Speech Dept Enters Extemp Contest at Ypsi.

Alma College will participate in the State Speech Oratory and Extempore speaking contest at Michigan State Normal College, Ypsilanti on February 19th. Alma will be presented in the extempore speaking and oratory. In the women's oratory Miss Bette Adams of Mason will orate on "Peace I Leave with You." In the men's oratory Charles Jones will orate on "A Drive for Membership."

Professor Westley Rowland will act as judge with the assistance of A. Eldersveld.

On Friday, March 7th, in the regular State Oratory at Western Michigan College Doris Miner, of Saginaw will orate on "Facing Fear", and Grant Wessel of Saginaw will orate on "The Present Peace."

Adams and Wessel Win Debates

Eighty-two teams representing eleven different colleges, participated in the annual Michigan Inter-Collegiate Speech Association-State Debate Tournament at Michigan State College, Saturday, February 15th.

The tournament was divided into two sections. In the league tournaments, one affirmative team and one negative team debated from each college, in the tournament debates as many teams as each school had entered.

Alma College entered their league teams. They won four and lost two. The negative teams consisting of Betty Adams of Mason, and Grant Wessel of Saginaw went through the league debate undefeated. The affirmative team, Nan Harden, Saginaw, and Bob Nixon of Detroit defeated Michigan Normal College and lost to Michigan State and the University of Detroit.

The complete standing of the league teams went as thus:

	won	lost
Michigan State	5	1
Alma	4	2
Albion	4	2
Western Mich.	4	2
Calvin	3	3
Hope	3	3
Kalamazoo	3	3
Mich. Normal	3	3
Wayne University	3	3
Central Mich.	1	5
U. of Detroit	1	5

In the tournament division the affirmative team: Peggy McNaughton of Detroit and Beverly Winston of Detroit defeated Western Michigan College and lost to Calvin and Wayne. The affirmative (continued on page two)

"Sweethearts on Parade" Feature of Amo Te Frolic

The annual Amo Te Frolic was presented by the Sigma Phi Sorority last Friday evening in the chapel rec room. The decorations were in keeping with the Valentine theme.

A false ceiling of red and white streamers was caught in the center by a huge red heart. The refreshment stand, at which was served the traditional Philo punch and cookies, was white with red hearts. The card tables around the dance floor were covered with white cloths trimmed with red hearts.

The floor show began at ten o'clock, with Arlisle Kiemle singing "Love Walked In." Next came "Sweethearts on Parade," a series of pantomimes acting out incidents in the lives of great lovers of history.

Gerry Rosendale was the narrator, and the first pantomime was Sampson and Delilah acted out by Paula McCallum and Joan True. Anne Boleyn acted out by Dotty

Vets Must Report Extra Earnings

Bonus payments received by veterans enrolled in educational institutions under the G. I. Bill and engaged in outside work must be reported as earnings to the Veterans Administration. VA officials said there is no difference between bonuses given as gifts and incentive bonuses given by many business firms as a regular annual-pay policy. Both should be reported as earnings to VA. "Compensation for productive labor means wages, salary, commission, bonus or other payments received by a veteran by reason of his employment," VA officials pointed out.

Leave Bonds OK'd For NSL Payments.

Student veterans who wish to assign their terminal leave bonds to the Veterans Administration as payments on their National Service Life Insurance should obtain the necessary forms from their nearest VA office. VA representatives will assist veterans in assigning their bonds and will give up-to-date information regarding their G. I. insurance. Although VA does not issue the terminal leave bonds, the law authorizes VA to accept the bonds in connection with NSLI payments. The bonds may be used to pay premiums on insurance already in force, to purchase new insurance, to reinstate lapsed insurance, to pay the (continued on page four)

Veterans Hear Delegates Reports

In a meeting co-sponsored by the Alma College Veterans Club and the Student Council, held Thursday morning at 11:40 in the Old Chapel, all veterans on campus listened to reports of the Student Veterans Planning Committee Conference held February 9 at Ann Arbor. Art Freet, represented the Independent Veterans, and John Burns and Fritz Adams spoke for the Veterans club. These three representatives reported the following.

The planning conference went on record as being in favor of the Veterans' Administration making it a condition of accrediting any institution that they provide for a democratically elected board of student veterans to act with authority as trustees of all benefits under the G. I. Bill. Such a group to be responsible to the Veterans' Administration alone.

