RUTH SHAW TO REIGN CAMPUS DAY

Independent Prom Colorful Event

What is so rare as a night in May? Nothing as far as the students of Alma College are concerned as long as it accompanies one of the hit dances of the year, the Pinafore Prom, presented by the Independents.

The Prom this year was held on May 11 in the Chapel "rec" room which was cleverly decorated with flowers and butterflies creating a garden atmosphere. The first thing that everyone noticed as they entered the room was the lighting well trimmed with realistic looking daisies. The girls were dressed with corsages of violets as their guests made their wishes and passed them into the water. A little white picket fence on one side produced the effect of a garden path and at either end were two arbors entirely covered with flowers of all colors. A bird's nest placed in the lattice-work completed a very convincing picture. There was a false ceiling consisting of strips of multi-colored pastel crepe paper which were extended down in order to twine around the noise surrounding the dance floor. Large orange sunflowers also adorned the poles at the top and butterflies and birds flitted on the walls and windows.

The proceeds of this dance will go towards fixing up the recreation room of Wright Hall.

Audience Scared at Mystery Dance

The college chapel had certainly an eerie atmosphere Saturday evening May 3, as the Delta's transformed the Chapel Rec Room into a haunted house. In front of the chapel was an ambulance waiting to receive any unfortunate guests. A corpse, with blood dripping from a dagger, greeted everyone descending the stairs. The candle light and boarded windows added to the mysterious atmosphere created by the weird spider webs. The center of interest was held by the coffin, which, upon closer inspection, was found to contain a human skeleton. The walls were appropriately decorated with striped wallpaper and cobwebs. To add a final touch to the theme, incense was burned throughout the evening.

Strange unearthly voices and the clanking of chains sent shivers up the spine of the dancers. A headless man speaking in deathly tones roamed aimlessly among the guests as they glided over the floor to the recorded strains of strings top-ranking bands.

Chaperones for the evening were Professor and Mrs. Howe, Professor and Mrs. Grove and Mr. and Mrs. Pinson.

It Happened Here

Miss Catherine Jansen of St. Paul, Minnesota, was the guest of Virginia Beer the year and a half ago. Virginia and Catherine worked together for the War Relocation Commission in Los Angeles during 1944.

Miss A. K. Klenke of Elmwood spent several days in Wright Hall last week with her daughter, A. K. Klenke.

Elizabeth Adams spoke in Jackson, North Carolina, at the rally of the Westminster Fellowship group of Lansing, Michigan, in the interest of student aid for Alma College. She also attended the convention of Westminster Fellowship at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor, Michigan, at which she spoke again.

Miss Paul Williams of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Lansing, Michigan, was the guest of Mrs. C. E. Adams at the luncheon given at the home of Mrs. Adams on May 14.

Lear Resigns Job as Coach of Scots

After two years of service as coach and athletic director, Floyd W. Lear is resigning his position at Alma College. Coach Lear, who had been in charge of the school's athletic program since 1943, has decided to leave at the end of the present school year.

Coach Lear assumed his coaching duties in the summer of 1944 following Gordon Macdonald. At that time the U. S. Naval V-12 training unit had been assigned to Alma College. Competition with other units found Alma lacking in number and the athletic teams bowed to superior numbers. Therefore the first part of Lear's record at Alma was far below his high school standard. During the past basketball season, he was able to assemble a civilian team for competition and came up with a fine record.

Mr. Lear has no immediate plans for the future, but he expects to secure a position before too long.

Interesting Programs Heard at Assemblies

Two outstanding chapel programs were presented the past week. The first was given by the Michigan State League was the guest speaker at the chapel period on May 10. She told of the work done by the World Service Fund and of the different ways in which schools in the state are helping the needy. She urged Alma to contribute to this fund.

A clothing collection is being made by the girls for Greek Relief. Plans for a Tag Day are being completed and student organizations on campus are also being asked to contribute.

