Gallant Scots Hold Dales, 7-7

"Corpse" Signed for Drama Club Production of "Arsenic and Old Lace"

A live "corpse" has been secured for "Arsenic and Old Lace," Drama Club offering to be presented Thursday evening, November 13, at the High School Auditorium. Mr. Alvin Eldersveld, Drama Club director announced the signing of Bob Christiansen to represent the thirteen bodies which are buried in the Brewster home in the mystery-comedy by Joseph Kesselring.

Rehearsals have been progressing the past week to a degree of perfection and the fourteen-person cast will be at their best

Thursday evening at eight when the curtain rises on the first of the three acts.

Ticket sales have been handled by a committee working under Dick Reid, and a large audience is expected. All seats are reserved, with tickets selling at .50c, .35c and .15c.

The entire action of the play takes place in the Brewster home in Brooklyn, time being the present. The two old-maid aunts, Abby and Martha Brewster are played by Peg McNaughton and Peggy Powers. Their nephews, Teddy Brewster, who imagines himself to be Teddy Roosevelt; Mortimer, a drama critic; and Jonathan, a sinister character whose chief claim to fame is his resemblance to Boris Karloff, are played by Ted Emery, Grant Wessel, and Harry Craig.

Bill McMillan portrays the Rev. Dr. Harper, while his daughter, Elaine, romantic interest in the production, is played by Beverly Winters. Andy Good is in the role of Dr. Einstein, traveling companion of the evil Jonathan.

Bob Wolfe, Jerry Pozner, and Roland Gohlke are cast as patrolmen, while Paul Stoppert is in the role of their superior officer. Jim Price and Dick Reid are in the parts of Mr. Gibbs and Mr. Witherspoon.

PLAN THANKSGIVING BASKET FOR NEEDY

A Thanksgiving basket, to be presented to a needy family of Alma, will be packed by the Campus Wives Club within the next week. This was decided on at the meeting of this group held last Tuesday evening in the Student Union.

Katherine Thomas has been appointed chairman of the committee to arrange for distribution of the basket which will be packed at the November 18 meeting of the student wives group. Each member will contribute an item of food.

Hazel Tobin was selected as program chairman for the November 18 meeting.

DR. ROTH ANNOUNCES CHAPEL SERVICES

Chapel services have been scheduled until college closes for the Christmas recess according to an announcement by Dr. Josiah V. Roth, Dean of Religion. These are the programs presented on Tuesday and Thursday mornings.

JAMES DUTTON

James Dutton, Virtuoso of the Marimba, will be the special guest artist at the Thursday morning assembly to be held at 11 a.m., in the College Chapel. Mr. Dutton is appearing throughout the nation in special club engagements and in college and school assemblies.

Nationally known artist-teacher of the Marimba and Vibraharp (faculty of the American Conservatory of Music), Mr. Dutton has appeared for two seasons as feature marimbist with the 150 piece Imperial Marimba Symphony Orchestra in concerts throughout the central states.

While much of his program music includes the works of the masters: Chopin, Bach, Brahms, Mendelssohn, de Falla, and others, his repertoire also contains lighter numbers. These include many popular selections of the day.

Girls' Ensemble Sings at Midland

The girls' ensemble took their first trip Wednesday, Nov. 5, to sing at the afternoon meeting and the banquet of the First Presbyterian church of Midland. The program was part of "Alma Day" at this church. The members of the ensemble are: Virginia Bryan, Shirley Crawford, Tila Martinez, Jean Austin, Bertie Lou Swarthout, Mary Ann Morris, Hildegard Kemp, and Theodosia Montigel.

The ensemble, under the direction of Miss Margaret Vander Hart, will sing both sacred and secular music. The girls made their debut in chapel Tuesday, singing "Open Our Eyes," and "We Sing Thy Praise."

Hayes, Roseman, Chuck Saxton Outstanding in Defensive Play

An 88-yard run by Merle Cosgrove, Petoskey freshman, for a touchdown and a pass from Dixie Howell to Fred Hayes, both of Pontiac, for the extra point gave a courageous Alma College grid team a 7-7 draw with the highly-touted Hillsdale eleven. The deadlock kept the Dales from a clear-cut claim to the MIAA title as Kalamazoo earned a share of the crown by whipping Albion, 32-6.

