FIRE RAZES OLD MAIN

IN THE BEGINNING & THE END

On Monday morning, March 10, just one hour before noon, a fire began in the attic of one of Alma College's earliest landmarks. Just forty five minutes later, Old Main was a smoldering heap of twisted metal, broken glass, and shattered brick.

Students who were attending their ten o'clock classes in Old Main just noticed a billowing of thick smoke about the classroom windows. Then, in an orderly fashion, they fled out of the doomed building.

Next came the frantic attempts of professors and the numerous students who aided them to salvage as much material as possible from the placement and faculty offices. In less than fifteen minutes, students and professors had gathered a heap of file cabinets, typewriters, books, and other valuables before the situation in Old Main became too dangerous for any more salvage attempts.

Total estimates of losses sustained by Alma College and the professors whose offices were in Old Main have not yet been determined. Besides the office equipment and classroom furniture, doctoral theses, priceless and irreplaceable manuscripts and books had been consumed.

The departments of Political Science, History, Speech, Economics, Psychology, and Education are now in temporary exile. Their new locations and new class schedules can be found on the bulletin boards of most living units.

The African Fellowship Committee has chosen Susan Buchan to be the African Fellow at Mayflower School during 1969-70.

APPLICATIONS AVAILABLE FOR UNION BOARD OFFICERS

Next year's Union Board officers will be selected soon. There are five major positions available: Business; Building and Grounds; Major Events; Minor Events; and Special Attractions. A full description of the positions is included in the Scotsman-Union Board Student Directory. Applications may be picked up any time after March 3, 1969, at the Union Board-

Student Council office in the union. They will then be held in the office on or before March 17, 1969. Selections will be made by the present Union Board officers, their advisor, and the Dean of Student Services. Bases for selection will be written application and interviews resultant from the written statements. Board officer positions are paid posts. This is but one of many opportunities available to Alma students for full participation, the demonstration of leadership potentials, and a voice in campus affairs. Any one of the following persons would be happy to answer questions you might have: Tom Heywood, John Plowman, Nancy Cofer, Dot Barta, or Martha Hayden; Jeff Southern, or Dean Plough.

Dear Sirs,

As a critic to... support... I con- sidered last week in the House of Represent- atives... I drafted... the elimination of airline youth fares by the Civil Aeronautics Board... I do not believe the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, cited by SAC Examiner Arthur B. Present as the basis for his decision to end youth fares, was in- tended to prohibit the practice of authorizing half fares for students on a standby basis. The existing youth fare program has been an important factor in keeping it easier for thousands of young peo- ple to attend colleges and universities throughout the country and providing the unique educational experience that travel alone provides.

I hope you and your student body will join me in this effort. If you would help promote a letter-writing cam- paign on your campus, I would be most grate- ful. Just direct your remarks to the Hon- orable Harley Staggers, Chairman of the House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee, asking for prompt con- sideration and enact- ment of H. Con. Res. 144. Your assistance in this cause to pre- serve these essential fare attachments will be greatly appreciated. With kindest regards, I remain,

Sincerely,
Jack McDonald
Member of Congress

Senator Philip A. Hart (D-Mich) will in- troduce Monday a bill to limit the draft system uncertainties to one year of a man's life.

Senator Hart's bill would:

-Create a prime selection group from which draftees would be selected;

-Place in the prime group 17 year-olds, and whose draft deferments have ceased and reser- vants between 20 and 24 who are not now de- ferred and have not been drafted;

-Limit a man's time in the prime selection group to not more than one year;

-Reverse the order for selection of draf- tees, making younger men first;

-Repeal the current provision prohibiting selection of draftees by lottery.

Hart explained that if a man were not selected during the year his name was in the prime selection group, he would be free unless the draft quota could not be met by the prime selection group or a national emergency forced fur- ther consideration.

However, a man's chances of being drafted would be great- ly reduced if he were not called during his time in the prime pool, and would continue to decrease as he got older, Hart said.

...deferred... the prime pool... in the... as their... period.

