

A Lenten Meditation

By Jeri Lou Zettle

Signs of the end—the last judgment, the last supper, Jesus in Gethsemane, Jesus led before Caiaphas, the Crucifixion, "He Has Risen". What do these phrases mean to you? These are page guides taken from the book of Matthew. To each of us they should represent the coming of Easter and the Lenten season which we are in the midst of observing.

Is the Lenten season just a time of giving up foods and habits—purifying ourselves? "I'm giving up codes and sweets for Lent," is a common phrase heard often. Is this what true Lent is supposed to mean? "Lent is the period of forty weekdays from Ash Wednesday to Easter, observed in the Christian churches by fasting and penitence to commemorate Jesus' fasting in the wilderness" as quoted from Webster's New World Dictionary. Can the giving up of sweets be compared to the fasting of Jesus? I don't believe so. Honest and sincere meditation should be given to this season and its true meaning. Maybe just an hour or so of concentrated thought would suffice, but enough for each of us to realize the inner significance of Lent and Easter.

What is the inner significance? To me Easter is the time of year when Jesus gave his life for our sins. This is a commonly coined phrase, but it expresses my feelings. Christ died for our sins. For the wrongs that we committed, he suffered on the cross. Do we really realize what this means? Did Jesus die to no avail? To the people of today this event happened a long time ago. Why should our actions reflect on that past event?

Christ is living today in the heart of each one of us. He wants us to remember what happened to him and reflect on it. Around Christmas time one often hears the theme, "Let's put Christ back into Christmas." This expression could be altered slightly to, "Let's put Jesus back into Easter." Forget about the Easter bunny, Easter eggs, and the Easter Parade for a moment and think about the vital principle involved in this event. Jesus died for us. Let us never forget it. I pray that during this Easter season more of us can come to the realization of the true meaning of Lent and the deeper significance of Easter. For "Truly this was a son of God!"—Matthew 27:54.

Journalism, Greek Offered At Fall Term

J-Course To Run Two Semesters

Two semesters of Journalism will be offered beginning with Alma's Fall 1959 term it was announced this week. Also, according to Dean William Boyd, a course in Greek will be resumed at the Fall term and will be offered regularly thereafter.

It has not been determined yet, the Dean said, whether or not the Greek course will be of Classical or Koine content. This will depend, in large part, upon the needs and wishes of students interested in Greek.

In previous years, Alma has offered the Koine (New Testament Greek) by alternating years, giving students the benefit of two years of Greek, sufficient to introduce them to exegesis and to also fulfill their language requirement.

The Koine was offered during 1957-58 in the elementary year. The instructor, Dr. Claude Dicks, left Alma for another teaching position at the end of the Spring term and the planning for the second-year course in Greek was temporarily disrupted.

"Red Shoes" At Tyler Tonight

"Red Shoes," an English movie about life in a ballet company will be shown in Tyler Auditorium, tonight at 8:00 p.m.

According to Life Magazine, one of the outstanding features of the movie is a 14-minute ballet entitled "Red Shoes" adapted from a sad fairy tale by Hans Christian Anderson. In this ballet a mad shoemaker sells a pair of enchanted red slippers to a young girl who is unaware that they are any different from other dancing shoes. She leaves home, so that she might dance in a carnival. At first the girl is happy, but then she finds out that the shoes will not let her stop dancing.

Red-headed Moira Shearer, star of Sadler's Wells Ballet Company of England, is the leading character of "Red Shoes." Robert Helpmann and Leonide Massine will also be seen in the movie.

Tony Believes In German Unity To Promote Peace

Tony Lingl, twenty-year old sophomore, comes from a German family. Until 1949 he lived in Croatia with his parents, John and Pauline Lingl and a younger sister, Theresia. Croatia, which is below Austria, is not a German country, but most of the people are German.