The conference had started an hour late and with housing and rent control, subsistence, V. A. red tape, and educational facilities listed on the agenda, the meeting ran three hours overtime.

Housing and rent control was listed as the number one problem of the student veteran, and it was voted to call upon the government to solve this problem through immediate legislation specifically through passage of the Wagner-Ellender-Taft Bill.

Seek Increased Subsistence

Subsistence payments have long been inadequate, and many proposals were presented for increasing these allotments. Budgets were obtained from some veterans of their average monthly costs, and a composite average was then decided. Each veteran representing a school was urged upon return to their campuses to circulate petitions to their student veterans with the intent of endorsing the Rogers Bill, HR-870, conduct surveys regarding the subsistence question and persuade individuals to send hardship letters to the congressmen regarding their subsistence problems.

Further resolutions passed were: That the Michigan Board of Education immediately appoint a committee to investigate the presence of racial quotas in the colleges, universities and vocational schools of this state.

That the Michigan Board of Education recommend to the Veterans' Administration the withdrawal of recognition from all educational institutions found to be practicing such restrictive racial quotas.

COLLEGE LIBRARIAN SPEAKER AT MEETING

Miss Charlotte Klein, Alma College librarian was guest of the Fortnightly Society of the Presbyterian church recently, presenting a program of reading which would familiarize one with the situation in India.

Suggesting that one might begin with the easiest form of reading, the novel, and gain through it much insight into customs and manner of thinking of the people of this vast country, Miss Klein suggested Hilda Werner's My Indian Family. This book, written by a Yugoslavian, Joseph Hitrec.

"THE WORLD HAS NO USE FOR SELFISHNESS" --- DR. ALLAN A. ZAUN

"The personal contribution to life is important, as there is no place in the world today for selfishness," stated the Rev. Doctor Allan A. Zaun, Detroit pastor, and guest speaker for the annual Alma College Spiritual Emphasis Week in the first day program presented yesterday morning in the new chapel. He continued, "Men who are so constituted morally and spiritually are the hope of the world. We should have nothing to do with any religion which does not accept brotherhood of man as a reality which must be practiced."

"Destruction of the world by fire is now a possibility, and no long just the continuation of Middle Age ideas. It is not hysteria, but a cold fact, that became quite apparent on August 7, 1945 when the atomic bomb hit on Hiroshima."

A former Navy-Chaplain, Rev.

Zaun continually emphasized that we too often tackle a task which we discover too late, is tremendous, and thus our spirit is weakened. If we let our conscience be our guide we will triumph, he concluded.

Dr. Josiah V. Roth, Dean of Religion read the announcements for the day, after which the "Introit" was sung by a Cappella Choir, under the direction of Professor Eugene Grove.

Student participation in this program was marked by William Blewett who rendered the Invocation. The readings from the Scriptures were then presented by Virginia Will and were followed by a duet, "Psalm 23" by Miss Margaret Vander Hart and Prof. Grove. Robert Nixon afterwards led those attending in prayer.

Pres. Roy W. Hamilton introduced the guest speaker.

DRAMA CLUB LISTS 1-ACT PLAYS

The Drama club held its first meeting of the new semester on February 13 in the old chapel.

The meeting was called to order by the club's advisor, Mr. Eldersveld. The plan for the activities of the semester was discussed. The plan for this semester is to present five one-act plays instead of the usual one or two three-act plays. These plays will be directed by students who will in turn be under the supervision of Mr. Eldersveld. The student directors who have been chosen are Doris Miner, Beal Jacobson, Marty Dean, Matt Ongham, and Grant Wessel. These plays will be presented to the students and town people in the chapel recreation room or in the gymnasium. Later they will be presented in one of the schools in town. The five plays will be presented over a period of two evenings.

This new plan will be beneficial in many ways. First and foremost it will benefit the persons participating. They will have to learn and rehearse only one act instead of the three a person would have to know in a full length play.

Secondly, it will make it possible for more people to participate in the play. This semester there will be parts open for 30 persons. Thirdly, in presenting five separate plays there will be great variety in the programs. Each play will require a different type of acting. There will be farce, comedy, mystery, tragedy and drama plays. The different modes created by such plays should supply fine entertainment for everyone.

