Big Crowd Sees Zeta Float Win

While Indian summer was showing us one of her better days, and friendly greetings were being thrown, the 59th. annual Homecoming parade was presented.

Given a chance to show their stuff, all from Alma College were present to pay tribute to Doctor Leon Tyler. With the sidewalks of Alma packed with alumni, students, and friends, the stage for the Homecoming parade was set.

Leading the band were the majorettes with their fast moving batons and fancy steps. The brightly colored Alma Scot's band paced the tempo of the parade with lively march tunes.

The man of the day, Doctor Leon Tyler, and our new college

Large Crowd at Recital

Monday night the students of Alma College had the privilege of hearing the Music Department of Alma College presentation of Gertruda Fabrizova, pianist, accompanied by Mrs. Mae Nelson Stewart and assisted by Elmer Coon, Violinist. A large crowd turned out for the event. The program consisted of four numbers, two by Miss Fabrizova and two by Mr. Coon; The first number was Bach's Prelude and Fugue in D Minor played by Miss Fabrizova, the second was Sonata in G Minor written by Tartini and played by Elmer Coon. The third number was also played by Mr. Coon it was Bruch's Concerto in G Minor. The concluding number was ably done by Miss Fabrizova, Mozart's Concerto in A Major, K. V. 488. The harbingers were Miss Greta Perry, and Miss Shirley Simpson who also had the pleasure of presenting to her the flowers sent by her patrons. Miss Marie Harper was the page turner for Mrs. Stewart while Marv Jenkins also lent his strong back to help. All hands did a job, especially the musicians, to give us a great evening of classical entertainment.

Queen Joy Honor at Dance

After the astounding victory over Hillsdale college, many students and alumni had enough energy left to flock into the gymnasium and exercise their limbs. The gymnasium was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Low hanging streamers formed a pseudo-ceiling and coherently blended in with the silhouetted walls.

Approximately 270 couples danced to the soft and melodic rhythm of Ken Norris and his Almanians.

The queen and her court received due recognition. They were all dressed very beautifully and comprised a fine court. Joy Emke, the queen, when asked what she thought of the dance, said very simply "It's nice". Jani Bliel in her upperclass language said that the dance was superfluous. Her escort, John Sullivan said from a practical point of view, "The people are bouncing off each other".

Everyone at the dance seemed to have a good time and it was a sterling conclusion to a perfect day.

TEN ALMA STUDENTS LISTED IN WHO'S WHO

Ten Alma College students have been selected for listing in "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges", a national publication. Alma students selected were Janice Bleil, Grosse Pointe; Roland Gohlke, Alpena; Clarence Hoffman, Plymouth; Mary Ann Morris, Saginaw; James Morrison, Alma; Carole Rohlf, Akron; Charles Saxton, East Jordan; Joseph Thibedeau, Newberry; Joann Wilson, Lansing; and Roma Woodworth, Grand Rapids.

The basis for election is character, scholarship, leadership in extra-curricular activities, and potentiality for future usefulness in business and society.

Background Is Cause for E's

Easton, Pa. (I. P.)—Retarded reading and broken homes are among the main causes for students' failures in college, Prof. Frank R. Hunt, dean of students at Lafayette College, says after a three-year study of reasons for failures.

Dean Hunt asserts that too many students arrive at college with inadequate preparation, a limited vocabulary and a general inability to comprehend issues from the printed page. The remedy, he suggests, is smaller classes, more teachers, a more careful selection of those planning to prepare for college and more personal attention to those students.

As for home environment, Prof. Hunt says that the great increase in the divorce rate since World War I has resulted in many students in college from broken homes. The common results of the student's emotional reaction from broken homes is inability to concentrate on the work at hand, the dean holds.

His study has shown that such a student has lost his sense of security, is frequently torn between loyalty to one or both parents, is ill at ease in accepting invitations from friends to visit their homes because he cannot reciprocate, and often feels responsible for the financial support of his mother.

Other reasons for failures include financial factors, inability to work independent of supervision and lack of experience in using the freedom which is found in college life.

Barracks and Six Trailers Get Axe

The closing of one of the barracks and six trailers has put several guys literally out in the cold. It brings to light the deplorable state of men's housing at Alma College. Pioneer Hall, a respectable place since its redecoration, just doesn't have enough room for all of the men.