Tony and his family lived the true story of war. Expelled from their home by Tito, they went to Graz in March, 1945. At the end of the war the Lingls tried to return to bomb-torn Croatia, but were informed that anyone crossing the border would be executed or put in a concentration camp. His grandparents died in a concentration camp. The homeless Lingls, from whom all possessions had been confiscated, now went to live on a farm in St. Margareten. Learning that the United States was accepting war refugees, the family applied, and after four years was granted a visa to enter this country. Rel-See TONY BELIEVES Page 3

Beardsley, Singh Top Bradley Oratory Contest

"America's Forgotten Millions" and "We Must Not Be Divided" were both first prize winning oratory topics in the annual Bradley Oratorical Contest held here Wednesday, February 18.

Sharon Beardsley's "America's Forgotten Millions" portrayed migrant workers today, and Prain Singh's "We Must Not Be Divided" dealt with the problem of Anglo-American relations.

Winning first place gave Sharon and Prain the right to enter the State Contest, March 6, at Kalamazoo. Both winners received twenty-five dollars each. Prain is a Trinidad junior, and Sharon is a senior from Lapeer.

Mr. and Mrs. Mickle, of the speech department, coached the orators and David Petryna, Detroit sophomore, was master of ceremonies for the contest. Judges were Kenneth Plaxton, Alma lawyer; Mr. Bernard Didier, minister of the Alma First Presbyterian church and Miss Shatman, teacher of speech, St. Louis high school.

Jackie Strandberg, Detroit sophomore, won second place in the women's division, and Sue Edgar, Detroit junior, placed third. In the men's division, Don Sinclair, Flint senior, placed second, and Paul Kinder, Dearborn junior, won third place. Both second and third place winners received monetary awards of fifteen and ten dollars.

Speakers in the women's division and their orations were Sue Edgar—"The Cult of Commonism"; Judith MacGregor, See ORATORY Page 2

System Being Considered Draft Of Proposed Honor

Effort Climaxes Nearly Two Years of Planning Activity

A rough draft of the proposed honor system for Alma College has been drawn up by a committee with representative members of the Alma Christian Association and the Student Council.

The idea of an honor system resulted from investigation by Barnette Shepherd, who is at present taking part in the Junior Year Abroad program in India.

A.C.A. had further investigated the idea last year. During the fall semester the idea was discussed by a representative committee of campus leaders under the direction of Dr. Jellema. This group, with the help of the Psychology Club, polled student opinion. The reactions were generally favorable.

Presentation of the system was undertaken by A. C. A. as a project and a committee set up this semester. Those on the committee are Dale Lake, Margaret Campbell, JoAnne Stocker, Jeri Zettle, Elizabeth Tanton, Kathryn Hoffer, Dave Patrima, and Dick Jessop. Ed Powers represents the Student Council on the committee, which is aided by Dr. Jellema.

The constitution is patterned after that of the honor system in present use at Knox College in Galesburg, Illinois. Information on this and other honor systems is on file in the library for the use of any interested persons.

The purpose of such a system, according to the committee, would be to cut down on violations of honor and increase the togetherness of the college. It would cover both academic and social affairs including testing, plagiarism, dormitory rules, and college rules.

The operating force being such a system, if accepted, would be an Honor Board of two sophomores, two juniors, two seniors, Dean of Women, Dean of Men, and Dean of the College. Violators would be tried by this Board.

The system if amended and/or accepted by the Student Council will be offered for faculty approval. It is hoped by the committee that the system will be put into active use by next year.

Council Delays Publications Appointments

The Student Council postponed taking any action on the applications for editors and business managers of the Scotsman and Almanian for two weeks. Dr. Myer of the business office was a guest of the council at their meeting last Tuesday and the evening's discussion was centered around the Scotsman, business office, and new constitution.

Kay King To Spend Jr. Yr. Abroad

Kay King, sophomore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth S. King, Algonac, has been chosen to spend her "Junior Year Abroad" for the school year beginning September 1959. Secondary education major of French and English, Miss King will attend the University of Switzerland in Geneva. Sixty per cent of its students come from foreign countries.