Anyone may try out for these plays. You do not have to be a member of the drama club. If you are interested in any phase of theatrical productions you are welcome to try out. If you would like to familiarize yourself with the plays before the time for tryouts, you may go to the library Wednesday, Feb. 23 and look over the books that will be there. Further developments will be posted on the bulletin boards and announced in chapel. Here is your chance to really "dig in" to college life, to get acquainted with the other students. Let's all try out for at least one of the parts in these plays.

Vets to Present Taxi Dance Fri.

Plans have been completed for the second annual Vets Club Taxi Dance, to be held in the Chapel rec room Friday evening, February 21, at 8 p.m.

A dance of this type must necessarily work under a set of definite rules. Clare Albee, Vets Club proxy thus announces the following to govern the dance.

1. No couples will be admitted at the door.

Scots To Meet Two Tough Foes

by Bill Cornwell

What may well be the best basketball game of the 1946-47 season will be fought at the Alma College gymnasium tonight when the Scots face a powerful cage team from Central Michigan Teachers College.

This will be the second meeting of the two schools and will see the underdog Scots attempting to avenge their previous 74-54 shellacking at the hands of the Bearcats, who boast one of the outstanding records in state collegiate circles this season with 17 wins and five losses.

This record has been achieved against strong competition and the highlight of the season as far as the Bearcats are concerned was their 49 to 42 triumph over the high-scoring Western Michigan Broncos early last January.

Wardrop Stars

Sparkplugged by captain Bob Wardrop, star guard who limited Western's Harold Gensichen to eight points the night of Central's upset win, the Bearcats present a smooth-functioning attack and a formidable defense, with the latter an important reason for their success this season.

Wardrop has plagued every opponent that Central has met this season. A superb defensive player, great team leader, and a good passer and ball handler, he nets his share of the points as well. In addition to Wardrop, the Bearcats have Ray Doornbos, a 6 foot 4 center who makes his presence known around the backboards only too frequently.

Roseman Proves Self

The Scots, bolstered in the height department by big Rex Roseman, are going to "shoot the works" against Central. Roseman gave a good account of himself on last week's road trip and his presence in the lineup removes some of the pressure from Warren Hartt, who thus far has been Alma's only backboard strength.

Though tonight's game with Central Michigan is undoubtedly the top attraction of the week, the ending battle here Saturday night with Olivet is also holding intense interest, for it was a week ago tonight that Scots downed Olivet on the latter's court, 72-67, in their highest scoring effort to date.

The game was a hotly-contested affair featured by fast-breaking attacks and a similar battle is anticipated Saturday. Olivet will be "up" for Alma and there can be no let-down on the part of the Scots if victory is to be forthcoming.

Pledging of eligible men to fraternities will take place Friday morning at 11:40 in the Old Chapel. At that time, Dean Rice will be on hand to pass out the bids of the fraternities.

All eligible men, who are interested in joining a fraternity are advised that they must attend this meeting.

"At 12:55 a.m. on February 3, 1943, an Army transport was sunk by a German submarine. Four Army Chaplains, two Protestants ministers, a Catholic priest, and a rabbi, gave their life preservers to soldiers who were without them. When last seen the Chaplains were standing with their arms locked, each uttering his own prayer. Their sacrifice is recognized by people of all faiths, proud that they were Americans, and proud of them as men."*

American Brotherhood Week is now in its third day. It was ushered in on Sunday with church services throughout the country. It stresses the essential brotherhood of men, regardless of race or religion, and their common oneness in the eyes of God.

But, if this nation is to continue on the road to democratic freedom, then every week of the year, every day of the week must be devoted to the cause of brotherhood of man.

Co-inciding with American Brotherhood Week, Alma College is sponsoring its annual Spiritual Emphasis Week. Guest speaker for this occasion is the Rev. Doctor Allan A. Zaun, Dr. Zaun is an ex-Navy Chaplain, having served aboard the aircraft carrier "Hornet."

Our chapel programs this week are designed, as the title suggests, to emphasize the spiritual side of learning.

Let us all observe this Brotherhood Week with reverence not only this week but in every week to come.

team of Joyce Gardner, Walker-ville, and Art Fowler of Lake Orion defeated Albion College and lost to Michigan State and Michigan Normal.