An informal discussion by faculty members of Symposium of the United Nations was the chapel program for Wednesday, May 8. Professor Rowland of the Speech Department acted as chairman of the meeting. Professor Howe of the History Department discussed the political and historical side of the subject; Professor Unstad, head of the Economics department presented the economic viewpoint; Professor Spencer presented the spiritual side. At the close of the formal presentation, an open discussion was held, giving the audience an opportunity to ask questions.

FRESH ISSUE

Variety of Activities Planned for Campus Day Program May 22

Miss Ruth Shaw, chosen Queen of Scots, will reign over the Campus Day celebration Wednesday, May 22. Her court, consisting of four seniors and four juniors, has also been elected for the great event. The court members include Seniors Helen Collins, Barbara Kemper, Ann Lou Middleton, and Marge Wunderlich, all of Detroit; Juniors Jane Church, Northville; Marion Morgan, Detroit; Jean Patterson, Grosse Pointe; and Elizabeth Whiting, Standish.

Working under the supervision of Social Director Miss Jean Rice and Student Council Social Chairman, Elizabeth Whiting, the Scots have prepared a schedule of activities which will fill the agenda from morning until night.

The day's events will begin at 9:00 a.m. with the boys' ping-pong finals in the Chapel recreation room, under the management of Justin McCarty. At 10:00 a.m. the boys' softball play-off will start on Davis Field and at 11 the girls play their softball finals on the front field by the chapel, for the traditional scotty trophy. A picnic lunch will be served in the grove at noon.

The Queen's coronation will start at 1:30 in the grove. Preceding the crowning, there will be a processional including a daisy chain made up entirely of freshmen girls. Miss Shaw will be crowned by the Student Council president, Ben Clark. Queen of Scots for 1945, Miss Norma Hase, will return to the campus for the ceremony. Following the crowning, the tumblers, the highland fiddlers and the maypole dancers will perform for the Queen and her court. Awards will then be presented to the winning softball teams, boys and girls, and to the ping-pong champ.

With speeches and cheers the Freshmen and Sophomore boys will have their traditional tug-of-war over the Pine River at 3:00. In tradition stands true, the Sophs will pull the Frosh into the river and to be ducked by the Freshmen in return. At 4:00 the choir will present a concert under the direction of Professor Eugene Grove. Back to food again, we will return to Wright Hall for dinner at 4:30. The Frosh and visiting alumni will retire to the Presbyterian church for a stag dinner. Then at midnight, one of the loveliest parts of Campus Day, the all-college sing in the chapel steps. Under the direction of (continued on page two)

New business was introduced by Ronald Taylor, who was one of the Alma College representatives to the State of Michigan-Student Veterans Organization conference at Kalamazoo College on May 4. He reported that there was much discussion on the problem of increased subsistence for the veterans. Budgets were submitted at the conference by all member clubs, and they were consolidated to be sent to the Veterans Administration and to the Congress of the United States.

Ed Finery, the other Alma College representative at the same conference, announced that Ronald Taylor had been elected vice-president of the organization.

The second meeting was held Thursday, May 9. It was decided to have the party in the form of a picnic to be held at Conantown Park in Lansing at May 21. The picnic will be open to all students responsible for arrangements.

Ronald Taylor called for a discussion as to whether the college should support the Michigan congressmen asking for their support for terminal leave, or pay, for enlisted men of the armed forces as is now being done for officers. All present were in full accord with the proposal and Taylor was authorized to draft the message in the club's name.

Justin McCarty spoke concerning the part the Vets Club should have in Campus Day exercises. He was authorized by vote of the club members, to make all arrangements and to call upon any club member for assistance. The veterans will conduct a short memorial service in honor of the eleven former students of Alma College who made the supreme sacrifice during World War II.

ALMA STUDENTS PLACE IN CONTEST AT CALVIN

Alma College contestants won two second places in the State Intercollegiate Reading Contest held at Calvin College, Grand Rapids on Friday, May 3.

Each contest was rated by six judges on the basis of the following scale: 5—superior; 4—very good; 3—above average; 2—average.