The program is an overseas study plan of the United Presbyterian Church of the U.S.A., its purpose among other aims, is to develop in each student a concern for the world and an insight into the life, culture, and problems of another land.

During this current year, the Alma representative is Barnette Shepherd, Alpena, who is studying in Pakistan. Last year, Larry Braak, Grand Haven, was in Pakistan, and the previous year, Lois Wellherry attended school in Tokyo. Kay will be Alma's fourth representative.

To be eligible, students must have a B average, must be deeply committed to the Christian faith, and must be emotionally mature, adaptable to new situations, and have participated in extra-curricular activities on campus.

Kay's father is superintendent of Algonac Community schools and her mother is a teacher.

Maintenance Answers
Icy Walk Complaint

7 MAINTENANCE PUTS UP with a lot of things on Alma's campus, including annoyed calls from the almanian when the electric receptacle won't work. (Pardon our blush- we forgot to flip the switch.)

Inasmuch as the almanian is a newspaper for the ENTIRE campus we see no reason why Pete Weatherby cant be accorded the status of guest editorial writer this week. Editorials tend to become a little dull at times, but Pete's adds a new twist- rhyme. So be it:

Dear Almanian, you've hurt me,
I cry, alas, alack;
The Pot has raised its eyebrows
And calls the Kettle black.

Some folks cry adversity
The moment something's wrong;
Were they the ones responsible They'd sing a different song.

You know we cannot alter
The course of time and tide.
You also know throughout the past
Our walks have been our pride.

In all the years I've been here
I have never seen them thus.
Yet the first time that they're not kept clear
You make an awful fuss.

To all concerned I apologize.
Though it's nor entire our fault
We cant do much about it
When we cannot purchase salt.

I'd like to Ctdl attention
To the folk* who like to talk:
I bine seen yon hy the dozens,
Sisters, brothers, friends and cousins,
Make a pathway where there never was a walk.

So if you fove this institution
And you have an ounce of pride.
Give to me a sound solution
To take the thorn from out your side.

Jones, Edgar Lead Chapel

Chnpel services Friday. February 20 and Monday, February 23 were conducted by William Jones and Mr. Arlan Edgar respectively.

The suprising words "There is no God." quoted from Percy Bysshe Shelley, introduced the thoughts offered by Bill Jones, a senior majoring in chemistry and biology. He compared the views of this English atheist poet with those of most men of science on the idea of God and the Universe. It was noted that our earth would be so greatly changed that life would not be possible if there was a slight defect in any one of a number tu things such as the distance from the sun. The speaker left the audience to draw its own conclusion about the relation between God and our universe.

Mr. Edgar of ihe biology department spoke on humility as an essential Christian grace.
Two views shown in the New Testament of this grace were pointed out. Humility was shown to be both a social and personal virtue. The speaker suggested that applying this principle to college-life, students find it harder to be humble toward equals than anyone else.

A group of 12 Ph.D. candidates from Michigan State University will visit Alma's campus to study the student personnel program "in a small college." They come from all parts of the country and will be here on March 3.

LAST CHANCE

Ever since it was announced that a 12 in. 33 Hi-Fidelity record would be pressed of PLAIN AND FANCY, the musical comedy presented by Alma College Nov. 14, 15, orders for personal copies of this recording have been so voluminous that the initial order has had to be held up in order to include everyone. This is, however, the last chance to order the record. All orders must be in no later than March 6. If you wish a copy send your name and address to RECORD; BOX 48; TYLER CENTER; ALMA COLLEGE. This is a one order deal with the factory, so if you haven't ordered yours in advance, when they arrive you may be out of luck.