"By limiting the period of national vul- nerability to the draft to one year, and by drafting younger men first, we can eliminate the years of uncertainty created for draft age men by the current system," Hart said.

The Senator noted that of the 7 million men who become of draft age each year, between 100,000 and 150,000 are selected.

"Those viewed indi- vidual that unless there is a national emergency, draft quotas could be set from the prime selection pool," Hart stated.

His bill also would:

-Permit registrants to be represented by counsel before local draft boards;

-Provide for com- plete civilian control of the selective ser- vice system by prohib- iting members of the armed forces from serv- ing as national or state directors of the system. (Members of the armed forces al- ready are barred from serving on local and appeal boards.)

-Establish a seven- year term for the na- tional director and re- quire Senate approval of each new term;

-Limit national directors over 70 to terms of one year;

Editor's Note: This letter is printed at the request of Dr. Kimball for the infor- mation of the students. Dear Dr. Kimball:

Prior to the start of each academic year, state of Michigan scholarship awards are announced based on anticipated legisla- tive appropriations. Since some students refuse their awards, many awards remain unclaimed and still others withdraw from full- time status, we grant a limited number of additional awards in order to assist as many students as possible.

The instant schol- arship year has not pro- vided the rate of attrition anticipated at the time awards were made. As a re- sult, we do not have at this time suffi- cient funds to grant full payments covering the third term. Each scholarship recipient's third term check will be reduced by $70. Accordingly, a student scheduled to receive $157 will receive $147, and a student scheduled to receive $50 will receive $40. In next- year's receiving third term checks from the Treasury approximately March 15. They will be forwarded to you as soon as possible after that date.

We have reviewed these awards from the Michigan State Board of Education and they can be transferred to your third term schol- arship awards, but this will require a supplemental legisla- tive appropriation. If the Legislature approves this transfer, third term scholarship awards will be reinstated for the full amount during this spring. We would let you know as soon as a final deci- sion is reached as to the availability of supplemental funds.

We are sorry for the delay, and we ask your cooperation in notify- ing third term scholar- ship students of this problem. A supply of notices will be in- cluded with your third term scholarship checks so that each student may receive written notice of this action.

Sincerely,
Arnon C. Hall,
Coordinator
Division of Student

On Sunday, Nov. 10 at 4:30 PM there will be a forum on Community Govern- ment in Dow 100. It is imperative that students interested in a position on an exciting Community Government Committee attend. The Forum will be the time and place to receive an ap- plication and become informed on the situation of the various commit- tees. STATEMENT POWER MEANS YOU!

-Require appointments of registrant appeal agents to be responsible for advising registrants of their rights and providing counsel upon request.

-Create a seven- member commission to study such alternatives to the draft as a volunteer army, a National Youth Corps, and the length of the service must serve.

Commission members would be the Secretaries of Defense, of Health, Education and Welfare, of Labor, a member of the House Armed Services Committee, a member of the Senate Armed Ser- vices Committee and two private citizens.

Hart co-sponsored a draft reform bill intro- duced Tuesday by Senator Edward Kennedy.

"While I strongly support Senator Kennedy's more extensive measure, I believe that my bill contains important reforms and stands a much better chance of prompt enactment," Hart explained.

However, there are several important dif- ferences between the bills," Hart said.

Hart's bill provides:
-More flexibility in how the President may select draftees from the prime selection pool;

-A new voluntary appeal agent who will be available for con- sultation when a draf- tee files reports to the draft board;

-Complete civilian control of the selec- tive service system;

-Recognizes the im- portance of the position of the national director by setting his salary at level III of the Executive Pay Schedule ($40,000);

-Limits local and appeal board members to serving 14 years rather than 24 years.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir,

I will be most grateful to you if you will publish this letter because I know of no other way to let the students of Alma College know how grateful I and my colleagues are for their help during and after the fire that destroyed Old Main. Thanks to this help, a considerable amount of material was saved from the fire and the hardships of the displaced faculty have been materially reduced. Those who think the present generation of students is concerned only with its own selfish goals should have been on the Alma campus Monday. My sole regret is that I cannot thank each student personally.

