Student-Faculty Govern College

For the information of the student body a short statement is necessary concerning our Community government. The organization centers in the Co-operative Council which consists of seven members: the President of the College, three members of the faculty chosen by the faculty, the President of the Student Council, and two students selected by the Student Council, only one of whom needs to be a member of the Student Council.

The President of Alma College is the chairman of the Co-operative Council, with the Vice Chairman the President of the Student Council. The secretary is selected by the Co-operative Council from its own members.

The Council has power to legislate on matters concerning the welfare of the whole college community, to recommend legislation to the faculty or to the Student Council on matters which strictly concern only the one group or the other, to veto any action taken by any board or organization of the cooperating community, to rule unconstitutional any provision in the constitution or by-laws of either cooperating group if such provision is inconsistent with the constitution of the cooperative organization, to administer the funds of the organization by distribution among the committees, and to designate committees of the Cooperative College Community composed of an equal number of faculty members and students, with the President of the College as an ex-officio member of each committee.

The committees appointed by the Cooperative Council number seven. Each committee consists of three faculty members selected by the Faculty and three student members selected by the Student Council. The officers of each committee are a faculty chairman selected by the faculty, a student vice chairman selected by the Student Council, and a secretary selected by the committee.

The Cooperative Committees for the year 1946-47 are as follows:

ATHLETICS—Faculty: Coach Sebo, chairman; Professor Clack, Miss Traynor; Students: Pat Adams, Harold Hart, Wally Moore.

SOCIAL LIFE—Faculty: Miss Traynor, chairman; Mrs. King, Mrs. Harwood; Students: Peg Powers, Justin McCarty, Marilyn Temple.

Sebo Announces Intra-Mural Set-Up

Coach Steve Sebo, Director of Athletics and Miss Markine Traynor, Physical Education instructor for the women of the College have set up an extensive intra-mural sports program for the winter months. It is hoped that all members of the student body and faculty will take advantage of the opportunities offered.

To further this program, the Student Council has elected to purchase trophies for the various team champions, both men and women's divisions. The trophies are to be for three years, that is, to keep the trophy, an organization must win it three years although not necessarily three years in a row. An All-Sports trophy will also be awarded, and it will be kept by the team winning it each year.

On Monday night, immediately after the sorority and fraternity meetings have concluded, Coach Sebo and Miss Traynor will supervise a College play-night in the gym from 7:30 to 9:00. Both men and women of the college are invited to participate in the program, full details of which will be given at a later date.

Tuesday nights, starting at 6:00, the intra-mural volleyball teams of the various dormitories will play, this sport continuing until Christmas. After the Christmas vaca-

Youth Fellowship Invites Students

Fun! Fellowship! —Not to mention food on special occasions—are the watchwords of the Alma College Christian Fellowship. Have you seen them in action? Everyone is welcome to join in the worship and discussion periods, not to mention the fun that follows.

On Sunday, November 17, the group traveled to Mt. Pleasant to meet with the Westminster Fellowship group under the direction of Rev. Wanzel Brunelle and their moderator, Pearl Parker. The members of this group are students at Central Michigan College of Christian Education.

The meeting for Sunday, November 24, will be held in the chapel "Rec" room. There will be a special Thanksgiving service conducted by student members of the group, followed by songs, folk games and dancing. How about it?

Fun! Fellowship! See you Sunday night at 7:00 p. m. Let's have a big turn-out.

Phi Barn Dance Sat. Nov. 23

Every organization that has ever used the Gym for a dance has made the remark that it is just like trying to decorate a barn. With this thought in mind, the Phi Phi Alpha Fraternity is going to present a dance in the gym on Saturday night, Nov. 23, at 8:00, setting the gym up as a barn with decorations of cornstalks, hay, lanterns, stalls, etc.

General arrangements for the dance are under the supervision of Mike Budge, social chairman of the Phi. He has appointed the committees, and they are already at work getting things ready for the dance.

