Alma Students Listed in College "Who's Who"

13 BODIES! WHO'D BELIEVE IT?

Abby and Martha, Charitable Ladies

by Marian Spalsbury

The none-too sane antics of the Brewster family provided a hilarious evening for a near-capacity audience Thursday when the Alma College Drama Club presented the three act comedy, "Arsenic and Old Lace" (Joseph Kesselring) in the Alma High School Auditorium.

The plot concerns two old maid sisters who pride themselves on the Brewster began their homicide elderberry wine, spiked with arsenic, to any visitors who may be alone in the world. Well-known for their charities, Abby and Martha Brewster began their homicide careers when an old gentleman caller died of a heart attack. He looked so peaceful that they thought it would be nice to help others find the same peace.

To date, they have 12 bodies to their credit. All except the latest one have been buried, with due ceremony, in the "Panama Canal Locks," constructed in the basement by their nephew, Teddy, who thinks he's Theodore Roosevelt.

Mortimer Brewster, another nephew, is shocked to find a corpse hidden in the window seat, and after he hears about the other 11, he has little time to spend with his fiancée, Elaine Harper, or on his job as drama critic.

Complications arise when Jonathan Brewster arrives with Dr. Einstein, a plastic surgeon who has remodeled Jonathan's face to resemble Boris Karloff. They have a body to hide from the police, and poor Teddy concludes the yellow fever epidemic has really increased.

Jonathan has 12 victims to his credit, also, and can't bear to think his aunts are equal to him in homicidal ability. He looks for another victim, and Mortimer barely escapes murder.

At the climax, Jonathan is arrested, and Teddy is committed to "Happy Dale" sanitarium. The aunts can't bear to be separated from their beloved nephew, and it doesn't take much to convince the superintendent that they should be allowed to accompany him. Before they leave, they inform Mortimer, much to his and Elaine's relief, that he was adopted and is not a Brewster.

As the curtain goes down, the sisters offer a glass of wine to the asylum superintendent, and "bring happiness" to their 13th victim.

Easily "stealing the show" was Ted Emery, Peekskill, N. Y., as the deluded Teddy Brewster. In his tropical uniform, complete with short pants and sun helmet, he was ready for the canal zone, and his

A CAPPELLA CHOIR HOLDS SUPPER PARTY

The members of the A cappella choir had their first party of the year Tuesday night in the Student Union. Approximately forty attended the supper, played cards, and danced. The Barber Shop Quartet made their debut singing "The Old Songs," "I Love The Silver of her Hair," "Shine on Me," and "Shine". The members of the quartet are John Metheany, Arlan Edgar, Bob Christensen and Phil Daab.

Professor Eugene Grove presented Duane Van Duzen, Joyce Fischer and Wm. Cornwell with choir pins, and Stewart Grove gave his impersonation of "Sir Harry Lauder."

Dr. Welch remarked about the work of the choir. Singing of the Alma Mater concluded the program.

The guests were President and Mrs. Dale D. Welch, Professor Grove, Miss Margaret Vander Hart, Mr. R. E. Rufener, Mr. Glen Stewart, Miss Barbara Bacon and Mrs. Rose Lee Reed.

Orthella Anderson, choir president, was general chairman for the evening; Joyce McKinley, program chairman; Pat Axel, chairman of the food committee; Elmer Coon, in charge of table decorations.

HOPE PRESIDENT TO ADDRESS STUDENTS

Dr. Irwin J. Lubbers, President of Hope College, Holland, Michigan, will conduct the chapel program Thursday morning, November 20, according to an announcement today by Dr. Josiah V. Roth, Dean of Religion.

NOTICE

Veterans are reminded that they must be officially registered in a course to draw books and supplies for that subject. If you drop a course you must return text books or be billed for them.

Six Seniors, Four Juniors Are Honored in Annual Selection

According to an official announcement from the editorial staff of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges for the Year 1947-48", Alma College has placed ten names on the current list. The listing, received by Dr. Paul Rice, Dean of the Faculty, is an annual affair for Alma College.

Each year this school has the opportunity to submit names in nomination for this honor. The method of selection varies from school to school so as to be best adapted to different campus situations. Here at Alma College the Senior and Junior Class members vote for classmates and the nominations are then forwarded through faculty board of review, composed of the President, one of the deans, the registrar, or another official member of the college staff.