Sincerely yours,
Frank H. Jackson
Dean of Social Sciences

Ceramics Exhibit at Art Center Thru March

The ceramic works of Jay H. Shurrliff, of Mount Pleasant, will grace the galleries of the Alma Arts and Crafts Center for the month of March. Opening with a preview reception on Saturday evening the eighth of March, this exhibition will continue until the twenty-eighth of the month.

Shurrliff, currently on the faculty of Art at Central Michigan Univ., came from Utah. He was born in the heart of the Rocky Mountains and reared in the influence of his Mormon pioneer heritage. After teaching in Utah for fourteen years, he came to Michigan.

Sculpture, jewelry and ceramics were his field of study and educational preparation. His first love for ceramics grew out of his work towards the M.E.A. degree at the University of Utah. For five years he taught in the unique Pioneer Craft House in Salt Lake City.

To the Editor:

The Sociology Department faculty wishes to thank all of the students and staff who assisted in the evacuation and restoration of materials from our offices on Monday. Your willingness to give time and energy is to be commended. Sometimes it seems to take a crisis to bring out the best in us.

Our regret is that we cannot help our colleagues who lost so many products of their academic endeavors and neither are there adequate words to express to them how we feel. Suffice it to say, we understand and we're sorry.

Eulogy to Old Main

(An Original Creation
by Keith Pohly)

Today a flag was lowered to half-staff, not to mourn the loss of a great man, but rather to mourn the loss of a great symbol.

"Old Main", as her name suggests, was old in years but was kept eternally young by those who inhabited her. To her came scores of thousands of ignorant siblings to be educated. From her went forth the learned youth of each new tomorrow -- ready to step forward into the ever-possible future guided by the ever-evading past, and nurtured by the ever-real present.

"Old Main" was left alone to fight off the evil dog of death. Vainly she withstood the attack of this evil dog, whose tongue of flames licked mercilessly at her face and whose blackened claws indelibly scarred her legs. Alone and soon defenseless, "Old Main" weakened to the savage dog as her frame crumbled to the smoky earth. As if not yet satisfied in his ravaged hunger, the evil dog incessantly licked her broken skeleton with his hot flaming tongue.

With the faith that all men are equally created and, more importantly, that all men have the equal opportunity to expand and keep that endowment, "Old Main" was erected as a temple to worship man's spirit. Now she lies in fallen ruins -- her grave made for her. And with her goes our sinking hearts in somber meditation upon this which she stood for.

Today a flag was lowered to half-staff, not to mourn the loss of a great man, but to mourn the loss of a great symbol.

Next Year's Almanac Positions Open

Applications are now being accepted for staff positions of the Almanac. The staff positions include Editor-in-Chief, Managing Editor, News Editor, Copy Editor, Sports Editor, Circulation Manager, Business Manager and Photography Editor. All applicants must submit their name, class, grade point average, past experiences in newspaper work (not mandatory), reasons why you wish to apply for a position on the Almanac staff, and three faculty references. Applicants may submit their applications to: Tom Thompson, McDuck House; Sue Coleman, Pioneer Hall; Don Lindley, Bruske Hall; or Mr. Miner, Hood Building.

One of Shurrliff's ceramic pigs

"Working in ceramics is more than just an artist's medium of expression. It is a way of life," states Mr. Shurrliff about his dedication to his form of expression. "Clay, a child of mother earth where in all life springs forth, responds to the potters every touch. Clay has little to offer in itself, yet under the touch of the potter's hand and the fire of the kiln, it becomes a thing of beauty, a functional object that will endure throughout the ages. Because of the closeness of the artist to his medium the potter and clay become almost as one. The very spirit flows from the potter to the clay as he works. The pottery, the works of art he produces, have taken on a little part of the artist."