Hillsdale tallied first as Tom Ward powed over from the two foot line on the first play of the second period after a 45-yard march. Bill Young converted and the Dales led 7-0. But the Scots fought back. After losing the ball on a fumble Cosgrove halted a second Dale drive on the 11 by intercepting Young's pass. Tullis picked up a yard over guard on the first play and then Cosgrove took a short lateral from Roseman and behind almost perfect blocking dashed over tackle and romped 83 yards for the six points. As Cosgrove broke into the clear all except one Dale defender had been knocked down. This man, Bob Hallock, caught the flying Scot on the 40 but a stiff arm and a change of direction disposed of him and Cosgrove was on his way as four Alma blockers picked him up at that spot. Needing the extra point for a tie Howell faked a kick from placement and then tossed a pass to Fred Hayes, who made a great leaping catch deep in the end zone.

Although there was no scoring in the second half there were plenty of thrills for the hardy fans who braved a chilly wind and winter temperatures.

A fumble on the first play from scrimmage after the second half kickoff put the Scots in the hole as Hillsdale recovered on the Alma 16. But the Sebomen dug in and refused to budge an inch, throwing the Dales back six yards in four plays.

On third down Rex Roseman dismayed the Dale fans with a 64 yard quick kick, putting the Blue and White on their own 20.

Hillsdale made one more bid in the third canto, racking up three first downs late in the period before Chuck Saxton intercepted a Young pass on the 14.

On the second play of the final stanza Alex Clelland gave the Dales their last good scoring opportunity by intercepting Roseman's pass to Floore and racing back to the Alma 15. But again, the Scot forward wall held, and even with a five yard offside penalty against Alma, Hillsdale failed to make a first down.

Late in the game Ray Mohre intercepted a Young aerial on the 20 and ran to the 44 before being piled up. With Roseman carrying the ball eight of nine plays the Sebomen rolled up three first downs as the game ended.

Hillsdale led in first downs, 13-7, but the Scots outgained the Dales, 225 yards to 188.

Hillsdale tried nine passes, completed two for 28 yards and had four intercepted. Alma completed one forward, for the point after touchdown, in five attempts and had one intercepted.

Bill Young and Tom Ward, Hillsdale Touchdown Twins, just couldn't get by the stiff Alma defense after the first quarter. The entire Scot line, led by Bill Floore and Fred Hayes at the ends and Jim Nesbitt, Clare Albee and Ken Corbin in the middle, repeatedly tossed the speedsters for losses or only slight gains. Another defense (continued on page three)

Forensic Contest Saturday at Kazoo

Alma College will participate in the first forensic event of the Michigan Intercollegiate Speech League for the 1947-48 season on Saturday, November 15, when 15 members of the Speech Department will travel to Western Michigan College, Kalamazoo for the State Discussion Tournament. The question for debate will be: "What can be done to bring about peaceful relations among the nations of the world?"

Students in the Speech Department who will take part are: Peggy Powers, Flint; Grant Wessel, Saginaw; Dorothy Dugal, Traverse City; Don Turbin, Alma; Bette Adams, Mason; Kathleen Shaw, Detroit; Nan Harden, Saginaw; William McMillan, Detroit; Virginia Smith, Mayville; Guile Graham, Flint; Virginia Haller Milford; Donna Campbell, Sandusky; William Henderson, Hazel Park; William Harsen, Pontiac; Robert Patterson, Orchard Lake; Phyllis Hayward, Detroit; and Jack Szcukowski, Hazel Park.

Members of the faculty who will act as critic judges are: Dr. Lyder Unstad, Economics department; Al Eldersveld and Wesley Rowland, Speech department.

Two rounds of discussion will be held, and participants will be rated on knowledge of the subject, speaking ability, ability to follow the logical process, and cooperation. The first round will be restricted to a discussion of the problem, and the second stage will be devoted to the solution.