Girls are to wear jeans, and the fellows will just wear anything they wish. As the Phi has been unable to locate a person to call square dances, ball-room dancing will be the feature of the evening.

DELTS PRESENT DISC PROGRAM

The whirling discs of wax proved to be a double success of the initiation of the Delt's Thursday night music open house. Not only because of the harmony emitting from both sides of the records, but also because of the added liberty which the girls enjoyed. Selections ranged from Rossini's "Overture" to a steaming rendition of the Benny Goodman Sextet's recording of "Shine". Other selections played were "Carmen", by Bizet, "El Signor" by Bruschino, "Pavane" and "Donkey Serenade" by Morton Gould and Art Tatum Trio's "Boogie".

As was evidenced by the large crowd in attendance and the many expressions of satisfaction at the completion of the program, the Delt's have here a valuable and entertaining addition to their social calendar.

With two of their record players broken down for the past week, it remained for Bruce Butler to save the day by dashing home and getting his own victrola.

Bill Cornwell and Dave Sanborn handled the commentary both before and after each record was played. Faculty members in attendance were Mrs. Irene Harwood, Dr. Alward Brown and Mrs. Thomas Kain.

De Lano Heads Public Relations

Alma College has secured the services of Mr. Fred H. De Lano as director of Public Relations for this institution.

Mr. De Lano, a graduate of the University of Michigan Class of '37, is married and has one son, George, three years old. Until 1944 he was a reporter on the Flint News Advertiser. Then for four years he acted as Sports publicity director at the University of Michigan. Later he was sports writer for the Chicago Tribune. He has been in the publicity field since 1944.

Wednesday, Nov. 20—Extensive speech contest by speech.—Chapel department.

JUNIOR RECITAL WEDNESDAY NIGHT

The music department of Alma College will present Miss Wilma Breu, contralto, in a junior recital on Wednesday evening, November 20, at 8 o'clock in the College chapel.

The accompanist will be Mrs. Jeanne Flegel, Itasca, special student in the music department.

Miss Breu will be assisted by Miss Patricia Miner, flutist, freshman music major from Saginaw. She will be accompanied by Miss Joann Burkholder, Fenton, also a freshman majoring in music.

Friday, November 8, Professor Eugene F. Grove, head of the music department, attended the annual meeting of the Music Directors of the Michigan Church-related Colleges at Hope College in Holland, Michigan.

Tuesday, November 12, Professor Eugene F. Grove attended the meeting of the Michigan Music Teachers' association on the campus of the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor. Professor Grove sang a group of songs at the opening session of the meeting. Mrs. Mae Nelson Stewart accompanied him, and while there she attended a meeting of the Michigan Composers' Club of which she is the secretary.

Professor Grove presented the following program:

- J'ai pleure en reve Hue
- Mandoline Debussy
- The Hills of Gruzia Mednikoff
- The Evening Prayer Moussorgsky

This week is going to be spent learning the third act, and in the following weeks most of the time will be spent in polishing up rough spots. The first two weeks have mostly been spent on character interpretation and figuring out

Co-op Council Requests Budgets

The Cooperative Council met for organization on Tuesday, November 12, 1946, and decided to hold a meeting on Wednesday, November 20th, at 3:00 p. m. in the President's office, to hear official representatives of the various campus organizations who wish to share in the distribution of the Student Activity Fund. It is hoped that each group will be officially represented and will be prepared to present a budget.

Committee chairman are urged to call their committees together for organization at the earliest possible moment to plan for their activities during the college year.

Other committees are hard at work also. Under the supervision of Terry Katz, properties are being located; while Bill McMillan is busily at work on scenery; and Jim Cress is planning and carrying out an advertising campaign. Members of the Drama Club will meet in the near future to discuss the sale of tickets and appoint committee workers.

HELP WANTED

A student newspaper is dependent upon the cooperation of the entire student body. It can be an instrument that represents the students and their interests, or, it can be representative of the views of one person—THE EDITOR.