Ruth Shaw of Alma was awarded second place in women's prose reading with a point score of 24. The prose reading was taken from the book, "The Egg and I" by Betty MacDonald. Miss Shaw was awarded a book for her efforts. In the men's prose reading contest, Grant Wessel tied for second place and was presented with a copy of the "Autobiography of William Allen White." Mr. Wessel (continued on page two)

WE ACCEPTED THE CHALLENGE...

We, of the Freshman class, have heard the challenge of the Almanian staff and accepted it. This issue of the school paper is our answer.

We have considered it a privilege and an excellent opportunity to express our ideas in a paper published by us, and we seized that opportunity. Contrary to pessimistic beliefs, the response to the editors' appeal for help was tremendous. By participating in reporting and make-up, many of the students showed their desire to make this issue the best Freshman issue ever published.

We, as editors, say "thank you". Thank you to everyone who volunteered to help. Thanks to the students who wrote articles and gathered material. Thanks to the people who managed the business end of the paper and got it ready for delivery to the readers. Thanks to Eddie Edwards and Flossie Lifton for their invaluable advice and guidance.

As a result of our efforts, we hope that the school can say, "Well done, Freshmen!!"

CAMPUS DAY...

Another Alma tradition is about to be observed. Freshmen are going to enjoy this mammoth spectacle for the first time, while upperclassmen will relive past years' experiences. Campus Day! The day when Alma dons her best attire and makes her yearly debut.

It wasn't always this way. Campus Day originated as an all-campus clean-up day with teachers and students alike climbing into old clothes to pick up the paper, rake the lawns, cut the grass, weed the flower gardens, and in general spring house clean. Since this first day, Campus Day has developed into a play day. A day, when instead of working, everyone relaxes and has a good time. A day when champions are proclaimed and a lovely Alma lassie reigns over her small domain. It's the day to show off our college to friends, family, alumni, and prospective students.

To make a successful Campus Day, the enthusiastic cooperation of every student on campus is required. This is a day of fun, lots of fun for all, and whole-hearted student participation is needed, not only in the traditional dances and acts, but also in the cheering sections for the game play-offs and the tug-of-war.

This year, as in the past, Alma is arrayed in all her spring beauty, waiting for the big event, waiting to show everyone how lovely, how friendly, how gay a small campus can be. Our Campus Day will be what we make it. So, students, take it from there. It's all up to us now. Let's all join in and make this Campus Day the best one ever.

sel received a point score of 20 points.

Phyllis Phillips represented Alma in women's poetry and achieved a total point score of 18. Miss Phillips presented "Patterns" by Amy Lowell and "The Fool's Prayer" by Edgar Rowland Sill.

Alma was represented in men's poetry by Charles Kegel. Mr. Kegel had a total point score of 11. Mr. Kegel presented "An Aftermath" an original poem and "Napoleon's Farewell" by Lord Byron.

Miss Charlotte Klein and Professor Westley Rowland accompanied the team and served as judges in the contest.

Married Men and Phi's Top League

The intra-mural softball league has now been increased to five teams, due to the last minute entry of a married man's team. This alters the formerly published schedule and extends the season to June 3. The two leading teams of the league will play an exhibition game on Campus Day, but this will not be the final playoff game. At the present time the Phi's and Married Men are tied for first place.

PHI PHI ALPHA

The Phi's have been making plans for their joint Phi-K.I. semi-formal dance. May 24 is the date which has been chosen for this big event. Dinner and dancing will take place in the Crystal ballroom at the Hotel Bancroft in Saginaw. Fred Ortega's band will play from 8:00 to 12:00.

Plans are also underway for a stag dinner to be given for the Phi's and visiting alumni on Campus Day at the Presbyterian church. Dinner of turkey and the trimmings will be served around six o'clock in the evening.

KAPPA IOTA

Thursday, May 9, the pledge period of misery was ended in the formal initiation ceremony in the Dickie Room. Following this a formal dinner in the dining hall of Wright Hall was served. Yellow roses were presented to the new members: Barbara Milham, Norma Pinkerton, Phyllis Smith and Phyllis Phillips.

Plans are also underway for a the Phi-K.I. formal dinner dance to be held May 24.