EDITORIAL NOTES

The veterans are circulating a petition to gain enough signatures so that it may be presented to the student council at their weekly meeting tonight. The petition asks that the council reconsider their action of October 28, 1947, in which they denied the request of Operations Subsistence, State of Michigan, which organization asked that veteran representatives be sent to a conference in East Lansing, December 13.

One of the campus fraternities gained a place in the state news last week with a portion of its "hell-week" for pledges.

The Scots Cross-Country team will journey to Albion on Thursday to participate in the MIAA Cross-Country meet: Fred Snellenberger, Chuck Williams, Hugh Knapman, Chuck Watson, and Keith Van Duzen. With this meet, cross-country becomes an official varsity sport of the MIAA.

Comments are still drifting back to the campus concerning the swell job done by the Student Council in connection with Homecoming Day festivities.

Another complaint was registered with the Student Council last week concerning cutting in on the chow line. No workable solution has yet been determined, but the council assures the student body that they do have the matter under advisement.

GREEK GAB

PHI-LIP

Oh, boy! Congratulations, and shake, brother. Yes, that is what was heard around the Phi house last Friday night because at last "hell week" was over. Nineteen pledges went through a week they will not forget. Under the direction of Robert Pollock, our rough and ready pledge master, the nineteen men lived through and came out alive with only a few blisters (not on their feet).

Thursday night — The pledges decided to take a series of walks in the country. Stewie Grove, walked ten miles to a city that turned out to be Breckenridge. All he has to say is, and I quote "3%""&??$. After the Friday evening party the boys were welcomed into the fraternity with open arms, the paddles were wiped clean of blood, and pledge master Pollock was thrown into a cold shower by the happy pledges and thus ended another happy and successful "Hell Week." Now we can have peace, quiet, and sane practices until next time. Congratulations are extended to you new brothers. Welcome to the fold....

ZETA SIGMA NEWS

"The quiet that follows the storm" seems to be the atmosphere around our house after the busy days of Homecoming. The men have settled down to real study to make up for the many hours lost preparing for the great day.

This past week Pledge-Master, Van Hardy, finished off the last of the neophytes and we cordially welcome Parviz Khabir as one of us. These past weeks have kept Uncle Van so busy that he has been unable to tutor his math students, but we are told he will be back at his desk next week.

We were very happy to see many of the new students in the house this past week and following Zeta Sigma custom, we extend a cordial invitation to all new students to drop in and make themselves at home.

DELT NEWS

A memorable event took place at the regular meeting of the Delta Gamma Tau Fraternity last Monday night. Franz Gunther Eyck, assistant instructor in history at Alma College this year, became an honorary member of our organization.

Mr. Eyck, who has gained many friends since his arrival here, expressed his gratitude to the group and stated that henceforth, whatever he did or wherever he went, he would consider himself a representative of the fraternity. He concluded by saying that all during his life he had been taught to love three things—liberty, equality, and fraternity!

President Dan Elston presented the membership certificate to Professor Eyck.

Saturday night, Nov. 22, is the time for every financially embarrassed student to pick up some hard, solid cash. For that's the date of the annual Monte Carlo, the Delt's most well-known contribution to campus activities. There'll be dancing, refreshments, and gambling, especially gambling, with no shortage of money in sight. And as usual, the lucky boy and girl holding the highest jackpot at the close of the evening will each receive a grand prize.

Don't forget the Monte Carlo! Saturday, Nov. 22, is the night!

PIONEER PRATTLE

Names around here make us think of various synonyms; for example, Al Kurrasch is now known as "Crack-up," Wynne Crosby as "The Crooner," Jim Redman as the "Indian," Darius as "der-he-is," Paul Kreft, "The Pimento Kid."

FIRE... yep! Pioneer Hall had a fire drill last Thursday night. Everyone thought that someone was having fun with the bell but decided, after many moments of deliberation, that it was on the level. The gang strolled out as if they were going for a leisurely walk.

Gordon Adler made sure that he was noted at the Homecoming football game. His clothes were so loud that they made more noise than the whole student body. He tells us, however, that he has been offered a handsome price for them but will stall off a little longer.