The cold facts are that only seventy-five men live in Pioneer Hall, about sixty in the three fraternity houses, sixteen in the Lost Weekend and eight in Pioneer Annex. This accounts for about 160 men of the 400 men enrolled in school. Even after a conservative guess that half of the remainder live at home, you find that over 120 men are rooming off the campus. For some it is of their own choice, others because they have no choice.

A new men's dormitory is the only real sensible answer, but the cost of such a building prohibits its construction at the present time. Nevertheless, a new dormitory is a necessity to the school.

president, Doctor S. Nisbet, followed the band.

Placed high in a new Oldsmobile convertible, Joy Emke, our Homecoming Queen, and her court passed by in style.

Moving on to the rhythm of "Swing on with Leon", the Kappa Iota sorority float came into view. Red and white swings were in the center, and the girls took turns swinging on them.

Next in the parade came an official announcement from the Womans Athletic Association which stated, "We hereby officially grant the use of the W. A. A. hockey field to the construction of the Jerry Tyler commons."

The award of the best float was given to the Zeta Sigma fraternity. With "Tippecanoe and Tyler Too", as their slogan, the float presented a man paddling an unsteady canoe.

Plenty of life was added to the scene by having Indian girls lying around the canoe.

The Phi Phi Alpha being up to par, presented a golf course scene. On the float was a young lady about to tee off at a golf ball. Another girl, at the opposite end of the float, was taking the pin. "Tyler Suits Us to a Tee."

Turning to the aspects of the football game with Hillsdale, the Delta Gamma Tau acted out the realistic idea of marooning Hillsdale. The scene presented was one of a sailboat, and its pirate-looking crew sailing away from an island composed of one palm tree. On this island they have left the Hillsdale football team of 1950, with the skeleton of the team of 1948. This took second place.

The Alpha Theta sorority came into view with the slogan, "Hats Off to Tyler." Using black and silver to decorate their large top hat, the Alpha Theta completed their float by scattering white

Letters to Editor

A few weeks ago notice was printed that we would attempt to answer all letters to the editors. We received the following letter last week. Due to Homecoming and (unusual to us) discretion we held it to this week.

We have attempted to answer the questions, but feel that we are not in a position to do so. If anyone thinks they can present any solutions or comments, pro or con, please submit them to the Almanian. Signatures are not necessary.

Dear Mr. Editor:

The Almanian asked for letters. Here is one that is mostly made up of questions. I wonder if someone could answer them.

Where is the 'old College spirit'? Why is it that other colleges have the spirit which binds the whole student body together and Alma has, somewhere in the last couple of years, lost her's? Could it be that the college itself transmits a sense of insecurity to its students?

Why is there such a drop out rate? For instance; The class of '51 started out with about 55 girls, out of the original 55 there are approximately 15 left. Is the same situation prevalent in other colleges of Alma's size?

Has Alma always been a 'suitcase college'? "Why is it that when the week end rolls around practically all students take off with their suitcases for other parts?"

The above letter has us in a quandary. The letter itself is evi-

PHI LIP

That last minute burst of energy a week ago left behind it a painted cellar and tightly secured storm windows plus many dust free corners. It never ceases to amaze me, the number of leaves that can fall from our trees here on Philadelphia street; we are thinking of getting a large fan and blowing them across the street.

By the looks of the walls in the study rooms there are a few art lovers (not to be confused with anatomy students) in the house. Boys will be boys (besides, it adds color).

A last minute news item was just handed to me that states that the rip-roaring Phi Phifers are still undefeated after four games (although those Zetas sure put up a terrific battle in the last "grid tilt" which ended in a tie.)

Soon the boys and girls will be out with their masks on, tricking and treating. Join the crowd, put on a false face and ring a few door bells, it's fun.

Kappa Kapers

Everyone have a wonderful weekend?? I knew the answer before I asked that question! It couldn't have been more perfect—such wonderful weather, all the beautiful floats, winning the game, etc. And so many of the kids from last year were back to see us, plus all the former K.I.'s. Vicki, Peggy, Eileen, Gloria, Beulah, Ann Marr, Ann McKinley—have I missed any? Sure was wonderful seeing them all again. Our banquet was a huge success, and such a delicious meal! And did you see our four K. I. majorettes out on the field strutting their stuff? We're pretty proud of them. All in all, it was a weekend we'll all long remember.