The K. I. sorority room has been completely sanded and painting will begin at the beginning of this week. A color scheme has been arranged and drapes are to be purchased to match.

SIGMA PHILO

Plans are now being completed by the sorority for the closed formal dance and breakfast to be held on May 25. This promises to be one of the social highlights on the Sigma Philo calendar.

This week has witnessed the defeat of the Philos in two hard-fought softball games. The first game was lost to the Thetas only after an extra inning of play, and the second was lost to the Independents by a decided margin.

DELTA GAMMA TAU

The Deltas held one of its novel open parties May 3 in the Chapel Rec Room. The theme of the dance was a haunted house. There was even a skeleton in a casket to add to the weird effect.

The Deltas also held a closed party at Conservation Park, April 26. Hot dogs and all the trimmings followed an exciting game of baseball. The group then went to the show.

Plans are now being discussed for the Delt "mass date" and annual formal dinner.

Our first president, Barney Roepcke, was here for the first meeting of the trustees under the new charter.

ALPHA THETA

The Thetas enjoyed a tea, Friday, May 3rd at the home of Mrs. R. L. Waggoner of St. Louis.

The sorority has emerged victorious in two softball games. The girls defeated the Philo's and the K. I.'s in two very exciting games. The deciding game of the tournaments will be played on Campus Day.

Plans are being made for the formal initiation. The banquet will be held in the Wright Hall "rec" room, Tuesday, May 13. At this time all of the pledges will be taken into the sorority as active members and pledging will be over.

A house party is being planned for the week-end beginning Friday, May 31. Mike Rosendale's cottage at Crystal Lake will house the sorority for that week-end.

Sorority pictures were taken Wednesday, May 8, at Stovall's Studio.

ZETA SIGMA

Spurred on by a bad start in softball, the Zetas are now going all out to win. Several new men have been added to the roster and the line-up has been changed. Another week should show a much improved Zeta team.

The semi-formal closed dance put on by the Alpha Theta Sorority and the Zeta Sigma Fraternity was considered a huge success by all who attended. Thirty-five couples enjoyed a delicious meal and danced to the music of Paul Cramer's band in the Gold Room at the Hotel Bancroft in Saginaw.

The plans for opening the Zeta house next fall are going ahead smoothly. Missing furnishings are being located or accounted for. When the house does open next fall, everything should be in tip top condition.

Professor Grove, we will sing old and new favorites.

Topping off a busy day, will be the informal dance in the gym. Our own "Swinging Scots" will play. This will be a real debut for the band on campus, and you'll want to be on hand to see and hear them perform. Recent additions to the original five are Al Goodrich with his trombone, Bill Cornwell and his trumpet, and Hank Osterhout and Ronny Taylor on alto saxes. The original five are Saint Ingham, the "drummer boy"; Chuck Pecor, pianist; Dave Sanborn, bass; Fred Strauss, trumpet; and Matt "Crosby" Ingham, vocalist. Admission to the dance will be .50 with all proceeds going to the band.

All during the day from 10:00 a.m. through 5:00 p.m., Mrs. Roecker will have an art exhibit on display in the administration building.

Committees who have worked so hard to make this day a huge success include: Maypole: Flossie Lifton, chairman; Marion Mattson, Barbara Bunting, Wanda Bigler, Red Anderson, Betty Hartley, Eddie Edwards, Helen Hawkins, Jackie Sevier, Betty June Smith, Pat Atkins and Marilyn Temple. Tumblers: Lois Church, Chairman; Tillie Tobin, Jessie Stover, Jean Messacer, Jan Wilbur, Arva Phillips, Jan Cordes, Pat Adams, Casey Edwards, Kathy Shaw and Shirley Dittmar. Highland Fling, Mike Rosendale, chairman; Suds Fisher, Nan Luther, Helen Gracie and Phyllis Phillips. The daisy chain, Sally Palmer, chairman; Decorations for the Queen's throne, Peggy Powers, chairman; and Tug-of-war, Coach Floyd Lear, Carroll Hyde and Johnny Miller.

