school during the summer months, whether they desire subsistence payment for accrued leave, and if any anticipated subsistence checks should be sent to other than their present addresses.

Officials at the VA's tri-state Branch Office in Columbus (O.) said every student veteran must submit to his VA training officer VA Form 7-1908 in duplicate before April 20, setting forth the required information. These forms are available for training officers at every educational institution in the three states where veterans are in training.

The survey does not affect veterans who are enrolled in job-training programs.

Payment of subsistence allowances to student veterans will cease about June 1. Veterans will continue to receive subsistence payments only by denoting on VA Form 7-1908 that they will continue their studies during the summer months.

There will be a required assembly for all women at 11:40 Thursday, May 1st in the old chapel. Dean Harwood will address the women at this time.