Perry, the Persian, tells us that he is off women for life. No more dates, etc. Just who is he trying to kid!

At the Zeta banquet each guest got up and told when he graduated. When the time came for Farrokh he stood up and said, "I graduate in 1949... I hope!" We all hope too.

Miguel (our boy from South America) strutted around campus with a bow tie that lit up by batteries. Thus far, the men around Pot Palace have offered Mike enough money (combined) to start a store of his own here in Alma. It looks like he is showing us some of the better fashions.

Dale Lawson's grasshopper theory! Cut the legs off a grasshopper, ring a bell, and the insect will not jump. Proving-Grasshoppers hear through their legs. Mark up an A+ for that boy in Biology!

CHAPEL SERVICES

V. Woods, Field Representative for the Presbyterian Board of National Missions in Michigan, will conduct the services. Rev. Woods has his office on the Alma College campus and is well known to many of the student body.

Dr. Irwin J. Lubbers, President of Hope College, Holland, Michigan will be guest speaker for the Thursday, November 20 chapel, while Dr. Dale D. Welch, Alma College president, will conduct the Tuesday, November 25 chapel services.

Other programs to be presented and dates for the services are: Tuesday, Dec. 2, Speech Department, under direction of Mr. Alvin Eldersveld; Thursday, Dec. 4, Rev. Dr. Paul S. Heath, pastor, First Presbyterian Church, Kalamazoo; Tuesday, Dec. 9, Pres. Dale D. Welch; Thursday, Dec. 11, French Dept., Prof. Margaret Foley, chairman; Tuesday, Dec. 16, Rev. H. Grant Mason, pastor, First Presbyterian Church, Grand Haven, Michigan; Thursday, Dec. 18, Rev. Dr. C. B. Hawkins, Executive of the Presbyterian Synod of Michigan, and Synod's National Missions Superintendent.

NEWS OF OTHER CAMPUSES

Russell Sage College, Troy, New York, conducted a population survey recently, with the conclusion reached, that alumnae of college graduates, Russell Sage alumnae included, are failing in one respect—they don't have enough children to replace themselves.

Speaking statistically, according to the survey, the Russell Sage Class of 1922 had an average of 1.31 children, 1937, an average of 1.05 children. The other colleges which took part in the survey reported a similar state of affairs.

