Council Says 'No' on Vets Proposal

The Student Council last Tuesday evening voted no to a proposition that the council send veteran representatives to a special conference dealing with a move for increased subsistence for the student veterans. The conference is to be held in East Lansing, December 13. The motion to deny the request of a state planning committee was presented by Glenn Van Duzen and seconded by Duane Van Duzen.

Glenn Graham, council president read the letter from "Operation Subsistence, State of Michigan" and asked for comment from the other members of the council. Opinion was expressed that the Veterans Club on campus should handle the matter, although the group was reminded by Ted Emery, Veterans Club president, that the local club has only 65 members out of almost 400 veterans enrolled at Alma. The 400 represent approximately 65% of the entire Alma enrollment, while the 65 members of the Veterans Club represent a small percentage.

The following council members attended the meeting: Glenn Graham, Dick Scheanwald, Glenn Rogers, Duane Van Duzen, Clare Albee, Esther Johnson, Rex Wood, Waite Palmer, Donna Jensen, Nan Harden, and Marion Spalsbury.

FELLOWSHIP FOLLOWS NEW PROGRAM PLAN

Christian Fellowship group adopted a new program plan this week, according to an announcement from William Blewett, vice-president and program chairman. This plan included folk games, the first social program under this plan included folk games, charades, songs, and refreshments, directed by Bette Adams, and Shirley Hewitt. Next Sunday, the meeting will be a discussion led by an outside speaker.

Films will be shown November 16, and a Vesper Service will be the November 23 offering. This service will be conducted by student pastors and assistance will be given by members of the music department. Service will be held in the chapel.

All students and faculty members are invited to attend the meetings held each Sunday evening at 8 p.m.

Art Masterpiece--Gets Around

Most of us are familiar with Thomas Gainsborough's painting, "The Blue Boy," but how many of us are acquainted with some of Gainsborough's other works? For example, one of our colleagues was scouring through the salvaged lumber behind the furnace house and came upon a hitherto rather obscure painting of a forlorn (fully clad) young maiden with face turned to the sky. Where Gainsborough's painting was a masterpiece of the art of painting, this one was a masterpiece of the art of scavenging. It was found in the basement of the old building, and it was found by the same person who found the "Blue Boy" painting. The painting is a masterpiece of the art of painting, and it is a masterpiece of the art of scavenging.

Naval Plaque Presented College

Alma College was awarded its wartime service to the government when Captain H. B. Wheeler, USN, representing the Secretary of the Navy, presented to Dr. Paul L. Rice, a bronze plaque. The award was made during a special assembly last Wednesday morning.

Inscribed upon the plaque is the Navy seal and the words "This mark of commendation is awarded to Alma College for effective cooperation in training naval personnel during World War II, Navy V-12 Unit." Signature upon the plaque is that of James Forrestal, Secretary of the Navy.

Professor Robert W. Clack, Navy co-ordinator during the stay of the V-12 unit on this campus, gave a summary of how Alma became a V-12 school in 1943, and pointed out some of the interesting aspects of the unit and its leadership.

The program began with the singing of the Navy Hymn, and was concluded with the singing of Alma Mater.

Yesterday Dr. Welch attended a meeting of the Michigan Colleges Association at Michigan State College, East Lansing. Wednesday, he will be guest of the Midland Presbyterian, meeting with the Women's Federation in the afternoon, and attend a church dinner at night, which will have high school students as guests.

took second prize. House decoration prize went to Delta Gamma Tau Fraternity.

Sigma Philo Sorority followed the Queen and Court in the morning parade, their float depicting the fashion changes through the years as Dr. James E. Mitchell held forth at Alma College. Next in the parade was the Pioneer Hall float, a re-creation of that historic dormitory with the sign "Mitchell Slept Here."

The Phi Alpha Fraternity presented the four freedoms in their parade, the Zeta Sigma Fraternity and Kappa Kappa Sorority following in line as described above. The parade was held on Friday, November 1, and was a very successful one.

Robert Rufener and his Alma College Kiltie Band provided the music for the parade, with Miss Evelyn Thurman, international baton twirling champion as of the day, Shirley Crawford, alum majorette of the band, Mary Jane Keith and Donna Palmer, Sophomore Student Council representative as parade chairman.

EDITORIAL

Elsewhere in this issue is a news article concerning action by the STUDENT Council of Alma College at their meeting last week. Perhaps a review of the facts in the case is necessary for all to consider.