Students who have this year been selected for this honor were Helen Patricia Adams, Sterling, Guile Johnston Graham, Flint, Mary Nancy Harden, Saginaw, Gayle Bradley Saxton, East Jordan, Grant Henry Wessel, Saginaw, and Rev. Leroy Wood, Vestaburg, all members of the senior class.

Also, Elizabeth Helen Adams, Mason, Shirley Irene Dittmar, Clawson, Arlen Lee Edgar, Ithaca, and Robert Arthur Dengler, Saginaw, all members of the junior class.

Mary Nancy Harden, Gayle Saxton, and Helen Patricia Adams, were also on the 1946-47 list, so this makes the second year of honor for these three. Under previous rulings, it would not be necessary for them to have been voted on again, but a new ruling this year states that no student holds his rating from year to year unless he is once again voted the honor by his classmates.

The publisher of the book suggests that the basis of consideration be character, scholarship, leadership in extra-curricular activities, potentiality for future usefulness to business and society. Juniors, seniors, and students in advanced work are eligible.

The purpose of the project has been two-fold; first, to serve as an outstanding honor in which a deserving student after displaying merit in college and accomplishing his goals, would be given recognition without having to pay a fee; second, to establish a reference volume of authoritative information on the great body of America's leading college students.

Students Attend Debate Tourney

The eighteenth annual intercollegiate discussion tournament was held at Western Michigan College, Kalamazoo, Saturday, November 15. The tournament question for debate was: "What should be done to insure peaceful relations among the nations of the world."

The discussion was divided into two groups. The first hour was devoted to the problems that exist among the nations today and the second was discussing of suggested solutions of bringing about peaceful relations.

Pianist, Trumpeter, Tenor, to Present Public Recital Mon.

Eugene F. Grove

Barbara Bacon

Robert E. Rufener

The Music Department of Alma College will present Miss Barbara Bacon, pianist, Robert Rufener, trumpeter, and Eugene Grove, tenor, in a faculty recital at 8:30 Monday evening, Nov. 24, in the College Chapel. Mrs. Rose Lee Reed will be the accompanist.

Miss Bacon, instructor in piano, is in charge of the junior and high school divisions of piano instruction at the College. She has a diploma from Julliard School of Music, and a B. M. degree from Syracuse University.

Mr. Rufener, instructor of instrumental music and director of the Kiltie Band, received his B. S. degree from Northeastern Missouri State College, Kirksville, Mo. He did graduate study at Vandercook School of Music, Chicago, Ill.

Professor Grove, head of the Music Department, studied at Illinois Wesleyan University, receiving his B. M. and M. M. degrees. He has had private study with Thomas N. MacBurney, Chicago, and attended the Christiansen Choral School.

Mrs. Reed, instructor in piano, was graduated from Ouachita College, Arkadelphia, Ark., and the American Conservatory of Music, Chicago.

The program will be as follows:

Flares Highlight Band Program

With special flares in the form of a church providing the highlight, the Alma College Kiltie Band, under the direction of R. E. Rufener, presented an entertaining set of Thanksgiving maneuvers before a highly appreciative audience between halves of the Alma-Ferris football game at Big Rapids last Friday night. Bill Cornwell announced each step of the proceedings to the crowd over the public address system.

Following the trumpet fanfare, the band marched to the center of the field where it greeted the Ferris fans by forming "Hi". Then the crossbar of the H changed and the band greeted the Alma fans on the opposite sides of the field.

After parading to the end of the field and countermarching, the Scots changed step and with kilts swinging, they played the march, "Scottie." Resuming step, they paid tribute to Ferris by forming a huge "F" and playing the pharmacy school's fight song.

Coming out of its second countermarch, the band, in commemoration of the approaching Thanksgiving holiday, formed the outline of the church in the middle of the field. After playing the great Bach choral, "Grant Us To Do with Zeal," the band concluded its performance by lighting the flares stuck in the ground. As the floodlights went out, the band walked off the field, leaving the burning flares to symbolize the church.

CHEMIST TO DISCUSS DEVELOPMENTS WED.

Eugene E. Perrin, Director of Speech Activities of Dow Chemical Company, Midland, Michigan, will be the special chapel speaker tomorrow morning at 11. Mr. Perrin will speak on New developments in Dow Chemistry.

The talk will be divided into three parts, Mr. Perrin discussing spectacular developments in the field of magnesium, plastics, and agricultural chemistry.

TRY YOUR LUCK

Delts Monte Carlo Set for Saturday

"Who's going to break the bank at Monte Carlo?"