Ferris Institute Poses Question Mark in Alma Eleven Grid Future

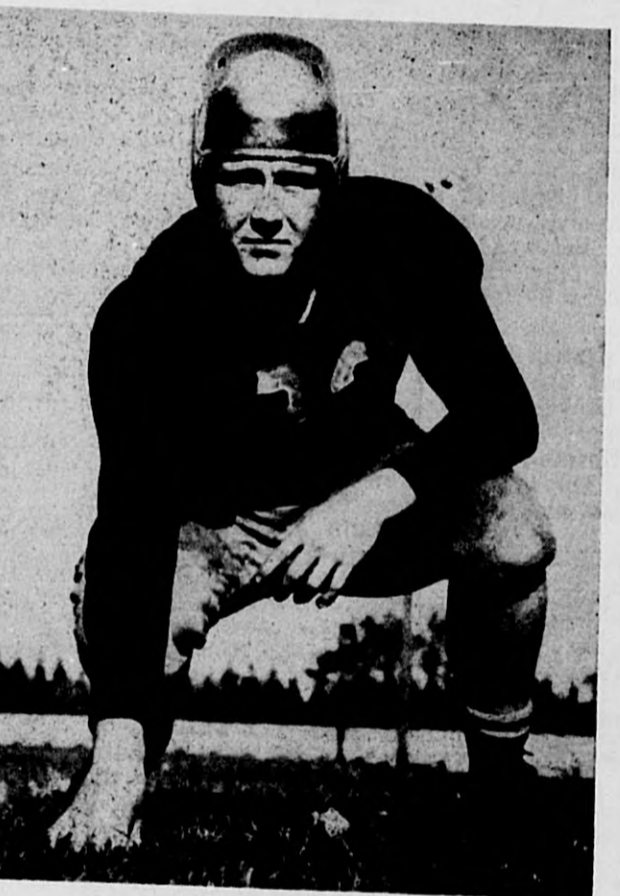

ALMA MIGHT WHICH STOPPED HILLSDALE

Fresh from a 7-7 tie over powerful Hillsdale the Alma Scots are preparing for the season's finale at Big Rapids Friday night against a big, tough Ferris Institute eleven. Long the doormat in Michigan intercollegiate circles the Ferris team has come along rapidly under youthful Bob Sherman, who took over the coaching duties there last year; and this season has compiled a record of five victories and a tie in seven starts. Their most prized victory was a 7-6 edging of Hope in the opener. Hillsdale handed the Shermanites a 26-0 lacing for their lone setback.

The Scots came out of the Dale tussle with several minor mishaps. Stan Hester, plucky little fullback, suffered a badly lacerated nose and may be unable to go Friday. Both regular ends, Fred Fyfe and Roy Gray, are nursing injuries. Fyfe has a pulled muscle and Gray is bothered with some bruised ribs. Neither saw much action last week and will be doubtful starters this week. If Gray and Fyfe are not ready Bill Floore and Joe Thibedeau or Freddie Hayes will be called into action. Floore and Hayes were both outstanding on defense last week.

Merle Cosgrove, hero of the Dale game, has been switched from right half to fullback and will start at that post Friday night.

A victory over Ferris would not only successfully close the year for the Scots but would avenge last season's 14-13 Ferris triumph.

Probable starting line-ups:

Ferris	Position	Alma
Shear	LE	Hayes
Johnson	LT	Derby
Warmington	LG	Corbin
Brown	C	Walters
Hanson	RG	Lieberman
Hildenfberger	RT	Albee
Scott	RE	Floore
Farhat	QB	Martin
Hampton	LH	Roseman
Yeo	RH	Tullis
Skenhrovic	FB	Cosgrove

Hillsdale-Kazoo in on MIAA Crown

For the second straight season, Hillsdale and Kalamazoo share the MIAA football championship. With a seasons total of 3 wins each as against two ties, the co-champions have expressed a willingness to play off the tie, but this is unlikely as post-season games have been frowned on in the past and the idea is not expected to be met favorably by the Judge Advocate, DaGay Ernst.

In the 38 previous seasons Hillsdale has won five and tied for two league titles. The Hornets have won it four times and tied four times.

The week end MIAA contests saw Kalamazoo humble Albion, 32-6, while Hope barely squeezed past an Adrian opponent, 6-0. A lucky break gave the Dutchmen their score, when in the second period an Adrian punt into a strong wind traveled backwards 16 yards. Hope took it on the nine and Bob Emery plunged over for the tally.

Hillsdale was outfought by a determined Alma eleven which fought on though the Dales got the first score. After an Alma score by Merle Cosgrove, and the extra point which was gained by a pass, Dixie Howell to Freddie Hayes, the Scots continued to play aggressive ball, pushing the Dales about. Rex Roseman, regular halfback, along with Chuck Saxton, and Fred Hayes, newcomers to the starting lineup, played good ball throughout the game and deserve much credit. Saxton was pressed into service when number one and two quarterbacks were sidelined due to injuries. Hayes filled in at an end position due to the injury of Fred Fyfe and Roy Gray.

Bob Lieberman, smashing right tackle, was slightly injured in Saturdays tilt, as was Stan Hester, driving fullback. Hester is suffering from a broken nose and is undoubtedly lost for the season. Roseman also injured his hand in the fray against the Dales.

Roseman Rated 7th in Scoring

Rex Roseman, junior, of Grand Rapids, is listed as one of the Individual Scoring Leaders in the state for the fifth consecutive week, an Associated Press release of Monday reveals. Roseman has a total of 42 points gained in seven grid contests.

Five MIAA gridders are included in this list, with Tom Ward, Hillsdale, one of the "Touchdown Twins" heading the column, with 66 points. Bill Young, Hillsdale, the other half of the "Ewins" combo is on the bottom of the list with a total of 36 points.