Now everyone has turned over a new leaf—study until Thanksgiving vacation. So we started the week out right by going to a party Monday night. Philo's entertained the Theta's and us at a "Jean Jamboree" in the Philo sorority room. Thanks kids—it was a swell party. Now we really must settle down. Mid-terms will be here before we know it. Horrid thought, isn't it?

We have three new patronesses, of whom we are justly proud. Mrs. Ben Simon, Mrs. Willis Gels-ton, and Mrs. Adolf Roth.

Delta Breeze

Delta Gamma Tau is proud to admit eleven new members to its ranks. The eleven are Ray Banwell, Don Adamson, John Woolson, Monte Corum, Rick Cornell, Tom Alexander, Al Fischer, Bill Falk, Stuart Friesema, Don Aiken, and Sherm Fillmore. We know that these new members will proudly carry on the traditions of the Deltas. We are also privileged to announce the acceptance on an honorary membership by Robert Wheatley.

From the comments we have heard many new friendships were made at the Pledge Party. The pledges after a week of silence revealed in the company of their dates. The skit a "Satire on Smoking" brought out the hidden talents of the natural born actors in our midst.

Homecoming for the Deltas was a great success, the house was literally full of Alumni. Handshaking and talk of old times commonly prevailed during the entire week end. The climax for the Deltas was their annual banquet held this year at Marl-View Inn. Eighty Deltas and their guests gathered around to enjoy a steak dinner and review days gone by.

We hope that everyone enjoyed Homecoming as much as did the Deltas. We wish to extend our heartiest congratulations to the football and cross country teams and their coaches for twin victories which helped to complete a wonderful week.

ZETA SIGMA

"Boys, what we need is a party." Those were the famous last words of Ed Warner.

Now that Homecoming has successfully past, we have reconciled ourselves to the ordinary life at Alma. Bob Dailey is once again awakening in the morning and looking into the mirror saying, "Mirror, mirror on the wall, who is fairest of them all?"

John Harrison beat Bob Fell and Skip Halpin playing golf the other day even though he was putting through his legs. But Fell has John as far as ping pong is concerned. It seems John now owes 101 malts to the lucky Mr. Fell. Bob states he is now ready for all comers. Dick Denny take notice!

Uncle Sam: Doug Davey has a few days left before he and Uncle greet each other. Willy Aldridge and the Cadets are meeting for a physical Monday.

Zeta Homecoming Notes: Besides having all of the boys back for a great banquet we were also honored to have Dr. Tyler as our speaker. And Mr. Woodworth, the interior decorator who renovated Wright Hall lounge, a Zeta of long standing, gave some interesting remarks. Our members were proud of Walt Adams and his committee who gave us the first place float. It was a beauty. We were sorry to hear that Sen. Arthur Vandenburg, honorary Zeta, was not able to make the Homecoming, but his regards for its success were the highest. Acton, Boston, Baumann, Hayes, Proctor, Smith, Garrett and company made a great showing on the football field, didn't they? When Bob Wil-lits, Norm Thomas, Harold Friz-bie and Marv Jenkins raced out of the banquet at 90 per we couldn't figure out what the trouble was. But it seems they were supposed to play for the Homecoming Dance—they were 10 minutes late when they left—that's fraternal spirit for you.

As a closing note we proudly present a list of the ten fellows who successfully passed the trials and tribulations of last week and are now full-fledged members: Rich Garrett, Bill Smith, Ken Kianfar, Marv Jenkins, Harold Friz-bie, Max Hasse, Jim Wallace, Jim Haigh, Jim Pappin and Jim Scott. From now on we are not a bunch of "good Joes", we're a bunch of "good Jims". We're glad to have the boys as new members and they will help to carry out the accomplishments and traditions of Zeta Sigma.

SIGMA PHILO

What a week end! Did you ever see so many people, such a wonderful parade, a more exciting game or more beautiful weather! Sunday was a different story, though, when a group of bedrag-gled Philos trooped out into the country and tore down our beautiful float. Oh, well, Homecoming can't come around once a year and we're sure proud of winning third prize in the parade! Congratulations to the Zetas and the Deltas too.