The negative team of Dorothy Dugal, Traverse City, and Doris Miner, Saginaw, lost to Michigan State, Michigan Normal and in the last round to Wayne University. The negative team of Ned Lawson, Alma, and Al Kligman of Hazel Park defeated Michigan State and lost to Kalamazoo and the University of Detroit.

The question for this debate was: RESOLVED: That labor should be given a direct share in the management of industry.

Judges from Alma College were Miss Klein, Miss Fyfe and Dr. Unstad. Professor Westley Rowland of Alma was the State director of the debate tournament.

Alma debaters will participate in the State Jr. Debate Tournament April 19th, for all debaters in their first year of Inter-collegiate debating. On April 14th the negative teams of Alma will meet a traveling team of West Virginia University.

G. I. HALL

Mark Twain said, "People talk about the weather but don't do anything about it." I wonder if this is true, for the door to the Good, Butler, Pope and Vogler Suite was snowed under Wednesday night.

Gordon Nowak, in Suite No. 5, heads the "G. I. Hall Little Theatre." Last week his company, Bruce Gibson, and Tom Taylor, mis-presented "Mr. Pim Passes By", by Milne.

On Friday, Suite No. 8 lost one of its occupants, Bill McMillan. (He was married on Saturday.)

One day last week the fellows in Suite 7 woke up to find that their fire had had indigestion during the night and died.

The hall sounds rather intellectual with the night, wahr's and "es verdad's" of the German and Spanish students.

If it continues to thaw, we will have to put on our boots to get in and out of the dorms.

PHI-LIP

Our brother Warren Hartt had a very bad week end. In the two games played Friday and Saturday night, Warren scored exactly nine points, and committed 9 personals fouls.

Bob (Jay) Smith spent over an hour Sunday morning rushing about the house looking for a band-aid. Had a little shaving accident.

Isn't that new tie Duane Van Duzen is sporting an eye tinger. He isn't the first one to get stuck with a gift like that.

Only ten fellows in the house over the week end while our basketball team traveled with the Varsity to Hillsdale and Adrian. Won both of our games, and we're all mighty proud of the team.

Ralph Wolbers has left Alma College and he will be missed by all at 313 Philadelphia. Ralph was vice-president of the Junior Class.

All eligible men have been voted on, and the Phis are all set for pledge week which is coming up soon.

ALPHA THETA NEWS

In the Monday night meeting of Alpha Theta the following officers were appointed by the president, Marge McCarty, Guide, Lu Kolberg; sentinel, Mike Black; parliamentarian, Barb Kemper; Almanian reporter, Dorothy Dugal; keepers of the archives, Suds Fisher; and vice president, Ellen Angell.

According to the plans drawn up by the Inter-sorority Council, Alpha Theta has acquired these rushing dates: the first party will be the big open party to all eligible non-sorority girls, February 28th. The second party is scheduled for March 11, the third, a spread in a member's room is to be March 6th, and the final rushing party will take place on March 11, the third, a spread in a members' room is to be March 6th, and the final rushing party will take place March 19th.

DELTA NEWS

The past week has been spent in getting ready for the forthcoming pledge week. All preparations have been made to make this one of the most successful pledge periods on record for Delta Gamma Tau.

After spending two weeks teaching school at Bayport, Michigan, Ben Clark returned to the fold for the week end. Every Delt just knows he came back to see each and every one of his fraternity brother, although there's a rumor that there may have been a red-headed reason for his coming back so soon, too.

Wilbur McCrum, an old Delt, had his debate team up from Flint Jr. College this past week for a practice debate with the Alma College debaters.

ZETA SIGMA NEWS

The 320 man-hours expended at our last meeting on the business of pledging, we believe to be a record on the campus—how enviable a record is another matter.

Our latest casualty is the skier Bill Bowers. The doctor reports that by the time he gets accustomed to using crutches, his ankle will be better. Bill has now decided Chinese checkers is the safest sport for the rest of the winter season.

With the Winewicas low living in one of the government housing units, we are set to give them a real old-fashioned house-warming some day soon.