As each issue of the ALMANIAN appears in the mail boxes Tuesday afternoons, the editorial and sports staffs wait for the comment and criticism. WILL THE CRITICISM BE CONSTRUCTIVE?

For that is what we need if we are going to keep the newspaper an organ of the students. We cannot recognize any criticism unless some plan of action for the future is also suggested.

With no Journalism department set-up in the college, the ALMANIAN has been run as a Student Council function. The Editor and Business Manager are elected each Spring by the student body, in an election run by the Student Council. However, except for those reporters assigned by the sororities and fraternities, no logical solution has been found for the problem of news reporters, copy readers, proof readers, headline writers, and typists. Filling these positions is necessary if we are to continue as a weekly. Those presently working on the staff have done an excellent job. They've put in long hours, missed classes, meals, and sleep—all as volunteers.

So, we appeal to all, give us a break. Don't have the "what can I do" attitude. Come around and see us, we'll decide for you. THANKS!

PHI-LIP

It seems that every time Mike Budge has something to talk about in his capacity of Social Chairman that he is just skipped over during the meetings. When he has nothing to bring up, a special point is made to call upon him for a report.

With the new ruling in effect, all members make a special attempt to attend all meetings.

Glenn Munsel of the Alma Dairy and Professor Alvin Eldersveld have both accepted the Phi bids as honorary members.

The hot water heater has been acting up lately, thus Al Goodrich has been keeping an almost constant vigil to keep it in working order.

Jim Malcolm, Bob Baker, Bob Smith, and Roger Everest are the boys burning the old midnight oil. Those coming in late at night are always sure of finding the above four waiting up for them.

One of the new Phi spent enough time in his room over the week-end to find that there was a floor plug in the room. Will wonders never cease?

DELTA NEWS

Our Music Open House had its first meeting this last week. The music ranged from classical records to a jam session by Red Cornwell, trumpet; Dave Sanborn, bass; and John Metheany piano.

Many of the members of the Delta House have moved their beds down from the attic or the sleeping quarters to their rooms. The general reason is that it is "too" cold at night for sleeping. However, there are still a few eskimos who like it and are sticking it out. Our Varsity room is now in shape, thanks to Bill Lemon, Bud Kohler, and Bruce Butler, who swished the paint brushes around the room last Saturday.

SIGMA PHILO SORORITY

On Saturday night, November 16, the Sigma Philo sorority presented their dance "Platter Chatter" in the chapel recreation room. Many couples and stags turned out to dance to such famous orchestras as Tommy Dorsey, Kay Kyser, Harry James and a host of others.

The recreation room was decorated with musical notes floating around on the walls, windows, and poles. Also, pictures of many of the famous orchestra leaders of the country were displayed around the room.

Refreshments of pop corn and cokes were served throughout the dance.

ALPHA THETA

At sorority meeting Monday night the Alpha Theta's were told what several Greek words in their song meant. Marian Morgan, second critic, told the girls that Alpha Theta stood for knowledge and wisdom, and that they were all daughters of Minerva.

It was decided upon by the sorority last week that the Theta style show is going to be an annual affair.

Sporting pledge pins, the three new gals have been calling the Thetas "Miss" and running errands, etc.

—Bertha Adams Backus

That sounds like good advice to us, especially now that the first wave of exams has come and gone. We have had the tests and their results, the little vacation that everyone takes afterward, and now everyone can set his own pace until the twelfth week rolls around.

We've had many approvals of the idea of a record library or series of recorded music programs, which pleases us. Now if we see action from some quarter, we'll be even more pleased.

Of course Friday afternoon is not the best time for a pep rally, but we should have had a better turnout last week than we did. The yelling seemed to us to be pretty good for the size of the crowd. Then, too, the much-discussed school spirit should be a lot better during basketball season just by the fact that this, the largest student body in the history of Alma, will be more united and will possess more of that "one-ness" which makes life at a small college successful.