Monday night at 10:30 brought much hilarity, pandemonium, the Theta's and the K.I.'s into the Philo room. We entertained at an all sorority Halloween party. You should have been June "School Nurse" Towersey and Anne "Cette" Hobart get carried away dramatizing "Little Nell"; Mary Ann Morris and Jo Wilson displaying their talents as first grade music teachers; and even Dean McKinney demonstrated her vocal ability.

What was the color of the day last Wednesday! If you noted the Philos around five o'clock in the p.m. you'd see that it was blue. Everyone was all prettied up for formal pictures taken at Stovalls. The big plans on the agenda now are the formal initiation dinner and the Karnival Kapers dance coming soon. Watch for posters telling the date and time of the dance.

4,000 Watch Scots Subdue Dales, 19-7

Victory Puts Alma in Thick of MIAA Race; Power Displayed

MIAA Standings

Team	W	L	T
Alma	2	0	1
Albion	1	1	1
Hope	0	1	1
Hillsdale	0	2	1
Adrian	0	2	0

The Alma College football and cross-country teams made it a "clean sweep" before 4,000 homecoming fans. The Scots tumbled the favored Dales, 19-7, on the gridiron as the harriers swept the first five places of the cross-country meet to win 15-43.

It was under ideal conditions that the Scots displayed their football wares before a home crowd for the first time this season.

Sparked by the brilliant ball carrying of Mendell Vaughn and Bob Naru, the Scots picked up 200 yards from scrimmage as the Alma defensive unit held the highly-touted attack of Hillsdale to a scant 55 yards.

Alma drew first blood when little Mendell Vaughn went on a beautiful touchdown romp of 64 yards aided by Wayne Clark's key block.

Vaughn looked good all day as he sidestepped and outran the Dale defense several times, while Naru powered his way for impressive gains. It was Vaughn's 27-yard run that carried to the Hillsdale three and set the stage for the third Scot score. Conway scored from the one-foot line.

Alma's second score climaxed a 60-yard touchdown march with Bab Naru scoring from the three. Alex Kish booted the extra point.

Hillsdale's only score can as a result of a blocked punt in the second quarter. Guard Chuck Rohr picked it up on the Alma 20 and raced over to score. Huston converted for the Dales.

Coach Lloyd Eaton's Scots played their best game of the year thus far in both the offensive and defensive departments. Alma handled the ball 93 times with Bob Naru being the workhorse in carrying the ball 27 times and completing a pass for a total of 102 yards.

Mendell Vaughn was the top ground gainer carrying 14 times for 119 yards gained.

The Alma line play was exceptional, with the Scots consistently outplaying a heavier Hillsdale line. It was the united effort of the line and backfield that produced the victory.

It would be impossible to single out any individual as outstanding in the defensive unit. All of them were. Hayes, Boston, Wolcott, Baumann, Derby, Clark, Acton, Kish, Garrett, Westerhof showed the mettle that makes Alma the best defensive team in the conference.

Scot Harriers Overrun Hillsdale 15-43

From the sports viewpoint the 190 addition of Alma's Homecoming festivities was a complete success.

To match the upset victory of Coach Lloyd Eaton's gridiron squad, Alma's cross country team waltzed to an easy triumph over Hillsdale to the tune of 15 to 43. The eager Scots, after losing two conference meets to Adrian and Hope could not be stopped. They swept the first five places to gain the lowest possible score in a cross country meet.

It was a warm, sunny morning last Saturday, October 21, when the gun sounded to begin the race.

Another Yard for the Scots

Struggling for another yard or two in the Homecoming battle with Hillsdale Saturday was Alma College halfback Bob Naru as one Dale clung to his leg and two others converged on him. Naru's power smashes coupled with Mendell Vaughn's shifty speed formed a "one-two punch" that helped knock out the Dales, 19-7.

21 minutes and 55 seconds later Charles Williams, Captain of the Scots, flashed by the tape to take top honors in the grueling 4 mile trek.

Then came Dave Camp and Phil Smith who tied for second and third place. Their time was 23 minutes flat. Seconds behind them was Don Dillon with a time of 23:5. Bob Carney rounded out the first five as he crossed the finishing line with a time of 24:10.

The other two members of the Alma Squad were George Paxton and John Kroblon, who finished 9th and 11th respectively.