Faces and Places . . . R. Jay Smith

Those of you who were fortunate enough to have heard Dr. Preston Bradley's stirring commencement address last June will remember his oratorical genius for blending wit, humor and religious philosophy. You will also remember his musings on his early Alma College days and how he pierced through the pages of time and so meticulously related his every thought and fear upon arriving on this campus. It was the same old story back in '05, just out of high school, snatched from one way of life and just stuck into another. So it seemed.

The same old story up until about 1943—The freshman of today has changed considerably even since 1940 to say nothing of '05. The sensitive and timid little boy with hands still red from mother's apron-strings—just is no more. Whether it is because of the war, or greater competition in our colleges or just what it is would be hard to say but it is a more aggressive and self-confident freshman coming into our school today.

How well I remember my first day here. In the old chapel one of the wise senior men was giving us the very devil for just living. At the climax of his speech he rose his clenched fist high in the air and shouted:

"When you are in ROME, you do, as the Romans do, when you are in ALMA, you DO as the ALMANIANS DO!!!"

With this final utterance he slammed his fist upon the table sending the intended chills up our miserable backs. Such antics now-a-days would probably result in the foolish person being laughed off the stage.

Whereas it is a higher type student it is also a better Alma. The War also left its imprint here. Alma is taking its place beside the liberal arts of colleges of the Middle West and few that come here fail to be impressed with its very adequate faculty.

Where there is still much room for improvement in the student body in ways of courteousness, tolerance and scholastic and religious endeavors, there are also ways for improvement from the other side in having more laboratory and recreational facilities. We need something more than week-end dances in the chapel to bind us as a college family, such things as a late morning and afternoon snack-bar where socializing could be done on a higher plane and conversation could replace card playing. It certainly would give better opportunity for the off-campus students to get acquainted with those living on the campus. We need more physical education facilities where those beyond the selected few could indulge in all forms of their favorite athletics. We need more cultural advantages such as book reviews, evening lectures given by townspeople and faculty, and a classical record library-to truly link learning to living.

If any helpful and practical suggestions could be made concerning this matter I will gladly voice your opinions through this column.

SEBO-MEN TRIP HILLSDALE FOR 4th MIAA WIN SATURDAY

by Marty Dean

Saturday night the basketball team scored their third consecutive victory within a week and second in two successive nights, all away from home. This time the hapless victim was Hillsdale, and the scene was the Dales' new field house. The final score was 53-42.

The game looked as though it might turn into a runaway for the Scots when, midway in the first half, they began to pull away from the Dales and increased their lead to twelve points. But, by the time the half rolled around, Warren Hartt had four fouls against him, Pete Greenhoe and Rex Roseman each had three, and Rocky Walker had two and, therefore, the boys had to play much more cautiously and could not "press" as much as they would have liked. The result was that the twelve-point lead was maintained and not increased and the half ended 26-14.

A few minutes after the second half began, Hartt was evicted from the game with five fouls and Rex Roseman foiled him three minutes later. Rex, by the way, played another very good defensive game, handling the backboards excellently. That left the brunt of the defensive responsibility up to John Temple, and he responded ably. John, along with Rex and Pete, by the way, make up three very rugged defensive men.

The Scots managed to maintain a sizable lead throughout the remainder of the game but the Dales were definitely not counted out until the final whistle. They were a very scrappy ball club.

Speaking of whistles, the Ref and Ump certainly tooted theirs enough throughout the game, much to the disapproval of both teams.

Mike Budge was high point man for the evening, with sixteen points.

Phi Rout Reserves
In the Phi-Hillsdale Reserve game, the Phi's staged a dramatic finish to pull their game out of the fire 41-37.

Hillsdale had about a four-inch advantage in height per man, but that did not stop the Phi's from pressing the Dales all over the floor and eventually wearing them down to their size. "Bruiser" Swanson was continually intercepting passes, and Steve Nisbet played his usual good game both offensively and defensively.

The game was pretty even during the half, the score being 18-17 at intermission, Phi's ahead.

However, in the second half, the Dales' reserves began to click and with four minutes remaining in the game, the score stood Hillsdale 35, Phi's 27. Suddenly, the Phi's found themselves and, with one minute to go, Steve dropped one through to tie the game up at 37-all. Then, Tex and Wally Moore sank two quickies to put the game on ice and help round out a very successful and enjoyable week-end.