Each student at Alma College, veterans included, pays a ten dollar activity fee. This is included in the tuition payment, and thus the cost is absorbed by the government in the case of veteran students.

However, this should not be reason for denying the veteran representation. The present student council is not doing its job if it fails to represent the majority of the students, and at present, the veterans are in the majority, being approximately 65% of the total student body.

The request made of the Student Council was that they send to a conference in East Lansing, December 13, representatives of the veterans at this college, to participate in a state-wide plan to organize a drive for increased subsistence. That the Student Council may be of the opinion that the Veterans do not need a raise is not the issue. They are supposed to be fair and impartial and are required to do a job for the student body.

If the veterans are to continue to pay the activity fee, which in part runs the student council, let's give them the representation they deserve.

PHI-LIP

Well, it's over. Homecoming has come and gone, and we settle down once more to sane practices. The faces of many of the oldtime Phis were seen about the house and all had a good time. We heard the tales of great doings back when . . . and enjoyed them, and we think in the future, imagining how things will be for us when we return for homecoming.

The Phi banquet was held at the Masonic Temple, and a record crowd of over a hundred put in an appearance. Speakers for the evening included Professors Unstad and Clack of the faculty. Also, a few of the alumni were called upon by Professor Clack to relate a little about their days on the Alma College campus.

"Hell" Week commences for the new pledges, nineteen strong. They include Bob Smith, Bob Wolfe, Warren Eilber, Stan Hester, Arlan Edgar, Paul Kreft, Charles Shoenhoels, Richard Denny, Eugene Reed, Bruce Bower, Fred Fyfe, Cliff Fossitt, Stewart Grove, George Vinson, Bert White, Sonny Kleckner, Steve Veselenak, Don Womack, and Tom Williams.

Pledgemaster Bob Pollack has set the machinery in motion which will put these boys through the paces. They may not get home until morning, but it'll be a week of fun to remember for many years to come.

KAPPA KEEKS

We wish that Homecoming would roll around oftener so that we might have more opportunities to see our sister K. I.'s. Lois Fowler, Nan Watchek, Mrs. McNaughton, and Jane Patton were just a few of the many who attended our banquet held at Updykes.

The tables were decorated with yellow and purple candles and mums. K. I. Sorority colors. Mrs. Charles F. DuBois, Norma Graham, and Nan Harden welcomed the guests of the evening.

Open House was held all day Saturday in our Sorority Room.

DELTA NEWS

Well, it's all over! The Deltas are richer by nine good men. We want to welcome the new members into our membership, and to congratulate the five girls shown during pledge week. Welcome: Paul Stappert, Harry Craig, Fred Hemmings, Art Good, Art Miller, "Phil" Phillips, Paul Schnellberger, George Kamperman, and Thelie Jones. This has been our pledge period that will never be forgotten. All the traditional methods of initiation were used, and a few tougher fish boys brought up.

The Deltas are still undefeated in inter-mural football. Our stars, are all in good shape, although we have had a number of casualties. Willie Elston is out with an injured hip, Carmen with an injured leg, Homans with an injured arm, and Kimball with his leg (although he thinks it's old age).

The Delta House is just in Broadway with three of our boys in the forthcoming play.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT

We (slide rule) Palmer over-tempt. Field (where are you) Fulton was seen at the house twice this week.

John (Ramrod) Kimball missed pheasant.

Dick (strong arm) Hook cleaned his car.

Bob (lover boy) Lines got two letters from his gal.

Art (Chicago) Flower went two hours without sighing over his girl.

ZETA SIGMA

Homecoming! Homecoming! This was the buzz word around the house as plans were hatched for the great day. The week started out for us with formal initiation of eleven new members including Rex Roseman and Paul McMahon whose names were omitted from the last issue, and all members are mighty proud to have them aboard. The shortage of material let up just in time and thanks to Guile Graham, the living room and music room floors have their new covering. This is another step in the rebuilding program.

The extensive house decorations were the work of Frank Wilson and his committee members George Alward and Jerry Oliver. The 'old grads' made the day most complete and it is always a real pleasure to renew old friendships. It is our sincere hope to see more of them.

Homecoming was a great day for us, starting with the float. We were honored to have Dr. Charles Long and Mr. Andrew Thomson serve as aides to Dean Mitchell and certainly it was a fine link out of the past.

Ending the day's activities was the fraternity banquet held at Updike's Restaurant, where one hundred members and guests gathered to pay tribute to Dean Mitchell. Dr. Carroll C. Hyde of South Bend, Indiana presented Dean Mitchell with a plaque and certificate and Mr. Herb Estes of Belleville, Michigan gave the alumni responses. The banquet ended with the singing of the fraternity song.