Wednesday, October 25, the Scots met Central Michigan in a home meet, and on Saturday, November 4, the harriers travel to Albion for what promises to be their most crucial test of the season. Albion, last year's MIAA champs, are rated tops again this year, but Coach Skinner's boys may have something to say about that. After all, Hillsdale was slated to sweep the MIAA in football, but look what happened last Saturday when they met Alma. Hmmm

Phi Phifer's Lead Football League

After three weeks of rugged competition the Phi Phifers are on top of the Intramural Touch Football League. Their record is 4 wins against 0 defeats.

However they have not met the Gym Crew, who are solidly entrenched in second place with a record of 3 wins and 0 defeats.

The standings as of October 24 are:

Gym Crew	3	0	0
Atomizers	1	1	2
Zetas	1	2	0
Delt Dodgers	0	2	1
Mustangs	0	2	1
Indians	0	2	0

The trouble with girls who look like a million is that they're looking for it too.

Cross-Country Suffers Two Defeats

The Alma Harriers suffered two defeats this week. The first was on Tuesday, October 24, when they travelled to Jackson J. C. in a return engagement. They were minus two of the regulars with the result that they received one of their worst defeats of the season. The score was 20 to 41.

Ernest Staff of Jackson finished first with a time of 16:42, followed closely by Captain Chuck Williams of Alma. His time was 16:45. Don Dillon of the Scots finished in 6th place, Bob Carney, 10th, George Paxton, 11th, and John Kroblon, 12th. Phil Smith and Dave Camp did not make the trip.

Their second defeat was at the hands of the Central Michigan Chips on Wednesday, October 25. In the first meet of the season, Central won a close decision over Coach Charles Skinner's squad, by the score of 27 to 29. The score of their second meeting was 26 to 29, with the Scots again on the losing end.

The feature of this match was Central's Ivan Davis, who finished the race with the brilliant time of 20:42. This is believed to be the fastest time this course has ever been run.

Chuck Williams took second place with a time of 21:28. The other Alma harriers were Dave Camp, who finished 4th, Phil Smith, 5th, Bob Carney, 8th, and George Paxton, 10th.

Ferris Contest Will Mark 'Parents Night'

3,000 Expected for College Eleven's Second Home Game

Saturday night, October 28, has been designated "Parent's Night" at Alma College when the Scot eleven will entertain Ferris Institute gridders.

Parents of Alma College football men will meet on the campus at 6:30 and then have dinner at Updike's before the game.

The kick-off is set for 8 p.m. at Bahlke Field, and if favorable weather prevails, a crowd of more than 3,000 is expected to be on hand for what will be the Scots' second home game of 1950.

Ferris will come to Alma with a record of two wins and two defeats.

Ferris has beaten Sault Tech and Grand Rapids JC, while losing to Michigan Tech and Northern Michigan.

Alma will be seeking its fourth win of the season as against two defeats and one tie.

The Scots, barring overconfidence, should not have too much trouble with the visitors.

Freshman halfback Ken Floerke was injured on the opening kickoff and did not see any action the rest of the afternoon. Preliminary examination showed a head injury.

This victory gives the Scots a crack at the championship, but to accomplish this they must win the remaining two games with Albion and Kalamazoo, the present leader.

flakes around the hat. With their eyes directed toward the afternoon football contest, the freshman presented their cheerleaders surrounded by two teams. Hillsdale was shown as a moaning, sorrowful crew, while Alma remained victorious and full of life.

Reminding everybody that Halloween was near, the Campus Wives decorated their float with corn stacks, pumpkins and the women were dressed up in Halloween outfits. Looking to the future, the campus wives slogan was, "Our Kids Will Haunt the Halls of Tyler in '65'".

The Sigma Phi sorority displayed a top hat in the center of the float, and two girls dressed sharply in black. They stated that, "Tyler Is Tops."

Last, and probably meant to be least was Zeta Sigma's "Homecoming Queen and her Quart."

Adventures of DP Told at IRC

Gertruda Fabrizyova, better known as Trudy, spoke at the first meeting of the International Relations Club which was held in the Dickey Room.

Before the meeting, Trudy played the piano in her usual superb manner, then when everyone had arrived, she told the group of her experiences in occupied Europe.

Trudy was born in Czechoslovakia where she lived in barracks with her parents, as her father was a cavalry officer. She remembers the glorious years when she went with him to the music festivals.