His philosophy can best be understood by viewing his many works at your ALMA ARTS & CRAFTS CENTER, 608 N. State St., Alma. Gallery Hours: Monday through Friday 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tues. and Thurs. evening 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. Saturdays 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. Sundays 1 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Plans for Songfest 1969 Announced

This year's annual Songfest is scheduled for Saturday, April 19 in Tyler Auditorium. This event involves competition by fraternities, sororities, and any independent ensemble wishing to enter. Maximum group size is twenty members. Groups wishing to enter select their own overall group theme, musical selections, and costumes. Judges select winners in the large ensemble area as well as the small group (quartet, etc.) competition. Entry forms are available now from general co-chairmen: Cilla Jenkins, Newberry Hall; and Tom Olson, Bruske Hall. Songfest is by far one of the most colorful events all year, and provides entertainment for one and all. So, if you are musically inclined and wish to perform in this competition, contact Cilla or Tom for full details.

IFS Schedules Spring Flicks

The International Film Series announces its schedule for the spring term: that series will include five works from France, Russia, Japan and the USA.

In addition to these previously announced works, the series offers a bonus program - a W. C. Fields Festival - to be shown on March 31, the evening of registration day for the new term. For this Festival there will be two showings, one at 7:00 in Dow 100 and one at 9:00 in Dow Auditorium.

Coming in the series are these films:

ALL QUIET ON THE WESTERN FRONT (13 April) - a 1930 USA film based on the greatest novel to come out of World War I.

DIMKA (20 April) - a 1964 Russian film about children which provides a unique view of Russian society.

THRONE OF BLOOD (4 May) - a 1957 Japanese version of the Macbeth story.

The following schools, businesses and industries will be having on-campus interviews during the remainder of March and the month of April.

- March 17 - Clarenceville Schools, Farmington
Kearsley Community Schools, Flint
- April 1 - Bridgman Schools
Dow Chemical
- April 2 - Ferndale Schools
Crooked Tree Girl Scout Camp
- April 3 - Detroit Bank and Trust
Central Montcalm Schools, Stanton
- April 8 - State Farm Insurance Company
Army (Tyler)
- April 9 - Auditor General
Howell Schools
New York Life Insurance
Army (Tyler)
- April 10 - Haslett Public Schools
Univ. of Michigan (non-academic personnel)

A NOUS LA LIBERTE (11 May) - a 1931 French comedy treating the problem of happiness as it relates to working hard to succeed.

GOLDEN AGE OF COMEDY (25 May) - a compilation of scenes and sequences from USA comedy routines of the 1923-28 era.

A series ticket for the spring program of five films costs $2.75. That series plus the Fields Festival costs $3.00.

General admission tickets are 75¢ each. That price applies also for general admission to the Fields Festival.

For persons with series tickets good for at least two terms there is no added charge for the bonus program.

Spring series tickets and general admission for the Fields are now on advanced sale at Hood 204. Note that the showing of a Fields film on the evening of the registration day in January drew an overflow crowd. A ticket bought now will assure you a seat on March 31.

Comments and opinion expressed in the Almanian are not necessarily those of Alma College.

Alma College's Kiltie Concert Band will present three evening concerts and five high school assembly programs during its 1969 spring tour March 23-27.

The 60-piece band, in its first year under director Jack W. Bowman, opens its tour with an 8 p.m. concert at Stockbridge High School on Sunday, March 23.

On Monday, March 24, the band will perform at an Eaton Rapids High School assembly at 2 p.m. and will present a concert at the Hillsdale Intermediate School at 8 p.m.

Assembly programs are scheduled for Tuesday, March 25, at Galesburg High School at 10 a.m. and at Niles Brandywine High School at 2 p.m.

On Wednesday, March 26, White Pigeon High School students will hear the band at 10 a.m., and a concert will be presented at Saginaw First Presbyterian Church at 7:30 p.m.

On Thursday, March 27, the band will return to the southwestern section of the state for a 1 p.m. assembly at South Haven High School.

WRESTLERS END SEASON

Alma wrestlers Bob Clowson (145) and Dennis Reutter (152) each took a third place in the first MIAA wrestling tournament held last week in Adrian.

The host Adrian Bulldogs walked off with top honors capturing seven first places, for a total of 111 Tourney points. Albion and Hope trailed with 60 and 56 points each. The tournament victory for Adrian coupled with a perfect 6-0 dual meet record gave Adrian the MIAA championship in the first year of extensive competition.