ALPHA THETA

We all heave a sigh of relief! Homecoming and the worries about the float are over. It sure seemed good to see all those old Theta's show up for the banquet and everything ran very smoothly. In two weeks we get to work again. Our annual style show, sponsored by Gittleman's, is scheduled for November and that will take quite a bit of concentration. The Thetas will model clothes from all departments of the store.

We would like to take this opportunity to congratulate Kappa Iota and Zeta Sigma on their floats which were very beautiful.

Last Three Seconds Gives Hope 25-19 Victory

Scots Fight Valiantly All Along but Breaks Give Dutchmen Game

A brilliant touchdown run by quarterback Nick Yonker in the last 15 seconds of play gave the flying Dutchmen of Hope College a 25 to 19 victory over the Alma Scots in a thrilling Homecoming Day football game at Bahlke Field last Saturday afternoon. Yonker's great sprint climaxed a hectic, hair-raising battle which saw Hope overcome a 13-0 deficit to capture its second M. I. A. A. league triumph of the season.

With one minute of play remaining the Alma Scots gambled on a last minute pass from Rex Roseman to Mike Budge that ended in disaster. The pass was intercepted by Yonker on the Hope 43 yard stripe. The next play Yonker passed to the Scots 9 yard line. Yonker then caught Pflugstiel's pass on the 6 yard line, eluded three would-be tacklers, who had clear shots at him, and ran over for the winning score.

First Quarter

Alma won the toss and elected to kick to Hope. Howell's boot was caught by Post on the 20 yard line and ran it back to the 28. After several plays Hope kicked to the Alma's 28. Alma was forced to do the same thing and Roseman kicked to the Hope's 40 yard marker. Fossitt then intercepted a pass and ran it back to the 45 of Alma. Roseman then threw two passes before the first quarter ended with no score.

Second Quarter

Pflugstiel opened the second quarter with a boot to Hester who ran from the 30 to the 37. Roseman ran 12 yards thru right tackle. Roseman then passed to Tobadua for another first down. Two more passes brought the ball down to the 113. Tullis picked up 6 yards. And from the 6 yard stripe Rex Roseman scored Alma's first touchdown. The conversion was good and the score stood at 7-0.

Howell then kicked an "onside" kick that Alma recovered on their own 48. This lucky break set up the next touchdown play. Roseman threw a 30 yard pass that Cosgrove caught on the 2 yardline. Interference was ruled on this play. Roseman went over to make the score 13-0.

After an exchange of fumbles, Yonker passed to Kraai on the 3 yard line. Kraai then went over standing up. Walters blocked the conversion attempt and the score read 13-6 at half.

Third Quarter

An Alma fumble gave the Dutchmen another score midway in the third quarter. Yonker passed to DeMull on Alma's 2 yard line. Then the elusive Pflugstiel went over. Weller's conversion was good, knotting the score at 13-13.

Fourth Quarter

Three passes and two running plays put the ball on Hope's and little Stan Hester galloped for the touchdown. The extra point try failed. Hope bounced back with Yonker in complete command. He drove thru from the 10. Score was again tied at 19-19. Alma received and with the ball resting on the 32, the Scots decided to gamble for a winning tally. Roseman dropped back and threw a pass intended for Budge, who was in the clear, but Yonker raced over and intercepted, receiving the ball on his own 43. The Dutchmen took to the air and marched to the Alma 9. Then came the victorious tally previously described.

INTRA-MURAL LEAD RETAINED BY DELTS

The Delts maintained the lead in the Intra-mural Touch-Football League last week by remaining idle while the Phis and Skid Row played to a 24 to 24 tie. The Phis won the week's only other game from Zetas by forfeit. Two games were cancelled because of bad weather.

Skid Row led by Bruce Bower, who scored three touchdowns, played the favored Phis to a standstill. Bower scored on passes from Kish good for thirty, thirty-five, and fifteen yards each. Dave Pysch also scored on a pass from Kish good for about thirty yards.

The Phis scored first. Chuck Watson intercepted on the Phis twenty, started to run, passed to Dave Walsh who passed to John Wilkins. Wilkins in turn passed back to Watson who went over for the score. Other Phi scores were on a pass to Wilkins from Walsh good for thirty yards, Dunn scored on a ten yard pass from Wilkins and Bruce Brown scored on a sleeper pass play from Tim Eis good for forty yards.