SCOTS OUT-FIGHT ADRIAN, GAIN 54-46 CAGE VICTORY FRI.

by Marty Dean

Last Friday night, the Alma Scots defeated the Adrian Bulldogs 54-46 in a hard fought battle at Adrian. The contest was never actually "cinched" until the last minute of play when the Scots sank two quick baskets to increase their lead to eight points. Up until that time, it was a nip-and-tuck battle with only three minutes remaining in the game.

The contest was rough throughout, with four men being banished on fouls—three Adrian, and one Alma—and one man, Bill Saxton, requiring two stitches in his cheek, the result of a gash received in a scramble for a loose ball.

The game was highlighted by Rex Roseman's superb defensive play. He definitely has all the potentialities of a great ball player and should fit in with Coach Sebo's plans for next year very nicely.

Pete Greenhoe played his usual good brand of ball, and was the Scots' high scorer with fifteen points.

Hoben, newly acquired center for the Bulldogs made a big difference in the Adrian team in both offense and defense. He racked up eight field goals and four free throws to take individual scoring honors with twenty points.

The first half started off with a bang and remained that way for about fifteen minutes when the Scots pulled away from a 15-15 tie to build up a 25-17 halftime lead.

But the Bulldogs were far from beaten, and they began pressing the Scots all over the floor during the second half, with the result that three of their boys pressed a little too hard and too close. The game was anything but "in the bag" until the last minute. It was the type of game that required the utmost of those two "floor workers," Bill Saxton and Max Tullis.

Nisbet Paces Phi Victory
In the Phi-Reserve game, the first half moved rather slowly, both teams acting as if they were lost on the big floor—and they were! The basket the Phi's were shooting at was on an 80 degree angle to the floor, causing most of their shots to fall short. When the teams reversed ends for the second half, the Phi's began to hit the basket, with Steve Nisbet leading the parade with twelve counters for the evening. Steve also played an excellent defensive game, having almost complete control of the backboards.

The Phi's were never really threatened during the second half, and the game ended 37-31.

Wrighteous Whims . . .

"Two shots, a groan, a diabolic laugh"....No, it wasn't murder in McNaughton's room, it was only Peg trying out a radio plot upon her unsuspecting roommate while in other parts of the dorm the rest of the gals in the class were also "creating". Question of the evening: who killed whom and why?

Jo Fischer was at it again last Sunday night. Gals climbing the stairs at ten o'clock were greeted by "Beatrice" complete with costume and cigarette holder. Just goes to show the influence that the movies have upon some people—next thing we know Jo will be impersonating the impersonators.

Seeing Mrs. Harwood and her guests in the dining room Thursday night made us remember that stormy night a year ago when news came of the accident which we won't forget for a long time. Made us pretty thankful to see all the kids together again.

Big attraction on third is the bone which decorates the foot of the bed in Gloria and Bone's room. The big question right now is: which came first the nickname or the bone?

The house meeting on Wednesday night was the first of the new term. Our new Senate prexy, Marion Morgan, presided efficiently, nevertheless retaining that Southern charm. Congratulations and best of luck, Marion!!

Third floor welcome Et McArtor back. Seems that Et had a slight misunderstanding with a to-boggan between terms and spent the week in bed. What some people won't do for a vacation!!

Those who met Betty Snow in the hall last week were beginning to think that finals had aged her considerably—her hair had suddenly become snow white (pardon the pun), but our minds were relieved when we discovered that she was only modeling a wig to be used in a Philo floor show.

Hit Parade:

"Young Man with a Horn", Bill Bevier

"Dancing in the Dark", Matt and Jean

"Ma, She's Making Eyes At Me" Dorothy Nordheim

"When My Dreamboat Comes Home", Fred Strauss

"Sleepy-time Gal", Phyllis Stevens

"Slender, Tender, and Tall", Lois Burroughs

Valentine's Day certainly didn't get by unnoticed in good old Wrighteous Hall. Donna and Helen are now sporting jeweled frat pins, received on that tradition-packed day. Marion Spalsbury had a double celebration since her birthday also falls on the eventful day, and the lucky gal was swamped by gifts and cards including a gardenia corsage which arrived in time to be worn to the Philo's "Amo Te Frolic". Others of our lassies seen wearing flowers from these "special people", both on campus and back home were Katie Rowley, Sue Brede, Bette Adams, Jo True, and Pat Adams.