Complete list is as follows:

Name	TD	PAT	TP
Ward, Hillsdale	11	0	66
Schultz, Adrian	10	0	60
Kaysserian, Detroit	9	0	54
Elliot, Michigan	8	0	48
O'Leary, Detroit	5	15	45

AWARD TROPHIES FOR INTRAMURAL CHAMPS

Intramural touchfootball, volleyball, basketball, and softball champions will be awarded 12 inch figure trophies. The Student Council will also award an All-Sports, 18 inch pedestal trophy, to the campus organization compiling the outstanding record in intramural activities.

New trophies will be presented each year for the individual sports. The All-Sports award will rotate until one organization has won it three times. It then becomes a permanent possession of that organization. These awards will be distributed at the Annual Spring Athletic Banquet.

The intramural committee has hopes of adding ping pong and track to the present program.

SCOTS-DALES

sive hero of the game was Chuck Saxton, who backed up the line. Saxton, making his first start with the varsity, helped bottle up the Hillsdale attack with many vicious tackles and one interception of a pass. Buck Walters and Rex Roseman also came up fast from the secondary to make stop Hillsdale ball carriers.

Roseman was the workhorse of the Alma squad, playing the entire game, and handling the ball on 24 of Alma's 48 plays from scrimmage. The Grand Rapids star, gained to 88 yards in 16 plays, passed four times, and averaged 50 yards on four punts.

Starting line-ups:

G. I. HALL

Perhaps some of you may have noticed the new street sign designating Hogan's Alley. It's the latest style and the envy of the City Planning Commission of Alma. Some people, however, may get the wrong impression of the type of individuals inhabiting our colorful drive. To disprove this, we take you back to November 1, Alma's Homecoming day.

Out of our street there emerged a horseless chariot, extravagantly covered and adorned with the brave colors of maroon and white. But this wasn't what took our breath away and made our pulse beat double time. No, it was the magnificence and the beauty of the "Queen of Skid Row" and her court. Their poise, charm and shining personality overwhelmed us.

As they glided by like beautiful white swans, our mouths popped open and our hearts skipped a beat. "Her majesty," Dukie Smith, waved to us! "Her Highness" was wearing a long flowing skirt of becoming biege and a snug fitting sweater of deep black. A string of pearls (hard to get) encircled her lovely white throat and a crown of blue diamonds (harder yet) adorned her light blonde hair. Around her, like graceful colts, were members of her court. Deanie Ferris was First Lady in Waiting. Walthia Slack was a close second, and Georgian Cicinelli and Cassie Dreyfus tied for third. Each of the girls held a rolled leaf of Solanaceae in their delicate mouths. To emphasize their prudence, on the rear of the chariot was a sign which read, "We don't smoke; we don't chew. We don't go with guys that do."

After re-reading this and recalling that scene, we realize that we haven't given it full justice. We can only say in apology, that words cannot express it. It was out of this world and comparable only to a scene from "Alice in Wonderland."

Wrighteous Whims...

Bang! Crash! In this boisterous way the Phi pledges managed to keep the Wright Hall gals awake last Wednesday night. They even played taps in an inharmonious way, and no one had the slightest trouble telling what time it was, but by then we didn't even care! We're glad it only happens once a semester.

"Shades of Sadie Hawkins!" "Hoe-down down in Dogpatch," were the passwords for the dance Saturday night. First prizes went to "Hairless Joe" Kurash and "Lonesome Polecat" Welte while Terry Katz and Clem Caddiddle-hopper represented by Doug Davey got honorable mentions. We noticed Johnny Anderson and Lois Gieseking, Janie Haller and Jim Colter, Bob Zinn and Vera Parsons, Ralph Appell and Roma Woodworth, Jeanie Craig and Doug King, Barbara Milham and Chuck Jones, Johnny Kimball and Mary Wiltse, Lois McBurney and Jim Hammond, Maggie Bennett and Jim Clevenger.