The Phis led at half time 18 to 12.

training was obtained at Washington and Jefferson College (where he was winner of the Samuel Jones Classical Prize, winner of a gold medal for Junior Oration, and graduated magna cum laude), the Western Theological Seminary, and the University of Edinburgh. From the latter institution he received the Ph. D. degree for work done in the New Testament department.

Following graduation from the theological school in 1927, Dr. Swaim taught English and Bible at the American University of Beirut, Syria. He has traveled extensively in Europe and the Holy Land, having walked over most of the latter.

During his pastorates Dr. Swaim was active in inter-church affairs. He was chairman of New York Presbytery's Committee on Church Co-operation and Union; chairman of the Peace Action Committee of the Greater New York Federation of Churches; chairman of the Staten Island Division of the Federation; and in St. Louis was chairman of the Commission on International Justice and Goodwill of the Metropolitan Church Federation. In 1937 he was an Inter-Change Preacher in England and Scotland.

Christian education was a major interest also in the pastorate. He was vice-chairman of New York Presbytery's Committee on Christian Education, and chairman of St. Louis Presbytery's Committee. For the past decade he has been a leader and vesper speaker at Young People's Summer Conferences. Since going to the Seminary he has spoken at numerous institutes of theology and seminars for ministers.

Three small books of his, "Messengers upon the Mountains," "These are the Laity," and "Builders of the Kingdom," have been circulated among ministers and laymen throughout the Presbyterian Church. Other publications include his Seminary inaugural, "The Words that Jesus Spoke," frequent magazine articles and book reviews; and the Young People's Quarterly for the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches for the summer quarter, 1946.

Dr. Swaim's experiences have acquainted him with church life in the East, the South and the Middle West. He was born in Selma, Alabama, where his father, the late Rev. William Thomas Swaim, then was pastor. All three sons of the latter are now ministers of the Presbyterian Church, U.S.A.

Scots Hold Key to MIAA Race: Hillsdale Roughest Competition

Although out of the MIAA race the Alma Scots hold the key to the conference crown. Their Saturday tussle with Hillsdale, there, will determine the 1947 winner. If the Dales win they will take the flag but a Scot triumph would put Kalamazoo on top, if the Hornets can down a weak Albion eleven. Hillsdale and Kalamazoo are both undefeated in league play.

Alma will enter the game a three touchdown underdog. The powerful Dales have won five and tied one, a 13-13 deadlock with Kalamazoo last week. The latter team slapped the Scots, 27-0.

Both teams will be handicapped by injuries. The Sebomen are still without the full time services of hard running Max Tullis while the Dales have lost two key men. Most important is Bill Young, all-MIAA halfback, who suffered a broken nose two weeks ago. The other is Jack Masterson, all-MIAA tackle, out with a leg injury.

Even if Young is sidelined Hillsdale will have a potent backfield, built around Tom Ward, leading MIAA scorer last year, to make trouble for the Scots. The Dale line has letter winners at every position, with all-MIAA center, Alex Clelland, the outstanding performer.

Last year the Dales, with Young and Ward running wild, rolled up a 19-0 victory. But the story may be different Saturday. The Hillsdale eleven depends primarily upon a running game and a sturdy Scot forward wall, which hasn't allowed a single opponent to move overland consistently, will be ready for the "Touchdown Twins." It has been faulty pass defense that has caused the Sebomen the most trouble this year—and Hillsdale does not have a strong passing attack. In their first five games the Dales rolled up 1395 yards rushing but only 307 passing.

Wrighteous Hall Whims

Hut—two, three, four!! Thus were we lulled to sleep following the first fire drill of the year Wednesday evening—or was it Thursday morning? Sounded like the Kangaroo Court got some results, even if only keeping our Wrighteous lassies awake.

styles in evening wear modeled by the willing freshman fellows on Thursday last? Couldn't help but comment on those creations worn by Doug Davey, Jim Clevenger, Bill Baxter and Duane Blough.

Friday heralded the 56th Homecoming Weekend—and what a week-end! We saw Bob Baker, Mary Ellen Thompson, Bill "Thunderbolt" Hawkins, Steve Nisbet, Marion Morgan, Chuck Kegel, Ken Swanson, Harold and Helen Collins Hartt, Vic Jamal, Ellen Angell and Jane Patton. Also on campus were Barb Montgomery, Jessie Stover, Jerry Lacey, Jerry Malzahn, Harold "Smitty" Smith, Fred Strauss, Gloria Albrecht, Jo MacDonald, Thora Harrison, Thelma Gail, Buzz Snow, Barb Haley, Jo True, Jan Wilbur—etc, etc.