2. Men will be in a line, and each woman may chose the one she wishes to dance with each series of the dances.

3. Admission will be twenty-cents for the men and fifteen cents for women.

4. Admission entitles each woman to two dances. After that she must buy tickets, which will permit her two dances each.

5. All men must collect tickets before starting a dance series.

6. To sit out a dance with one of the men, a woman must also surrender tickets for the dances thus consumed.

Joe Ombry is handling publicity for the dance. Other committee chairman appointed by Mr. Albee are: Wally Moore, dancing; Ken Corbin, entertainment; and Justin McCarty, refreshments.

FRIDAY

ALMA HALTS OLIVET, 72-67

The highest scoring total of the season was needed by the Scots in winning a 72-67 victory Tuesday night at Olivet in a game which brought the Scots to nine wins against five losses.

The rangy, but inexperienced, Olivet crew extended the Scots throughout the entire contest though never did the losers hold a lead during the game. The Scots built up an early lead of a few points and managed to hold it throughout, leading 36-32 at the half way mark. Soon after the second period opened, however, Olivet did knot the count at 40-40 to come as close as possible to gaining a lead.

In the closing minutes, when the Scots were enjoying a comfortable 64-53 edge the home team staged a rally which cut that margin to 67-66 but a basket by Gayle Saxton, followed by a bucket from Mike Budge and another free throw by Saxton shoved Coach Sebo's men out in front as the horn sounded to end the game.

It was the type of game which delights the average cage fan as the two teams fought basket for basket in fast breaking attacks up and down the large Olivet court. Consequently when the Olivet squad plays a return game here Saturday night, Feb. 22, it is expected there will be a capacity crowd to witness the contest.

Scoring was largely a matter of a battle between the two centers with Alma's Warren Hartt coming out with a tie as both he and Don Zordel bagged 21 points. Mike Budge and Rocky Walker had 16 apiece, the same number as Don Funk of the losers, to capture second high honors.

The win was the ninth of the season as compared to five losses for the Scots who now have just five more games remaining on the schedule.

Neuro Surgery Hospitals Listed

Four VA hospitals in Ohio, Michigan and Kentucky have been designated for the hospitalization of eligible veterans requiring nerve surgery. The hospitals are: Crile VA Hospital, Cleveland; VA Hospital at Dayton, O.; VA Hospital at Dearborn, Michigan and Nichols VA Hospital, Louisville, Kentucky. Neurosurgery at the four hospitals is performed by specialists. Eligible veterans requiring neurosurgery may express preference of hospitals if their conditions are service-connected.

Typing Costs OK'd

The cost of typing a required degree thesis is an acceptable part of the cost of education or training under the G. I. Bill, according to VA. However, the cost of printing, microfilming or otherwise reproducing copies of a thesis cannot be authorized. In the case of a disabled veteran enrolled under Public Law 16, the cost of reproducing a required degree thesis may be authorized if the work is an essential part of the course of training required to restore employability of the veteran.

Students veterans wearing artificial limbs should obtain a Prosthetic Service Card from the Veterans Administration. This card enables the veteran to get immediate repair service at government expense up to $35 without prior approval from VA.

RICHARD BRADT TAKES BRIDE

Now at home at 807 Pine avenue, Alma, following a wedding trip to Detroit, Ann Arbor and Grand Rapids are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bradt, who spoke their wedding vows Friday, January 31, in Mary Sabina chapel of Central Methodist church, Lansing. The Rev. Henry Mayfield officiated.

Daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Burton of Harbor Springs, the bride formerly was Miss Mary Elizabeth Burton. She is a sister of Mrs. Henry Klein of this city. Mr. Bradt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bradt of 709 North Court avenue, Alma.

A grey gabardine suit, featuring black accessories and a corsage of white carnations, was worn by the bride. Miss Phyllis Fisher of Rockford, as maid of honor, wore a black garbardin suit with matching accessories and a corsage of white chrysanthemums.

Jack Comstock of Rockford was best man.

The bride was graduated from Harbor Springs high school and attended Michigan State college. The bridegroom attended Michigan State college prior to serving two years as radio operator with the Fifth Air Force in the Pacific. At present he is attending Alma college.