Delt Sigs Win

Two Championships

The final week of intramural basketball saw the Delt Sigs walk off with two first places. In A League the Delt Sigs clinched the first place spot by defeating Bruske 40-39. Bruske was able to hold on to second place, however, by virtue of a Wright Hall victory over the third place TKEs. The Delt Sigs finished the season with a 9-1 record.

In B League the fourth place TKEs upset the powerful Wright Hall team while the Delt Sigs were beating Mitchell. This combination gave the Delt Sigs the championship and cancelled an anticipated playoff between the Delt Sigs and Wright. Wright took second and Mitchell ended up in third place.

Debate Team Successful

The Alma College Debate Team made another fine show-over the weekend of February 21-22 with an excellent performance at the Michigan Intercollegiate Debate Association tournament at the University of Michigan. The Scots finished with a 6-2 record, good for 3rd place out of 19 teams. Only U. of Detroit and Wayne State finished ahead of Alma. The affirmative team of Waldron and Palmer won 3 out of 4, defeating Wayne State, Adrian and Eastern Michigan. The negative of Matich and Nelsen also won 3 of 4, defeating Calvin, Kellogg Community College, and Wayne State. The double victory over Wayne State was especially gratifying for Alma since Wayne State was the last school in Michigan that the Scots had not beaten. Wendy Waldron was honored as one of the excellent debaters in the tournament as she finished among the top ten debaters out of 76. Alma's overall record now stands at 32-14, and in MIAA competition the Scots are 9-0. On the weekend of February 28-March 1, Alma participated in a two-day tournament at Heidelberg College, Tiffin, Ohio.

HUDSON AND SERGES NAMED TO ALL-MIAA TEAM

A pair of high-scoring seniors that headed Alma College to a second-place finish in the Michigan Inter-collegiate Athletic Association Basketball race this year have been named the Scots' co-most valuable players.

Drake Serges of Flint and Charles Hudson of Detroit, picked by their teammates as co-captains at the start of the season, were also tabbed by them as the top performers for Alma at the end of the campaign.

Serges, a senior, topped the Scots in scoring with 419 points in 22 games for a 19.1 average. He was also the team leader in free throw percentage at 74.6 percent on 91 successful tosses in 122 attempts. From the field he had 164 goals in 362 shots for 45.3 percent.

A product of Flint Central High School, Serges was named to the all tournament teams in the California Western Tournament and the Alma Inaugural Tournament last December.

Hudson, a sophomore, was named co-most valuable for the Scots for the second straight season. Last year he shared the honor with Gordon Harkins. He has piled up 772 points in his two years as an Alma regular and has two more seasons of eligibility left.

Hudson, a former Detroit Western star, led the Scots in rebounding this season with 180 and was just 16 points behind Serges in total scoring with 16. He made 177 of 393 shots from the field for 45.1 percent and 49 of 75 free throw attempts for 65.3 percent.

Alma completed the 1968-69 season with a 14-8 overall record and a 9-3 MIAA mark.

SCOTS TROUNCE OLIVET TO GAIN 2nd PLACE

A fired up Alma Scot basketball team walloped Olivet 101-60 to close out the season and take sole possession of second place in the final MIAA standings.

A driving layup by Pin Lutes with 6:20 left in the first half followed by a John Puzak jump shot opened a nine point lead and Olivet never threatened again. In the second half the Scots pulled steadily ahead until freshman Marty Harkins coolly dropped in two free throws to top the century mark for the Scots. Seniors who saw their last game for Alma included Drake Serges, Jim Lawson, and Alma's only four-year basketball letterman, John Toland.

Drake Serges and John Puzak shared scoring honors for Alma, each netting 18 points, while Charlie Hudson and Jerry Hills pulled down 9 rebounds apiece.

The Scot freshmen ran away with the preliminary game easily defeating Olivet 82-51. Four men saw double figures to lead the attack - Stan Aunaugher 18, Mike Linton 16, Jim Powers 16, and Larry Andrus 15.