When Trudy was six, her father died leaving her and her brother. She attended school and first took music lessons in a cloister. She told the group of the two distinct types of education where were for manual labor and for the university level. It was the latter that Trudy attended and then taught in Vienna, Austria, where she spent her spare hours studying at the Music Conservatory under August Goellner and Max Ast.

During her residence at Vienna, she learned that her country had been taken by the Germans. The people lived in constant terror. They were not allowed to listen to radios, and were often denied the use of electricity and water. The Jews were persecuted most of all, however. They were forced to register with the government and then could get no work. Finally, they were captured by the police and then never heard of again.

When the Russian, French and American troops regained the stricken land, the soldiers set up stations and proceeded to do relief work. If anyone needed anything, all that was necessary, was to ask the nearest man in the uniform of the United States. Trudy met Rev. A. J. Anthony, a chaplain in the occupation army. She learned that he had been a pastor in Alma. He drove her to the Russian border to get her grandmother and her mother from Communist-held Czechoslovakia. Her forged papers were just enough to convince them that she was a spy, thus she was put into a concentration camp. There she saw brutal killings and bodily injuries, but was spared from this as a friend of her father's recognized her.

Soon, she was released and she returned with her mother to Vienna. At that point in her story, she added, "It soon became evident that freedom-loving people could not live under Communism."

Under Communism, those who were lealers for freedom were put to death, priests were put on government pay and forced to sign a statement to teach Communism. Letters were strictly censored. If spies were lucky, they were asked to leave the country of were unmercilessly killed. One wishing to live had to prove that he was a Communist.

Masaryk, a leader in the opposition of Communism, was killed by the police and the public was told of his suicide.

A displaced person, Trudy went to a neutral country where she waited for two years before she could secure a passport and credentials to travel to America. She received letters from Alma College and church workers. Finally, she was able to come to Alma, and is now studying happily without the threat of being captured at any moment.

The International Relations Club is an excellent organization that binds tighter the friendliness of Alma College. The meetings are held on Thursday evening and a program is being planned that will enliven every session.

Although it is a student participation program, Mr. Stielstra presides at every meeting just to (as he says) abide by college regulations.

A fine program is being planned for the next meeting which will be held on Thursday evening promptly at seven-thirty. All are invited to attend these informal informative meetings.

Admittably, the school needs a new dining room, but below that on the priority list should be new facilities for men. The need is great and the problem will not be solved if forgotten.

- PIONEER PRATTLE -

Art Turner

Another big Homecoming is over, and a grand time was had by all. We certainly take our hats off to the Alma Scots for that great game of football they played last Saturday. The Freshmen are feeling mighty proud these days too, as, of course you all know that they won the Flag Rush, which is a rare occasion. They also claim that they put on the best skit at the Strand that ever was or will be. But remember boys, no celebrating! Shall we agree with them ??? I believe we are all glad hazing is over now maybe we'll get some sleep and work done. Pioneer did look its very best, and anyone who missed seeing it on Saturday, sure did miss something.

Did you ever see miniature soccer?? Well, the other night Maurico Batto de la Riva and Charles Nittis entertained all of us, with an exciting, international game of miniature soccer. Come over some time, admission -- free!!!

I guess that about all the prattle from Pioneer for this time, Oh! I almost forgot Mendell Vaughn has been elected House President for the current semester. One of his big jobs is keeping the cowboys and their guitars under control. Good luck, Mendell. See you next week!

VICTIM'S VOICE
All those who clip out this article and present it to a senate member will receive in exchange six beautiful demerits.

Of course being alert college student you realize that the above sentence is false but it's the only thing you could do to a senator without getting a demerit. At least if you're a girl it is.

Demerits are handed out for coughing during quiet house, speaking above a whisper to a senator and wearing hard-soled shoes in the corridors.

One girl received a demerit for dropping her lab book when her door was open. Another sneezed a little too loudly.

If a Wrighteous lassie has a slow watch, she is fined a demerit a minute. If she forgets to sign in she receives another demerit.

Of course we should be kind to the poor senators—think of all the time, energy, and ink they waste in writing out demerits. Anyway Wright Hall is well governed even if the dorm is half full of girls every week end. Hats off to the senators—may their pens never run dry.