Everyone is working to make this a day of days, so plan to forget those books for a little while and turn out for Campus Day.

Combined Paper Staffs Picnic at Conservation Park

Dressed in old jeans and plaid shirts, the joint staffs of the Almanian and the Scotsman rumbled over to Conservation Park, Thursday, May 9 in the school bus for an old-fashioned wienie roast. No sooner had the bus pulled up to a squeaking halt when energetic guys and gals hopped out and chose up sides for a rousing game of softball.

Following the game, hungry pitchers, outfielders and infielders returned to devour Chef Tiny's hot dogs, pork and beans, coke and cookies.

What a day! Tired, but happy and contented, all of the staff returned home with a lot of memories and good story for the next issue of the Almanian.

Pet peeve around Pioneer is those fellows, who, after spending all afternoon and evening with their female friends, rush back to Pioneer and monopolize the telephone calling them.

Almost everyone knows the old high school cheer called "the pep." It seems to me that this is an opportune time for the student body to revive the familiar yell and put a little life back into Alma College.

School spirit has been missing from the student body for quite some time now, and the members of the track and golf teams are beginning to wonder if the school is behind them or not.

Alma has one of the best golf teams this spring that it has had in several years. Paced by the consistently good shooting of Wally Moore, the Scots have rolled to seven consecutive wins. On May 17 and 18 the team will go to Albion to compete in the M. I. A. A. meet. The Scots have an excellent chance of winning this and a little support from the student body would undoubtedly spur them on to greater effort.

Alma has formed a winning track team from inexperienced material. How well the team does in the future remains to be seen, but win or lose, its success depends on our enthusiastic support. Its success in the M. I. A. A. and State intercollegiate meets on May 17 and June 1 is for the most part dependent on our wholehearted backing.

The campus is abundant with promising football talent. Chances for a good football team next fall would be greatly enhanced by spring football training. Warm weather drills would undoubtedly be held if the boys planning to play football next autumn would report to Coach Bill Lear. Whether or not spring training is held depends largely on the enthusiasm shown by those desiring to play the sport.

The best possible way to prove to the track and golf teams that we're behind them is by holding pep meetings. Thursday morning student chapel sessions would be the perfect time to hold these pep meetings. Student chapel assemblies have not been held recently because there were no programs prepared. What could possibly be better student chapel programs than pep meetings?

Come on! Let's start the ball rolling!

College Golfers Take 7 Straight

The Alma College golfers are rolling merrily along this spring, and since the previous issue of this paper they have hung up five more victories to run their victory string to seven straight. They have yet to meet defeat.

On May 2, the Scots journeyed to Kalamazoo where they triumphed over the Hornets, 11 to 1. Alma's quartet of Wally Moore, Cliff Bedford, Chuck Kegel, and Russ LaMore totaled 325 strokes as compared to 334 strokes taken by Kalamazoo. Moore and Bedford were medalists in this match, carding 79 each. Kegel and LaMore shot 81 and 86, respectively.

The Scots returned to the local Pine River Country Club on May 3 and trimmed Grand Rapids Junior College, 9½ to 2½. The winners compiled 331 strokes while Grand Rapids totaled 345. Moore was medalist with 78. Bedford shot 80, and LaMore shot 84. Warren Hartt replaced Chuck Kegel for this match, the latter being away on other college business. Hartt carded an 89.

The Hurons from Michigan Normal were Alma's next victim, bowing to the Scots for the second time this spring by a score of 13½ to 4½. The match was played on May 7 at the Pine River Country Club. Alma's 320 strokes were too much for the Hurons, who compiled 333. Again Wally Moore was medalist, this time with 75. Bedford came in second with 77, LaMore carded an 87, and Kegel returned to action with an 81. Alma defeated the Hurons earlier this spring by a 10½ to 7½ count.

On May 10, Alma continued its winning ways by downing Hope College, 6½ to 5½. The match was played at the Hope Country Club in Holland. The Scots compiled

CAMPUS CUTS

"Strike Three"

313 strokes while the Hollanders totaled 319. Moore with 79, Bedford with 80, Kegel with 76, and LaMore with 78 comprised Alma's total score. Art Timmer, of Hope, was medalist with 75.