Did you notice: the bee-yoo-tiful gardenias Jo Hookey, Audrey Kneal, Sue Hoffman, and Marty Butterfield were proudly wearing last week; how Jo Fischer glows when she shows you that ring on her third finger left hand; how Dugie's eyes light up when anyone mentions the words "Michigan" or "Ann Arbor;" the harried looks worn by the members of the Arsenic and Old Lace cast; or Nan Harden's new interest in the Arthur Murray method dancing?

Have you met Jim Cole? For your information, gals, he's that "dreamy" fellow who so capably strokes the ivories in the lounge after chow and plays with the Swinging Scots. He's from Ferrisdale, too!

Theme Song of the Week: "Blues in the Night" burning the midnight oil studying for midterms.

FORENSIC CONTEST

Wendzel, Economist, Upjohn Company, will lead the discussion in the evening, and receive questions from the students. Betty Adams, Grant Wessel and Nan Harden will serve as leaders during the discussion periods.

Colleges taking part in the Discussion Tournament are: Albion, Alma, Hillsdale, Michigan State, Kalamazoo, Western Michigan, Michigan State Normal, Central Michigan, Calvin, Hope, Wayne, Detroit Tech, Adrian, and the University of Detroit.

Did You Know?

That Frank Navarre, '46, is coaching at Roosevelt High School, Inkster, Michigan.

The Junior Varsity football team meets Central Michigan "B" team here at 2:00 P. M. today.

There is a possibility that Olivet will be back on the Scots' football schedule next fall, after a lapse of several years?

Alma High School toppled Jim Hick's, '46, Fremont eleven from the ranks of the unbeaten high school teams in the state, winning 6-0?

Dave Nelson, Hillsdale grid mentor, was a teammate of All-American Tom Harmon at the University of Michigan?

Dud Emling, former Scot athlete, is now equipmentman at Central Michigan College, Mt. Pleasant? Emling was a member of the undefeated 1942 Alma eleven.

Mike Budge, Ithaca halfback, 145 lbs., is the lightest man on the Scot grid roster.

That seniors, Max Tullis, Gayle Saxton, Rocky Walker, and Buck Walters will wind up their college football careers against Ferris stitute at Big Rapids Nov. 15.

Ted Emery, Almanian Editor, is a member of the Scot cross-country team.

Chuck Martin, '50, quarterback, injured in the Grand Rapids J. C. game, is in top physical condition again and is expected to see service in the final game at Big Rapids.

That the majority of football injuries occur while tackling or being tackled.

Glen Moulder, All-MIAA basketball star last winter, is serving as assistant football coach at Hope College. Moulder will be seen in action again this season as he leads a veteran Dutchman aggregation.

The Scots are expected to have six returning lettermen on hand for the opening basketball practice Monday, November 17th. They are: Mike Budge, Rex Roseman, Bill Saxton, Max Tullis, Rocky Walker, and Bruce Brown.

That the Scots have converted but three of thirteen attempts after touchdowns this season.

Bill Lear, Athletic Director at Alma College during the war years, is now Principal of the Stillwell Junior High School here in Alma.

That the Scot Junior Varsity football team will meet Central Michigan "B" here on Armistice Day.

Baseball is once again an official MIAA sport and that every college in the conference will sponsor a team next spring.

COLLEGE DIVISION PRESENTS RECITAL

A recital of the College Division of the Alma College Music Department was heard last Wednesday afternoon, ten students participating. The program was presented at 4:30 p.m., in the College Chapel.

From time to time, these recitals are presented to meet the requirements of the Music Department in certain phases of the work done by that department.

Wednesday's program was as follows:

- PROGRAM
- Eritikon Syogren

Veterans' News

Each veteran in training under the G. I. Bill will receive a notice from Veterans Administration with future subsistence checks advising him not to cash the check if he believes he is not entitled to the full amount of the payment, VA Branch Office officials in Columbus, O., said today.

The notices are designed to help eliminate subsistence allowance overpayments and the necessity for refunds by veterans, VA said.

The notice informs the veteran that, according to VA records, he is still in training. It urges the veteran to contact his nearest VA office before cashing the check if he has stopped training or has any reason to believe the check represents an overpayment of his account.

If the veteran is entitled to a part of the money, VA said it will make every effort to adjust his records and issue another check without delay.