That question will be answered this Saturday night in the Memorial gymnasium when the Delta Gamma Tau Fraternity presents its most well-known contribution to campus social life, the annual Monte Carlo.

With spinning roulette wheels, rolling dice, and endless amounts of cash filling the atmosphere, gambling should reach a fever pitch at this gala occasion. The games will run for an hour. At the end of that period the lucky boy and girl winning the most money will each be awarded a grand prize. Dancing and plenty of refreshments will add to the festivities.

The Delts in charge of the committees for the Monte Carlo are as follows: Art Miller, money; Charlie Jones, decorations; Jerry Smith, refreshments; Fred Hemmans, advertising; "Tiny" Sempsrott, games.

ZETA SIGMA NEWS

With "bluebooks" taking over in the house, activity was at a low ebb and long hours of study the result. The study sessions that continued, long after hours, were hard on our new snack bar; but our capable chef, Bill Wendt, kept the men going with his cokes and delicious hamburgs. We all owe him a vote of thanks.

President Tullis did take time out, though, to appoint a committee for our open party, December sixth. Bud Wynneparry, chairman, is not ready to disclose details; but from the way Clare Albee, Jerry Breen and Stan Larson are working, it looks like an affair that will highlight the year.

The 1947 football season is over; but to the coaching staff and all members of the Fighting Scots; congratulations for a swell job from all members of Zeta Sigma. We are especially proud of the work of several brothers, including; Coach Sebo, Captain Max Tullis, Rex Roseman, Clare Albee, Bob Lieberman, Rocky Walker and Ken Corbin.

SIGMA PHILO NEWS

The annual Sigma Philo Platter Chatter took place as scheduled Saturday night. Music was furnished by all the name bands, while refreshments were furnished by the Philos. All those who were brave enough to let their studies slide for an evening came over and forgot their exams by dancing to the popular music of the day.

We received our new pledges at the meeting Monday, when all the patronesses were present and we want to welcome the pledges to the sorority.

PHI-LIP

All is quiet in the Phi House this week. The general atmosphere here reminds me of a current song, why the sudden change, why so noisy and then so strange—or words to that effect. Isn't it funny how you let your studies slide for 8 weeks and then try to make it up in one? Yes, the boys are really cracking their books and burning the midnight oil this week. FUN ISN'T IT? It really is terrible how studying interferes with a man's extra curricular activities, but that's life, I suppose.

I have a poem to which I would like to dedicate same. It is entitled:
MID-SEMESTER DAYS

My but we've had fun since we've been up here
With all of our friends and brotherly cheer
But now they're upon us, those dreadful, dark days.
They're here at last and oh how one prays—
That he'll pass all his subjects and be back with Us here for more friendly talk and brotherly cheer.
AMEN.

PIONEER PRATTLE

All the boys in Pioneer Hall want to congratulate the entire cast of "Arsenic and Old Lace" on their acting. It was tops! A few comments: Jim Anderson, "They should be on Broadway"; Bill Barber, "Better than the picture"; Gordon Willoughby, "It was worth more than we paid"; Bob Williams, "I'm making a date now for the next Drama Club production." Dick Wilcox said, "It would be hard to say which actor was the best, for each one did an excellent job. My hat is off to Bob Christenson, though. He is the only one that portrayed a dual part."

Change of address: Don Bricker and Tom Blacklock have moved from Basement "A" to Room 313 in Pot Palace. They decided they would get up a better game of bridge on third floor.

Jim Anderson, on the other hand, likes chess. He goes from room to room inquiring if anyone will play a game with him. It seems that the game has gotten into Jim's blood, for he goes around saying, "Chess a minute, and I'll be with you."

Don Houck was in Biology lab when he was told that there was a government check in his mailbox. All track records were broken that day as Don raced to the Ad Building.

Members of the faculty who acted as critic judges were: Dr. Lyder Unstad, Mr. Al Eldersveld and Prof. Westley Rowland.

A banquet was held in the evening for all the participants. Following the meal was a forum consisting of Otto Yntema, Moderator, Director of Adult Education, Western Michigan College; Rev. Charles Johnson, Lt. Colonel, Army European Theatre; and Dr. Julius Wendzel, Economist, Upjohn Company, leading the discussion. Questions were received from the students.