We like the new "trumpet yell"—it's just the kind of new yell we needed. Of course it may cause the fans to jitterbug all over the place, but that will keep them warm. Maybe it'll cause Hope's and Kalamazoo's basketball teams to take their minds off the game, and Coach Sebo can give the third and fourth strings a chance to earn their letters.

This reminds us of the boy Johnny Mercer wrote about, who by constantly playing his trombone, was looked upon as very peculiar until the big game came along. Then, with the spirit and excitement created by the unusual musical pattern he made with his horn, he led the teams to victory after victory, and became the hero of the campus! Maybe Red Cornwell, or whoever joins the "cheerleaderettes" in this new "trumpet yell" will become a similar "collegiate pied piper."

And while the team marched to victory,

He played his ole' trombone that peculiar key.

Who was the biggest hero of the game?

"Jamboree Jones" was the gentleman's name.

We'll be seein' you places.

Scots Drop Finale to Ferris 14-13

by Bill Cornwell

The 1946 football season at Alma College ended on a sad note Friday night when a hustling, improved team from Big Rapids defeated the Scots, 14 to 13.

Yes—Ferris Institute, considered a pushover at the start of the season shaded the favored Scots by the margin of an extra point to hand them their fifth setback in seven games and spoil an otherwise lovely evening for the partisan fans.

The visiting lads, coached by Bob Sherman of Michigan State, quickly grabbed the initiative by scoring in the first three minutes of play on a beautifully executed 34 yard forward pass that caught Alma napping. This sudden touchdown thrust put Ferris in the driver's seat and she held the whip hand all the way, although the outcome was in doubt until the final gun.

An Alma fumble following the opening kickoff set up the first tally. Ferris recovered on the Alma 33 yard line. After two running plays lost a yard, halfback Jack Hagan pitched a strike to end Russ Hildensberger, who caught the ball on the five and stepped over unmolested. Hagan converted from placement to give Ferris a 7 to 0 lead.

A sustained march of 42 yards accounted for Alma's first touchdown early in the second period. With Dick Hook, Max Tullis, Jack Temple and Art Teixeira taking turns lugging the pigskin, Alma drove to the one. Then Ferris threatened to hold for downs by throwing the Scots back to the three. But on fourth down Tullis went over right tackle for the score. Temple's kick gailed, leaving Ferris in front, 7 to 6.

The weather and bad luck conspired to prevent the Scots from scoring again before the end of the first half. With five minutes remaining Tullis intercepted a Ferris aerial and returned it to the Alma 36. The Scots proceeded to eat up yardage, reaching the Ferris 23 yard line. Then Teixeira threw a perfect jump pass to Tullis in the end zone. Max got both hands on the ball but his cold fingers refused to hang onto it and it fell harmlessly to the ground. Ferris took possession a moment later on the 19.

There was no further scoring until the fourth quarter when an interception of an Alma forward on the Scots 34 yard line resulted in Ferris' second touchdown. The enemy marched to a score with halfback Art Carney, the spark-plug of the drive, crossing the goal on a 12 yard dash around right end. Hagan again converted to make the score 14-6.

On the ensuing kickoff the Scots marched 65 yards for a touchdown, the longest sustained offensive of the contest by either team. Bruce Butler, playing his last game for Alma College, was the workhorse of this drive, carrying or passing the ball on almost every play. Butler climaxed his sterling performance by hitting pay dirt from the three on a sprint around right end. Temple's kick was good but Alma still trailed by one point, 14-13.

That was all as far as Alma was concerned. The Scots attempted an onside kickoff with 30 seconds left to play but the strategy failed. Two plays later the game ended.

Statistically speaking the game was evenly fought from start to finish. Both teams gained 174 yards rushing and both lost 22. Alma had a 14 to 9 advantage in the first down department and a 60 to 44 edge in yards gained passing. As in other games this season Alma led in total yardage and first downs but not in points made, again demonstrating that you must score touchdowns to win.