Orchids, gardenias,—in fact the whole flower shop to the queen and her court! We certainly were proud of them.

As for the Homecoming Dance, so many people attended that it would be impossible to list even a fraction of the students and grads. We did notice a few though, such as: Cecil Good and Jocelyn Larrabee, Betty Snow and Jim Austin, Hazel Brown and Jim Collins, Mona Campbell and Fred Hemans, Ella Orr and Bill Moore, Dick Faulkner and Hilde Kemp, Bill Baltus and Joyce McKinley, Audrey Kneal and Bill Waldrop, Jo Hookey and Bob Lamerson, Bill Bevier and Connie Phillips, Mary Jane Keith and Lou Kimball, Diane Cotton and Merle Cosgrove, Larry Lines and Queen Ruth Swatek, Art Fowler and Jo Ramsey, Shirley Stewart and Bill Smith.

PIONEER PRATTLE

Who was the "Hero" that painted "51" on the school's smoke-stack?

Anyway, Dick Molesky wants everyone to know that he carried the brush!

Any resemblance to Harry Hendershott and the statement of Dean Paul Rice in last Wednesday's assembly is purely coincidental. (Dean Rice's statement: "Some of the V-12 students who were enrolled in Alma, returned after the war, because they like the atmosphere of our school, but more so, perhaps for romantic reasons".)

Charles Glum and Bill Barber wants everyone to know that they stayed up to the wee hours of the morning to study for a stiff exam. They got up at 5:30 a.m. and got in another two hours before class time. Result? They flunked the test. Moral? Never get up at 5:30 a.m.

Jack Cowan lost all his bets on the football games last week. Says he'll stick to ping-pong games rather than to venture out in the open like that.

After the meeting of the Kangaroo court last Thursday night (prior to the parade) Ted Roberts received, along with our William Waldrop, several swats on that well known piece of anatomy. After all the events were over, each one compared blisters. Ted Roberts had only one, but it covered the entire area previously mentioned. Next week, Ted will continue to apply that well-known ointment to that well-known spot. Happy landings!

A plug for a Pioneer businessman: Wynne Crosby wants everyone to know that he now sells, along with his after hour snacks, stationary and Christmas cards for all students. Each card can contain his name and the Alma seal plus any four lines of print. See him, and he will give you his own sales talk.

Pot Palace was really represented in the parade, with the brain of Ted Roberts, the manual labor of Jim Cole and the helping aid of Frosh president John Anderson, Keith Van Duzen, Mike Portlance, Jim Price, Chuck Williams, Jim Colter, Dick Molesky, and Ted Richards. Congratulations, on a swell and original float!

Question of the week around Pioneer: Why wasn't a prize given for the best pair of pajamas in the parade?

KILTIE KORNER

The Homecoming show performed by the band was as follows: A trumpet fanfare from the block formation at the south end of the field, an oblique movement going down the field to the music of the "New Colonial" march, where they formed the word "Hi" at the mid-field strip, playing "Howdy-Do" while forming it. After the word "Hi", they resumed the block formation, steppin-off to the "Billboard" march, continued to the north end of the field, did a counter-march, and formed the letters J. M. in commemoration of Jimmy Mitchell, playing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow" while executing this maneuver. After the J.M. came the numerals 87 and 47, followed by the letter H. from which the band played the Hope Alma Mater. Next was the letter A from which the band played our Alma Mater.

There are several future engagements that the band will participate in, namely: the Armistice Day program Nov. 11, the Ferris Institute game at Big Rapids on Nov. 14, and the Turkey Festival on Dec. 4. Also there will be a concert near the latter part of the semester.

It has also been learned that Mary Evelyn Thurman, who gave a baton-twirling exhibition at our last game is the wife of the band instructor, Mr. Robert E. Rufener.

Concert work will begin immediately after the marching season is over. It is hoped that there will be more people out for the concert band. Trombone, saxophone and baritone players are needed to fill out the instrumentation in the concert band.

The flag was set about 25 feet up the pole, with the section of pole beneath the flag well greased. Frosh women, up at 5 a.m., attempted to wipe some of the grease from the pole before the arrival of the teams and spectators.

DID YOU KNOW

Alma has seven representatives on the Scot grid squad. Pontiac, Newberry, and Detroit are next in line with four each.

Carl Cappaert, M.S.C. tackle, is a brother of Don Cappaert, '51, Alma center.