Those schools participating in the discussions were: Albion, Alma, Hillsdale, Michigan State, Kalamazoo, Western Michigan, Michigan State Normal, Central Michigan, Calvin, Hope, Wayne, Detroit Tech., Adrian, and the U. of Detroit.

Bette Adams, Guile Graham, and Nan Harden served as leaders during the discussion periods.

Rex Roseman, Grand Rapids, and Max Tullis, Charlotte, won berths in the backfield of the second team selected by the Times. Roseman is new in the MIAA circuit, having played at Alma during the war with a Navy V-12 team. Tullis is last year elected to the All-MIAA team in a backfield position, and this year was elected Scots captain by his teammates. He was a member of the 1942 MIAA championship team also.

Dutch for the Physicians

A century ago the Japanese government, which had discouraged the study of the Dutch language, permitted only physicians to learn it. The result was that everyone who wished to learn Dutch professed to be a medical student and 3,000 pupils are said to have passed through the medical school at Osaka in 24 years.

Ferris Tripped in Grid Finale, 7-0 Friday

Cosgrove Plunges for Scots Lone Score: Roseman Makes Extra Point

Alma College gridlers subdued Ferris Institute, 7-0, in the season's finale at snow-covered Big Rapids Friday night. The Scots lone score came midway in the third period when Merle Cosgrove, Petoskey freshman, went over from the one. The touchdown culminated a 47 yard drive. Rex Roseman barged off tackle for the two yards necessary for the extra point.

It was the last game for three Scot stalwarts—Captain Max Tullis, Buck Walters, and Gayle Saxton. All three had played on championship Scot elevens in 1941 or 42, had gone to war, and then last year returned for action on Alma's first post-war team. All three were very important in Alma's triumph Friday. Tullis, completely recovered from bothersome leg injuries, picked up 49 yards in nine attempts, 20 of them on Alma's scoring march. Tullis also intercepted a Ferris pass on the 30 and raced to the 17 as the game ended. Saxton and Walters were both outstanding on defense. Saxton played defensive left tackle while Walters backed up the line in superb fashion. The big Alma senior played the full 60 minutes, making many savage tackles, living up to his title of the "best-line blocker" in Alma history.

The Scots rolled up 14 first downs and a net gain of 244 yards out six fumbles, five of which were recovered by Ferris, halted other Alma scoring bids.

A hard-charging Scot line which permitted Ferris a net gain of just 880 yards co-starred with Walters and Chuck Saxton on defense. Saxton, making his second start, again shone backing up the line. The Ferris backs got thru the line and past the back-ups just once, an 18-yard run by Skendrovic after a fake pass in the second quarter.

It would be impossible to pick the outstanding linemen of the game. The substitutes who did not play the Ferris line: Freddie Hayes and Bill Floore, ends; Clay Albee and Saxton and Derby, tackles; Kenny Corbin and Jim Nesbit and Bob Lieberman, guards, all played stellar ball with Corbin, Hayes, Albee, and Floore doing the most damage to Ferris ball carriers. Floore and Lieberman saw action mostly on offense.

The secondary, consisting of Max Tullis, Roseman, Tullis, and Cosgrove, stopped, completely, the Ferris passing attack, knocking down many aerials and intercepting two others.

The Scots had three first half drives peter out inside the Ferris 20. The first when Reddads held and once on a fumble. But in the third quarter the Scots struck like lightning. After a short Ferris punt went out of bounds on the Alma 47 the Scots tallied in five plays. Tullis swept around end for seven, Cosgrove slipped thru a nice hole for eight more and then galloped off tackle for 14. On the fourth play Tullis dashed to the one and Cosgrove went over untouched for the touchdown.

Alma made two more threats in the final stanza but both drives were halted by fumbles, once on the 22 and again on the 34.

Ferris' best scoring opportunity came at the first play of the game. After the kickoff Roseman fumbled and Scott fell on the ball on the Alma 11. But on the next play Ferris fumbled and Cliff Fossitt recovered for Alma on the 15.

The losers best sustained drive came right after the second half kickoff. Dixie Howell booted to Hansen on the five and he returned on the 27. Led by 213 pound full-back Skendrovic and fast-footed Dick Yeo, Ferris racked up three first downs before being stopped on the Alma 31.

Late in the game, Ferris took to the air but pass interceptions by Bill Floore and Max Tullis ended the threats. Ray Mohre and Merle Cosgrove also made pass interceptions for the Scots.