Three golfing events remain on Alma's 1946 schedule. They tangle with Grand Rapids J. C. in Grand Rapids on May 13, play a return match with Kalamazoo at the Pine River course on May 15, and compete in the M. I. A. A. meet at Albion on May 17 and 18.

Izadi Brothers in Ping-Pong Final

Darius defeated Ron Taylor, Leon Bonner, and Don Clark to be eligible for the final, while Ferrok disposed of Fred McDonald, Frank Spadafore, John Kimball, and Justin McCarty to qualify for the title match. Three out of five games will determine the winner and prizes will be given to the two finalists.

It's our friends from Persia in the final of the college ping-pong tournament! The Izadi brothers, Darius and Ferrok, have earned the right to meet in the championship table tennis match on Campus Day, May 22, by advancing through three rounds of stiff competition.

Alma Track Team Wallops Adrian

Alma College's track team won its second meet of the season at Davis Field last Friday afternoon by walloping Adrian College, 86 to 45.

The Scots captured 11 firsts to gain their triumph, with Arlan Edgar showing the way by compiling 17½ points. Art Tiexiera totaled 16½ points, Mike Budge garnered 11½ and Steve Nisbet picked up 10 to account for the greatest share of Alma's scoring.

Arlan Edgar placed first in the pole vault and 220-yard low hurdles and gained second in the broad jump and 100-yard dash. Edgar pole-vaulted 10'6" and ran the low hurdles in 27.5.

Steve Nisbet proved his courage and skill as a distance runner by coming through in a thrilling finish to nose out Adrian's Larsen in the mile run. Twice on the last lap Nisbet caught up with Larsen only to fall behind again, before spurting in the stretch to win. Nisbet's winning time was 4:46.9. He also won the two-mile, finishing far ahead of the other contestants. His time on this was 10:50.3.

Tiexiera was tops in two fields, winning the high jump and high hurdles. He easily captured the high jump with a jump of 5'11½", and ran the 100-yard high hurdles, clearing eight flights in 15.0. He gained second in the low hurdles and placed third in the pole vault and broad jump.

Bud Kohler won the broad jump with a leap of 20'6¾"; Mike Budge won the 440-yard dash with a running time of 54.8; Johnny Wilkins won the 880-yard dash in 2:15.2; Frank Navarre grabbed first in the shot put with a throw of 37-13¼"; and Alma won the mile relay in 3:40.6.

Don Shankwiler, with no classes scheduled for Friday, is nevertheless up early that day. Seems that Buzzy has declared every Friday as clean-up day, and Don's job is to sweep and dust.

PHI-LIP:

Any one ipterested in knowing how to win a track meet- see Har- old Smith. He says it can be done by psychology.

Our mansion was in somewhat of an uproar the other night, with us less-fortunates getting some of the boys ready for the Zeta-Theta formal. The boys looking their best were Spadafore, Miller, Bob Smith and Goodrich.

The Queen of the Campus, Mrs. Harwood, apparently suffered little or no indigestion from the five CT;Sl, our talented chefs, (Ralph Wolbers and Bob Smith) prepared for her one night last week.

Smith and McCarthy soundly surprised us when they came back from vacation with brush cuts. Now we're trying to figure out whether they look better or worse.

We wish someone would take that automobile away from Van Duzen. We hardly ever see anything of him any more.

It seems that Mike has forgotten that resolution to study more this semester and leave that woman alone. That taxi keeps pulling up every night.

We're getting to be quite the card sharks around here. Most any time of the day or night, Nesbit's room seems to be the center of attraction, whether Steve is there or not.

Flash! Another new member of the Society of the Green Rocking Chair has met requirements and demands admission into the club.

When we crawled into bed the other night, we darn near stuck our feet through the short sheeted bed. Seeing as how it was a community project, we ganged up on Jack McCarthy and Don Clark (the culprits) and just for good measure pulled Harold Smith out too.