Butler, Tullis, Temple and Hook were the backfield stalwarts for Alma, with Hook showing great promise, while Ken Swanson and Gayle Saxton played well in the Alma forward wall. Johnson, 270-pound tackle for Ferris, was the outstanding lineman on the field. End Russ Hildensberger and halfback Art Carney also starred for the winning Ferris eleven.

Those who played their last col-

SCOTS CROSS-COUNTRY CINDERMEN

With Steve Nisbet, Alma's champion long distance runner setting the pace to gain individual honors for himself, the Scots' Cross-Country cindermen journeyed to Alpin College last Saturday to participate in an unofficial M.I.A.A. meet. Team honors went to Adrian College in a wet and muddy run of four miles.

Nisbet, Scots captain, finished first with a time of 21:37.1, twenty eight seconds better than the second place of Honess of Kalamazoo College. Larsen of Adrian finished third, nosing out Snellenberger of Alma almost at the finish line. Larsen's time was 22:18, while Snellenberger was clocked at 22:18.2.

With five places for each team considered for scoring purposes, Alma was represented further by Anderson running sixteenth and Grover running eighteenth, and Bill Dykema, twenty-seventh. Smith and Watson also running for Alma finished thirty-second and thirty-fourth respectively.

Much credit is due Bill Dykema who ran in the race despite the fact that he has been having a great deal of pain from a bad ankle the past two weeks. With one of the regular first five runners leaving the team the day before this meet, Bill volunteered to fill in to keep the team up to strength for this contest.

Saturdays meet was staged to create interest in cross-country as a conference sport. While it has no effect on M.I.A.A. sports standings, the meet was entered by Adrian, Alma, Albion, Kalamazoo and Hillsdale. The M.I.A.A. board meets this week, and C.O.A.A. Sebo of Alma, Mayer of Adrian, and Sprankle of Albion will undoubtedly call for Cross-Country being added to the conference schedule for the next year.

Team scorings for the meet:
Adrian—39
Albion—57
Alma-Kazoo, tie—66
Hillsdale—114½

Wrighteous Whims . .

By PEGGY POWERS
 Thursday night (or should I say Friday morning) all was silent. The only sounds available to human ears were a few faint snores. Then there was a giggle, a rattle and the sound of tip-toeing feet. But late on Friday morning pandemonium broke loose: "Who took my doorknob?" — "Let me out of here." — "Help!" — "Where's the lights." Once again some of our Wrighteous gals decided to play practical jokes—and this time the rest of the dorm bore the brunt.

Isn't our rec room sharp!!! Gee, what a job our fourth floor crew did. They know we thank them as a whole, but why don't you go up to them and say "thanks" personally. And also show your thanks by keeping it nice now that they've worked so hard to get it this way.

A secret and sacred candle-light ceremony was conducted in room 236 last Tuesday P. M. Dressed in her best garb, Mike signed the pledge in blood and swore on her Milton book to uphold it. Seems she is now a member of some secret society—so secret in fact she's the only member so far.

Most popular record of the week: "Gloomy Sunday" owned by Jan Hockette.

Two more of our gals spent last week-end twiddling their thumbs and learning the hard way that late minutes do not pay.

One good thing that resulted from our rec room being closed, is the fact that some folks now realize what a nice place the chapel rec room can be.

Wasn't it nice to come to dinner Wednesday night and find candles, flowers, and soft music? Seemed like old times. We've got Art to thank for it. Let's all start thinking and working on ideas that will make Alma a pleasanter place to live in.

We're wondering why there's such a migration of students homeward each week-end. Last year you couldn't drive us home. No one would have thought of missing a weekend party. What's the answer???

Observation Department: Have you noticed Peg McNaughton dashing into dinner each evening from play practice; Nan Luther beating the fellas at ping pong; the daze Ruthie Schmidt walked around in after Bob left for home; that Arlie Bennett's always ready to lend a helping hand; how much like a morgue Wright is on Friday nights?