Cosgrove was Alma's leading ground gainer making 105 yards in 19 tries. Roseman picked up an even 100 yards in 21 plays; 35 yards came on a pass to Joe Thibedeau.

Albion Captures X-Country Crown

With five members in the first eight Albion College had an easy time winning the MIAA cross country crown last Thursday over the three and a half mile Albion course. Dick McDonald, of Albion, led a field of 44 harriers finishing in 18:30.5.

Elwood Larsen, Adrian, copped second place; followed by Clark Jacot, Tom Hagadone, Jerry Trombley, all of Adrian; Chuck Williams, Alma; Bill Smith, Kalamazoo; Tom DeVries, Albion; with Collins of Adrian and Sockrider of Kazoo rounding out the first ten.

Williams, Auburn, N. Y. freshman, paced the Scot team, which took fifth place, finishing the tough grind in 19:25. Fred Snellenberger was a full minute behind, in 23rd position. Other Alma men were Louis Marx, 32th; Chuck Watson, 35th; Jack Knapman, 36th; and Bob Perry, 39th.

Final team totals: Albion 21, Kalamazoo 65, Adrian 81, Hope 88, Alma 132, and Hillsdale 133.

This was the first official MIAA meet since 1932.

Dual Honors Won by Rex Roseman

Rex Roseman, Grand Rapids junior, received dual honors yesterday afternoon when he was voted "Most Valuable Man" and 1948 captain by his grid teammates. Balloting took place at 4 o'clock in the Memorial gym with all members of the 1947 squad participating.

Graduating from Grand Rapids Union High, Rex received a Jennison Scholarship to Michigan State College and he spent the 1942-43 term there, participating in freshmen athletics. In the fall of '43 he entered Alma College as a member of the Navy V-12 unit stationed here.

Football occupied him in the first term at Alma College, Rex playing in the backfield position which he also held down this past season. In the spring of 1944, Rex was a standout performer on the track team.

Following service overseas, where he was stationed on Okinawa, Rex arrived back in the states for his discharge from service which he received in April 1946. He immediately returned to Michigan State, but after one semester, applied for admission into Alma College, re-entering in February of this year.

He became a member of the var-

Winter Wonderland micrht well be the theme song around Wright Hall this week end. With snow and the chill breezes were really in the mood for the Thanksgivinir and Christmas season. Won't be long now!

The Theta's welcomed Janie Gregor back into the fold for the week end. Jane's at State now. and we miss her. Come again soon.

It was a big week end for the Band and Speech department. The band traveled by Greyhound to Ferris for the game Friday and the speech students took off for the discussion tourney to Kazoo early Saturday morning. If any of our Wrihteous Lassies seemed particularly sleepy-eyed, it isn't hard to guess the season.

Knitting is all the rage again in good old Wrihteous Hall. Every-where you turn one of the gals is busily creating with needles and yarn. Carroll MacLeod is proudly displaying a half-finished mitten, her first, and Nan Fullen and Betty Lobenstein are working on sweaters. Sue Brede is frantically trying to finish several pairs of socks before Christmas and Pat Adams is planning to start her first pair of Argyles!

Congratulations to Peggy Powers. Peggy McXaughton and Bev Winters on the fine job they did in "Arsenic and Old Lace." *It was great!

Did you ever try to get ready for a date, in the dark? Well, just ask the gals on fourth deck. They can tell you all about it. Seems someone blew a fuse Friday night, and the fun began! Quite* an experience!

G. I. HALL

Our schedule was interrupted last week. Yes, it was time for the mid-terms exams. Of course, we were expecting this interruption, but it did seem abrupt. Checking with the calendar, however, convinced us that it has been eight weeks since our return. So it was time to knuckle down. I don't mean to imply that we were lax in our studies up to this point, but you know how it is. In our preparation for the exams, we more than paid for our laxity, if we must call it that. A more studious bunch of fellows couldn't be found on this campus. Day and night the books got a thorough workout. Our free hours were from 2:00 a.m. to 7:00 a.m. and were occupied by letter writing and keeping the mattress from floating off the bed.

The pressure began to let up towards the end of the week as evidenced by Chuck Schoenhals, Warren Eilber, Roland Phillips, Don Andrade and Bruce Bower. This quintet after a rugged test of mental capacity in physics, decided to splurge a few hours. This brief interlude consisted of showering and shaving to the tune of "Civilization", music supplied through the courtesy of Warren Eilber's portable radio. The quintet supplied the vocalizing which will forever be remembered.