History and German major, is a member of the International Club and the German Club. He would like to teach college, and hopes to someday write a book on the decline of the Germans in southeastern Europe. He speaks four languages, German, English, Hungarian, and Croatian. Listening to Classical music, playing the accordion, and reading twentieth century history takes up Tony's spare time.

In comparing Germany and America, Tony finds a vast difference in the school systems. In Germany there are eight years of elementary school. Those who will continue to high school are chosen in the fourth and fifth grades. High school consists of six years, the last two resembling our junior college work. At the end of this work an Abetur is received, which is worth far more than our high school diploma. Those with ability may now enter the university, where the strict control that has been rendered during the previous years is relaxed completely.

Tony remembers his old country well and hopes that the future will bring peace to Germany. He feels that the unification of East and West Germany would be a big step toward achieving this goal.

business manager must be given to Bob Ludtke at the Delta Sigma Phi house before 7 o'clock Tuesday, March 3. Applicants must attend the meeting March 3 and present in person their qualifications and plans they have for improving the publication on which they would like to work. March 10 the applications will be accepted or rejected.

Most of the evening was spent questioning Dr. Myer and the two applicants for the editorship of the Scotsman. Vern Hipwell presented to the council a constitution which his committee has drawn up and it will be used as a starting point from which the council hopes to build a new Alma College Student Council Constitution. The election of representatives and the president were the main points of discussion.

Sally Bay reported plans were nearly complete for the sending of Sharon Duff to the Michigan Intercollegiate Snow Carnival at Marquette. Miss Dillinger will drive Miss Duff and the Queens from Michigan State and Central to the carnival. Miss Duff has decided to use a recording for her accompaniment.

Lou Coecker in his report on the Religious Life and Work Committee said that the four meetings they have held this year have been devoted to Religion and Life Week. The council voted unanimously that announcements should be allowed in Chapel. Student representatives were asked to see what they could do on this matter.

Other reports included those by George Cobb on the current conflicts surrounding the Scotsman, Mike Leonard on the Judicial Committee, Dave Smith on the Handbook Committee, Ken Harter on the Home for Homecoming, and Bill York on the Song Fest.

Defeat Soo Tech 83-78

Alma held off a stubborn Soo team and gained a 83-78 victory in Phillips' Gym Friday, February 20. Tom Villemure and Dan Owerzarak had 35 and 29 points respectively in a losing cause.

Villemure, a short guard with a deadly set shot, was described by many of the fans as the best all around player they had seen this year. It took balanced scoring by the Scots to off set the great two man show. The game was close all the way and kept the fans on the edge of their seats.

Dave Peter's twenty-three points was his best offensive effort of the year and was high for the winners. Ferris Saxton had twenty-one points for the evening and was followed by Bill Klenk with sixteen and Duane Hussey with thirteen.

Any girl interested in writing WAA news for the Almanian should give her name to a member of the Almanian staff or leave it in the office in Old Main.

Scots Collect Best Season Since 1942

In winning their sixteenth victory of the season last Saturday in Phillips' Gym, the Scots had collected more wins than any other team since the 1941-42 season. A second rally enabled Coach Wayne Hintz' cagers to roll to a 94-57 victory over Olivet.

After a relatively slow first half the Scots were leading by only one point 35-34. Before Olivet could score their first basket of the second half, Alma had taken a fourteen point lead. With the fast break working to perfection and good out court shooting the Scots built up a big lead. The usually quiet crowd was aroused by the aggressive play late in the game and the possibility of seeing the Scots score more than a hundred points. Gordon Rehse sparked play in the closing minutes of play as he sank seven consecutive points.

Balanced scoring was a chief feature of the game. Dick Grock of Olivet was high point man for the game with twenty points and eighteen points by "Butch" Cantrell was high for Alma. Duane Hussey, Ferris Saxton, and Bill York each contributed thirteen points. Hussey was five for five from the free throw line.

The Scots have an average 16-8 for the season and are in third place in the MIAA standings with an 8-4 league record.
